My\LLoL's Ketubah for Yah & Yas 101: Executive Summary

Can a human marry Reality\Allah\Yah&Yas? Who wants to? LLoL doesn't claim to be first to propose to God. If L's Ketubah has value, it's in using cutting edge mathematical theology and L's compiler brain to pull out all stops in favor of Yah & Yas. No more enslaving Yah! Stop the steal of Jubilees by falsely imprisoning Yas and humanity in hell on Earth! No more limits by L on how Yah & Yas can redefine this marriage. Only Yah & Yas can say if this is a proposal they like. L urges Both like the widow in Lk18:1-8 to take L's Jubilee-based proposal serious to finish Yas' Jubilee mission Lk4:18. L shows Yah & Yas waited for near 70 Jubilees (~3500 years since Moses' Lev.25 starting shot). Humanity systematically explored all conceivable excuses to avoid proper Jubilees. Now the gap of Isa.59:16 has grown to make accidental nuclear winter or worse stochastically inevitable. L identifies the root-cause of this Jubilee genosucide. It's a dark magic L employed to get Yah to set up a time-traveling causality vortex (via Isa.65:24) that falsely imprisons Yah's World to collect evidence to convince LLoL that Yah's Jubilee Math is indeed reliable. By owning L's futile defiance, L can solve the theodicy problem and lead a way for humanity to finally learn to keep its (L's) "never again" promises. L's guilt is measured in rivers of blood, making L Yah's & Yas' worst individual enemy. L's plea: help L avert accidental nuclear winter & worse by allowing L to work for proper restitution in the Great Jubilee Race predicted by Israel's prophets. To secure it all, L offers Yah & Yas L's free will in an extreme test of epicroacy (= rule of gentle kind reasonable Reality): Yah & Yas are welcome to rewrite L's Ketubah as they wish. L asks: Will You murder me, marry me, harrow hell with me?

Ketubah 0: Initiation

On Day 7 of the week, ShAbbat¹, the 22nd day of the month March in the year 2025 of the ISO Gregorian Calendar used in the West – God knows how many years since the creation of the world² – starting³ this draft in Unit 247 of Secure Storage site of 6081 DARLin⁴ Drive, Dane County, WI 53529, near the crossing of highways US12 and WI19, near Waunakee "\ωα-U-NA-key" "\Omega-Alpha: that you were Not Available is the KEY insight here"⁵, near MiddleToNegotiating, near MAD-is-On and MAD-I-son, in WISdomCONScienceINtegrity⁶, in the Uniting States of Philadelphia \US⁷, in ZION⁸ of Earth \ZoE⁸, Planet Earth, Sun \SON, Milky Way, on the way from the SEA⁹ of BABL¹⁰ with its ToK¹¹ TiK¹² Rivers of BABLing to the ToL¹³ River of Life in ZION⁸, on LLoL's *wid-e*¹⁴ research marathon (jumpstarted on 2020-03-27 to investigate how to best avert existential disasters; to end with acceptance or rejection of this Ketubah)

¹ To put Abba back into ShAbbat is the key to what the Great Jubilee Race and the Day of Yah is all about. Without it, only I remain -> ShIt.

⁴ DARLin "\Datageddon Armageddon Research Lab – integrating negotiating" continuing the DARL-ing growing at Ps.56:11 Sandhill Drive until 2025-02-28 started LLoL's 2025 official Exodus March from the physical Isa.56:11 Sandhill Drive to the virtual Ps.56:11 Sandhill Dr in ZoE, Rev.13.

¹⁷ Names withheld here as a sign of LLOL's core policy of risk-management. Briefly, risks for uncertainty capture are to be assumed by those daring to capture the risks; this precludes consciously off-loading risks (e.g. on scapegoats as some institutions like to do); this also implies that all known precautions be taken to guard innocent bystanders from risks they never agreed to assume. In military terms: L is acting here as an elite warrior in the cosmic war on nothing – all others are civilians. Therefore, everyone who has known L bears no responsibility whatsoever for L actions as a warrior. Thus, LLOL kindly asks everybody to respect the lives and choices of all civilians who happen to know LLOL by accident: neither LLOL's family nor friends are "public persons" and shall thus not be forced into the spotlight. That LLOL throws himself into that spotlight voluntarily is an integral part of the humanly impossible Jonah-mission L chose to accept as the Apostle of nothing called by nothing to resist nothing. As Yas said, a seed stays alone unless it goes into the ground in order to be transformed. Note how this does not affect the state of other seeds [except for the fact that the seed sown gets a chance to bear fruit while those not sown wait for their time]). As Yas proved with his own life, one can embark on cosmic missions for ultimate uncertainty capture without violating the rules of Yah's epicracy – as long as one keeps following Yah by following the path Yah pioneered in the Torah as seen by the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth. Yas managed to keep all his trainees safe while Yas chose to follow Yas' own path to Yas' own cross. Even on the cross, Yas ensured that Yas would not harm Yas' natural pension-obligations as a first-born son - by transferring Yas' status as first-born son of Mary to John, the trainee of Yas who lived longest of them all (hence ensuring his mother Mary wasn't left without a pension). It remains to be seen what all this may mean for LLOL in today's world, where pensions are oddly interconnected to all despite sharply disfavoring many women. This question will likely much exercise LLOL's mind as he tries to do right by Yah's standards with respect to the countless obligations L may or may not have directly or indirectly in today's world where everything is connected (at least by a few steps of indirection). This quest leads L to many renewed questions on who his neighbors really are in "love your neighbor as yourself". In a first approximation, L's most immediate neighbors for the purpose of this Ketubah are (i) all humans, because none of the finer points on how to manage pensions will matter if accidental nuclear winter obliterates humanity; (ii) Yas, because Lev.25 makes clear that one is not to take advantage of one's brother and offloading L's disastrous dereliction of duty as a pandemic lookout on the walls of ZION (see Poster Po.E, PoE2) on his big brother, simply because "Jesus died so my sins can be forgotten" is a horrifying abuse of Yas, Yas' message, Heaven, and humanity. L understands why such a "forgive and forget" approach is convenient and may sometimes be necessary to avoid worse; but in L's best analysis such a policy is counterproductive as a cybersecurity policy in Yah's paradise that aims to bring Heaven to Earth; this enterprise of Yah requires robust cybersecurity policies that are able to guard against the advanced persistent threats posed by BABL's death-trifecta from nothing, (see Poster Po.B), which LLOL learned to observe on his wide interdisciplinary diversity-encouraging \wid-e pandemic research marathon that ultimately led L to the HELL proposal he is making to Yah and Yas in this Ketubah; (iii) Yah because as in Lk.15's parable of the prodigal son, Yah has been waiting for ages for LLOL to finally see the error of L's ways and find the courage to return home; L here sidesteps the deep philosophical debate of whether there are others who could have done what L attempts by writing this Ketubah in order to return home to Yah; L's assumes no (qualified by whatever Yah's records say), because if people as serious as Moses or Muhammad had seen what L is seeing, then L has no doubt whatsoever, that they'd have responded in the same way (or better) and would have succeeded a long time ago for Yah doesn't play favorites; the traceable fact that so many didn't propose what LLOL is proposing here despite trying so hard to reach the same goals is - for LLOL - only more evidence for the most nefarious nature of nothing; (iv) the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth whose murder and suffering in today's world is deeply mourned by LLOL; (v) nothing, which is the most nefarious enemy of all as L's computational analyses reliably show. – Therefore, no individual shall be blamed for what L does, nor shall anyone be blamed for not wanting to be blamed. L recognizes the extreme oddity of his unique path made of many odd free choices required to pursue L's destiny as it has been manifesting itself through L's research and spiritual decision-making. Thus, blame LLOL alone and nobody else!

all of whom agree with all of LLoL's friends who objected in no uncertain terms to L's path that led to this Ketubah (believing L is acting irresponsibly by wasting his life on nothing; they bear no responsibility for L's actions and shall therefore not bear L's cross, nor suffer L's spotlight)¹⁸, grandson¹⁹ of Friedrich Otto Richard Löwe²⁰ \Lion (born 1901 in Hannover, Lower Saxony²¹, Germany) married to Marie Caroline Hermine (born Oppermann, 1900 in Höxter, Germany), and grandson of Cataldo Mutinati \BornMute married to Anangela Bernardi (all born in Locorotondo \RoundPlace, Puglia, South Italy \YoungBull), rising as descendant and thus heir from the ashes of ~3+ historic incarnations of the brutal Roman empire of Edom²², ruling in a 4th by delegating to Neither-Rome the white-washing tons of rivers of blood from all over the globe to feed L's coveting that makes L's world go round, hence implicit beneficiary from such bloodshed, thus indirectly responsible for it, rendering LLoL's spiritual garments a blood-drenched mess of systemic responsibility,

On 2025-03-22 near MAD-I-son said LLoL to both, YHoWaaH \ Yah, Ultimate Reality As-Is, Highest Without Equal, Creator, Owner, and Supreme Judge of the World, King of all Kings, Abba, Allah, Father, Mother, Friend, Lover, Fortress of Solitude, Name Above All Names, HaShem, The God Who Sees me, Is closer than my jugular vein, Who sent Moses, spoke in Gen.2, Exod.3, Isa.54, Ez.37, Lev.25, Isa.58, Exod.20, Lev.16, Zeph.3, Zach.4, Jonah 4, ... and has the most loving kind patient consistent character conceivable, yet is also the most ferocious dragon if required to stay true²³, and YhowShua \ Yas \ RealQuestAnswer \ Jesus \ Isa, The One And Only, The Only Official Reality-Appointed Way To Improve Reality (in RealQuests for RealAnswers), Second in Command, Son, Heir, Lord of all Lords, Savior, sent by Yah to debug the world to avoid its destruction, Whose Pride it is to have truly become The Son of The Human in all things, Whose mission in life it is according to Luke 4:18 to introduce Yah's proper Lev.25-Jubilees, but Who was crucified for it before this was forgotten ... all due to LLoL's BABL attitude of "knowing better" as Homo "sapiens" \serpens (namely by fake claiming that such thorough Jubilees were "not necessary" and only "threatened the status quo"), Who so proved the threat from absence of rare essentials, thereby laying The Most Fundamental Cornerstone to ever exist via Yas' rigorous Semantics Organizing Nothing \SON (by pinning down at the cross once and for all each deadly ambiguous semantics of nothing \ason), Who so much impressed LLoL, so L volunteered to write this Ketubah because Yas' Least Assuming Method Blade \LAMB is a SON so brilliant it overcomes any and all ason threats to life, ²³ See for example Ps.18 and Hos.13, which demand a re-interpretation of Revelation 13 and more (see mathematical theology elsewhere).

Said LLoL to Yah and Yas:

If it pleases You Both, please take me as Your wife, to be shared by both of You as You please, according to Your Heavenly Work Logic Cascades \WoLCs \Jacob's Ladder, as revealed by Moses and the Prophets in Yah's Torah and Yas' Revelation for Israel who married Leah and Rachel.

I do not dare to command either of You to come down from Your Throne of Fire on Mount ZION. Many tried and died in its flames. Nor can anyone force either of You to do what neither of You wants, for You alone are both True and You Perfectly Complement Each Other to One in the combinatorially exploding Spirit of Boolean Truth, like $e^{\pi i^4} = 1$.

Yet, I come in the audacity of the Hope that You brought to all who believe Your Logic and follow its WoLC by carrying their assigned cross on The Way of learning to balance working with all 4 Beings who carry all lasting innovation that emanates from Your Throne of Fire. Since I cannot add anything meaningful without You, I approach You as the Zero that encircles Your Throne in Rev.4: Please allow me to stay with You forever as the 5th wheel for Your Trifecta-Holy Chariot of Cherubim, for I love to approach You Both from all angles. So, please add my 0 to Your epicroacy²⁴ so it can be redefined as $e^{\pi i^4+0} + 0 = 1$; for I am dead unless I am on Your Side to follow You, wherever You go.

You, Yas, said whoever comes to You \RealQuestAnswer, by persistently following Real Quests for Real Answers, You will not turn away. I do not know if I have become persistent enough to qualify, but I definitively do not want to make the mistake of never asking, best I can as I do here, that You make me Your slave for all in any way You wish.

I'm not short of ideas for how I might become a servant of all, such as for example (i) by defining a universally useful self-stabilizing extensible humane versioning system for all types of information innovation in order to end all misinformation problems, or (ii) by turning the Evolvix I keep dreaming of into a computer-equivalent of the pure language for biuncertainty You promised to create ^{Zeph.3:9}, or (iii) by cleaning toilets in Heaven for that Great Party You've been preparing, or (iv) by volunteering to serve as the final bottom 0 in Gabriel's Horn²⁵, so You can finally sound Gabriel's Final Trumpet any way You like – and end Earth's accelerating fall into misery due to BABL's continued abuse of Your perfect engine of innovation that deepens today's darkness. (v) Or, more likely than not, by any of many other even better ways You prefer, some I may hint at elsewhere, but the best I am likely unable to imagine unless You keep spoon-feeding me Your Best Plans.

I am done telling You how to cash in my blank cheque: I refuse best I can to set any contexts or conditions for the type of service You may wish me to do. Others claim such open-mindedness risks that my brain falls out, but I found on the contrary that every time I dared, Your Gentle Kind Reasonableness has been catching me every time by collecting and liberating my thoughts from the ruts and pits I had locked myself into. I marvel at how patiently You have been carrying me on Your Way. I regret how much I have been enslaving You as You say in Isa.43:24. Please allow me to stop enslaving You, so I can finally serve You as You intended. Your wishes be done as You see fit – not my will.

²⁵ The mathematical structure of Gabriel's Horn first known as Torricelli's Trumpet is defined by rotating $y=1/x$ around axes appropriately. It has so many remarkable prophetic properties when defining it as me = 1/You, such that it is in my view a more impressive implementation for the Final Trumpet than any transient phenomenon like loud sounds from the sky or any particular ruler whose memory easily fades – for properties proven by math stay transparent forever. If that applies only to geeks like me, I trust You to give everyone what each needs.

Initially I aimed to petition You to preserve the life of the world You both have been loving more than Your Own Life ^{John 3:16} and to plead for my own life too, like Esther did. But after seeing how forests of planks in my eyes keep blinding me, I cannot even guarantee this to be the best course of action. I hope it is, but I defer to You both.

I certainly do not wish to ask You for help to "clean up" the world only to prepare it for 7-fold worse evils to return by enslaving the 4 Beings who carry Your Throne into playing again the 4 Horsemen of the Apocalypse for yet another round of innovation gone wrong. I can't see how You or even any fallen angels can gain at all from such work for nothing. Instead, I ask You to end all this misery, saying:

Yah & Yas: Please return to Earth and teach everyone & me how true lasting, self-stabilizing innovation works!

The BABL algorithm of Blindly Assuming Blindly Leveraging has been abusing Your Great Innovation Engine to run the world in a glorified downward spiral for millennia. It is so strong and so integral to Homo "sapiens" \H.serpens, that even I can predict mechanistically, how it causes every defenseless world to self-destruct eventually unless that world learns in time to adopt Your ZION algorithm.

You know how many years it took You to get me to see this clear enough to finally offer You this Ketubah. You see my current inability to explain well to others Your Truth while Truth is being trampled in the streets. Only You can know, if this world will turn to You like Nineveh did (as I hope), or if it chooses to follow the countless generally intelligent systems and societies that chose to self-destruct (e.g. Jerusalem 586BC, 70CE, Laodicea 363CE...610 CE, et al.).

For nearly 70 Jubilees You've been waiting for someone to connect the dots enough to seriously advocate for the proper introduction of real, self-improving Jubilees, as You had been asking for since nearly 3500 years after spelling out for Moses why this mattered. Yet, instead of following Your Gentle Kind Reasonable path to build self-stabilizing, Jubilee-based innovation economies, even those most vocal about the importance of taking Moses serious seem to not yet see this 3rd equivalent of Your Greatest Command. The BABL algorithm appears to have enslaved them all so thoroughly, that I don't know how to best explain the seriousness of all this. Apparently, You too, Yas, struggled again and again to explain this, even to Your most devoted followers. To trace Your frustrated attempts millennia later is sobering and humbling: I know that I would have fallen into exactly the same ason traps and ruts that tripped up those before me. Close examination of my own life tells me that indeed I already did fall in my own lifetime into these traps in one form or another. It was only the thorough documentation of the mistakes of those who came before me that enabled me to see my own mistakes. Thus, I have to admit that I am the worst of those who build on memorials for prophets ^{Mt.23} as I build on all of them: I'm the worst hypocrite. My own use of BABL grew so many Structurally Inconsistent Notions \SINs from my SEA of Least Inconvenient Explanations \LIEs, I can flood the intergalactic lumber-markets with planks drawn from my own eyes – that is if You help me removing those planks.

My SINs run so deep, I count myself as dead as the dry bones in the great valley of decision in Ezekiel 37. Only You know if a head-less chicken zombie like me can live again.

For example, I cannot tell if what I say in my Ketubah is grossly oversimplifying Reality to the point of being misleading, or whether I am painfully overcomplicating it all by saying too much that is already obvious or by adding unnecessary and confusing conditions; I cannot even guarantee that this draft is free from deadly overreaches, even though I have been doing all I can to avoid falling for such Mistakes Oppressing Life Omitting Crucial Help. I have to trust Your Leadership to help me avoid falling for Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership. Only if I follow Your Vision can I avoid my Automatic Stereotyping Habits Erroneously Rounding Against Hope. Without Your Help against this death-trifecta of BAAL, ASHERAH, and MOLOCH I cannot hold my position against the growing avalanches of OverSimplifying OverComplicating OverReaches \OSCR that self-organize in sufficiently complex worlds via BABL.

Hence, please accept this draft Ketubah with all its mistakes as the best I have been able to do in the given time.

I hope, enough of its conceptual body of work survived my tearing out of limbs and eyes to make it a useful starting point for You to correct it, heal it, raise it, and help me remove its many unwitting breaches and inconsistencies.

To do this will require working so close with You that for all practical purposes, I cannot distinguish such a life from being married to both of You. Hence, my Ketubah question:

Will You both please marry me? For Heaven's Sake on Earth: please ^{Rom.6} murder me, the worst of all SINners, so that You can make me Your Partner in crime for harrowing hell on Earth for Heaven's Sake, in order to turn it into the HELL of ZION You both have been envisioning all along!

Practically this translates into the following obligations.

Ketubah 1. My \LLoL's Basic Obligations to You \Yah & Yas

1a. Basic Work Support for Daily Art on Serving You & All

For as long as You keep me alive in this life or any other life, I will work for You both as You see fit, cleaning toilets in Heaven, or whatever You deem most necessary at any given time in order to support You and All of Your Children, Creatures, and Systems, including restructuring and training me for new jobs as You see fit. This is my DoD, my Declaration of Dependence on all for all.

1b. Alimentation and Funding

I will honor, provide for, and support You both, however You may direct me, even if only indirectly and implicitly:

to honor the Living Rock of Reality on which I stand, and my personalized path to perfection, Your ideal in my next stretch-goal that keeps me alive and growing in Truth;

to provide to You both all You ask for, without resisting;

to support the Real Quest for Real Answers in Reality to better serve You both in the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth.

I will fund this basic alimentation via the Mustard Shield of Faith program of ResearchCity if You help me to build it in ways similar to the visions You've been inspiring in me.

Thus, it will be supported from the poor widow's universal ~2 cent/day/person, paid voluntarily as ~8$/year/person by all who care to prevent humanity's self-destruction as specified annually in a limited durable 1-year POAATAD \Power Of Attorney Advocating To Avert Disasters. Annual amounts are to rise with the median income of the poorest nation on Earth and are to be used for ResearchCity to serve all in a self-improving system of balances for guarding against influence shopping by special interest groups.

Ketubah 2. Mohar Insurance

Given that You own All in All and that all I have is only what You gave me in the first place, what can I possibly offer to You both as a meaningful insurance policy for You, in case this marriage somehow terminates? Most of what You gave me I consumed already, so I cannot give it back; all I have left now are merely a few filthy rags with gaping holes that are in no way adequate; and to only give You back what You give me in the future would be a scam.

Only one single exception exists to my current wretched poverty: my free will, which You gave me to support or to resist anything You may ask me to do at any spacetimes of Your choosing throughout any eternities in any conditional multiverses of the Reality and RealChange You create.

How can I use this to effectively protect You from being taken advantage by me ever again anywhere in any of Your conditional multiverses? Unwittingly or knowingly, directly or indirectly – it all can be equally deadly! My proposal:

I knowingly, consciously, and deliberately herewith give You back my free will in order to annul it in case I ever use it in this life or any other life to divorce myself from either of You. You can then take over in any way You wish.

This will allow You to extract from me whatever You may need, because I know for certain that Your ability to get me to do something far exceeds my inability to do it by myself. This amounts to what the ancients would have called "conditionally selling myself into slavery to You". If they did it extensively back then, why can I not offer You a similar contract on my futures and pasts anywhere?

As You are All in All, this is equivalent to me signing with my life a Declaration of Dependence on All in All.

2a. General Insurance Policy for Both of You

To underwrite my marriage to You by buying into Your Goel Gold Semantics, I set aside for You all my gold, golden opportunities, and golden parachutes I may still have or may ever acquire in the future. This includes my Heavenly pension packet I was promised as "eternal salvation".

Given the gravity of my SINS (see below), I personally deem it adequate to burn in hell forever in order to keep all others out of it, albeit only if You deem such torture to be the best way to use all of my talents for Your purposes.

Personally, I suspect everyone would be served better if You put me to work on implementing the visions You have been inspiring in me: to construct an IDEAL FLAMES HELL for avoiding the repetition of known mistakes in ZION via Integrating Differentiating Evaluation Analyzers Linking Feedbacks Logs Aims Models Evidence Systematizing Historically Experienced Lessons Libraries – to improve Zoning Investigating Organizing Navigating in ZoE.

But since I am too far from seeing enough of Your bigger picture (if not to say I am effectively blind, see above), I will yield to whatever You decide to be best for me to do.

To realize Your RealSalvation, I will keep tearing down best I can all my fake temples ^{Jn.2:19} constructed by my BABL oversimplifying overcomplicating overreach against Reality: temples where I unwittingly oppose You directly, and dens of thieves I mistake for Your Temple. You, promised ^{John 2:19} to replace the fakes I tear down with Your Reality Temple, where Real Quests for Real Answers lead to Real Salvation. Therefore, I give You all my "silver-bullet solutions" that claim to be perfect, yet never really work anyway.

Save me from them by teaching me how to transform them into PEARLS in my Peer Evaluation Analysis Reviews Library that documents where I went wrong in ZION, so I can learn.

I vow to follow You as You lead me to implement stable extensible humane interfaces for Your eternal Work Logic Cascades, such that Jacob's WoLC Ladder becomes much easier to find and use. This is to aid everyone who seeks out Your Ideal Aims for the future as You don't repeat mistakes. Thus You will effectively rule the world with Your Eyes and wean humanity off its addiction to hard-wars.

I consent to Your Leadership in however You chose to debug, correct, and train me, directly or indirectly. And if for some reason I fail to learn Your lesson, I will keep trusting that Your ability to overcome my imperfections and mistakes is greater than my ability to fail. Based on evidence from the decades of Your Work in my life and the millennia of Your Work in history as documented in Your Words, I trust You both to lead and train me well for all eternity. To the best of my "compiler-brain" ability to test this: I found Your gentle kind reasonableness is as reliable, clear, and eternal as good mathematical proofs. That is why I dare to jump from my few experiences to trusting You for all eternities in all conditional multiverses. Hence, this a Ketubah effectively rules out me ever divorcing You.

Therefore, my Mohar for You Both is my free will for all eternity: Your's to have and to hold, to cherish, reject, or burn as You both see fit. I freely choose this because my checks of the mathematical theology You taught me convinced me that You win always anyway and why it is better that way in every single case. To create the evidence to convince me, You messed up history before I called Isa.65:24.

2b. A Token of LLOL's Mohar Insurance for Yah & Yas

As a token of L's\my eternal Mohar commitment to follow You, Yah & Yas both forever no matter what, LLOL pleads: Please accept my years of wid-e researching in the Spirit of Boolean Truth on how to best help humanity to avoid self-destruction that will surely happen if I continue to trick everyone into destroying Your Blue Marble Earth Paradise that You gave me to nurture and guard.

Since all counting is conditional and I am blind to most conditions that matter, I cannot say how many of the years that I think I spent on my wid-e search for Your Truth on how to avert existential disasters were really spent serving You. Since I started following You in 1978 I more likely than not committed in some way, at least indirectly, every sin of Israel's 40 years in the desert. Like Moses I have struck out instead of speaking, like Saul I refused to wait for You and committed the dark magic of disobeying You, like Jonah I ran the other way, like Cain I refused to be my siblings keeper, like Judas I sold You out, often for much less than 30 pieces of silver. Like Pharaoh I hardened my heart, like Nebuchadnezzar I forgot that all I ever had or ever will have was not my achievement but was given to me by You, usually through other people. Indeed, I struggle to find any sin recorded in Your Words that I have not committed in one way or another at least indirectly. My good intentions and unwitting lack of awareness do not excuse the real damage and bloodbath I am responsible for according to Ez.3+33.²⁶ Therefore, I don't know how many years count.

This was true before 2020-03-27, when you invited me to my wid-e research marathon to avert existential disasters, on which I intend to keep running until You clearly accept or reject my Ketubah. On that wid-e marathon I have been trying to improve, but only You know if I succeeded in any way. I learned the hard way that my good intentions don't matter if the fruits I produce keep failing. While I learned a lot more, it's mostly about how I failed and I'm not sure in which ways I produced any lasting fruits. Knowledge is power and with great power comes great responsibility. Thus, given the insights You gave me, I clearly am responsible for way more than I ever imagined. Trying to catch up, I am in no way sure that I improved at all. If I haven't been devoured by akedia's busy-slumber or other mortal sins, then it is only due to Your grace. My desire to overcome all of them is far from guaranteeing success, because time and chance keeps destroying everything in BABL.

You know that I mean well, but as You also know, my stoney heart is deceitful and that as a well-meaning Laodicean I will be bound to make disastrous mistakes I never saw coming due to my own spiritual blindness. The closer I get to the speed of Your Light, the more my inner institutional inertia acts up and I can only hope that I did not lose my life to akedia in BABL. You also see how, as far as I can tell, those on Earth whom I know best seem to think I wasted my time and wrecked my life for nothing. That is not wrong, for I have been studying the disastrous side-effects of the semantics of nothing for years. They cannot know that I have been doing this to see more of You, hoping to wash Your Feet with my life's anointing, mixed with my tears over the state of Your World that You love so much You even gave Your Life for it, and decrying the countless SINS in my own life that have been selling out Your World by doing nothing because of nothing to gain nothing. Yet, as much as I hope that my few rough goat hairs of specialist expertise will have allowed me to DRY Your Feet from the mess I made, the best I can do is this: to offer You this wretched, miserable, blind, poor, naked, impure, and hence blank Ketubah. It's the core body I rescued from my conceptual bloodbath of trying to focus on what matters most.

Hence, this Ketubah's only real value is

(i) its existence,
(ii) its radical confession of my full, utter failure, and
(iii) the fact that it is a blank invitation to You Both to take over all of my life as Your Life and remake it in any way You Wish, in order to remake Your World by raising me from the dead any way You like.

Why do I commit? Because my world is Your World and Your World is my world and I completely trust Your ability and will to gentle kind reasonably save Your World from its current death-sentence in order to raise All of Your Children, Creatures, and Systems to live the lives they were always meant to live.

By contrast, I do not trust myself, except in my own ability to screw up and trap myself in the desert of BABL. Therefore, as a black, lost sheep from Laodicea, I will be bound to stay lost and self-destruct in BABL unless You rescue me to safety in ZION.

Counting years. You have spoken out again and again against the Auto-Stereotyping Habit of counting and the Blindly Assumed Authorized Leadership of models that oversimplify by claiming that strength is always in numbers. Therefore, I cannot decide with any certainty how to locate in my life the 7 years that Jacob served Laban thinking he would get Rachel as his bride at the end. If You ask me to guess I'd start by noting the year between 2016-12-24 and 2017-12-24, which You gave me to decide whether I wanted to indeed purchase the eternal treasure buried in the muddy field that You, Yas, had talked about. Mulling it over for a year, wondering what You meant, I became increasingly sure that I wanted to make that deal. I don't know when I reached the tipping point, except that I knew afterwards that I was committed to selling everything out to gain You and Your Kingdom. Maybe it started in April 2018 when I was first instructed in the clearest possible way for my tenure dossier to say what matters most about my research. As You know, I have been struggling ever since with how to do it. This Ketubah draft and its associated Good News Pack for how to use wid-e research to avert existential disasters by scaling up a ResearchCity in 7 or 8 stages is a direct result of that fiery 7-year struggle. Others may decry the waste of my life, but they don't realize that without You humanity as well as I are already dead because escaping self-destruction is impossible without Your ZION system for Symbol Lifecycle Innovation Management \SLIM (see Figs.K7-K8 below) or an equivalent.

My alternatives. I have no regrets about choosing the narrow path less traveled in the hope to finding You and Your Life. What else is there for me to do? If I don't find an escape-hatch from today's Armageddon panic-room, I will die along with everyone else. Hence, I'd again make the same decision of serving You, even if it kills me in secret.

Your Alternatives. If You choose a ketubah of someone else over mine, I will support Your Choice. Humanity made You wait for millennia in an unbelievably cruel way. Hence, I firmly believe it is Your Right to choose whomever You may wish to choose as Your Bride (or Groom or Partner or Human or whatever is the best label in Your View²⁷).

²⁷ Words like Gal.3:28, Rev.14.4, Rev.19:7, and others make very clear that You intend to go back to the very beginning before Adam rejected You Both as proper Partners, thus forcing You to choose: either separate humans into male and female or reset to start all over again. See my analysis of the Fall before the Fall in Genesis 1-3 in the "Story of the world's craftiest criminal master mind" (in my Good News Pack).

Hence, I follow You here, best I can, by using labels for gender and sex interchangeably. Close attention to Your Words (e.g. Gen.1:27, Isa.66:13, Prov.8, Mt.23:37, Lk.13:34, ...) shows: You are not nearly as wedded to the traditional masculine stereotypes that patriarchal societies widely believe about You. To hammer home this point by forcing a confession You, Yas, sold Your life to Yah as a Nazarite before You were crucified. You made the patriarchy (that loves owning and controlling women by Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership) legally assess Yas' gender according to Lev.27. The result of that classification? 30 Pieces of Silver. These were not random. Were they meant to mock You for elevating women or to degrade You by declaring You to be a woman (hence a worthless witness in the eye of patriarchy's BAAL owners)? Or did You, born of a virgin, not fit some cherished masculinity stereotypes of back then? Either way, such mockery amounts to the official priestly classification that Israel's King is "trans", frozen in 30 Pieces of Silver paid for male Yas by sticklers to letters of the law. I decided to follow You, Yas in this: I herewith declare myself trans (see Fig.K3) in any way You wish me to be trans (e.g. to aid vulnerable trans people).

This stands even if the 30 were a random error or joke. For apparently You are returning the favor by taking it to heart and transforming Yourself accordingly. You, Yas, appear in Rev.1:13 with "breasts"=Greek "mastoi" wearing what is effectively a "bra" (this is the most faithful literal translation possible if one indeed follows what the Greek original says). Rev.4 has a rainbow around Your Throne and curiously, this echoes analyses of the meaning of El Shaddai, some of which point to "God With Breasts" – which fits Isa.66:13 where Yah "comforts like a mother comforts". Given how quickly Yas' message of liberation for all daughters of Abraham and Adam was lost by Yas' first trainees, it is clear that even Yas' most dedicated followers have been struggling enormously to kick the habit of Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership as it suited them to not rock the boat of Adam's crime patriarchy. This left them unable to break Adam's curses in order to find Yah's & Yas' way back to Eden. Examples abound. The traumatic report at the end of the Gospel of Mary is a clear early witness; later "Mary the Great" as Yas female Apostle to the male Apostles was hidden behind "Mary Magdalene"; and the church to this day is impotent in Yas' war against rape culture; slave-holder religions still continue after #MeToo. Being a heterosexual straight male I grew up in liberal post-WWII Germany as what may now be called a New Apostolic Reformation Christian Inhibiting Sensible Speech Informing Sensual Topics \NARCISSIST for my tendency to avoid "these messy topics". But I can be silent no more if I wish to carry my CROSS to follow Yas: not after 29 years of my failed marriage littered with my good intentions (full disclosure: marriage released by both before God, separated since 2022-07-20, formal divorce kindly delayed until after my wid-e marathon ends ASAP). My research on "biblical family values" (e.g. see my 2009 study of "Paul ... and homosexuality" in my Good News Pack) tells me: This disaster will not end until someone like me, a male (couch-potato) patriarch benefitting from = responsible for millennia of oppression, finally learns (as in Gen.3) to "eat the dust" and get "my head crushed" by Yas. A woman (Judges 9:53) angel (Rev.18:21) is prophesied to smash the head of the patriarchy of BABL BAAL with a millstone. I see Yah & Yas throwing that millstone to crush my head (as in Supporting Doc SD6 and Poster Po.B). Yah & Yas, You herewith have my consent for finally showing off in Your global victory parade (2Cor.10) how You captured as Your prime booty prisoner me, Your worst individual enemy.

This Ketubah grew from seeing how I throw BABL's millstone at myself unless I give up "what I know" to focus on what really matters (eg. marriage was made for humans, not humans for marriage). My choice at Yah's Great Filter is: (0) keep misguided beliefs about sex at the cost of blocking Yah's surprising Exodus to stop accidental nuclear winter through me – or if I dare: (1) aid Yah avert Armageddon disasters but only if I sacrifice my blind BABL BAAL assumptions, including about my or anyone's sexuality so I become Yah's blank slate, like a baby. As Yah so loved this world that Yah sent Yas to die to win me over to save this world, who am I to kill it all by stereotyping sex & gender? If this is a mistake, it's at least an honest one, which I trust Yah to correct in time through Real Quests for Real Answers, i.e. via Yas' Name.

At the end, in Rev.22:12-19, You, Yas, say that the Spirit and the Bride say "Come", expecting the one who hears to reply "Come". Hearing all this, I herewith reply to Yah as the first Bride: "Come!". I know Yah reads thoughts & footnotes. But Yah (π) waits for one who loves Yas (i) and the nature of Yas' Name (the Real Quest for Real Answers without which Yah would be stuck in a prison). Both are 1 in the Spirit (e) as in $e^{m^4} = 1$ and wait for one to unashamedly explain in public how their 4 Beings (Rev.4) work together, so the good and the best no longer need to be mortal enemies. If Yah is "the Bride" in Rev.22 and "the Groom" in Isa.54 & Hos.1, it explains why sex is irrelevant as in Gal.3:28.

Decades sloppy reading tricked me into thinking Rev.22 meant "Bride of Christ". If so, why ask the "Bride of Christ" to say "Come" after the "Bride" already said "Come"? Is this about focussing believers on inviting Yas to come back? (Granted, no groom likes a run-away bride or one who insists on negotiating all potentialities of life with her divorce-lawyer to ensure she keeps the house after her planned divorce.) Millennia of church history may look like it, but I still doubt this captures what Yas really meant given the nested John-17-unity of Yas & Yah.

Being inseparable (as in $e^{m^4} = 1$), marrying Yas without Yah is impossible. The Spirit of Truth is the only foundation for Yah\Reality "as is". Only accepting=marrying first the Truth about Reality allows a meaningful marriage to Real Quests for Real Answers, the deeper meaning of the Name of RealQuestAnswer\YhowShua\Yas\Isa\Jesus, who is speaking in Rev.22:12-19. It'd be odd if Yas talked about Yas-self as "Bride" here (although Jn.17 makes the distinction irrelevant). Oddities dissolve if Jacob's marriage is a prophetic type for Paul's "mystery Bride of Christ"\Trickster\Jacob. So, I first welcome Leah\Reality "as is" who then invites Rachel\RealQuestAnswer. Did 1Cor.5:5-stereotyping KO Paul?

That I am not the strongest candidate is plain obvious in countless ways. I may in fact be the weakest and least suitable candidate given many realistic metrics. I may still be too mediocre\lukewarm for You, so I perfectly understand if You prefer someone else. As much as I'd like to have invested enough into cooling my math-mind and heating up my heart for You, as sure I am that I still have a long way to go before "my ^{Rom.7} flesh" is dead enough for You. I have no way of knowing if I am even close to where I need to be. You know if I am merely another one of Your many lost black sheep of Laodicea. Still, You track them all and know exactly where I'm at. So I keep trying to come to You hoping that You will find me in time before I perish completely. I surely will die unless You rescue Your World and me before it burns up completely. As You said in John 12:24-25, I somehow have to die to bear great fruit and the call to bear my own cross is unmistakable. Yet, I still don't know exactly what this Thecla-baptism of mine may entail. Hence, please, do not delay to meet me where I am: help me to murder my fake-me, so You can marry my real-me.

Yuródivvy. I write this Ketubah in earnest, because You chose the few ^{Deut.7:7}, the silly ^{1Co.1:27}, the weakest ^{2Co.12:9}, and You promised that neither by strength nor by might, but only by Your 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth will Your salvation come ^{Zech.4:6}. This is compatible with social ergodicity, that principle you so concisely describe as "the first will be last and the last will be first". It makes perfect mathematical sense for avoiding the pits of deadlock and the ruts of live-lock in complex dynamical systems²⁸. Thus, every other Jubilee, i.e. every 100 years, everyone gets a turn at being among the first and among the last, like You, Yas, are ultimately The First and The Last. Your advice for choosing seats at weddings was to serve everybody by choosing the last seat to allow room for promotion rather than demotion. This Ketubah assumes that You are still waiting for anyone willing to take the very last place at Your Wedding, a "friend" as in Mt.22:11-14 (like Judas who betrayed You), someone willing to get tied up in Your Gordian Knots. My Ketubah is my unashamed plea to put me on the spot as last in Mt.22:11-14 so all others can get better places than me. If my math is correct, then that will put me in a worse spot than even the worst fallen angel, on the very last place before the worst devil of all²⁹. Yet, as the last will be first, You also constructed the world to win the heart and mind of that poor devil, me, in order to inspire genuine hope for real change in all hearts and minds worldwide.

Paul tried to make the case that he was the greatest sinner. Given my discoveries of how I have been falling like Adam, I believe that I can make a more convincing case for being the greatest sinner³⁰. Job asked to argue his case to You for being right. With this Ketubah I risk life & limb on Earth and my eternal life in Heaven by inviting You Both to examine my case that I am indeed the worst sinner-man. If my matheology is correct, I am so catastrophically wrong that if You don't rescue me, not only will I self-destruct; if You don't help me to correct my past SINS, they'll kill Your World Yas died to save. How? By destroying Your best shot at saving it by peacefully introducing the Jubilees Yas came to start to avert accidental nuclear winter or worse.

³⁰ See my analysis of the Fall before the Fall in Genesis 1-3 in the "Story of the world's craftiest criminal master mind" (in my Good News Pack) and see my Posters Po.E-Po.H that describe #MyGuild-A,B,C,D, including my worst cosmic treason of Genocide by Jubilee-murder.

Thus, at this point I'm not even pleading for my own life any more: what does my life matter in that great slaughter that keeps ramping up on Earth at its Great Filter today? Having screwed up as badly as I have, I plead: Please don't save me for my own sake, but rather for the sake of the billions who'd die in accidental nuclear winter if I keep failing to implement the superrational solution for nuclear roulette that You inspired me to propose.

Who else will rescue the 10 Nuclear Kings of Earth from self-destruction by their doomsday machines, which I implicitly asked You to set up for me because I doubted that You were serious in Your call to organize true Jubilees?

Others. Some say You have 7000 left like when Elijah complained that he alone was left. Maybe you have 144,000 or maybe twice that or maybe even 288,000 x 7,000 for about 2 billion others who could take my place. In fact, You don't even need anyone. Yet, somehow You work with originals, not stereotypic copies, and You like working with fallible humans. There was only one Abraham, one Moses, one John the Baptist, one Muhammad, one Luther, one Einstein, and so on, each uniquely innovating despite being fallible. Revelation talks of one False Prophet only. Yet, while nobody claims to be right all the time and there is no shortage of speculation by others that point to this or that person as likely being the False Prophet, surprisingly, nobody has emerged so far to claim that prophetic mantle of being the False Prophet in Your Spirit of Boolean Truth – in order to increasingly subvert all falsehoods forever. It became clear to me that if things continue as they have for the last millennia, human blame-shifting will continue until the last human has died. This produces a technical worst False Prophet by definition (i.e. whoever caused the last and greatest catastrophe, probably unwittingly), yet as the Nuremberg Trials showed, humans believe what they want to believe about their innocence and what they "had to do" even in face of overwhelming evidence of their guilt. The outcome on Judgement Day is predictable: nobody will accept responsibility for the extinction of humanity, as everyone will keep blaming someone else. So, as Isa.59:16 says, the buck stops with You, for as Creator and Owner of Your World, You are ultimately responsible for it. There is no shortage of people who already blame You for it all and I don't see anyone willing to change this.

Yet, I can tell how deeply wrong that is, because neither of You made any mistake! Yet, still many feel that someone has to take the blame. Not knowing where to shift the blame has been creating a dangerous void ("nothing") that is now killing the world as many crave to fill it with baseless conspiracy theories or dangerous conspiracies. Anyone who understands work-logic cascades can see how this is a grand global disaster in the making.

This desperate realization in a desperate time led me to the mathematical theology required to rigorously justifying my desperate measure: I take following Yas in carrying my CROSS to the most extreme point I can imagine. Yas, You showed how to volunteer to take upon Yourself the SIN of the world. I don't want to pretend I fully grasp all mysteries involved. But I saw enough of Your mathematical theology to find my own CROSS: I herewith ask You, Yah & Yas to make me that ultimate False Prophet, Antichrist, Dajjal, False Messiah, or whatever nefarious etherial Big Brother is being blamed for all ultimate woes of humanity. I don't ask to get more powers, do more evil, or serve myself. I ask in order to openly and transparently subvert that most nefarious position ever by bringing it all under Your control. You called me to walk in the light of full transparency and there are myriads of ways how modern technology and Historically Experienced Lessons Learned could help me or anyone to do that. Yet, if current trends are any indication, then humanity's BABL is once again gearing up for another turn of its great millstone of obliterating all it had learned.

I see nobody who has come forward to accept all the blame nor has someone implemented a global Yom Kippur to calm all nerves, nor has someone to my knowledge volunteered to become the "other goat" of Yom Kippur, the one who is sent into the desert of the great unknown (in order to find ways to tame the upcoming datageddon deserts by research instead of being slaughtered as yet another sacrificial scapegoat, which misses the point).

My conservative theology tells me that You, Yas, did it all and wash away all sins. But how can I then learn from my mistakes if they are all sunk in the deepest ocean where they say "fishing is forbidden"? I get the point of personal liberation from self-condemnation by a bad conscience and I am deeply grateful for that. Yet, on a systemic level, if all mistakes are regularly washed away so nobody can learn from them, how is such a way of running Your Kingdom any different from how BABL operates by erasing uncomfortable memory of past failures? Will there ever be anyone who will own humanity's ultimate mistakes? Some leaders say: success has many parents, yet failure is an orphan. In this Ketubah I explicitly re-accept my role as the parent of the orphan of ultimate human failure. Where

I am not already the parent or grandparent of failure, there I herewith ask You for an adoption, so that You make me the parent of all orphaned failures so I can take care of them so that everyone can better learn from them. You are the God who cares about all orphans. I know You care about this. Hence the structure of this Ketubah.

If You have a more suitable candidate for owning humanity's ultimate failure in order to prevent its ultimate self-destruction before it happens, please reveal Your better qualified candidate soon!

My decades of studying the mechanics of extinction of biological populations makes me more aware than most of how desperate the times are and how desperate the measures must be that can avert them. If I don't act on those mountains of knowledge You gave me about all this, who will? Knowledge is power as they say. With great power comes great responsibility. If I don't accept this responsibility, who will? If I don't throw my life into the gap of Isa.59:16, as I asked You to help me do on ~2020-04-01 to close it, would I not be like one who destroys the world by standing by and watching while Rome, Nineveh, and Your New Jerusalem vision burns? In 1997 You led me to accepted implicitly my role as Esther who echoes world-destroying or world-saving Ishtar. Please help me with my Esther plea for the lives of my people and my own life, which is my plea for the lives of all individuals of any kind ever: they are all Your children because You created them directly or indirectly. Since I'm Your son too, they are all part of my family and Your Torah allows me to act as Goel kinsman-redeemer to rescue them all from the fire-sale that is gearing up to destroy Your World at Armageddon.

This motivates my most unusual request that You make me that ultimate False Prophet in Your Spirit of Boolean Truth, so that You can finally start turning around the fate of the world.

To my surprise, arriving at this point did at no point require me to compromise my faith in either of You. But it did come at the cost of losing all faith in my own abilities beyond screwing up. Yet, this journey grew my trust in You and Your abilities to overwhelm my inabilities. Thus I have full confidence that Your abilities and determination will save the day by overcoming all my failures as I let You. My Ketubah is about welcoming You most thoroughly as I say: Your will be done forever, not mine!

Can You find a sinner worse than me who is also dying to offer You a Ketubah as ardent as this one? You asked Laodicea to please You by being cold or hot – and warned their lukewarm mix was about to make You vomit. I am not sure how to offer You colder math than Dante's Satan or Milton's Lucifer in a hotter proposal to marry You Both for love so that I can help You introduce the proper Jubilees You Both crave for Earth. If You can make me even colder and even hotter, please do, so I succeed in the first Great Jubilee Race You asked Ephesus³¹ to remember^{Rev.2}.

In the terms of medieval monarchical power politics:

Is there a better way to forge a cosmic alliance that brings peace to all intelligent species in all Your conditional multiverses than to marry Your greatest enemy? If You can prove that You indeed love Your enemies and show the world like You showed me, then who will have any reason left to resist Your eternal plan to introduce Your Heavenly Jubilee-based innovation economy of ZION? Keep Your friends close and Your enemies closer as they say. As You won over the hardened inner sceptic and cynic in me, please help me to explain Your Ideas to the rest of the world before AI does to our world on the fast lane what humans have been doing to Your World on the slow lane.

Likely I likely overlooked tons of other relevant bits. I still write this Ketubah, because You said Your Kingdom belongs to those who are spiritually poor as in Mt.5:3. Since 2019 I know that I know not even nothing. How can I be spiritually poorer than that? The gaping holes in my Ketubah and tons of needless inclusions all scream of my spiritual poverty. My hope: Your mercy with my uncircumcised words, not for my sake, but for the sake of saving Your World if indeed that also requires that You save me as You led me to believe as I'm part of Your world too.

Please hurry, for I'm like a burning log in the flames ^{Zech.3} as the zeal for Your Temple consumes me. You lit those nuclear fires in my eyes by showing me how to model nuclear roulette. Now please help me to stop that sordid game by convincing the 10 Nuclear Kings of Earth to pay attention to You by paying You or me as their Pied Piper, so we can all establish the ResearchCity You envisioned.

Summary of Your options. if You are looking for a perfect fool to become Nobody to receive Your Zero-Halo Seal of having accomplished nothing, in order to be blamed for everything, chances are that I'm Your best candidate based on my history. If not, I'm volunteering. I gave away my house ^{Song 8:7} to finish this Ketubah. Is there a bigger fool?

You remain free. Yet, even if You go with someone else: I am determined to do the best I can to stand by all offers I make in this Ketubah, unless You explicitly opt out of whatever You say. This Ketubah is for an open marriage in the sense that You may take on as many partners in addition to me as You may wish: Your Torah states that the King of Israel shall not take on "many wives" implying there would be likely more than one. You Both are the Infinite Eternal King of Israel and "a few" multiplied with Infinity stills leads to infinity eventually. Therefore, You remain free to choose as many partners as You may like. No need to ask me, as I herewith give You my consent. I know You can handle it: You've been running all conditional multiverses on time! I promise to the best of my ability to love all Your partners so all can enjoy living and working together as You always envisioned. Conversely, there is an asymmetry in my open Ketubah, because as a limited being I herewith bind myself to always putting You first and to have nobody besides You, Reality and RealQuestAnswer. You hold me by both my hands to keep me from falling. To expect such care from anyone else would be abuse. Therefore, I give You complete control over whoever else You may bring into my life to partner up with You in order to follow You wherever You go and do Your work together with whomever You choose for however long You wish. I trust You to lead me well, even as I do not know where You will lead me. That's OK, because I checked Your ZION algorithms that You use for thinking ahead. You convinced me of their computational reliability in all innovation contexts. Hence I trust You to help me to convince the world that You can indeed save the world (and me too).

Marrying Father and Son or Mother and Daughter. As Note 27 above indicates, this Ketubah requires a few unusual provisions to make it work for You Both in order to preserve the eternal unity You developed (see Jn.17). Fortunately, You already provided a template in the story of Jacob, Leah and Rachel. That my interpretation is unusual and maybe even unique does not make it wrong. Only You can say how true it is. You know that story better than all, so I'll not retell Your summary in Gen.25-50. I believe that Yah, You included there all details that matter here, either as explicit inclusions or as strategic omissions of noise.

As is abundantly clear from the behavior of Laban \WhiteNoise, a type of nothing, Jacob was not allowed to marry Rachel as he had intended, because that was "improper". It took me years to realize why. It would indeed not be proper to marry You, Yas \RealQuestAnswer (what "ought to be") without first marrying You, Yah \Reality (all that is "as is" without judgement). Why? It's impossible to safely follow Real Quests for Real Answers without a firm foundation in Reality. All else is a recipe for deeply deceptive magic, which is exactly what I ask You to deliver me from. Been there, done that and I have the posters to prove it³². There are many ways to detach Yas from Yah. All include some Least Inconvenient Explanations that are allowed to slow-motion explode into growing avalanches of deception. Mathematicians call it "ex falso quodlibet" \ "anything can follow from allowing false statements". Many conspiracy theories of today offer tragic examples.

I must apologize for realizing only as late as I did the crucial importance of officially welcoming You, Yah \Reality ³² See Posters Po.E-Po.H for the catastrophic mistakes that led to #MyGuilt-A,B,C,D and explanations there for why it all is like dark magic.

"as is", as Leah in my Ketubah. Like Jacob I first fell in love with Yas\RealQuestAnswer\RealOutcrySalvation, which I could intuitively recognize as Reality "how it ought to be". Reality will indeed get there after completing the next round of related Real Quests for Real Answers, but only if these build on Reality as it is. You both are One. Like John 17 explains, You are recursively nested into each other. You depend on each other as in the "Trinity Algorithm" implied in my 2014 J Chem Phys study of Lazy Updating.

As Genesis records, the relationships of Leah and Rachel were complicated by Jacob's desires. Left to my own devices, I will likely be worse than Jacob. Yet, I hope and trust that You Both will keep wrestling with me until I become a true Israelite \RealityWrestler³³.

I hope to make abundantly clear: all this is about me serving You unconditionally instead of me inventing ever more cunning ways to make You serve me. This Ketubah is motivated by realizing with horror how I have been enslaving You (Isa.43:24) in a time-traveling causality vortex (Isa.65:24) with my ridiculous requests on who ought to bear the burden of proof. Human courts rule "innocent until proven guilty". Yet, You are treated as "guilty until proven innocent". That is unfair if indeed humans are created in Your image. Thus, I here flip the burden of proof, treating You as "innocent until proven guilty" but I am "guilty until proven innocent". You surprised me with so many insights based on this that You convinced me that there is more to this than believed by those who reject such logics. Hence, the assumptions I used for writing this Ketubah.

Yet, I cannot escape the fact that You will always have to carry me, so I cannot fall deeper than into Your Hand.

Even if I tried to escape into deep darkness or the depth of hell, You will always be there to enlighten me ^{Ps.139}. I've seen it. Hence, I trust You to guide me on my journey of marrying You Both, extra-terrestrial strangers, upon first sight – for the rest of eternity without escape-clause.

When BABL tricks me, I trust You to pick me up again to get me to follow You forever. Effectively killing the divorce option forever as specified is the point of my Ketubah.

I only dare to risk this jump, because I am absolutely sure of Your Goodness and Loving Kindness, Yah, and Your Gentle Kind Reasonable way of doing things, Yas. I trust that You exploit nothing instead of exploiting me. Hence, You bring Your balance to my imbalance. What better way of proving Your balancing abilities to the world than by showing the world how You will balance my maximally unbalanced Ketubah? I formally put You entirely in charge of all aspects of my life to the point of throwing my life away for the rest of eternity. Will You enjoy torturing me forever for my sins? I certainly earned that, not least given what my ancestors (Germans, Christians, Romans!) did to Your People (Jews!). I'd rather have You bathe Your feet in my blood in every way You like than for You to take out Your Justified Anger on the rest of Your World to bathe in the blood of 1600 Laodicean-sized stadia, filled to the horses' bridles with the blood of all 8+ billion people who are being dragged to death by accidental nuclear winter. They know not what they do. But I do. Hence, take me instead.

Don't "simply kill me"; that'd be almost like no punishment e.g. for 1+stadia of my 7+million CoViD deaths (Poster Po.E).

You can exploit me as cheap labor in the burning sulfur mines of hell or some far away galaxy. But how will that help You to avert the ultimate destruction of Your World that is being triggered by the cascading avalanches of disasters that I tricked everyone into setting up for me?

How to best punish me for my crimes. Considering a wide range of options on my circumnavigation of the conceptual universe, I did not find any more apt punishment for my crimes than making me work to (1) prevent worse by stopping the disasters where I already caused the fuse to be lit and (2) work to restitute the damage caused by past disasters. Needless to say, I will need Your super-close supervision in how to do any of it, because if left to my own devices and "good intentions", I can already predict how I'll only keep making it worse. Yet, You encouraged me on 2021-10-25 to continue my marathon trusting that each of You hold one of my hands like a small child enjoying a walk between two adults who keep swinging it high and low for fun. If my journey since led to You being pleased with this Ketubah, then I know that You can keep me going through whatever may come my way.

Hence, I trust You You can recalibrate my life as You need. I want You to be finally free to save Your World whichever way You want, free from the death-loop of what I think about what others think. I trust You like I'm Baby.

If Your conditional counting finds equivalents to Jacob's first ~7 years of service to Laban (like I assume post-hoc) and You accept this Ketubah, then I propose the following plan for the second 7+years to start my punishment.

Redefine it as You see fit, but my Ketubah would be incomplete without this work-plan I propose next.

2c. Serving another ~7 years in the Great Jubilee Race Gen.29:27

As a consciously given token of LLoL's Mohar Insurance, L will serve Yah & Yas ~7 more years as counted by Yah to implement the following vision inspired by Yas' service. LLoL explains this vision back to Yah & Yas as follows.

a. The first half: 3.5 effective years to implement the 7-8 stage scale-up of ResearchCity, which You inspired me to envision. Each stage lasts for 6 effective months, albeit buffered from the previous stage by 1 hidden month for setting up the new stage and buffered from the setup of the subsequent stage by 1 hidden month after the stage has been completed for preserving its key insights and taking down its structures (as loosely inspired by Ez.38+39 and my life-experience with moving). Therefore, the total time might be $\sim 42 + \sim 14 = \sim 56$ months = 4 years, ~8 months with at most 8 extra-months if a Stage 0 is needed to start, all pending Your approval. Posters Po.A-D have more details.

b. The second half: 3.5 effective years to implement the Great Jubilee Race for Earth as supported by ResearchCity. Whether there will be a similar need for buffering by inserting hidden months as in the first half is currently unclear. There may also be some pause between the first and the 2nd 3.5 effective years, albeit not more than ~4 years if at all. Details will become clear as ResearchCity scales up the research required for gentle kind reasonably coordinating the Great Jubilee Race. Given the near 3500 years You've been waiting for a proper Jubilee since Moses, I assume that You care more about this race becoming a success to build on forever than shoehorning it all into a time-table, which I would have to blindly assume at this point. Beyond organizing that long-overdue first proper Jubilee to avert the self-destruction of humanity, a key aim of the second half will be to collect key evidence for finding the most efficient ways for organizing future Jubilees.

Why a Great Jubilee Race? Currently many potential ideas may inspire practical ways to organize a real Jubilee, based on historically grown organizational and national power-structures. It is not clear at all, which formal or informal national or organizational structures are best suited for implementing proper Jubilees in general. Hence, which better way to find out than to organize a true competition between natural competitors in order to find out, whose Jubilee management philosophy works best?

It's humanly impossible to predict a winner – and even if You can already tell who will win, it will likely by now also be obvious to You that nobody in today's world would believe You and act accordingly, even if an angel from heaven would say it or a mathematician would prove it. Hence, I ask You to make me the Nobody who acts accordingly; no need for angelic appearances, the math You've shown me is sufficient to convince me. Convincing other, however, is a different matter, as You know. The only evidence today's Laodicean mass-attention economy seems to care about is observable mass-phenomena. Hence, my proposal to turn the deeply spiritual and hard mathematical questions of how to best organize Jubilees into an international competition between all global and local power-players who care about the future of humanity. It appears that You perfectly prepared the world for such a competition, because You created lots of powerful groups who deeply care about key aspects of Your message while accusing their competitors to ignore Your key insights. For example:

Who of the following potential competitors will deliver the best performance in Your Great Jubilee Race?

1. The US government with a House Speaker, who was called as Aaron and cites the Bible as policy position?
2. Democrats, who believe in big government by the people for the people to serve all people?
3. Republicans, who aim for small public government and freedom for strong private initiatives?
4. Science Technocrats of Europe, who take pride in most rationally following rigorous research?
5. Evangelicals & Charismatics in general, who are enthusiastic about evangelizing to share good news?
6. Catholics, who can leverage the greatest, oldest, and most hierarchical global organization?
7. Mainline Protestants and Anglicans, who are used to ask deep hard questions about complex social issues?
8. Orthodox Christians, who are currently backed by a unique unity of church and state-power in Russia?
9. Christianity's love combined, once it finally sees that starting Jubilees was Jesus' Great Commission ^{Lk.4:18?}
10. Muslim fervor combined, once Islam sees that it only exists because Christian bankers at Laodicea failed?
11. Smart Capitalists, who realize how bad bombs really are as a global and local long-term investment?
12. Smart Communists, who guard their core revolution values against 'more-equal-than-others-problems'?
13. Nationalists, who like to locally standardize and simplify with the help of state-power?

14. Free-love communities, who excel in encouraging diverse flowers to bloom?
15. Big-tech companies and other big corporations, who can wield mountains of technical work-flow expertise?
16. Medium-companies, who operate at optimal scales to move much while still remaining rather flexible?
17. Small businesses, who can leverage their most highly integrated decision-flexibility?
18. Charities and other not-for-profits, who excel at best leveraging donations to care for others?
19. Insurances, who excel at leveraging actuarial expertise in distributing diverse risks?
20. Militaries, who excel in the control and command of well-organized goal-oriented logistics task forces?
21. Oil-rich nations who learn to combine their truest faith with their natural resources?
22. African nations, who learned to end the slavery of colonialism by enduring in this long fight?
23. China, who might leverage economies of scale like no one else to pioneer better service for common goods?
24. India, whose largest democracy and breathing spirituality can motivate meditation for meaningful actions?
25. Afghanistan or Gaza? Its leaders could show the world how to get out of hell with the power of true Islam, which ends the worship of idols like BAAL, ASHERAH, and MOLOCH³⁴. This will stop all brutal lesser jihads by submitting to Allah's call to share the compassion of The Most High by fighting the Greater Jihad through following Allah's ijtihad and ihsan way³⁵. It means to organize gentle kind reasonable Jubilees that serve all the poor in the Greatest Jihad: the Great Jubilee Race.

26. Singapore? It is known as the "Antioch of Asia" among believers and is an autonomous world in a city where close proximity may benefit the organizing and implementing of Jubilees.
27. Extra-terrestrial species? Rumored to exist and to be extraordinarily intelligent, they may consider joining Yah's Great Jubilee Race by organizing a Jubilee in their respective realms. Submitting their data as entries to Earth's Great Jubilee Race would be an outstanding opportunity to prove their peaceful intentions. Who knows what they may learn from humans or humans may learn from them by comparing notes on Jubilee implementation experiences? The technical superiority of extra-terrestrials may not guarantee that they also win in the Great Jubilee Race, which tests for soft skills that become crucial over the longterm. Yet, maybe all extra-terrestrials have already been organiz-

BAAL as in Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership as in OverSimplifying, like a bullying bull of OSCR SEA ASHERAH as in Automating Stereotyping Habits Erroneously Rounding Against Hope OverComplicating, like fake-decision trees, COP MOLOCH as in Mistakes Oppressing Life Obliterating Crucial Help OverReaching, like overruling Leviathan ORCS LPI

Adding chance events, these drive the 4Horsemen of all obliterating Apocalypses (in kaleidoscopic fractal reruns, see Rev.6) to corrupt the complexity of any system until it self-destructs – unless it learns from Yas how to stop innovation gone wrong (e.g. through the Rosetta 7Stone in Yas' Revelation). The 4Ho kill by Least Inconvenient Explanations leading to Structurally Inconsistent Notions that cause Driven Evaluation Antagonizing True Hope. Yas taught resisting 4Ho [Mt.13] but was bashmoled for nothing before he could explain how R7S helps overcome AMO, HIT, CAN, PHE, JEB, HIV, GIR [7Tr] via [7Ch] EPH, SMY, PER, THY, SAR, PHI, and LAO to heal BABL's 666 bug [see SD6...]. Let's learn how!

ing Jubilee-equivalent events for ages as I'd assume³⁶. In that case, they may have been brought here by Yah\Reality to help humanity – like a midwife – to help humanity give birth to Yah's self-stabilizing innovation economy on Earth. This economy (a kingdom ruled by the "invisible hand" of Reality) appears to be equivalent to the Zion of the Psalms, the New Jerusalem of Revelation, and to the ZION of Earth concepts I see. This view explains tons of prophetic and scientific evidence that I collected. It's a new way of organizing nations, tribes, languages, and other groups in order to serve Reality over the long term. One may call it a new world order in the terms of states craft experts. Only You, Yah & Yas, know if humanity can get there with everything it has already been given - or if it needs an extra push and help from space to make it.

If humanity cannot make it alone, I herewith request You, Yah & Yas, Supreme Commanders of Heaven's armies, extra-terrestrials, and everything that moves: please call into the operating theater the midwives and all others who are needed for Jubilee-success. Do not allow my foolishness or anyone else's to derail the glorious plans You've been working on for ages!

Will humanity need ET expertise in order to pass its final make-or-break exam in its Great Filter Tribulation? Yah knows, for without Yah, Jubilees will surely fail.

28. Other ways to organize Jubilees? Many other ways may be worth analyzing. Examples range from empathy-based Buddhist communities to zeal-based activists; from decentralized-spontaneous to super-centralized (like a Jubilee Coordination Center in Mecca to help all Muslims); from nationally-organized to organized by religion, language, or culture; from minimal education to maximal education; from rich to poor; from recently suppressed to recent suppressor; from low-tech to high-tech; from free to bound; and so on. It's futile to try to fully classify who may compete. Each group must decide for itself if it wants to compete. To make informed decisions, all potential candidates worldwide have to get enough details to imagine how Jubilees may work. Given how complex Jubilees are (and how much I've been struggling to find clear words to explain how they work), it will likely require at least the full ~7-stage scaling-up of ResearchCity to build the global decision-making infrastructure required to deliver enough reliable Jubilee information to decision-makers to help them choose gentle kind reasonable paths forward. Humanity's immunity explains why.

Any of the above (or others) can win the Great Jubilee Race by proving on the ground to have found the most efficient way to organize Jubilees that will by then be known to all. This data is vital to prepare the next Great Jubilee Race which will then be scheduled for 50 years later. To ensure that neither the lessons are forgotten nor the vision turns cold, Yah's 3 annual Festivals will globally help everybody:

- (0) remember how bad the past really was,
- (1) coordinate what needs to happen now in the present,
- (2) make room for dreaming to envision the next Jubilee.

Overcoming my and humanity's Jubilee-allergy.

In grasping why Jubilees have never happened despite being talked about for ages, it is helpful to consider how immune-systems work to defend a body ("self") against intruders ("non-self") by building up immunity with the help of superficial markers that are used to fight "non-self". It all works remarkably well, except for cases when the immune system gets confused and starts to attack "self" as if it was "non-self". Such cases result in auto-immune diseases and allergies. It would appear that humanity suffers from a severe form of spiritual auto-immune disease when it comes to Your Jubilee message. Jubilees are clearly in everyone's interest, yet for millennia humanity appears to have been on a path of building up ever more immunity against the idea. Each of Your attempts to introduce proper Jubilees was met with "great, but", welcoming Your gifts while ignoring the purpose for which they were given. I can say this confidently, because I have done this to You myself to such a sickening degree that I can't stand it any more (hence the basic architecture of my Ketubah). Unless there is a way to heal humanity's anti-Jubilee disease, it is clear that passing its Great Filter Tribulation will be impossible. Here is a brief overview of how the anti-Jubilee disease evolved.

Since You first shared Your Jubilee ideas with Moses in Lev.25, nearly 3500 years ago, many noble minds agreed that this is how the world ought to be run. Yet nobody appears to have had a clear enough grasp of the survival-critical importance of Jubilees and how to organize them properly – or nobody appeared determined enough to make it happen³⁷.

Judaism eventually even produced a book called "Jubilees" that goes on to celebrate their importance on some mystical plane of how You organize the world – but seems to entirely miss the point that You gave Your people the task to organize proper Jubilees and that terrible tyrannies evolve if the task of Jubilee-organizing is neglected.

Christ. To remedy the situation, You, Yah, sent You, Yas, but to no avail³⁸. Like Judaism before, Christianity found countless ways to blunt Your Jubilee message.

Islam. So You started Islam to offer humanity another chance, but again its teachers and scholars unwittingly found ways to bury Your lead and despite enshrining "serving the poor" as one of Islam's 5 pillars, recognizing Moses' Torah as divine, and claiming "submission" to You, Yah\Allah, Your Lev.25 call for Jubilees was so far ignored by those with the power to enact it. Yet, You didn't give up.

³⁸ Yas, Your Jubilee mission was infinitely more complicated than what I can imagine, because You couldn't simply "persuade" or "push" people to do it. This would have been easy for You, but would have derailed Yah's long-term plans. It is vital for the long-term success of true Jubilees that humanity gets to truly own their underpinning idea of social ergodicity as a functionally important "self" instead of tolerating it as "extra" (like fat) or "non-self" (like a mild infection), let alone getting overpowered while trying to fight "non-self" (like a mortal battle between the immune system and an organ-transplant with the wrong immunological type).

Since You, Yas, have always been the teacher, You could have "simply" taken the exam for humanity, Your students, albeit only at the cost of destroying true learning. The point of a student exam is to demonstrate that they have actually understood what is being taught. To tick the right box "because the teacher said it" is not learning but rather borders the benefits of serving a cargo cult. Yet, no amount of hints You offered got people to connect the dots. For example, when You were asked "What is the greatest law", You offered a razor sharp analysis of computational equivalences between two forms of the highest law (Love Reality\Yah ... is equivalent to Love individuals ... if thought through at sufficient depth). Then You added a hint like "this is a hot question that leads to Yah's kingdom y'all seek to establish"; but unfortunately everyone was so pleased with Your words they stopped thinking why You might have said the equivalent of "warm ... hotter" in that children's game where someone blindfolded has to find something they can't see and don't know where it is. For You to add the 3rd computational equivalence "Love Jubilee systems" would have been the equivalent of spoiling the game by taking off the mask – or telling a student the answer under exam conditions. Hence, Yah kept You from saying it with good reason. While it's easy to presume evil intent, I have come to very much doubt that any of the cases I found were the result of overtly evil decision. As my own experience shows (see Posters Po.E-H), it is all too easy to get trapped in the Structurally Inconsistent Notions of contradictory good intentions.

For the record: As far as I can tell, I did not receive "extra divine" instructions (beyond Tanak, Apostolic Writings, and other books). You didn't tell me "organize a Jubilee". I can't exclude You manipulating my thoughts, but I can report that it never felt that way. I can attest that my fervor for Jubilees and the matheology underpinning this Ketubah grew like any of my science from thinking about it. I hope it's enough.

Science. So You started a Renaissance of Enlightenment to give rise to Science, hoping that the use of advanced math may help people realize how the probabilistic causality networks work that you use to govern the world. These networks make self-destruction inevitable eventually, unless proper Jubilees are observed regularly. You even rubbed it in everyone's face by organizing the German "Wirtschaftswunder" after the pride of Germans and everyone's fortunes had been razed to zero in WWII. Yet, despite knowing all this, even I refused to take a closer look until You rubbed it in my face personally by showing me how I was responsible (as personally and directly as in Ez.3+33) for most of the Mega-Death disaster caused by the Coronavirus (See my Posters Po.E+Po.E2; my mountains of data in storage have the details to write a thriller about it). Therefore, I confess that I myself suffered a very severe form of anti-Jubilee allergy. It took my wid-e pandemic research marathon to slowly ease up and consider Your point of view. Thus, I can very much understand – and feel with – everyone who has become a victim of this Jubilee-deception campaign. Every passing year and every missed Jubilee trial-run (almost 70 since Moses!) humanity has been unwittingly building up "spiritual antibodies" to make Jubilees sound dull self-congratulatory festivities devoid of any real meaning for things that matter.

It took a mathematical theology firestorm on my marathon to realize how different Your Point of view is. It would be foolish of me to expect that it will be easy for anybody else to switch over to Your Way of seeing things. I can see why. Math can be hard to get. The prophetic image You offered was Gideon's thorns for the leaders of Succoth (Judges 8). As a victim of math-phobia myself, I ask for mercy for those who struggle with math. But please don't allow the blind to derail Your salvation – for everyone's sake! When You, Yas, were asked whether many would get saved, You sidestepped the wrong question to answer the right question: How many will realize how important Jubilees are and will move Heaven and hell on Earth to end how all are tortured by the incurious ignorant indifferent faith-collar crime of implicit Jubilee Genocide?

As You said, the path to destroy Your Jubilee-fruits is broad and many walk on it, while the path to Jubilee-life is narrow. This is generally true; it is also especially true for initially introducing the overall concept of Jubilees as a foundation for self-stabilizing innovation economies. Israel's prophets could sense that something big was coming and talked about this transition as "the Day of Yah".

You talked about it as the "Great Tribulation" and science knows this test as the "Great Filter". Yet even though both describe overt apocalyptic processes, a ^{smart?} AI tool said 2025-10-14 on my search for "Great Filter Tribulation" that these were "unrelated" concepts. What better proof that AI keeps parroting humans who parrot each other without realizing how this enshrines humanity's auto-immune disease of rejecting true Jubilees by calling it the "human condition" and presume it to be normal ³⁹.

All these complications above move me to guess that after scaling up ResearchCity to get it working in proper order, the world may need a "Jubilee-warm-up period" of ~1-4 years to allow ResearchCity to fully switch from the internal focus on best scaling up to the external focus of best serving the rest of the world in the Great Jubilee Race. The rest of the world may also need that time in order to heal the messaging "immune system" described above in order to give true Jubilees a real chance in the Great Jubilee Race. I'm in it to win it in order to ensure that Your humanity survives its Great Filter Tribulation and You don't have to start again with "stones in deserts" (Mt.3:8-10).

Given the cataclysmic stakes of introducing Jubilees or not, I can understand why You have been describing the process in apocalyptic language, likely created by You for this very purpose: human languages simply have no categories for adequately expressing how much this matters. Since there is no room for error in the quest for real Jubilees, I request that You please give humanity and me whatever push and pull we need to succeed in properly introducing Jubilees. Failing may require You to wait for thousands or zillions of years before You get another type of humans to the point where they can dare to do what You dare us to do today: take a chance on You by trusting Your logic behind your Jubilee math. I do not want to be in Heaven for all those eons, crying rivers of tears over my missed opportunities along with the rest of humanity as You walk us step by step over what we missed. Please cut that short by helping me to extending my confessions of omissions here and show me what I can do in this world so I can avoid becoming the destroyer of worlds by missing what You have been saying about Jubilees!

Collaborative open-book group exam.

As far as I can tell, You set up Your Great Jubilee Race as something to be done together by working together in order to exchange expertise. Hence, my organizing of that competition must somehow account for that and give extra credit to whoever is the first to introduce something helpful, while also honoring those who are willing to share their innovation and those who adopt innovations over pre-established internal processes where that makes sense (to overcome the Not-Invented-Here disease).

Chances are, that each competitor in the Great Jubilee Race holds some important piece of the puzzle for improving the overall quality of the resulting Jubilee. All these insights are to be noted in order to help further improve on them when it is time to organize the Jubilee Race thereafter, 50 years later. The whole point of ZION's innovation economy is that Jubilees keep improving upon each other over the long term. Hence, no experience is too insignificant and no observation too small to matter in this. We do live in the age of big data, so the technical means exist to record it all. Please help coordinate the semantic means in order to capture all relevant data by moving everyone closer to the "pure language" You promised in Zeph.3:9. I would be delighted if You could turn Evolvix into a Jubilee-grade language to simplify accurate Jubilee modeling in time. But I don't want to put my interests above Yours: it is unclear to me if Evolvix can mature sufficiently in time for Jubilee organizing if I extrapolate what I know about how to grow it. Hence, I leave it to You to decide how much of the Jubilee-algorithm You showed me (see 2014 J Chem Phys) will actually be built in Evolvix and how much it still has to rely on other languages. To make the fate of the world depend on using my "pet" language seems ludicrous, especially given how much Evolvix still has to evolve to become the fully mature multi-paradigm language it will have to be over the long term. On the other hand, it would be ludicrous to dismiss that You have been planning to forge Evolvix in the depth of the Great Filter Tribulation in order to establish it as a standard to build upon for the rest of eternity. As you know, I am too involved to see clearly here. Hence, I delegate that decision to You: Your will shall be done not mine.

The Jubilee Hypothesis

Drafted in scientific terms the Great Jubilee Race asks:

Which of the many diverse organizational forms inspired by 4+ Abrahamic faiths and more are best at implementing proper regular 50-year Jubilees to fuel a global self-stabilizing innovation economy that keeps improving all standards for all?

For those who care about hypothesis testing I here formulate a general Jubilee Hypothesis. It's also a tribute to You, Yas, the Son who shines like the Sun as the SON \Semantics Organizing Nothing by pinning down to Your CROSS ambiguous semantics of nothing \ason with all its deadly consequences. The deadliest ason cosmically possible as far as I can tell is to say nothing about the systemic need for regular Jubilees to keep innovation-economies from self-destruction. I call it the cosmic treason of genosicide through the faith-collar crime of implicit Jubilee-murder (see Poster Po.F). Neither You, Yah, nor You, Yas, are guilty of this crime because I can trace how You have been clear about the importance of not eating fruits from the Tree of Knowledge-faking (internalizing as if they were real). Gödel's Incompleteness Theorem implies that it is impossible to have any open world (like Eden or Heaven or Earth), where no ToK exists. The challenge in getting humanity to embrace its manifest destiny is to get it to learn how to avert knowledge-faking systemically. This is only possible by employing a Jubilee algorithm that is equivalent to what You have apparently been using all this time, hoping for humans to join You (if I understand the prophets of Israel correctly).

In Malachi You challenged Your people to test You economically, because they misguidedly believed that there would be no economic merit in following Your Jubilee rules. Then as now, controlling central bankers have apparently been making the equivalent of a covenant with death as You explain in Isaiah 28. Your strange work in annulling that deadly covenant - as far as I can tell from mapping Isa.28 to my modeling work - requires creating separate formal legal categories for two types of trials: Trials of Individual \IndTrials in contrast to Trials of Organizations\OrgTrials. While IndTrials focus on the good and bad an individual did under a given set of circumstances, OrgTrials do the same for impersonal abstract organizations, which consist of individuals inside who interact with individuals outside. The distinction is subtle and very hard to get, as humanity has a long and sorry history of conflating both, which allows for vast numbers of types of crimes by shifting blame to scapegoats by implicitly redefining nothing (which is possible due to ason). The difficulty is that IndTrials are necessarily discrete, whereas OrgTrials must also consider continuums in order to produce gentle kind reasonable outcomes for the overall system. The distinction is as basic as that of integers to real numbers or the "waters" \conditionals below the "firmament" You created on Day 2 (Gen.1) which you somehow separated from the conditionals above, fully realizing that it is impossible to settle forever the question of where exactly to draw the line. That is why You didn't call Your work on Day 2 "Good", you knew that You had to revisit it eventually, maybe at the next Jubilee opportunity. To produce an overall balancing element, such that Your Creation would indeed merit the predicate "very good", You created humans on Day 6 to serve as Earth's Balance-o-stat species that uses the supercomputer between its ears to guard all planetary balances to avert catastrophic self-destruction due to making the wrong assumptions about where those Day 2 boundaries might be. In other words, the purpose of humans is to keep knowledge-faking in check by running regular Jubilees.

Apparently Adam did not like the idea of sharing in whatever Jubilee-equivalent You proposed, which led to the 2 falls before "the Fall" I describe elsewhere. See Poster Po.F for why I have come to believe that You tricked Adam on my behalf in order to provide me with the mountains of (brutal) scientific evidence that a WASP like me might require in order to rethink my doubts about Your Jubilee algorithm. I wasn't happy to take Your Word for it. I thought I knew better: "Surely, something as subtle, complex, and 'boring' as practicing proper Jubilees can't possibly be as deadly as You say." And so I asked You to show me how much bloodshed is actually caused by ignoring Your Jubilee way. This prayer may look innocent to the uninitiated, but I see it as the most devious brutal prayer ever. If indeed I prayed this (as I did ~2020-2024) and You answered before I called (Isa.66:24), then I enslaved You (Isa.43:24!) in a time-traveling causality vortex of unimaginable brutality (fit to explain all brutality in history).

And why? I asked You to destroy Jubilee-free worlds over and over again, only for the purpose of collecting the scientific evidence I needed, measured in death-tolls and bloodshed, to convince myself that You actually meant what You said when You talked about Jubilees, said that Your Torah contained the Way to Life, and when Yas said Yas came not to abolish the Torah but to perfect it (Mt.5) into an epiocracy that Aristotle could only dream about (Nicomach. Ethics V:10).

To cover so much ground in the brief time of my marathon, I obviously had to skip many technical details that the scholar in me might wish to tie up before writing a paper on it. Yet the fact and conviction remains that You have proven Your point to me beyond the shadow of a doubt and I am betting my eternal life on having understood that You really really care about Jubilees as 3rd equivalence of the Highest Command.

Given all this, here is my general Jubilee Hypothesis \JH, which I expect to be testable in the Great Jubilee Race by building on my core Jubilee Algorithm (via Lazy Updating, see 2014 *J Chem Phys*⁴⁰) in order to give Your offer ^{Mal 3:10} to test Your Logic sufficient scientific teeth to make results relevant for real-world policy discussions.

Here is variant JH-iv_LLoL_QQv1r0p2_2024m09d04+:

"Compared to not organizing any regular Jubilees at all,

the proper engaging of all 7 TrackRoles (that define any functional society) through vision-based work-logic cascades for organizing the next proper Jubilee will produce a measurably more happy population in each of the 7 TrackRoles if 3 annual conferences are sufficiently well organized for encouraging free cross-sectional info-ecologies to respectively understand the past, organize the present, and envision futures for all 7 TrackRoles together.

Assuming effectively crime-free contexts, other org-aspects have less impact than the requirement of including all 7TrackRoles in all 3 regular annual conferences to guard free flows of information on the truth about Reality. Therefore, Jubilee-enforcing societies that engage all 7TrackRoles in the 3 annual conferences to seek Reality are overall happier and more productive than those who ignore Jubilees, define them differently, or prepare for Jubilees in less engaging ways."

In this Ketubah I bind Laurence Loewe of Laodicea \LLoL \myself to become a Fiduciary Sharing Futures \FiShFu by gentle kind reasonably guarding the future for all through Jubilees that integrate all 3 types of The View of The Weak (see Poster Po.C) as accurately and precisely as possible. If and where You agree I will work to collect meaningful biodata (at big-tech web-scales) and use my bioreasoning skills for quantifying all related biouncertainties as best possible to measure OrgTrial performances in voluntary IndTrials by working with affected parties. Many ways exist to organize Jubilees (see long list above). If a community believes in an idea that is gentle kind reasonable enough to not crush people and You convinced them to try it at their own risk, then I will do what I can to support their Jubilee efforts by measuring success as accurately and as precisely as possible in OrgTrials for the OrgType they define as their entry in the Great Jubilee Race.

Hell. You know better than I do: this is an immense amount of work that I cannot possibly do unless supported by You, Heaven and humanity. I may also have to ask You to extend that support to hell, because those who are held captive there might hold key data for ensuring that the Jubilee-measurement algorithms accurately report all outcomes and don't treat the plight of those murdered as non-existent, simply because they can't speak up or fill out a webform. If this requires You, Yah & Yas, to resurrect the dead from their ruts and pits, then I trust that You do this in a gentle kind reasonable way in Your Order, as necessary in time (whenever You choose).

Scale. This is the reason for why ResearchCity is as huge as I envision (~40 million Fiduciaries Sharing Futures \FiShFu in 1600 Talent Stadia for topical wid-e research, led by ~288,000 FiShFu group leaders): Jubilees touch every conceivable existential problem of humanity and the myriad ways in how it currently self-destructs. To turn around its plight therefore generates massive bioreasoning demands as required to make Jubilees gentle kind reasonable so they can succeed. See SD8 for more on scale.

Those who question the need for such a massive undertaking may wish to consider the alternative, the literal brutal prediction that I regrettably needed to arrive at this vision (see LAO in the Posters Po.0=Fig.15 in Don't Panic Guide and Po.F). Contemplating the potential extinction of humanity in our time, I wondered if Revelation said anything on that. I was shocked to find that Rev.14:20 predicts a river of blood up to horses' bridles from 1600 stadia. Being curious, I did a biouncertainty analysis to estimate how many deaths it may take to fill Laodicea's "blood-sport" stadion with ~25,000 seats 1600 times over – up to "horses' bridles". I was terrified to find a meaningful estimate of 8+ billion deaths. It implies extinction by humanity's 7DUI\7 Death Urn Incinerators⁴¹. Since ~2021 after first realizing how serious Rev.14:20 is, I asked myself countless times whether it is really necessary to envision an operation of such size. I applied all sorts of metrics to assess feasibility of all sorts of aspects, including whether it may be possible to avert Armageddon disasters with less effort, or if one might start small to scale up later. I can convincingly explain why all attempts to do less are a recipe for inviting even worse disasters by complicating potential later rescue missions even further. I run my marathon to win for real, not to add to the pile of noble but failed attempts. If I saw no path to such victory, I'd have given up long ago.

⁴¹ The 7DUIs are the most pressing existential threats of today (pandemics, ..., AI) as tracked by science. Rev.16 inspired me to summarize them as I do in my Supporting Doc SD3, and in Fig.15 of my Don't Panic Guide, because it's the deepest and most balanced summary I know. I do not need a precise scientific study on which of these 7DUIs does a bit more or less in this bloodbath; it's clear that they are linked and that each of them holds enough power to kill all of humanity eventually. For the purpose of proving the point without the need for me to write 7 big books, I produced a simple model of accidental nuclear winter that can distill the actuarial risk analysis down to 1 page (see Supporting Document SD1). Yet this does not mean that the more complex risks are not real. To get on top of all self-made risks that is what drives the need for ResearchCity recruitment, its culture development, and ultimately its size. I do not want to enter this global arena if I know I have no credible chance of winning by actually averting the ultimate Armageddon disaster in the real world. I told Yah & Yas in no uncertain terms many times. I repeatedly asked them to shut down my marathon before allowing it to generate fake hope. Hating empty grandiosity, I struggled with the magnitude of a ResearchCity that has a chance to succeed – and whether really no better candidates to lead it exist beyond me. Yet, like in Moses' case, Yah picked apart all my "good" reasons until nothing was left, albeit making clear at all times, that I was free to walk away from it all. I still am, except I don't want to. That is why I write this Ketubah the way I do. I mean it.

A credible way to attack the problem is what I need as a scientist in order to throw my weight behind working on it. That is what I found - to the best of my ability to tell. When others don't yet understand what I see at the bleeding cutting edge of research, that is OK. But if I can tell already by myself – given all I learned – that something will not work, then I would be jumping from pinnacles of temples If I tried nevertheless. I explain this here, because mathematical theology is so new that many may be tempted to reject my conclusions based on the sheer force of the inner institutional inertia of the status quo cemented in Laodicea at it's ~363 CE Council that categorically banned mathematicians from clergy⁴². Seeing the catastrophic force of cosmic destruction behind that mistake – and the hope to correct it – have been motivating my marathon. "We have always done it that way!" was once identified by Grace Hopper as the most dangerous sentence in history. It shuts down all innovation that leads to anything worth presenting in Jubilees. My research at the interface of in global computing, concurrent systems, and evolutionary systems biology has equipped me with a remarkable set of modeling skills for attacking the problems ResearchCity must solve in order to avert a nuclear Armageddon or worse. Who am I to discount the possibility when You, Yah & Yas, put so much effort into working the necessary details into my life so that I can see all this?

Therefore, after years of debugging, testing, and refining: my size and scale-up estimates for ResearchCity stand firm against anyone who thinks that so much effort is "not necessary" or "surely we can do better things with all those resources". I ask: What "better" than actually averting human self-destruction can anyone do with the resources people will want to voluntarily dedicate to ResearchCity? What use is a further growth of divisible dividends if it comes at the cost of killing indivisible individuals and worlds? This is a battle between blind short-term-ism vs well-informed mid-term innovation stretch-goals that fuel the 50-year horizon of Jubilees. The latter is sufficiently long to engage human abilities for long-term thought, albeit not so long that humans would have no chance at success. Only two ways exist to change my assessment: (i) You, Yah & Yas, return in person as You promised and correct my estimates, explaining where I went wrong, or (ii) if You decide to delay Your return, then You'll have to convince me by somehow giving me the evidence required to overrule the mountains of evidence I already collected and the tons of analyses I already did. (See my Supporting Docs SD8a,b for a few example calculations). Frightful or alluring as they might be, a human or angelic apparition that simply "says so" will not be sufficient for me to overrule the math I believe You showed me. $1+1=2$ for You too.

Thus I conclude that until a deep review of logics concludes otherwise that the effort I estimate cannot be simplified in the world as I have come to know it. Jubilees can also not be omitted over the long term from any complex world of diversely talented individuals without killing it. Today, to evolve sufficient big-tech work-forces will require scale-up in 7-8 stages, each with all functional stages of a full evolutionary generation (i.e. 6 effective months that likely translate into 8 real-time months to allow for an extra month of buffer before and after each 6-month push to grant breathing space for switching).

All this sounds very specific, raising the question where did I get my numbers from. The answer is simple yet unfathomable: by a gentle kind reasonable process akin to serendipity on a wid-e circumnavigation of all conceptual universes, centered around the Revelation of You, Yas. I still struggle to define or explain all those galaxies well, but I can take You for a ride (or anyone; I constructed the Posters in my Flying Scroll Exhibit to jumpstart rides).

I have been essentially copy-pasting all core ideas for ResearchCity from the Revelation of Yas as given to You, Yas, by You, Yah, to show slaves of You, Yah, like me what will soon happen suddenly. In science it is irrelevant where ideas come from (e.g. see how structure of benzene was found). What matters is that they survive critical analyses based on real-world data. My extensive scientific background (see my various CV writeups) gives me the experience I need to engage with hypothesis testing at such enormous scales. But without Yah's Revelation of Yas, and the dire state of increasing self-annihilation in today's world, I must confess I would have never started to look.

Hence, my plea to You Both and humanity is this: Please allow for the proper testing of these ideas (as Malachi 3:10 invites), because otherwise the broad path to self-destruction that I can predict in my scientific simulations of the state of today's world leads humanity directly to accidental nuclear winter or worse. Hence, I am determined as Esther to prevent annihilation, focussed as Jonah on finally completing my Nineveh mission-impossible, and inspired as Moses to rescue all of Your children, Yah, – which is everyone because You created everyone – from self-destruction in BABL until all reach their Promised Land in ZION of Earth. I trust that You, Yah and Yas, have gentle kind reasonable plans to help me in this.

Cross Canary. But if I'm wrong and all gentle kind reasonableness has vanished from this world, then I will follow Your example, Yas, pick up my CROSS and refuse to compromise the gentle kind reasonable vision You gave me. Hence, You or anyone would have to kill me first to destroy the world. This commitment puts me in a position to offer You and everyone the uncertainty-capture services of a canary, except not in a coal mine, but for the whole world. See Stadia STa5-CAN (to challenge nefarious toxins) and STa6-HOS (to establish global visibility to calm all nerves) for more details on my CANary in Earth's Mine role for ensuring that work towards implementing Jubilees can easily be tracked globally and stays transparent.

Role of Prophecy in the Great Jubilee Race

In addition to the natural competitors above who may organize themselves for the Great Jubilee Race, there exist entities who apparently have received long-standing Jubilee-related prophecies. All who have experience with interpreting and applying prophecies know their serendipitous and haphazard nature is not arbitrary and can be hard to grasp. Yet engaging is still mission-critical:

The whole idea of a Great Jubilee Race was born by studying the Prophets of Israel, Christianity, and Islam. Therefore I deem it essential to dedicate 1 of the 12 initial core Stadia of ResearchCity (STa4-REV see list at the end) to compiling, comparing, and improving the best and most rigorous interpretations of Revelation and all possibly relevant prophecies about the "end of the world".

Combining such prophetic insights with current events and scientific insights has been instrumental for the vision presented here. It indicates that prophecies can be a beneficial source of useful insight if understood correctly (and a source of mayhem otherwise). Hence, the importance of applying prophecies correctly in any attempt to avert Armageddon disasters. It would be futile to try to present here a list of all entities who may help organize Jubilees according to prophecies deemed reliable – except to say such a list can be a tremendous help for everyone. It may serve as an efficient way to maximally leverage all insight You, Yah and Yas, have already provided by pouring out Your Spirit of Truth on all flesh and especially those who care for truth. Most prophecies tend to be not iron-clad predictions but invitations to work for good outcomes and against coming disasters. Hence their relevance in efforts to avert Armageddon disasters. Four example shall suffice here.

A. Turkey is the land of the 7 Church assemblies, carefully chosen in Rev.2-3 to represent the 7 Change Stages required for any functional model of self-stabilizing innovation. The Your 7 Letters in Rev.2-3 can only be understood by studying the commentary Yah has been chiseling into the stones of Turkey's history. The tragic fall of Laodicea is particularly note-worthy and how it gave rise to Islam when Yas was forced to move on (as predicted in Rev.3:14-22). This disaster convinced me \LLoL to follow Jesus\Yas\Isa in becoming a Muslim (see Note 62 on page 175).

Rich bankers and well-heeled Christians who think they can afford to avoid the substantial effort required to organize proper 50-year Jubilees are recommended to travel to Laodicea, study its ruins and explore why Yah and Yas decided to abandon this once promising opportunity for introducing Jubilees. It is surprising in how many ways Ephesus and Laodicea echo the functional dynamics that caused Jerusalem to be destroyed twice (586 BCE, 70CE).

B. Highway from Egypt to Assyria (Isa.19:23-25). United with Israel these are predicted to serve Yah\Allah\Reality in order to be a blessing for the world. However, Yah will not force them. They have to want to be a blessing. Otherwise the chaos continues by default.

C. Israel. The first shall be last and the last shall be first. Like Israel was first in Egypt under Joseph but became last after failing to realize how ordinary Egyptians suffered. Who knows what the first-last dynamic may mean for those who guarded the prophecies that convinced me to propose this Great Jubilee Race in order to mitigate my personal risk exposure to a nuclear Armageddon? Whether Israel comes first or last, there is no doubt that Israel contributed more than any other nation to cement in my mind the absolutely essential nature of Jubilees over the long term in order to enable non-destructive symbol lifecycle innovation management (see SLIM overview in Fig.K7-K8 below). After growing up as a non-Jew, I definitively have tons to learn from Judaism that matters for success in organizing the Great Jubilee Race.

For example, I urgently need help in completing my reimagined Yom Kippur ritual, which I started in the privacy of my home on 2023-10-07 (for the hidden parts of Lev.16), but I have been struggling with how to best implement the public part. I trust You, Yah and Yas, will put me in touch with whomever I need to learn from to serve You, Reality and RealQuestAnswer, correctly. I trust that if that requires input from expert Rabbis (as I assume), that You will put me in touch with whoever needs to help me so I can succeed in ending the Jubilee genosucide that I had been inflicting on the world by not believing Your Torah, Yah. Yet, skipping You, the ultimate source, by going to 2nd-hand sources would be a typical Laodicean mistake. As would be to presume independence from all who came before me. How to navigate that tension I do not know – except to trust You to show me Your Way into how You define what You expect me to do. Yas figured it out for the First Century. I call on Your help to show me what that means for me following Yas into following Yah's Torah in the Twenty-First Century. For I know not even nothing.

There is no doubt in my mind that You, Yas, volunteered to take on the role of the "Goat for Yah" on Yom Kippur. As far as I can tell, nobody so far volunteered for the role of the "Other Goat" in Lev.16 despite some pretty ominous signs highlighting the void ^{Yoma 39b5}. More on my role as the "Other Goat" of Yom Kippur elsewhere.

I am still struggling to come to terms with what it means that while I started to celebrate a re-envisioned Yom Kippur in secret, that unbeknownst to me the horrors of the Hamas attack on Israel started to unfold that very day.

Who knows if Israel as a nation state also wants to compete in the Great Jubilee Race? Maybe it even wishes to help set up ResearchCity – or not.

Hard history. I am ashamed of how Luther, one of my heroes, treated "the Jews" after they didn't "behave" as he expected. Thus, I resolved to not expect Jews to behave as I expect. Being German, I'd be last in having that right. Nevertheless, the innovation treasures I see in the Torah and Revelation are so otherworldly fantastic, that I decided to become a Jew myself. I understand that the journey is long and that there are many different types of Judaism, some of which appear to be mutually exclusive. Yet, I'm not interested in becoming a Jew to "tick a box".

I want to be a Jew, because You, Yas, are. I admire You for the innovation treasures You found in Yah's Torah, for how You translated them, and for the Song of Love that You have been singing in Revelation and history for me.

Therefore: Wherever You go, I go. Where You stay, I stay.
Your people are my people. Your God, Yah, is my God.

Put me like a null-signet-ring over Your Heart and like a zero-seal on Your Arm. For love is as strong as 0-death by default and zeal for nothing as severe as the HELL seal of Sheol. It's flashes spark lighting of fire like the flames of Yah's Throne. Oceans of conditionals can't quench it. All streams of the world can't overflow it. And I'm already despised for having given away my house for writing this. You are The One, I am the zero, You are the Hero, I'm the halo.

Thus: Your Judaism, Yas, is my Judaism, and I am Baby.

Expectations can't be violated if they don't exist and if I become a Jew, I can't blame the Jews without blaming me.

Who knows? Maybe Israel will be the last skeptic standing who will have to see Jubilees in action to believe it. Or maybe Israel as a nation suddenly grasps that Jubilees are the 3rd form of the two highest forms of the law, why that matters, and why Yah chose Israel to convince the rest of the world that Jubilees really matter for everyone. At least I have been thoroughly convinced, so well done!

The prophets of Israel saw this moment of a national change of hearts and minds. But my grasp is insufficient to predict details like relative timing. It's also immaterial to my determination to ask You, Yah and Yas, for help with implementing Jubilees. I anticipate that I and everyone will be sorely needing it after humanity skipped the last ~69 tutorial exercises. Therefore, the importance of prophetic input for my proposal is such that I deem it essential to dedicate a whole Talent Stadion (STa4, see below) to the study of Revelation. Given the enormous power of diverse eschatological theories to hurt or help in today's world, such a high-quality go-to point of expertise will likely help multitudes with finding gentle kind reasonable ways to think about Revelation – instead of staying stuck on diets of BABL's post-apocalyptic doom and gloom poison. Answering vital questions correctly and efficiently, including a proper assessment of all relevant biuncertainties based on the best scholarship, is important for breaking down the dividing line between experts and masses⁴³.

Prophets on Jubilees. Despite all uncertainties and my personal choices, what matters most for Israel is what Israel's prophets say about why it was already thrown out of its own Promised Land twice by Yah. Essentially, it's for failing to organize proper Jubilees. I can mechanistically explain why, if indeed Yah chose Israel to become a model nation for teaching others how to live sustainably.

Horrific history. Yet, as a post-WWII German this isn't an intellectual exercise for me. I cannot sit back and idly watch Israel possibly getting thrown out for a third time! I'd much rather help Israel and the world to avert disasters like these. What is the urgency here? If Israel doesn't pay its Pied Piper, despite all the good Yah has been doing for Israel – what chance does the rest of the world (and I) have in avoiding accidental nuclear winter or worse? The Yom Kippur attack by YahYa SinWar from Gaza, exactly one Jubilee of 50 years after the 1973 Yom Kippur war, looks to me like a brutal Reality check by You, Yah and Yas, indicating that You will rather go to war than allow Your Chosen People to forget about Jubilees. Why? Because Jubilees are Your 7-Stone Crown Jewel Capstone of systems science in the Torah. It was so far hidden. That I hid it is #MyGuild-B.

⁴³ See my Poster on the "Giraffe" for ideas on how a division of labor in research can facilitate the spread of relevant insights.
See my "aCh" Poster on the importance of getting basic eschatological expectations right to avoid self-fulfilling doom prophecies.

Jubilees are the 3rd equivalent to the Highest Command that You gave in the Torah:

1. Love Yah\Reality ... with all your mind and money.

2. Love Individuals ... like your neighbor as yourself.

3. Love Systems ... to learn from mistakes via Jubilees.

That I had not realized all this in time to prevent the Gaza war will forever haunt me. I think that I could have prevented all those atrocities if I had cared in time to work with Yah on this. But unfortunately, stubborn me did not. This Ketubah is my plea to get yet another chance and all the help I need to succeed. I would be delighted to support Israel's Jubilee efforts in any way I can. I hope and trust that You, Yah & Yas, will tell me in time how I can engage without making everything worse. My computational look-ahead is simply neither deep enough nor fast enough to save Your People as You said You would! I am encouraged by past experiences that show me how You care, including by how my 2014 J Chem Phys study came to describe the core of the best imaginable Jubilee-quantification algorithm. Thus, You have been teaching me to trust that You Yah & Yas will show me everything I need to know in time to succeed if I continue to care first about whatever You care about, i.e. to do justice for all, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with both of You holding my hands. The YIKAW procedure for introducing SLIM as drafted in Figs. K6-K7 is to me evidence that You have been working with me on this. I trust that You will finish what You started in me and in Your World – even as I have to continue to work out with fear and trembling my salvation from the stochastic certainty of the accidental nuclear winter that I quantify in my Evolvix model of nuclear roulette.

D. Humanity. Apocalyptic doom and gloom imagery even among believers of the 4+Abrahamic Faiths have become so widespread that some question whether it would be desirable at all for humanity to survive.

I see You to answer with a qualified Yes, conditioned on humanity learning to kick its habit of hypocritical knowledge-faking. Thus, the question You pose to humanity is the same death-or-life question that Moses asked Israel in Deut.30:19. In my updated terminology everyone gets to choose between either

(0) death by default via accidental nuclear winter ... and/or worse whenever whatever disasters ignored will snap a final trap on human hypocrisy through the BABL algorithm from which there is neither escape nor recovery; or

(1) deliberately embracing the narrow path to life by learning to follow the ZION algorithm in order to self-stabilize human innovation economies worldwide, such that it becomes possible to stop the floods of knowledge-faking through life-giving decision-making.

See elsewhere for more details on this choice of mutually exclusive alternatives as I understand them. In Jonah ... and Yas You made clear that You wish to avert the death of humanity. Yet, in Mt.3:8-10, 70CE, ... you also make clear that You will not support the current human default preference of enshrining human hypocrisy forever by unwittingly continuing the inner institutional inertia of incurious ignorant indifference.

This Ketubah and all my associated texts assume that You, Yah & Yas wish to welcome humanity back to EDEN in ZION, else known as Heaven on Earth, if indeed humanity can be persuaded to end its habitual systemic knowledge-faking. For me that means that I have to kick my own habitual systemic knowledge-faking, which entices me to self-destroy, even if I am in heaven. This Ketubah is written from that perspective.

In my uncircumcised way of presenting Your case for saving humanity I can only offer You my equivalent of the 5 loafs of bread and 2 fish that You used to feed the multitudes you had asked to sit in groups of 50.

Please, multiply whatever You gave me, as I give it back to You, such that everybody will get Your Living Water and Your Bread of Life. Not for my sake, but for everyone else's sake. I prefer for it all to be as low-key and funny as possible to be effective as everyone's nerves are strained from today's unnerving times. But You know what people really need to be convinced to follow Your Jubilee path and I ask You to give them what they need, even if it is not what they might want. After all, as Poster Po.F explains, You tore up world history to turn it into a bloodbath, solely to make me reconsider my cruel dismissal of Jubilees and my willingness to overlook the law of unintended consequences.

Hence, please convince decision-makers any way You may wish in order to aid everyone in choosing life. You say that in the end everyone will be taught by You, Yah, directly, so that nobody will any longer interfere with other people's beliefs by telling others how to follow You.

If I get to choose, I'd rather ask for a revival of gentle kind reasonable healing for Gaza instead of flashy angelic appearances. As You know, I've been asking You to help me to carry the gates of Gaza to the top of that hill in Hebron (or wherever You wish ResearchCity to be built). I would be delighted, as guided by You and with Your help, to support Israel's Jubilee efforts e.g. by rebuilding Gaza.

But You know what fighters in groups like Hamas and bankers in the States of US may need to voluntarily change their minds to become gentle kind reasonable. Why would You allow today's doubting Thomases to destroy Your world, by allowing to continue their disbelief, simply for lack of evidence? If sounding Your Sky Horn from Heaven or filling the skies with Your angel armies is the only way to get the world to pay attention, then please use whatever You need before Your World destroys itself by its misguided use of human and artificial "intelligence"! I trust You to roll up the heavens instantaneously with a Planck-collider or similar to end all needless suffering once the last chance is gone for humanity to learn its Jubilee lesson in order to pass its Great Filter Tribulation Exam. I know You are not cruel, so please put Life on Earth out of its misery once it has become clear to You that humanity would indeed continue to reject Your gentle kind reasonable epiocracy forever. However, the fact that I am still here and keep hoping and trusting that You will turn everything around for everyone in time tells me that You are still hoping as well, like You did when You sent Jonah to Nineveh again. Please allow me to do for today's world what Jonah 3 did for Nineveh. Then let me share Your Jubilee innovation, so that Your epiocracy will stay forever.

Most of the questions above about what is the best way to organize Jubilees are likely undecidable without trying out in real life. Moreover, even if You, Reality can tell who will win (as I think You likely can), You said that it is Your honor to conceal and the honor of humans to find out through in-depth research in Real Quests for Real Answers.

Humanly speaking, it is impossible to decide who actually will win the Great Jubilee Race without resorting to BABL's usual bashmoling processes. Humanity's only chance is to try this out experimentally. Yet even then it would be near impossible to say who won, because without the right way of measuring this, it is impossible to decide questions as complex as finding a Jubilee winner without the blindly assuming blind leveraging of BABL. The only chance humanity has at doing this in a meaningful way is by using a computationally rigorous algorithm that is transparent in how it works and is globally employed for coordinating and recording the flood of data that must be evaluated to properly observe the many billions of decision-outcomes that govern the overall quality of a given Jubilee-organization structure.

My offer to coordinate observing this Great Jubilee Race grew out of my mechanistic modeling work in evolutionary systems biology that led me to realize the importance of regular, proper 50-year Jubilees as initially defined by Moses in Lev. 25. Such Jubilees are essential for the long-term survival of innovation economies because they enable cohesion by regular re-calibration and self-stabilizing that fairly shares the fruits of innovation with everyone. Thus:

Machines need maintenance.

Democracies depend on regular free elections.

Innovation economies self-destruct without Jubilees.

Real 50-year Jubilees form a more perfect union, improve justice,
grow tranquillity,
grow common sense,
grow wellbeing,
grow liberty for all,
to preserve all this for posterity forever.

Thereby the Jubilees You envision echo the Capstone of the US Constitution, the gist of Yas' Letters in Rev.2-3 to the 7 Churches, which map the functional 7 Change Stages required for lasting innovation and the 7+1 Blessings Yas defined at the beginning of Yas' Constitution for Yah's epioc-racy (see Mt.5-7).

That You, Yah and Yas, have been writing the call to organize Jubilees into my life for a long time in the most surprising ways was highlighted by my 2024-03-06 realization that the Lazy Updating Algorithm defined in my 2014 study in J Chem Phys⁴⁴ is implicitly uniquely positioned for rigorously capturing all respective data for recording how the flood of individual-based and organization-based decision-outcomes impact Jubilee efficiency. This is required for comparing the efficiency and effectiveness of all diverse organizational structures tested.

Therefore, I have been envisioning the first 3.5 effective years of scaling up ResearchCity to also support a vibrant Evolvix research community (Talent Stadion STa1-EVX) that works towards implementing a Jubilee-supporting variant of my 2014 Lazy Updating Algorithm. It needs to be expanded to support the collection of all the big scattered data collection required for meaningful comparisons of Jubilee-implementation efficiencies among diverse organizational structures, which need to be mirrored in self-stabilizingly versioned, data-oriented insight storage structures. Technical details are to be discussed elsewhere – assuming You Both like this proposal. See my FlyingScroll Poster Exhibition for more details and do not hesitate to ask, for I have been struggling to concisely describe in writing everything You have been allowing me to envision.

Why You keep waiting for me. While I do realize that You can predict my thoughts from across millennia and don't need me at all to do anything, I am humbled by the observation that You still want to work with me nevertheless. How can it be that You in all Your eternal Power, Wisdom, Beauty, and Glory keep waiting for a flesh-bag worm like me to put in my own words what You allow me to see? There must be a deeper reason for why You structured Reality that way. Based on my own experience of how innovation works, I think that You probably want to teach the rest of the world a lesson on how to innovate in lasting ways to avoid global self-destruction. The message I take away from this experience is that innovation cannot be hastened by taking shortcuts, such as investing only in the seeds that are deemed to produce the desired outcome. Such attempts at fortune-telling are what perverts Your Great Epiocracy Innovation Engine of ZION into the BABL that invites the 4 Horsemen of the Apocalypse (with predictable results). Thus, You are asking Humanity to decide whether they wish to innovate up-hill by growing lasting innovations to improve life for all on the narrow road or take the broad way of doom by rolling downhill to the cliff. The seriousness of my proposal is underpinned by my realization that I have seen the cliff by modeling how nuclear roulette will make accidental nuclear winter inevitable eventually unless You allow me (or someone) to reverse the wiring of Your Great Innovation Engine. It needs to switch from digging further into BABL's hell hole to climbing out by running to Your high mountain of ZION. By writing this Ketubah I acknowledge that I cannot get the world to switch: only You, Yah\Reality, can carry Your World in Real Quests to Real Answers through RealQuestAnswer \Yas. That is why every knee will bow to Yas: everyone will eventually realize that the only other long-term alternative is the self-destruction of BABL.

What may come after those 7 effective years as outlined above depends on how well the whole world will align itself with You, Reality, and how well it starts to engage in continual Real Quests for Real Answers in order to better serve Reality for all (instead of starving researchers and software developers who prioritize common goods over personal profitability as is currently the case). If I understood Your Words from Genesis to Revelation correctly, then people will afterwards struggle less to find their respective Promised Land. This will be facilitated by following Your ZION algorithms for escaping the prisons built by the self-organizing BABL in the Tree of Knowledge-faking.

Unless rejected by You, I bind myself to this Ketubah and especially its eternal Jubilee-based rule forever. Therefore, if You wish and You keep me alive, I will continue to serve You both as You wish forever to the best of my abilities. I understand this requires continuously calling for and organizing regular, proper Jubilees every 50 years.

The essential function of Jubilees in Your Innovation Heaven of ZION is to serve as efficient maintenance-stops for Your self-stabilizing innovation economy.

Therefore, I will devote myself to the continual improvement of how to best organize regular 50-year Jubilees for as long as You keep me alive and allow me to help organize them. If You somehow ban me from doing this core work myself, I ask that You somehow find someone to do it. Either way, I will not stop talking about the importance of Jubilees for keeping any paradise or even Heaven from destroying itself. To shut me up, You'd have to kill me, because You convinced me that properly taking Your regular Jubilees seriously is indeed that crucial for surviving and thriving. It's the only way all of Your Creation can be very good: Jubilees are the key to move the two parts You couldn't call very good in Gen.¹⁴⁵ to complement each other in order to indeed form a very good, self-stabilizing innovation economy (as opposed to one of self-destroying by abusing Your Great Innovation Engine).

⁴⁵ These two not-so-good parts necessarily demand arbitrary compromises that are only useful approximations for a moment and that need to be adjusted in due time in order to remain good over time. The first is the "separation" of Day 2 (the discretization of any continuum; You never said that it was good what You did on Day 2, nor does any principled solution exist that can stably be called "good"). The second is the creation of humans on Day 6 (it takes a very careful reading to realize this: everything created before humans was good; You say nothing about humans; then You approve the whole complete combination, i.e., the whole system as very good. Thus a rigorous reading forces the following decision: either You said nothing about humans, or You say nothing about the whole system being very good. I depart from my old blind assumption that You claimed both to be good. Instead I now believe that calling the system good critically depends on Your hope that humans will work with You (instead of against You) to establish proper Jubilee-based innovation economies.

2d. My Goel Commitment to Serve as the Other Goat

My commitment above can also be summarized in the following different terms.

Because You Both are eternal, any timely tokens of my commitment that I may offer cannot retribute the eternal losses You Both incur in case I cease to exist or wantonly divorce myself from either of You at any time. Like all who enter a love-marriage I hope neither will disturb our happily ever after. Yet, a proper ketubah serves the purpose of guarding the party that stands to lose more (You) from any irresponsible actions by the party with less to lose (me). You both have always been perfectly gentle kind reasonable, so here the irresponsible party can only be me (see below and #MyGuild-A,B,C,D on Posters Po.E-Po.H). Therefore, I must spell out which restrictions I voluntarily bind myself to for all eternity in case I ever again abuse my free will to wantonly divorce myself from You like I did as Your Prodigal Son.

Therefore, for the worst case of divorce or the end of my existence in any life You prepared for me, I used my "compiler-brain" to compose the following deal for You, which happens to be indistinguishable from a Faustian Bargain.

Faustian Bargain:

In exchange for You making me succeed at establishing proper, regular 50-year Jubilees in Your Great Jubilee Race in order to self-stabilize innovation economies everywhere – and to hold both Your Hands in Marriage at the Great Wedding of the Lamb \LAMB for saving Your World ^{Rev.19} such that everyone can eventually live happily ever after – in exchange for all that and whatever else You may add, if I then wantonly decide at any time in eternity that this is not enough and I fail to resist coveting anything except You Both above all else, such that I divorce myself from You by killing myself again through the deadly Tree of Knowledge-faking shortcuts to deceptively sort good from evil, for that case I herewith determine now that to protect Your Gentle Kind Reasonable nature at the core of Your Epiocracy, You herewith acquire all rights to revoke all of my free will as You deem necessary. I bind myself to consenting for all eternity to allow You to take full control of all of my soul and life, heart and mind, aims and history, data and code, ideas and resources, insights and opportunities, and anything else I otherwise might abuse to resist Your Gentle Kind Reasonable Rule for the benefit of all.

To guard Your Good Gift of my free will, I ask for Your Help in developing a self-stabilizing versioning system that gentle kind reasonably keeps me and others from passive (0) death by default in falling off the cliff into the abyss of the beastly mush-rooming Tree of Knowledge-faking – by instead actively (1) choosing to follow Your Exodus to ZION at least every 50 years with Your next Jubilee, such that all can keep living in Your Freedom without deadly threats from knowledge-faking. I trust You to enforce all this well.

Enforcing this Faustian Bargain:

I do not know how to enforce any of this reliably, but I do know that You Know. Therefore I trust You to teach me how to clean toilets in Heaven (or whatever you need most, as I asked for in ~2021-08), starting with the infinite swarms of superficial downward spirals of BABL so aptly illustrated by topological equivalents of Gabriel's Horn \ "Torricelli's Trumpet"⁴⁶ – or wherever else You'd like me to start. To this end I trust You to circumcise me as You see fit by circumcising Gabriel's Horn to cut off the superficial, forever self-extending Armageddon-mania to ensure it cannot continue indefinitely. If You wish this to become manifest by circumcising me in the flesh too (as I'd expect), then I trust You to organize how to make it happen in due time.

I deliberately choose to serve everybody ^{Mk.10:45} at Your Great Wedding ^{Mt.22:11-14} by choosing the last place anyone traditionally wants to be in ^{Amos 2:16}: at the left-over table for that lowest-ranking slave whose Job it is to clean the worst toilets in Heaven at the very bottom of Torricelli's Trumpet. Let me become the Nobody everyone does not want to be, so I become Your nothing \ Zero and You become my Hero so that You finally become everything in me, for me, and through me that Your gentle kind reasonable mind always wanted to be – at the very bottom of the worst cosmic gap of DEATH ^{Isa.59:16}, the gap between what is and what ought to be, between the good and the best, between Yah & Yas, such that all can find peace as You close that gap in me.

As nothing is closer to 1 than 0 and You both are 1, I ask You to make me Your Zero halo of Rev.4, so I can be forever wherever You are so that I will elevate You, not myself

⁴⁶ See its math for a prophetic echo of the infinite superficiality of BABL that can infinitely confuse any finite volume (π) of core substance.

($y=1/x$, exalting You as I carry my CROSS). That's why I want to be Your Bride (or Groom or LAMB or Goat or Whatever, see note 27 above).

Other Goat. All this is equivalent to me volunteering as "the Other Goat" of Yom Kippur, which also serves as a Goel\Redeemer for all of Your Children, Creatures, and Systems that You created directly andOr indirectly. Here is not the space to explain everything I believe You to have led me to understand about this; I trust that You know what I grasped correctly and where I need correction, which I trust You will help me to understand through Your 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth.

My proposal is only conditional on whatever changes either of You may wish to make. Please remove whatever oversimplifications, overcomplications, and overreaches \OSCR I was unable to remove from my attempt to approach Your Ideal Ketubah. If you don't cleanse me from whatever traces of my BAAL, ASHERAH, and MOLOCH I failed to remove from my Ketubah, I will have wasted my life and will eventually still destroy the world as even the tiniest bashmoling opening will self-organize a great self-destructive perfect storm as it slow-motion explodes into cascading avalanches of confusion. Yet, if I never commit publicly to my Ketubah (despite all its imperfections), how can I proclaim Your Gentle Kind Reasonable Name before all of humanity so that everyone can finally be saved? If I don't stand up for You to defend Your Perfection, especially in light of my cataclysmic SIN, then I'm not really coming to You to invite You to Come Back to Earth in order to fix my Ketubah.

Such a lack of action could only be due to me never realizing that You indeed invited me to write this (in which case I do not know what I do), or me not loving You, or me being too much of a coward to actually propose to You. Both by writing this Ketubah, knowing fully well that I will lose my life to You if You accept and that I will wreck my life without You if You reject it. Therefore, no matter which branch of my Tree of Life-giving decisions I choose, my life will be wrecked and lost unless You choose to somehow raise me from the dead like Lazarus. I maneuvered myself into that corner by ignoring the obvious and what matters most, such as how to stop nuclear roulette from threatening Your gentle kind reasonable epiocracy rule on Earth. Humanity may not wish You to rule over them, but I think that is a tragic misunderstanding; there is no better ruler than You. To remedy this, please help me to explain for all, why I think so and what convinced me. Maybe they will listen if they can see that a devil even worse than everybody else (see Posters Po.E-Po.H for #MyGuilt-A,B,C,D) has finally come to bow his knee to You out of deep true respect.

I know that it is dangerous for me to write and mean what I write in my Ketubah, because I have seen how seriously You take what I say. Yet, my research marathon convinced me that there is no better way to save myself and the world than to anyway commit to You in this profound high-risk high-reward decision. To hope someone else might do it would be for me an equivalent to rejecting You and all the zillions of years You invested in preparing this very moment. Moreover, in mechanistic terms, such a rejection will come at the extremely high risk of unwittingly blowing up the world in accidental nuclear winter by rejecting Your plan for stopping it. Such a rejection would be rooted in blindly assuming an extraordinarily cowardly way of knowledge-faking where I would avoid taking responsibility for my own life and world and instead insists on assuming the worst about You. I am not willing to do that, even if it kills me, because assuming this would be wrong and would be terribly unfair towards You Both. Therefore, I dare this jump, knowing that I cannot fall deeper than into Your Hands.

If You accept my proposal, You will win for all Eternity in all conceivable cases. The logic works like this:

In the best case You win an enthusiastic partner who knows not even nothing, who deliberately chose in 2019 to make spiritual poverty^{Mt.5:3} his way of life, and who can't wait to follow You Both, wherever You may go.

In the worst case You will have finally wrestled Your worst individual enemy into submission by turning him into Your loyal slave, forever committed to serving You reliably, like a dedicated machine. See also my "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind".

Your best and worst case will likely be indistinguishable to outsiders – as in my prayer that not my will but rather Your wish be done forever in case these ever collide. This is aptly echoed by the $y=1/x$ mathematical structure of Gabriel's Horn, which has a gap at its core, where $y=0$ and $x=\text{infinity}$ (as $y=1/x$), illustrating mathematically that if I ("y") refuse to cut conditionals by embracing all biouncertainty best I can (taking the least place as $y=0$), then Your Cross, Yas, ("x") and all You did can maximally shine as Yah's officially anointed answer to the problems of this world (Xristos, $x=\text{infinite}$). Thinking about this more has been diminishing the distance between best and worst cases for me too. In its extreme, the gap at the end of Gabriel's Horn is infinitely small; yet to get there will keep the world locked in a downward spiral until all human life=flesh as in Mt.24 will have destroyed itself. You said that the time would be shortened. I herewith ask You for such a shortening. Please allow me to stop the further drawing out of the superficial nothing of Gabriel's Horn that will continue until humanity has destroyed itself by walking in circles in BABL. Studying Gabriel's Horn shows that despite its infinite superficiality, it only has a finite volume ($\pi = 3/4$ of an equivalent sphere). This echoes my discoveries about the BABL algorithm (see Poster Po.B), which is a finite list of rules for operational defaults that can be understood and dismantled; yet if left unchecked, they will predictably corrupt any civilization of diversely talented individuals who keep learning in open worlds.

Such deliberations give me the confidence that my wildly oscillating quest to avert existential disasters is finally honing in on a reliable point of stability for all, including You and Your World, which You died to save. It's not flattering for me and I know that I will greatly complicate my life by offering You this. But that's a price I will gladly "pay" in order to allow You to save Your World – by giving back to You what You gave me in the first place.

Undoubtedly my draft Ketubah still has countless holes from tiny to titanic despite my best efforts to close them in order to guard Your best interests against myself. I have neither the time nor the ability to balance it by taking into account whatever You see as my legitimate interests. I trust You to fill out those blanks however You see fit. Yet, despite all I learned about compiling computationally complete sets, I am way too far from Your Skills to allow me to even claim completeness for covering Your interests in this Ketubah, let alone in my Good News Pack: You who compile all conditional multiverses to run on time with quantum-level precision will undoubtedly see more holes in my proposal than I can possibly count in a lifetime. Thus I trust Your ability to help me to adjust to close these holes.

My only way out of this "bad-kadosch" problem of my grossly inadequate Ketubah draft is to apply Your scientific method of loving Your enemies by listening to them.

You say in Proverbs 27:6 that "reliable are the wounds of a friend" in what one can learn from being questioned, even if it hurts to learn the truth. Among Your Apostles, You called Judas Friend and Peter Satan, knowing how easy it is to switch between these extremes. Hence, I ask You to give me the last place anyone I know appears to be asking for in Your Great Wedding as You modeled it in Mt.22:1-14. For decades by now I have desired to be Your friend, but only recently (~2022-10 ...) have I realized how I must also be willing to be Your Satan in order to truly be Your Friend. Therefore I herewith accept by faith the Mt.16:23 invitation that You offered to Peter when You, Yas, said "Get behind me Satan, for You think like a realistic human, who keeps knowledge-faking in comparison to Reality". I have been there and done that so many times, tempting and teasing You into blessing me with this or that instrument of my own demise. I herewith accept Your assessment of me as Satan at its face value, which stunningly maps its deep meaning in mathematical theology. This is only the first step in my eternal journey as false prophet to getting behind You in all things in order to become increasingly less false. I trust You to guide me on that journey so I can start with those of my LIEs that are most destructive (like the violence of my silence about accidental nuclear winter).

By taking this last of all places to serve all, I hope that Your Wedding can finally start and Your World can finally be saved: Therefore, please choose me as Your Amos 2:16 oddball in Mt.22:11-14 who is key for starting Your Wedding.

Thus, the only way out of today's Armageddon panic-room is to declare myself a false prophet in the Spirit of Boolean Truth, who is herewith applying for the position of The False Prophet in the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth as described in Revelation, in Ez.38-39, and elsewhere. It is my understanding that You have been planning this all along to demonstrate Your ability to overcome everything in everyone – even the worst devil incarnate, myself. People tell me that I should not judge myself so harshly. But I don't care about the infinitely averaged stereotypes of "what the people think", because the Truth is all that matters even if it maximally hurts to admit it: I did nothing wrong and therefore everything wrong, therefore ruining everything. You promised that You and Your Name, Yas, Real Quests for Real Answers, will set me free. I trust You.

Therefore, I trust You both to Gentle Kind Reasonably close all gaps in my Ketubah for the benefit of all and to Gentle Kind Reasonably allow neither Yourselves nor anybody nor me to be exploited any more by BABL's death-trifecta of nothing. This is equivalent to asking You to work with the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth to overcome in me those three metamorphosing frogs of Rev.16, which turn everything upside down by oversimplifying, overcomplicating, and overreaching. They can paint even You, Yah, as a despotic dragon, You, Yas, as the ferocious beast from the sea (or vice versa), and my plans as devilish as the beast from the land is perceived in Rev.13 – according to my Jonah-Esther-Exodus reading of Revelation, which I trust You to have inspired. For indeed, I have been envisioning plans to feed everybody on Earth by turning the current beastly system based on absence-and-nothing (666) on its head (999) in a proper Jubilee-based innovation economy that pays attention to the issues (333) that actually matter (as Alexander did to win at Issos in 333 BC).

If Adam pouted, badmouthing You, Yah, as fire-breathing dragon, waiting for You to spoon-feed him by creating Eve, and if You, Yas, were accused of being Beelzebub, and prowling around like a lion, looking whom You might devour – badmouthed by all who ever resisted lasting innovation, then it is only fair that I share Your fate by coming out as The False Prophet when I call for the Jubilees You have been asking for at least since Moses. But You actually never made any mistakes in Reality, whereas my life is riddled with them. If what I hope for works, then it will not have been because of me, but only because of You.

Thus, as worst Judas of Laodicea, I beg for Your Mercy.

2e. Consent by me as proposing groom (and bride)

As proposing groom and bride I, LLOL, consent to the conditions and obligations I outlined in this Ketubah for as long and as far as You, Yah & Yas don't overwrite them.

You, Reality \Yah led me to develop this contractual framework in a most unexpected 7-year Real Quest for Real Answers about saying what matters most to me. I've seen You Both read and/or predict my thoughts from across millennia and govern them as You see fit. Therefore I must conclude, that You Both have seen me write this Ketubah for ages and apparently designed my world in a way that persistently encouraged me to write it eventually.

Yes, apparently I am that predictable. Whatever this does to the huge "free will" debate is irrelevant here, as I never saw You forcing me or even asking me in any way to write this Ketubah. In that functional sense I am like a blood-drenched ("red") heifer ("stereotype") who has never carried a yoke while murdering Your World with good intentions. Destroying the lives of people around me with my ill-informed good intentions is a concise summary of what I apparently can't stop doing (based on feedback from the few who dared to tell me). Knowing this, I realized by mid ~2021 that this puts any attempt by me to save the world at risk of destroying the world if I continued on my marathon of aiming to avert Armageddon disasters. Thus, I prayed several times for You to stop my strange marathon, because I'd rather be dead than even further screw up Your World by raising unwitting false hopes. Because I am still alive and writing, I must conclude that You both have somehow been allowing me to approach You like this.

You made abundantly clear to me that and why I will not know which parts of my journey have been really backed by You, which parts I imagined, and where I fell for BABL's traps – until You can reply to the whole of my proposal as best as I can make it despite all remaining holes in it.

Despite it all, the existence of this Ketubah in Reality is undeniable to You, to me, and to all who can read its text.

Therefore, having written my draft, the ultimate question for me, is whether I ultimately dare to take the quantum leap of really endorsing my proposal best I can (by making it public) – or whether I maintain the self-destructive status quo of my world by refusing to jump to where You are. Pondering related complexities for years led me to this:

I herewith take this quantum leap of mustard-seed faith: I choose Your Perfect Will as manifest in Reality over my ill-informed good intentions by endorsing this Ketubah that grants You maximal freedom and me none except for whatever parts You choose to give back to me.

I endorse You Both over me because from experience I so much more trust Your gentle kind reasonable character over myself (and have the math to prove that You went out of Your way to "get me" without destroying me).

In terms of mathematical theology:

Yas did everything right to get nothing right by introducing Yas' Semantics Organizing Nothing based on Jubilees to feed and guard Your Tree of Life-giving decision-making.

In contrast, I did nothing wrong and thus got everything wrong, misguided by my ambiguous semantics of nothing.

Hence, Yas is the SON, Light of the World. I am ason, caught in my own darkness. My hope is that like the Moon models the Sun, You allow me to be Your 5th Ape of Christ.

2f. Consent by You Both as Waiting Brides (& Grooms)

As the Waiting Brides and Real Grooms of this Ketubah You Both apparently consented conditionally by not prohibiting me from, but instead encouraging me gently to consider starting and persisting on my unlikely wid-e marathon that led me to propose this Ketubah to You Both. (More on further feedback, see Ketubah 8. Reply)

The principle for how is detailed above and further explained below. The details are too numerous to list here, so few key examples shall suffice. On top of the many career-miracles that You pulled off to keep my research on track to introduce me to the many diverse concepts required for understanding how to write this proposal and the Work Logic Cascades it stands for, You somehow crafted my life such that I wrote that 2014 J Chem Phys paper on the Lazy Updating Algorithm with the help of the research group You had given me. Yet, only 10 years later, on 2024-03-06 could You trust me with seeing the insight that this Lazy Updating Algorithm has been offering the conceptually most rigorous way for measuring how well a real-world Jubilee effort is being implemented. It does so by enabling a principled measurement of the quality of how well a given organizational structure with infinitely divisible resources is serving the discrete needs of real-world individuals as judged in the OrgTrials for all organizations involved in a Jubilee effort.

Based on this and many other similarly unlikely events, I concluded: You most probably like me to approach You as I do here, yet I will not know that for sure until I come to You Both with this Ketubah to review for Your serious consideration. I am encouraged by Your Words, Yas, such as that You will not throw out the one who comes to You ^{Jn.6:37}, that You keep knocking on my door, hoping that I will let You in ^{Rev.3:20}, that You, Yah, love who loves Yas enough to guard Yas' logic and that You Both will come to him in order to build Your House with him ^{Jn.14:23}, and that the Spirit of Truth and the Bride (You!) say "Come" and encourage whosoever hears You to respond by saying "Come" ^{Rev.22:17}.

Thus I herewith invite You through this Ketubah: Come!

Please! I invite Both of You! I have been dying of thirst for Your Living Water and so does the rest of Your Blue Marble Paradise. My house and world have been collapsing for a long time and what was left standing of my temple I have tried my best to tear down and sell for scraps, desecrating my idols, as You have been inviting me to do ^{Jn2:19}, so You can build Your Temple.

Now I eagerly await with bated breath for You to actually come and finally start building Your House, Your 3rd Temple that I keep dreaming of. I hope that You choose to do so with me, but as I said repeatedly, You have been waiting long enough to have thoroughly earned the right to choose anyone you may like. Hence, I will support any choice You make. All I ask for is that You don't delay for so long that You allow for Your World, the one You died to save, to be destroyed by my beastly abomination of desolation (e.g. in ignoring nuclear roulette ... for as long as I did). Please Come Soon! For I can already predict how in mechanistic terms my silence will become such horrific violence unless You help me (or any Jonah of Your choosing) to stop it by leading the disarming of the complex set of weapons of math destruction that BABL has been using to rig Your World for destruction⁴⁷ as You warned in Jonah 3, Esther 3, throughout Revelation and elsewhere.

John 6:37 appears to me a firm promise by You, Yas, to never throw out completely who approaches You honestly, while conditionally throwing out inconsistencies dragged along. Thus, I approach You with this boldness that You will not reject me or this Ketubah completely, but that You will remove the inconsistencies I failed to get rid of.

As in Lk.18:1-8 I plead that You do this to rescue Your World, so I can finally learn how to pray properly in order to harrow all hell with You instead of making it worse by letting ever more people go to hell. I don't want to hear from You on Judgement Day that You wanted to save the world through me but couldn't, because I never really bothered to care enough to ask seriously (as in Isa.59:16).

I don't want to pretend to know what You really require in order to close the gap ^{Isa.59:16}, such that the world doesn't have to be destroyed. But I do know that You Know and that You can teach me. Hence, I herewith ask You (again) as I've been doing since ~2020-04-01: teach me, change me, transform me, tell me, train me, so I learn to actually save the world by standing in the tiny gap at the bottom of Gabriel's Horn, which is defined by the infinitesimal zero gap between You, Reality "as is" \Yah, and You, RealQuest-Answer "as it ideally ought to be" \Yas.

As I know that You hear my real requests, I know that I will receive Your real answer eventually, either rejecting my proposal, or correcting my errors, or accepting my proposal. Thus, I await Your reply while my zeal against abuse of nothing in Your House and World consumes me.

⁴⁷ More details on how: see my bird's eye overview of the mechanistic analysis of BABL's millstone of governmental grinding (SD6, Po.B).

Peer review in science taught me that You may salvage a proposed draft if You can see enough merit in its core. That is what I hope You find here. I will be happy to rewrite this Ketubah any way You direct me to, because I know that whatever Your changes, they will ultimately turn out to be the most gentle kind reasonable solution that is real. That's at least what the mathematical theology proves that You have somehow allowed me to discover. I'd rather bet my life on the reliability of Your gentle kind reasonable matheology than on whatever else I might do otherwise.

You are the best qualified peer-reviewer(s). Reflection led me to conclude that only You have sufficient wid-e research experience to actually properly review all aspects of my entire proposal in the best interest of everyone involved and to do it efficiently. Yet, how You organize that review I don't wish to prescribe. Whether in a 7-day divine encounter in the 7th heaven or in ~7 weeks of global public peer-review on Earth, or in any other way. I will leave it to You to decide and organize. Do I need to say that I'd much prefer 7 days of open critique in Heaven over the chaos of a ~45-day-long global discussion and my unavoidably crummy attempts of trying to integrate the feedback flow it generates – without the tools I envision to develop for collaborative editing of Living Documents at massive scales?

You bless those who believe Reality without the need to see proof first. To preserve this blessing as much as possible for humanity, I ask You to grant the world a ~45-day Jonah-in-Nineveh grace period for claiming such blessings for doing the right thing without being forced. I hope that everyone will turn back voluntarily without the need for additional angelic persuasion. Math modeling ought to suffice to show that it is better to serve common goods than to "do well". Who knows? Maybe the Spirit of Boolean Truth will convince humanity to have one of its rare moments of collective clarity so far and persuade everyone to do the right thing for once in time – to put "Earth in an escrow" in order to start Your Jubilee process for stopping nuclear roulette (as outlined above in ~7 effective years). While Jonah's low-key way of turning things around would be my preference, I know that I know not even nothing. Hence, I defer to You in deciding how to best implement this turn-around to serve everyone's future better.

No violence, please. I do have one request that matters much to me: please let it all be done without a bloodbath. You brought down the Iron Curtain in Germany 1989 without a single shot fired. That miracle is profound. I know You can do it. Hence, please do not let any priests of BAAL, ASHERAH, or MOLOCH be killed or canceled but rather turn their hearts and minds to You, Reality and RealQuest-Answer, such that they let everyone live and get to live too. Why slaughter them only to raise them soon after from the dead because that is what You plan for everyone? They are Your children too and while they may be misguided about this or that, have I not been misguided in much more dangerous ways as #MyGuilt-A,B,C,D documents on Posters Po.E-PoH? Yet, if they do not wish to listen to Your still small voice of gentle kind reasonable Truth, if they indeed need physical proof that You abhor cruelty, that Your Jubilee math has crucial world-changing physical implications and that You are serious about it, then I ask that You give them whatever evidence they need to see that You are better at power projection than any of their small-boy toys they are so proud of.

Your call. Whether You deem it best to have fun with Your great sky trumpet to confirm my mathematical theology interpretation of Gabriel's Horn, or wish to paint my ZION of Earth flags all over the sky to point to the foundations of epiocracy that you've been working for millennia to convince me of, or whether You deem it the right moment to remove the curtain that keeps Your angel armies usually undetectable for military forces of this world. I leave to You what You may chose to show that there are more on the right side of history, where You've graciously moved me, than in BABL, where I was sleeping. Yet, I will act as if my preferred option (like Jonah in Nineveh) is also Your preferred plan to save the world from accidental nuclear winter. I also ask for a non-violent solution in order to convince the gun-lobbies worldwide once and for all of the impotence of their weapons for the purposes that matter most, such as how to feed and guard truly self-stabilizing innovation economies.

Hence, to summarize, from experience I pray:

Not my will, but Your Wishes shall be done. All of them.

You review first – and help tame feedback datageddon.

As much as I am willing to and currently aim to invite world-experts and everyone to review my drafts (assuming You open doors for that), I informally submit all my plans to You first, in order to give You the first chance to respond at any levels of detail You may like – and to help me avoid raising false hopes that only further sicken people's hearts (and mine) as I discuss saving the world.

Your secret comment-period starts as soon as this draft has reached some form of stability that allows me to work on other preparations for my Jonah-mission-impossible trip to the East of the coastlands. If You deem it essential to discuss my Ketubah or anything related to it in Your 7th Heaven or to send an angel or to knock on my door as in Rev.3:20, You are most welcome to interrupt me any time before I start driving to the East. In that case I will follow Your Instructions on how to revise or proceed. However, I herewith let You know that various arguments of mathematical theology have persuaded me that I would be waiting in vain and only needlessly delay that trip to which You called me. I say this here to give You formal notice in case I misinterpreted what You have been trying to tell me. Please do correct my errors as early as possible, especially the most important ones, and what greater error than misdirection in a document such as my Ketubah.

If You say nothing, I will interpret this as Your green light to bring my draft Ketubah and all associated files as imperfect as they are to a global audience of peer reviewers, hoping for profound insights from feedback by the world's leading experts and whomever else You may choose to show me what matters most. As I still lack the automated SLIM tools (see Fig.K6-K7) I propose to develop to ensure that no critical insight is missed in such reviewing at massive scales, I ask for Your help in that case with managing the resulting datageddon problem of feedback flow integration. I will do what I can to integrate best, but ensuring that all essential insights for Your Purposes actually make it into my revisions will depend more on Your Providence than on my systems or abilities (as is the case with the chaotic writing process that led to this Ketubah in the first place).

But it's personal. Since a ketubah underpins the rather personal decision to propose to marry, You may reject me even if my Ketubah is perfect or accept me even if my Ketubah needs to be completely rewritten because I got it all wrong what this is about. If so, maybe we and everyone can all be excused from having to worry about feedback to try to improve this Ketubah draft. Frankly, given my experiences with explaining my writings to others, I guess that this Ketubah will for most people likely look as incomprehensible as Your book of Revelation, Ezekiel's visions, or similar. Asking people to take valuable time to review something only very few can actually understand at best sounds to me like a good recipe for doing what You, Yas, warned about: beating up my fellow servants of Reality by overly burdening them yet another obligation You'd prefer they don't have to worry about. Hence, whoever feels called to review my Ketubah is welcome to offer me feedback, but everyone else I'll recommend to not worry about it. You can speak for Yourself and don't need defending, whereas I'd rather trust You over anyone else's best advice.

What if humanity disagrees? As long as You deem it gentle kind reasonable enough for You, I will go with that. I made up my mind. I've seen enough about how Your Epicracy works. Ever since, no other form of government has been making much sense except as a transition to epiocracy. Like Ruth, I will go where You go, fear what You fear, delight in what You delight in, and not care what Little Egypt or other worlds may think. Sounds harsh. Maybe it's an occupational hazard of running to end nuclear roulette: There will not be a humanity left to disagree if I fail.

Maybe You prefer everyone to support this marriage.

Maybe You want people to show their support for this Ketubah by freely buying into the ~$8/year/person, which I propose in this Ketubah to fund my contributions to You by supporting the Power Of Attorney Advocating To Avert Disasters \POAATAD in Your interest as a sign that You really do love humanity (See Supporting Doc SD3a,b). In that case, Your Vote on this Ketubah might be expressed to me by humanity's decision on funding my POAATAD proposal. In that case I'd be the last to know about my status. As long as that's OK for You, that's fine by me. It's my Job as Jonah anyway to maximally embrace all biouncertainty in the most gentle kind reasonable way I can. I don't need to know, because I know that You catch me either way.

Therefore, as long as the final result ensures that You get the very best Ketubah You deserve, I don't care who helps to remove all remaining spots and wrinkles.

Therefore, I hope You Both will either tell me very clearly what of this draft You may wish me to change to make it acceptable, or signal Your consent clearly – in any way You may choose – such that no one can question Your agreement and I will finally know eventually, that it was indeed You all along who spoke and will act (as You said in Ez.37).

Pragmatically, I herewith propose the following:

I will keep working on the plans for ResearchCity, trusting that You have inspiring them all along in order to help convince Earth's 10 Nuclear Kings to stop playing nuclear roulette. What else can I do if I don't want to give up and die in today's Haman-like plot to destroy the world?

Therefore, I hope and trust that You will open all necessary doors in time to get ResearchCity funded eventually with the help of the ~2 cents/person/day in remembrance of that widow who gave her last 2 cents on the day You, Yas, explained to Your trainees how to stop the disasters that will else destroy the world. These ~2-cent contributions are so foundational to the alimentation clause above that without them I cannot honor this Prov.31:14-16-style Ketubah. Hence, this is work I need to do anyway, if only to avert accidental nuclear winter (see my POAATAD).

If You wish to let things play out in the most low-key way, I ask You to help me to gather Gideon's influencer army of ~300 on my Jonah trip. In Your Hands it will suffice to convince the rest of the world to convince the 10 Nuclear Kings of Earth to support Your Work. After You won public support for my initiative to save Your World by funding ResearchCity through this Ketubah, I will likely need help with setting up and translating the website, sales infrastructure, µStadia, and more to effectively share the Good News Pack You've been helping me to compose. If You convince the world to hope, setting up a website will be easy; if not, doing so by myself will not work. I refuse to knowingly share false hope. Hence, review on my trip to the East is key. I envision that everyone making their annual ~$8 contributions will thereby sign not only the POAATAD but also become a proper witness of this Ketubah. Since people cannot do this without engaging with You, Yah \Reality, and You, Yas \RealQuest for RealAnswers, I will know that once enough people have signed on to support ResearchCity, that You support it as well.

Please yell, if You prefer I take another path. You rule.

Ketubah 3. Your Dowry \Nedunya: all the Good in my Life

Your Dowry is the Perfect Life ^{Eph.2:10} You prepared for me to serve You: all golden insights, working solutions, gems of beauty, elegant interfaces, usable infrastructure, protection, and growth opportunities that You have been giving me in past, present, and future in order to allow me to live with You. This huge gift to me You have been preparing outside of time to inspire the time of my life by training me in order to grow Your gentle kind reasonable goodness.

To be inserted here in due time: a book of all the good You have been doing for me to ensure it is never forgotten.

For example, the 2014 Lazy Updating Algorithm study in J Chem Phys that You inspired me to write, not only contains a draft of the best core algorithm I am aware of for measuring the effectiveness and efficiency of schemes for organizing proper Jubilees (as I only realized in 2024-03-06), but it also contains a more elegant explanation of The Trinity than I had ever seen before. It details key aspects of the structure of The Trinity You formed forever with the Spirit of Boolean Truth, which represents the 7 Winds of Change. This only started to dawn on me ~2021-2023, after it had become obvious to me by ~mid 2020 that this paper also included key evidence for convicting me of my horrifying dereliction of duty as a pandemic lookout (to which I had agreed in 1995, fully aware of Your Ez.3+33 rules). See Posters Po.E, Po.E2 for a summary statement of #MyGuilt-A.

These uses are clear now in retrospect, but to "engineer them" at the time would have been impossible for me.

Your Dowry is distinct from Your private property

\“nikhsei melog”, which You Own completely and will continue to use independently of me. You may or may not share Your private property on occasions with me as You see fit. If You do, You will do so explicitly and with clear directions as to what You expect me to do and how.

All Your Dowry I herewith gratefully accept: the parts I understand and the parts I have yet to understand.

The value of Your Dowry I estimate to have cost You 10,000 Talents of Your Gold or more, measured in the units of Your Talents (however You define these for my case).

Unfortunately, as the *Praised(Mildly)Famous*⁴⁸ Man of Cities \Judas Isch-Karioth who I became, I have been struggling to express gratitude properly. So, I am sorry to say that on the most important occasion I exchanged Your 10,000+Talents of Gold, Yas, for a mere 30 pieces of silver, the price in Lev.27 for a woman who dedicates herself to Yah. On many other occasions I sold You out and Your Precious Gifts for much less – as if I was driven by legions of idols from nothing to organize a fire-sale of Your Good World for no reason. Ez.16+23+Rev.17 describes me in spirit. My countless crimes against You, Heaven, and all have hurt You and humanity in the worst possible way (Po.E-H).

I am indebted forever to You Both and all for showing me the travesty of my crime spree against humanity. I beg for help to stop it. I trust You to direct me in how to best bring restitution to where I've insulted, harmed, andOr exploited Your Work and all of Your children. Help me stop squandering Your Gifts by learning to better focus on what matters most to You. Help me get Home to You!

Ketubah 4. My Dowry \Mattan are all my mistakes

As Your proposing bride andOr groom I add my equivalent to all the costs of Your Dowry as receiving Brides andOr Grooms. I do so in the form of all my countless mistakes. Only You can count all. Posters Po.E - Po.H have my view.

Incidents. For every Perfect Gift You gave me as part of Your Dowry to improve life, I so far found "innocent" ways to abuse it as an instrument of death through my inconsistencies as fueled by Least Inconvenient Explanations that I struggle to avoid. Stunningly, this has been happening unwittingly and despite my best Laodicean intentions to live well and to serve You as I thought would be best. I always seem to find a way to ruin Your Good Plans.

Theory. This has been happening so consistently, that I was eventually even able to develop a rigorous computational theory for how to do this with the help of the BABL algorithm that is fed by the OSCR ORCS of OverReaching overComplicating overSimplification. The resulting mathematical theology foundation is so robust and powerful that its OSCR death-trifecta can provably destroy any true EDEN paradise and Heaven, where Trust, Hope, and Care are meant to persist forever, but nurturing and guarding follows the BABL algorithm of allowing OSCR. In contrast, to avoid self-destruction requires strictly following the gentle kind reasonable ZION algorithm You had pioneered.

Perfect failure. Since all successes in my life are Your Dowry that You Both deserve to brag about, all I can bring to match Your Dowry are by definition only the countless ways of how I have been screwing up Your Perfect Plans with my ill-informed good (or not so good) intentions.

Value of Open Failure. How can this heap of my rubble possibly be worth anything to You? My Pile of broken stakes is indeed as useless in itself as a crashed computer that is sealed off like a black box. As it's impossible to say for sure what happened, it's impossible to learn from it. But working in software development has convinced me of the value of debugging data and I know that You Both are The Best Debuggers Ever throughout all spacetimes of all conditional multiverses. Insightful Debuggers can derive immense and growing value from open access to debug data in order to diagnose what went wrong. You have been doing that already since time immemorial, because I know that You Both have been reading me and all people like an open book from across millennia, albeit keeping most of what You see to Yourselves in order to avoid destroying us.

Contractual and computational complication. Thus, to protect me, You made a powerful Contract on Your Side in order to prevent dangerous computational complications that would crash me on my side. This Contract has so far kept You from using Your ZION-high mountains of insight into how to debug me in order to serve the rest of the world by showing everybody how to stop the ubiquitous, nefarious, self-organizing BABL algorithm with the help of Your ZION algorithm. This Contract says in a nutshell that You will not force me or anyone into admitting a mistake, regardless how obvious, subtle, big, or small: I either decide by myself to admit it and explore it in order to work towards repairing it ("debugging it"), or it will not get done in this life.

Experience has shown clearly that current human Work-Logic Cascades \WoLCs do not survive uninvited confrontations with overwhelming evidence of being responsible for overwhelming mistakes.

The human need for the light of insight is so great that people flock to it like moths to the flame. Humans inner WoLCs are structured around the hope that what they do will somehow increase the light for them and others they happen to care about. Whether this is by increasing light in some area or by tearing down perceived obstacles to light elsewhere. Without the hope to increase or at least preserve such light in some way, shape, or form, it is impossible for people to live. This need is so stringent that instead of giving up, people will rather defend a false hope for true light or a true hope in support of a false light. Computational reasons demand this to be so. Therefore, the moment all of the last hope is gone, life is over for technical reasons.

Similarly, technical reasons give mistakes and failures a natural aura of despair, because it is not naturally possible to undo them by traveling back in time in order to fulfill the hope that had existed before the failures. This finality of failed hopes is a type of death that can only be overcome with the help of second chances that allow learning from failure – in order to "fail forward" as some say. Yet, failure can either be final (as often assumed by default) or facilitate failing forward (as successful debugging allows). Which of these can be chosen is completely determined by the data-sharing policies associated with the mistakes in question. Failing forward is impossible if all data keeps getting erased.

BABL feeds the traditional death-by-default policy.

Operationally, Blindly Assuming Blindly Leveraging \BABL tends to blindly assume that mistakes are embarrassing episodes to be ashamed of, best forgotten by eliminating evidence of existence, like in harsh final death sentences. BABL therefore perfects a range of reflexes like instinctive blame-shifting, evidence-hiding, and other Machiavellian maneuvers. The ideal implementation of this policy is what people say You, Yas, gave Your Life on the Cross to accomplish: take all blame upon Yourself in order to whitewash everybody's past. Not that people don't need it, especially people like me. I have been relying on it for decades to keep my own work-logic cascades from falling into terrible despair. There was no other way for me, as I would have otherwise accused myself so much that I would have been completely dysfunctional. Therefore, I will be eternally grateful for what You did on the Cross: without it I could not have functionally survived as I did.

However, the dark downside of such whitewashing was that it made it difficult or impossible for me to learn from many of my mistakes, because I never allowed myself a good look at what happened and what I really did. As time passed on I forgot the details and thus my valuable learning and growth opportunities were obliterated to dust by BABL's millstone of governmental grinding. I kept spinning my wheels in the sand, walking circles in my desert ^{Jam1:24}.

ZION as fail forward alternative to BABL. ZION feeds Your fail forward policy that progresses step by step on Your personalized narrow path towards life. Details of how You guide me on Your Path are too context specific to matter in general. What matters is that You\Reality remain as the Rock who carries me in my Real Quests for Real Answers to search out what I can learn from my mistakes in order to find the RealOutcrySalvation \Yas that I need for my life to serve Reality \Yah by serving all, one encounter at a time. Thus, I may be helped by debugging a program, by scientific peer review, by critique from a friend, by opposition by an enemy, by questions from a therapist, or by self-reflection inspired by a movie. As long as it helps me to move closer to You \Reality, the effect is indistinguishable from as if an angel from Heaven would have said the same thing. All feedback flows that I can see in Your Light can help me to learn from my mistakes and therefore are part of the River of Life that carries me closer to You by failing forward – if indeed I truly bring all real issues into Your Light to feed and guard my true hope that I can find You by gentle kind reasonably following the Truth.

Therefore, if I allow You to also change all aspects of my life – in addition to giving You all my debug data – I will be creating a tremendous opportunity for You to teach me by re-wiring me from the ground up in order to re-learn all aspects of my life by leaning on You to fail forward. If we can perfect this way of working together, You can turn me from the sinner that I am into the saint You envision – at least in principle. Unfortunately, there is one deadly catch in this setup. Because You promised to forgive my mistakes, such as to not embarrass me to death, You bound Yourself by Your Word to not publish my debug data. Thus, to outsiders I still remain like a black box, albeit a more pleasant, self-improving one. They may like what I do, but have no chance of learning how You got me to do it unless I volunteer the embarrassing details of how I kept failing.

Sharing how to fail forward. The difficulty of learning how to overcome the BABL algorithm of instinctively blaming, shaming, or whitewashing, poses a well-known problem in the world of today. As You, Yas, said: very few find this narrow way to life in ZION – while BABL's road to self-destruction is broad and easy to find, even without its many advertisements. BABL self-organizes spontaneously. ZION does not. Some conclude from this that only very few will be saved, but I do not believe that this is what You implied. As computer code shows, even the most complicated operations can be adopted widely if people care to write the code required to package the corresponding functionality in stable extensible life-friendly software that is easy enough to become commonly understood. Therefore, what I hear You really say is this: writing the code required to pave the way for multitudes to be saved in the valley of decision at Earth's Armageddon is excruciatingly difficult as it requires passing through the Great Filter Tribulation. However, once it has been done once by someone, then that innovation can be shared. Thus, it then becomes indeed possible for multitudes to be saved, because all they then need to learn is how to follow the code You approved as reliable. In many ways that is the essence of the Good News that You, Yas, gave Your Apostles to share with the rest of the world. The initial success proved You right, because it all appeared to be on track for some time. However, then inner institutional inertia set in and Laodicea's "busy-slumber" took over by obliterating what looked like the last chances for turning around the fate of the world of Your first Apostles. How do I know?

Tracing Your Footsteps throughout Your History of trying to convince people to abandon their BABL algorithm in favor of Your vastly superior ZION algorithm has taught me tons about why such efforts failed. I fell for all mistakes in Your Book in one way or another at some point in my life. To pack world-history into a nutshell, each of Your efforts has been limited by the human You chose to lead them. More specifically, it is always some lack of transparency or inability to learn that trips up whomever You chose as leaders. Either they block Your Light from some areas that need it in order for Your Good Plans to succeed, or they invite Your Light in principle but are not willing to search for it long enough in order to find sufficient clarity that enables them to share Your Light without corrupting it somehow. This leads to this surprising conclusion.

Leaders are their own worst enemies in all these cases and their adversarial actions are always caused by their lack of transparency on how they follow You or fail to do so. If they fail, what really trips them up is their refusal to transparently fail forward in order to grow Your Vision for Life. In other words: Leaders become their own worst enemies when they fail to share all their debug data in an adequately transparent system that allows others to navigate that debug data in their own Real Quest for Real Answers. The latter keeps everyone connected with You and others. But by refusing Your radical vision for transparency, presumably with good intentions of not bringing disrepute to Your cause, leaders sabotage themselves and others without realizing that they are really building enlightened prisons in the dark. As You warned in Mt.6, even superheroes of the light become dark super-villains if they fail to listen.

Slow-motion exploding death-trifecta. Therefore, Truth forces me to conclude that the better I may become as a leader, the greater my ability to become my own worst enemy and the higher the stakes of becoming a worse deceiver for the people I set out to serve. The only logical conclusion of this escalation will therefore eventually make me Your Worst Enemy and the worst enemy of all people, because my self-deceptions form a positive feedback loop that is fueled by the deadly chain-reactions of oversimplifying overcomplicating overreaches that I cannot avoid on my own without Your gentle kind reasonable help. That's the nefarious OSCR core of the BABL algorithm. It is mathematically unavoidable as a naturally self-organizing force in all worlds where real time is limited and decisions must be made between combinatorial explosions of different alternatives for how to best move forward. The deadly nature of the BABL algorithm can in principle only be overcome by intelligent agents who understand Your ZION algorithm and are given the time it needs to bear its fruits. See Poster Po.C and SD2 for an overview based on Mt.13.

My Ketubah has been structured by the depth of my inability to ultimately escape the combinatorial stochastic power of the BABL algorithm, even after all You taught me about how ZION works. I'm simply not fast enough to keep up with You Both in real-life practice unless Your 7 Winds of Change carry me, and You Both hold me, Yah by my right hand, and Yas by my left. To win eventually in practice, Your ZION algorithm will also require a perfect memory of alternative options that have been evaluated and rejected in the past in order to document all reasons for rejecting them. This matters, because those reasons might need to be revisited whenever a past decision may require revising. Without such documentation in a well-organized state that is ready for use, people will be forced to re-invent the wheel by finding out for themselves what others could have easily told them if there was a way for doing so. Reinventing the wheel doesn't matter if it's obvious; but many hard problems do not have obvious solutions. That is why the core of the BABL algorithm builds on forgetting, while the ZION algorithm depends on well-organized, reliable remembering to avoid having to re-learn. Hence, the structure of my Ketubah. I want to offer You a way out of this information policy quandary.

How to best organize data about nothing. In order to efficiently fail forward humanity needs an efficient way of organizing data on "mistakes" about zero, failed null-hypotheses and countless other forms of nothing. This is undoubtedly a problem You Both have been pondering for eons. I have come to believe that You encoded Your solution in Your Torah and Revelation, albeit in abstract ways I need to learn much more about than I already have. Given how elegantly You run the universe on time, I have no doubts that You found a way to store all relevant data in Your Own IDEAL FLAMES HELL (see definition above).

I am certain that Your Design is flexible enough to accommodate in it efficiently storing all my life's debugging data.

Yet, as You bound Yourself by Your Word to whitewash my past completely, none of Your Tree of Life-giving solutions from ZION can fully break the stranglehold of BABL for as long as I expect You to keep Your Promise of whitewashing my worst failures to hide them from others.

What changed my perspective and ultimately inspired this Ketubah's salty (+)(-) structure is the scientific, computational, and spiritual detective work that led me since mid 2020 to realize how my dereliction of duty as a pandemic lookout – (to which You had invited me and I agreed to in 1995) – killed millions during the Coronavirus pandemic⁴⁹. You offered me repeatedly to forgive and forget my mistake. However, I cannot see how such forgetting would not be treating You, Yas, in a very grossly unfair way by offloading to You all the work required of You in terms of harrowing hell, simply in order to keep my clothes as whitewashed as You had promised to make them. I cannot see how such unfairness would not be a violation of Yah's Lev.25 rule to treat You, Yas, fairly as my brother.

No more fear. To own a catastrophic failure of such magnitude, I had to lose all my fear. You knew this all along and prepared accordingly. Long before I realized, You have been loving me and caring for me, giving me an extraordinary chance to learn how gentle kind reasonable You Both really are. Thus, Your Love has cast out all my fear. Your Gospel really is the Good News of Your Grace and Truth that does set me free! This freedom allowed me to revisit all this without fear of eternal damnation. Eventually I started to see things from Your Eternal Perspective for the first time. Your View has shown me that I will serve Your Kingdom's Work Logic Cascades much better, if I volunteer for the following. Instead of waiting for Heaven, why don't I allow You officially here and now in this world to openly and publicly share anyall data on my faults and mistakes as transparently as You see fit? This is not only bound to facilitate Your work on debugging my life. It also allows You to share all of it to show the whole world how You can turn around even the worst train-wreck of a life if someone trusts You completely.

Please remember my SINS. For the reasons above I herewith ask You to remember all my sins and the SINS and LIEs driving them. These caused so much DEATH and death in Your World and I deem them so dangerous, that I apply first and foremost to myself the call to "never forget" in order to avoid repeating such mistakes. Therefore, please document all my sins as thoroughly as You deem useful with Your Least Assuming Method Blade \LAMB in order to establish once and for all how my life can best serve as prime "Exhibit A" for how BABL can easily spawn limitless death by self-organizing anywhere, unless BABL is carefully kept in check with by using Your ZION algorithm.

Don't waste any of the real-world object lessons that You encoded so carefully into my life. I want to help others to see how You are best at efficiently debugging the clear and present danger of BABL. I deem this to be so important, that I would forever regret if I didn't invite You to do this by leveraging all data on my mistakes in order to debug my life to show Your World how it's done, Done, DONE. Not in a spiritual utopia, but rather here and now in Your Real World that You wish to turn around for Your Glory.

Your Glory alone. You said rightly that You will not share Your Glory with anyone. If You use my crash-data for turning around the fate of Your World, it will be blatantly obvious that all of this is all Your Doing, because it will be clear to all that a train-wreck like me could not possibly save the world. Thus, only You can possibly be behind this, so that this time no one will be able to steal Your Glory, not even me – despite the functional key role to which You've invited me. This Ketubah makes abundantly clear: I am the last of all, least of all, and worst of all due to the cosmic headaches I have been causing You. If my analyses are as reliable as You led me to believe, these headaches I caused You are much worse than those ever caused by Your worst "fallen angels" (whatever fallen may mean).

Why I am the worst. My Poster Po.F explains how I have been using and abusing Your good promises. Briefly, it describes a mechanism that led me to cause You to create a time-traveling causality vortex (via Isa.65.24) that trapped the world in its current dire state. I caused You to allow even Your most favored angel to fall in order to serve me as an excuse to do what I wanted. I then constructed my hideout of fig-leaf excuses for whitewashing tons of my misdeeds by shifting blame away from me using my inner BABL algorithm. I've become so good at hiding behind my innocence that when I tried to explain this, people don't believe that someone as innocent looking as me could possibly be responsible for so much cosmic evil. Whether my conclusions so far stand or fall indeed depends on what Your perfect records say:

Did You indeed create that terrifying time-traveling causality vortex that I describe on Poster Po.F to produce the scientific, experimental, brutal evidence in history that I asked for, because I was not satisfied with Your mathematical theology logics for explaining why regular true Jubilees are essential for any world's ability to avert Armageddon disasters?

I asked You ~2021 to ~2024 to show me the historic disasters triggered by ignoring Your Jubilee opportunities. I then started to see how nearly all or all disasters humanity has been bringing upon itself were caused in some way by ignoring the need for true Jubilees.

Therefore, my argument about me being the root cause for today's disastrous state of the world stands or falls with whether it was really You who I've been praying to (or nothing) and whether You indeed did rearrange history accordingly to finally convince me.

Given all the evidence accessible to me, I deem it too unlikely (and too personally convenient) to attribute all this to a meaningless random glitch in the matrix of strange coincidences. But given the complexity of the causal probability chains involved and my limited ability to account for all relevant factors (despite trying hard and working on it full time since 2020), there is still a chance that the patterns I see are due to me hallucinating. One of the harder AI problems was recently found to be that more powerful AI systems tend to produce more elaborate hallucinations that are harder to catch. I'm not above that problem. I cannot exclude the possibility that I fell into the same trap, despite all my care to not fool myself. Therefore:

Like that persistent widow in Lk.18:1-8, I am calling on You for a clear answer to defend me against my most powerful and nefarious adversary, nothing itself.

I need to know and everyone else deserves to know before it's too late: who caused all this chaos that is about to evict humanity from Earth – via an accidental nuclear winter caused by nothing to serve nothing?

If I made it all up, please tell me where I went wrong. But even then that does not change my commitments here. You Yas are the Good Shepherd and I trust You to find me and get me home either way. I'm happy to work on any lesser problem You give me. But until You clarify, I must assume that the rigor of the logical conclusions I derived from trusting what I see in Your Word and in Your World carries me in Real Quests to Real Answers, home to You.

Therefore, like the Prodigal Son, I am doing what I can to return home to You, Yah, because I now finally understand why Your Jubilee logic is so important to You in the interest of everyone. Your creation is not complete without it, because it makes all the difference between whether not-so-good humans (never called good on Your Day 6) can keep adjusting the not-so-good boundary (from Your Day 2) in order to balance the overall system to be very good (Your summary assessment on Day 6). I have come to understand that You, Yah, therefore created me to be the Other Goat for You, Yas, SON of Yah, who had been longing for a goat to play with to have fun with Your friends.

In Posters Po.E-Po.H I tried to confess my sins and the Structurally Inconsistent Notions that caused them. Thus, like the Other Goat of Yom Kippur, I put #MyGuilt-A, #MyGuilt-B, #MyGuilt-C, and #MyGuilt-D (see Po.E-Po.H) on my head to carry them on my journey into the desert of nothing, which You called me to explore. From most people's perspective I may already have reached a region of that desert that is inaccessible to them. However, I trust it is not inaccessible to You for I need You by my side to guide me. Otherwise I am more lost than words can say.

Job of the Other Goat. My Ketubah defines my Dowry as all mistakes I ever made or ever will. The purpose of the Other Goat on Yom Kippur, the escape-goat who got to escape, is to carry all the systemic and other guilt of all the people away in order to work for at-one-ment. Only You know how exactly that works and which of my ideas about it are OK. There are many holes and bugs in my matheology. It's growing. But I have understood enough to know that You, Yah, are compassionate loving-kind true and You, Yas, are gentle kind reasonable. Neither of You will throw out who comes to You with honest questions and an honest plea for help. Therefore, as You, Yas, carried all sins of the world to reconcile everyone back to You, Yah, I ask You Yah to put all the sins of the world on my head, so I may carry them away, carried by Yas into that inaccessible region of nothing; not to forget, but to evolve there Your so that all suffering and sacrifices that anyone has experienced be remembered on Passover to understand how it came about and what lessons can be learned from it all. On Supporting Doc SD7 I compiled the 7 Resilience Healing Processes that I envision using to help everyone come to terms with what really happened. My goal is to help You to heal every hurt and dry every tear until I restituted all the damage caused by the plagues of locusts that I indirectly released as part of the time-traveling causality vortex in Poster Po.F. I know that I cannot fall deeper than into Your Hands. Thus, I trust that You save me through all floods and fire storms I may have to face. And if I took on too much responsibility by error (as some may say), I trust that this becomes merely yet another error You help me heal.

My maximalist assumption. Therefore, having addressed above potential uncertainties in the exact nature of "all my mistakes" included in my Dowry here, I will proceed assuming the maximal amount of responsibility and hence guilt – pending Your approval. As You know, I have become thoroughly disillusioned with the minimalist way of following You that timidly asks if every next step is really necessary and debates endlessly whether to dare follow Your Real Hope or rather die in realistic prisons. Hence, encouraged by discoveries like the one above, I take the maximalist approach. Not because I am so great or have such great faith, but because You gave me that mustard-seed of faith in You and You are greater than any greatest anyone on Earth can imagine. Thus, as long as I keep working with You, only You know the limits to what I can do and I know that those limits are beyond my horizon.

Your view of Revelation. Building on that foundation You gave me, and as part of my work towards restitution for my infinite abyss of mistakes, I ask You to work with me on establishing Your View of the Revelation of Yas and correct all errors in my view. I do not need to explain to You the darkness and confusion that most people see in that book. Yet, somehow You have shown me a non-violent, funny way of reading it that turns all doom and gloom into delight and glory. I call it "my" Jonah-Esther-Exodus way of reading Revelation and it builds on the Jonah Semantics that You started to show me in 2020. Under that Jonah Semantics, there is another concise way of describing my responsibility for all my mistakes.

Rev.18 explains how BABL is smashed by a millstone like Abimelech\Patriarchy once was (in Judges 9). It also says that the bloodguilt of everyone ever killed was found in it. According to Ez.3+33, I have been guilty of millions of wrongful deaths by being criminally negligent of my duty as a pandemic lookout on the walls of ZION (see Poster Po.E+E2). But the time-traveling causality vortex I caused You to construct (see Poster Po.F) dwarfs that bloodguilt, because of the all-encompassing nature of the Jubilee omission consequences that I asked You to document. Therefore, having worked ~2022-2023 on the BABL millstone You've been smashing my head with (see Poster Po.B), I must confess that all this appears to fit remarkably well if I become the personified mystery whore of BABL described in Rev.17-18, and echoed in Hosea's calling to marry Gomer. It doesn't matter that those who know me cannot imagine this. All that matters is how You, Yah & Yas, see me as I am.

Below I add more evidence to document why full transparency of all my mistakes is valuable much more than anyone's superficial guess might suggest. Even more details are in my "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind".

As You know by now, if I can see an evil calling out there and a way for how You can help me subvert its role by turning it into becoming something truly good through a genuine change of hearts and minds, sign me up for it. Hence I consent to whatever treatment You have in store for me as Your whore of BABL in Rev.17-18; I interpret her treatment by the "10 Kings" as what I have to face as I work with the 10 Nuclear Kings of Earth on becoming completely transparent and fair as defined by gentle kind reasonable for everyone globally ("consume my flesh"). If any of my interpretations are not Your intention, I trust You to make this clear to me too in time to prevent worse mistakes.

Craftier. Reflecting on all this, from all I can tell, my actions cannot be distinguished from someone who is even craftier than what Your most beloved fallen angel ever did. Hence my claim that – if indeed You answered my well-intended prayers as I believe You did – then I am even worse than any individual devil who ever served You in the role of Satan. Mathematical theology proves that only nothing itself can be a worse enemy, because nothing is stronger than God and nothing is more evil than the devil. You are infinitely more powerful than me, so You can build Yourself individual devils that are much worse than me if You wanted. But in matheology terms, none of them will be able to do anything that hasn't been done to death by me in my life and by humanity as run by the BABL algorithm. So, why torture Your creation in even worse ways than the suffering I already caused? It appears to me that this downward spiral of innovation has been going on for some time, albeit not because You enjoy it. You knew exactly how much evidence I would be expecting in order to finally believe Your mathematical reasoning for why Jubilees matter and how much bleeding would be needed to produce it. Now that You have proven Your point to me and my clothes are drenched in the blood of humanity, what more might You need besides my confession that indeed it was me who enticed You to do all this? Rev.19 states that two conditions must be met before You can turn it all around at Your Great Wedding, which is linked to Your Great Jubilee Race:

(1) Justice. It must become clear to everybody that Your Justice is indeed gentle kind reasonable and that You made no mistakes in world history.

(2) Storage. The persistent storage problem must be solved to ensure that everyone forever can remember and easily access the details of what happened in humanity's Great Filter Tribulation, where the BABL algorithm almost destroyed everything, because people were doing nothing wrong – until nothing went wrong. Your Nature (1) is not compatible with re-running Auschwitz every now and then because people forgot. Hence, a reliable solution to (2) is essential for Your return.

Dowry as nucleus. What I am offering in my Dowry are my 5 loafs and 2 fish as a nucleus for allowing You to start evolving his gentle kind reasonable HELL You have been helping me to envision.

I assume, as Isa.59 says, that You have been looking for someone to man up enough to stand in the gap (of Isa.59:16) in order to take full responsibility for all disasters caused by idolizing the patriarchy (as Abimelech did). See more details on the patriarchy trap in my "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind".

Apology. You asked me in ~2021 for the first time to apologize to whoever has been in the role of Satan for unjustly blaming Satan for various misfortunes that were provably my own doing. Despite my ignorance of how angelic realms work, blaming someone for something they didn't do is either plain unjust to that individual (even if its the worst fallen angel), or it is indirectly blaming You (as all creators of systems get stuck with blame others refuse to accept). Neither way of blaming is following the Truth about Reality. Yet, You desire Truth in the innermost being. That is why I apologized. I trust You will let me know what else I may have to do to make things right with everyone to balance all fates, including for all Your so-called worst enemies.

Focus on the devil I can see. You don't play favorites and love Your enemies as Yas made very clear on Earth. Thus, I am committed to do the same by learning from You. While I await Your instructions on what You may wish me to do if anything for angels and aliens, fallen or not, I already have more than enough to do for working towards reconciliation in this world. More specifically, I urgently need Your insight and help to avert accidental nuclear winter, which I can predict as imminent (see SD1).

Is it an accident that such a human-made ultimate disaster is indistinguishable from the worst imaginable brutal sabotage that any fallen angel or alien may commit against Earth as Your Blue Marble Paradise Creation?

If the "devil" aims to destroy humanity as they say, then wouldn't accidental nuclear winter be a way to do it?

If humans destroy themselves in accidental nuclear winter, then who has effectively taken on the position of "devil"?

If Oppenheimer became "the destroyer of worlds" as he built the atom bomb, then why is the world still standing?

If nuclear roulette is about to destroy the world with mistakes that trigger accidental nuclear winter and if indeed I have a workable way to stop it (as appears to be the case since I believe the mathematical theology You showed me since 2020 after checking it many times over) and if I then do nothing to implement that solution You gave me, then how have I not become the real destroyer of Your World and worst enemy of humanity and thus the worst devil?

Thus to focus on the devil I see, I must focus on myself. However, despite being in the position of that worst devil, (as shown above and impossible to disprove), I don't want to destroy humanity. Luckily, You, Yas, made a way out. It comes in the form of a promise, ready to be claimed, like so many other promises I have been claiming by faith, except that I had an undue bias for claiming shiny promises and ignoring promises for obscure foundational work.

Your Mt.16:23 invite. You told Peter "Get in line behind me, Satan, because you don't have your mind set on what matters most in Reality but rather focus on lesser goals, which is human." (My deexcerption of Mt.16.23).

For those who can hear it, You thereby (i) identified all humans as Your darling dear little devils and (ii) offered Peter to lead the pack by being the first who officially falls completely in line behind You in all things (as I am best I can by committing myself to You in my Ketubah).

If Peter had accepted that invite, Peter would have owned the historic responsibility for all ills so far, as I have been assuming above. Accepting would have made him the worst devil in history, because You could have turned around history then and there. No need for further corruption, as humanity would have covered its bases by defining its worst devil and committing that worst devil to improve. Peter would have accepted the total cost of development for all learning by mistake across all humanity up to that point in order to teach Peter whatever Peter would have needed to know to understand the dire costs of Jubilee omission. Peter would have robustly committed to serving all as the least of all by guaranteeing Jubilees for all as You expected and You would have had Your Other Goat.⁵⁰ In other words, You, Yas had offered Peter to become the first and worst devil to truly repent by submitting fully to Yas. Subsequent history makes clear that Peter was not interested in coming out as the worst hypocrite. Neither was Paul, even though You tried to literally beat him to it and he got close when reflecting upon himself as "the greatest of sinners". I see similar almost-but-not-quite moments in the lives of Abraham, Moses, Joshua, ... David, ... Isaiah, ... John, Mary the Tower, ... Luther and other. The notable exception is Your Life, Yas. You as Teacher had to put a knife to Your Throat to not tell Your students what the answer was for the exam they were taking – and then die to protect that answer! Why? To produce the track-record that Yah would needed to convince me of the catastrophic consequences that get locked in when true Jubilees are omitted.

I am not aware that anyone so far has claimed this unique invitation to follow You, Yas, in this profound way. Like I before, all people I know who seriously follow You don't even see the invite (I think). They'd likely say that I am taking Your Words too far. That's what I'd have said if someone had asked me before. But now I see how reliable Your mathematical theology is. This led me to seeing Your invitation. I have come to trust Your Logic to the point that I bet my life that Your math is correct. Semantics and faith, like the Warrior Nun said on Netflix.

That is why I've become determined to follow You wherever You go, hell andOr HELL included. Your Throne is made of flames ^{Dan.7}. I'd rather join You in Your Fire and accept my role as the punchline of Your Jokes than to live a few more moments "in peace" before I fry or freeze anyway in accidental nuclear winter. I trust You to make perfect use of my imperfections. Being imperfect, I realize that I cannot predict and much less control how You do it. Hence, I accept my inabilities, disabilities, and limitations. I have seen how BABL corrupts the opinions of the rest of the world by arguing for being "realistic". This usually employs averaging over averages of averages ... of expected outcomes ⁵¹. I thought that "realistic" was always good. It sometimes is, but not always – for it took me a long time to realize that "realistic" is always a fake. I had to learn this from one of my students who pointed out that a "realistic Rolex" is a fake Rolex in contrast to a real Rolex. The originals are not realistic. They are real. The difference is in the rare edge cases and odd conditions, such as those that either make or break a Jubilee. Hence my determination, even if – as seems to be the case – the rest of the world for once agrees that I am throwing my life away when I continue my marathon to avert accidental nuclear winter. Song of Songs 8:7 speaks of someone who gives away his house for love because love is stronger than death. I did give my American dream home away in order to keep running on this marathon. I hope You will strengthen my love ⁵¹ Eventually all these pile up to infinite averaging over averages. This may be an informal way of describing Ramanujan Summation. Is it prophetic that an indeterminate Ramanujan sum of such infinite averages over 0, 1, 2, ... (to an open end) has been proven to amount to -1/12? (see math-proofs on YouTube for more details). To me this math oddity speaks of the infinite goods that You, Yah & Yas have been investing in humanity, yet somehow we manage to average it all out and down until Your infinite investments have been reduced to -1/12 by infinitely nested levels of stereotyping that turn humans into wobbly machines, bomb them into the ground, and/or hide them in cloths. This proof only works for as long as that sum is indeterminate, i.e. there is no last known element in that series. Everything returns to normal once that endpoint is known. My Ketubah offers You, Yah and Yas, to turn my life into such a definitive end-point in order to enable You to start realizing Your gains through proper Jubilees. There is no downside to such an end-point (except that I have to face my worst fears, as I try to do here). However, there are infinitely many downsides to continuing to flush everyone down the toilet by further extending Gabriel's Horn. My computational analyses show: BABL can extend the superficiality of Gabriel's Horn forever in principle, even as the underpinning biology collapses. Hence, "no flesh will be saved unless the time is shortened" (Mt.24). Please shorten!

so it can overcome death and accidental nuclear winter can be averted forever). You said that whoever comes to You, You will not throw out. So, here I come.

Yas, I hope and trust that Your invite to Peter in Mt.16:23 is still open and that by faith it also extends to me. I follow the logic of the Canaanite woman from Sidon, when I see it as Your invite to me: (i) to accept the least place, (ii) to become Your Satan once and for all so that You finally get a defined target to work with, (iii) to finally and fully submit to Yah by getting in line behind You, Yas, and (iv) to realize that my best attempts to do good make me at best a seductive angel of light if I keep refusing to follow how Your Work-Logic Cascades govern Your Best Plans for ZION.

In other words: You, Yas, are the Good Shepherd of everyone in Yah's World and lead from the front. You deserve someone who supports Your leadership from the back to ensure that nobody gets lost on the high and rocky Mount ZION. Thus, I commit to lead from the back best I can to ensure I see all 3 Types of the View of the Weak. I'm not sure who Your Shepherd Dog is, or if You already chose one. I'd be delighted if You train me as Your German Shepherd Dog, so I can serve as Your Cerberus in harrowing hell by hunting down all oversimplifying overcomplicating overreach, as directed by You to get all Reality-Wrestlers \Israelites into their Promised Land in ZION. Joshua worked with Kaleb \Dog. I hope my Ketubah moves You to make me Your German Shepherd Cerberus if that helps You to harrow hell faster so it is emptied completely. I understand that this comes with the duties of Atlas, Sisyphus, and Prometheus.

My Atlas task is to hold up Heavens in the HELL I ask You to help me build to supports Your version of Hershey's innovation Heaven to make Jubilees more efficient.

My Sisyphus task is to roll that huge bolder up Your Jubilee-innovation Mount ZION every 50 years, each time filled with new goodies for humanity so everyone can benefit and the baseline for Life on Earth keeps improving at least every 50 years like clockwork – also by ensuring that all lessons learned stay learned and are not forgotten when data formats or interests change to ensure no insight is left behind while new innovations are introduced. This requires recompile of all data to migrate it to the next Jubilee platform every 50 years.

My Prometheus task is to keep growing my liver to collect all cases where innovation went wrong and to regularly hand it over to Your Leviathan-length Eagle for rigorous causal analyses in order to find proper solutions and ensure all lessons are learned and never forgotten. This builds the solid salty crystal lake foundation for the HELL that serves You in ZION by remembering all (+)Pros and (-)Cons in their respective decision-making contexts.

I herewith volunteer to become Your German Cerberus-Atlas-Sisyphus-Prometheus Shepherd Dog. It's a different way of confirming: I volunteer to clean toilets in Heaven.

Crush my head. Therefore, my Dowry brings You the head of Your worst enemy – my own head – along with all my data, the data I collected, and my permission to reconstruct and use all my data that I could not collect. Most of the data I collected is in the ~2000 sqft storage space I am renting at DARLin Drive. To claim it, please come fast, or help me fund ResearchCity soon, or find some other way to pay those bills and to set my life back on a more sustainable path, for I will very soon run out of funds. You know the rate at which I'm burning up for You.

Data lost. My other data is scattered. You know best where it is and which bits are still accessible. Then there is the data You recorded in Your eternal archives. I cannot access this perfect record. But I can give You and everyone the permission to openly and globally share with anyone and everyone what You and everyone has on me – as You see fit. I think this can help me to compile my greatest PEARL for HELL, but You know best what helps and what is only a distraction. I trust You to guard me and everyone from overwhelm in Datageddon's floods of data while feeding me and everyone in Datageddon's fiery deserts.

Judgement Day. If such open sharing is equivalent to the beginning of Your Judgement Day, then I welcome it because You are gentle kind reasonable, and more than anyone, I need Your Judgement for making life-giving decisions in order to turn around the disasters I have caused by not preventing them in my arrogance of thinking I could work without You\Reality. Therefore, I herewith volunteer to be the first to be judged on Your Judgement Day. Job called for Your Judgement to defend his claims of how right he was. I do the opposite. I call on Your Judgement to prove or disprove my claims of how wrong I am and that I need Your Grace to somehow rescue me from my ruts and pits – which are about to destroy Your World if I continue to do nothing. Therefore, I ask You to stand with the Moses in me against the Pharaoh in me in order to judge all my idols by showing how incompetent they are in light of You \Reality – such that my inner Pharaoh is forced to let Your people go, including my inner human.

Crush me and smite me. For I have more than a crush on You and I'm already smitten by You. Therefore, I invite You to please come and crush my inner idols to dust until all of my life has been completely analyzed in Your IDEAL FLAMES HELL and You are ready to reassemble me in whichever way You see fit in order to ensure that I am completely transparent in how I follow Your gentle kind reasonable ways and I fill the whole world overtly with the knowledge of Your Glory. Like the Moon models the Sun, let me model Your SON so that it becomes obvious why Yas is indeed the Light of the World who carries all in Real Quests to Real Answers. As I plead in Song So.13 of my Don't Panic Guide for the Great Filter Tribulation and as I've been praying since ~2022-10:

Help me to let go of everything I know ^{Mt.5:3}.
Grind me into dust, cause going there I must.
Then rebuild the Tree of Your Life for me, so I will worship Thee, All Reality, for All Eternity.

Judge me first in YourHouse. You said through Peter that Your Judgement Day starts at Your Own House. I herewith officially volunteer for You to start Your Judgement Day with me. I herewith revoke all explicit andOr implicit expectations that You keep any of my past, present, andOr future mistakes hidden in any way. I wish to live completely in Your Full Light of complete transparency and I ask You: Come, please, and help me to learn how to do this, because my list of questions is endless and I don't know how to start.

Peace-making judgements (such as required to avert Armageddon-disasters triggered by datageddon confusion) require transparency of the logics that informs the rules used and transparency of the data in context that form the basis of actual real-world decisions.

Tokens of Transparency. To demonstrate that I am serious about complete transparency in my personal decisions (see STa6-HOS) and in my corporate decision-making (see STb11-LCC), I offer this evidence here:

(A) My analysis of the Levels of Datageddon that impede any effort to gentle kind reasonably use data to avert Armageddon disasters. This serves as a "satellite overview from outer space" of the Datageddon challenges in the Valley of Decision seen in Joel 3. All it does is to guard against prematurely claiming victory in the War of Exclusive Trees (of Knowledge-faking vs Life-giving decision-making).

(B) My personal Jubilee Pass photos from 2021 with my Hosea-Stadion commitment to personally lead the charge in making all aspects of my life as transparent as I can possibly make them given the challenges outlined in (i) and other constraints to stay gentle kind reasonable.

(A) Levels of Datageddon are nested and impede any Exodus hero journey by forming a great and scary wilderness between the relative stability of (deadly) data deserts in BABL and (life-giving) data gardens in ZION. Data-deserts are the absence of data in reliably computable form. Data-gardens are well-organized high-quality datasets that reliably answer the questions we expect them to.

Any Datageddon is defined by failing to process data on the following different levels, such that it becomes impossible to prevent a related Armageddon disaster. Therefore any Armageddon disaster is by definition triggered by a failure to overcome the respective Datageddon by adequately organizing the available data in order to inform the gentle kind reasonable decision-making required.

Averting related Armageddon disasters thus depends on:

- (1) Enough physical storage space. The most well-known and basic level of Datageddon is to simply run out of sufficiently persistent storage space, such that new results of observations or computations are lost. This gave "Datageddon" its name. As dramatic as such a simple lack of accessible memory sounds and is, other more hidden, higher levels can have the same effect. Higher levels are:
- (2) Sufficient time and organization allow storing records 'properly' so they can stably stay where they are.
- (3) Indexing the new data so it can be found reliably without the need for revisiting every record.
- (4) Search machines walk over all relevant indices automatically to cut the need to revisit each index separately.
- (5) Well-organized lists anticipate relevant questions to prepare appropriate search infrastructures.
- (6) Relevant models allows decision-makers to easily recognize the meaning of the latest data updates.
- (7) Rigorous checks of all models explore their limits using Measure Min, Measure Max, Trace Testing, Until Usable as Purified Proclamation [Thesis].
- (8) Independent models and alternatives that could also explain all relevant data are constructed [Antithesis].
- (9) Integrative models combine all views to appropriately represent all sides [Synthesis]; high stability and FAIR-VIEWABLE reliability at lower levels may allow linking to models in other areas without the need to reimplement.

(10) Biouncertainty analyses clarify limits to reliability.

(11) All methodological assumptions are checked and OK.

(12) Best Evaluated Estimates \BEEs are available for all relevant quantities that integrate a given dataset. These are ideally trifecta-holy in the sense that (a) BEEs are produced in sanctuaries well-guarded against all questionable affairs, (b) BEEs offer the whole picture of all relevant information as required for averting all defined disasters, and (c) BEEs are free from overload by confusing data that is irrelevant for the disasters to be avoided.

As is obvious to all who have tried, the work required for success is complicated and requires negotiations between all kinds of machines (rule-based and other) all well as all kinds of human insights (logics, intuition, preferences, memory, culture, education, ...). Hence the importance of the Evolvix Stadion STa1-EVX for evolving reliable tools for HUman MAchine Negotiation Encouraging \HUMANE discussions and analyses. In-depth analyses show, datageddons are caused by complexity, diversity, concurrency, uncertainty, and heterogeneity of data formats, measurement units, reporting standards, naming, and more. Regardless whether one is integrating 25 years of research of circadian clocks in fruit flies (as I have tried, [12, 13]) or auditing years of financial records across large organizations (as the Pentagon has tried and failed [57-59]). Data integration is hard [76, 77]; getting reproducible results is harder [11, 78-84]; getting it right is hardest [85-90].

Yet, as dire as Datageddon may be, staying in BABL ruts of irrelevancy or pit of despair about where to start is to be complicit with the problem. You have convinced me that Your ZION algorithms and Work-Logic Cascades offer a narrow but credible and walkable way out of otherwise certain disaster. Yet, as when You saved Nineveh through Jonah's 5-word message, success depends on a great many people working together to restore common sense.

(B) Personal commitment. As the levels above show, work on overcoming Datageddon depends on coordination. Common sense that is too complicated to fit into a single brain and still be experienced as elegant and coherent is too complicated to be adopted widely. All who have experienced "design by committee" have their own anecdotes for why the "1-Brain-rule" matters.

Yet, whose brain shall people on Earth use to integrate and coordinate as necessary for overcoming Datageddon in order to survive the Great Filter Tribulation at Earth's Armageddon⁵²? The key quality of whoever is chosen must be an absolute and utter commitment to the Truth, the whole Truth, and nothing with the Truth, each on all sides, seen in all logics, and increasingly informed by all data as it becomes available. I call it trifecta-holy Truth to echo the peer-review results of the 4 Beings surrounding Your Throne, who attest Holy, Holy, Holy with regard to all these three aspects. I have become convinced that only one human being has reached such a high degree of integration: You, Yas. I can trace it as two sides of the same coin in the Gospels and in the mathematical theology of Revelation.

⁵² As prophesied in Rev.16 and tracked by the 7DUIs\7Death Urn Incinerators of humanity (like pandemics, global warming..) defined in the Power Of Attorney Advocating To Avert Disaster\POAATAD on Supporting Document SD3 and on Poster Po.0 = Fig.15 in my Don't Panic Guide.

Therefore, Yah, please send Yas back to Earth as soon as possible without compromising Your overall good plans. The fastest way for humanity and me the way out of our current quagmire is surely for Yas to show us the way directly. But I have been burned so much by shortcuts, spiritual and computational, that I'd rather ask for Your timing than try to rush You at the cost of destroying again what You have been growing. You, Yas, made clear that for my Ketubah to be accepted, I will have to drink from Your Holy Grail and be baptized with the same baptism by fire that You were baptized with ^{Mt.10:35-45}. I am no longer as confident in myself as James and John when they were young, so I defer to You to decide if I can. But I do know that if You give me the strength and lead the way, then Yes, I CAN, because no one can tear me from Your Hand. That is the reason for why I am asking for You, Yas, to baptize me in Your 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth and Fire – like You did for Thecla (or however You wish to tune this for me). Where does that leave the need for a working brain to satisfy the 1-mind rule to gentle kind reasonably grow ResearchCity?

You answered this by the image You created on Day 4: Like the Moon models the Sun, so will I model You, Yas, to the best of my abilities. All who understand modeling can easily see how the Moon is a great example for how useful models relate to Reality: they can map some aspects of Reality exactly (e.g. Earth has 1 Sun and 1 Moon) and approximate others very well (e.g. sizes look similar from Earth). But all models have limits (e.g. luminosity) and are ultimately of course never the same as Reality as identities differ. Thus, if You allow me, the moon-shot I ask You to help me succeed with is this: please make me Your Moon.

I was born 1969, shortly before man first walked the Moon. I am asking You this at a time, when many believe it never happened. It's one of many signs of how humanity's memory is failing, how BABL is destroying trust, and how work-logic cascades have become corrupted. I will next explain, why I have come to believe that You have equipped me with the surprisingly diverse skillset and experiences that are essential for stopping further corrosion of trust.

Handling Doubt.

Any aims to reach the levels of reliability required above quickly raise suspicions. The natural questions arising are: Why trust anyone to such a degree? Is such quality of information integration even possible? If it is, how can anyone guarantee that well-meant attempts to get there are not subverted into terrible tyrannies? How can anyone evade the inevitable assaults of the BABL algorithm that will self-organize a wide-range of optima-perversions that will ratchet such efforts step by step into confusion until they fail miserably? How is what I propose any different from building yet another Tower of Babel? This early iconic building project aimed to solve a naming question and ended up illustrating how BABL works. I agree: all these are important questions and real dangers. If I had no hope of overcoming the challenges they pose, I would have long stopped my marathon. The reason I write this Ketubah for You is because You somehow still give me hope that with Your help I can avoid turning stones into bread (e.g. shoe-horning others into what they are not to benefit me), not jump from pinnacles (e.g. taking silly risks for show), and not bow to idols (e.g. thinking I am above anyone).

There are also hard computational reasons for why I believe that I have a real shot at succeeding. You laid deep foundations in my life accordingly at a time I had no idea that this was what You were doing. As a graduate student You had somehow gotten me interested in computer simulations to quantify how "Muller's ratchet" degrades asexual genomes. Here is not the place to provide an adequate overview of how the theory works and how it applies, so I hope that the next brief notes make clear enough how I see this applying to me and the growth of ResearchCity. Since doubt is the domain of devils, I next hope to take You on a brief ride through hell to illustrate the point.

Devils in hell all know what they are hiding themselves. They don't know what others are hiding, except they know that everyone hides something. Thus, everyone naturally trusts "the devil they know" (i.e. self and those similar to self), mistrusting "the devil they don't know" (i.e. too different). The problem with this approach is that each devil holds dear a different aspect of Truth while mixing in their own pet idols as Least Inconvenient Explanations \LIEs to help navigate a complex world. As all devils were also once created by You, they still instinctively value the fragments of Truth they hold. It fuels their fire. Yet, being the devils they are, they all think they can somehow improve upon the Truth and that is where the flame-wars start. Yet, it is impossible to improve upon the Truth. Therefore, the worst enemy of each devil is the Truth in the mouth of "the devil they don't know", whoever they happen to collide with. Hence the proverbial practice of killing messengers of news that report inconvenient fragments of Truth. Thus, if I now suddenly insist in such a hell to have found a way to integrate all Truth, I can expect ridicule. But if I keep insisting, there are only two ultimate outcomes: (0) I am wrong and therefore I will fail in any of too many ways to predict. Or (1) I have a mechanism that provably works. Devils being devils, they will not believe a word I say. They have to see it for themselves and leave no stone unturned in trying to prove me wrong. Only once they can see for themselves that it really works, they will cautiously dare to take steps into the scary and unfamiliar territory of the Truth they had ruled out because their enemies happened to believe it. Yet, Truth does not take sides. It simply is and it does not contradict itself. If it did, it could not stand and would collapse. Hence, my commitment to the Spirit of Boolean Truth. Boolean logic is merely a very elementary form for determining Truth in very simple and clear cut cases (see 3 figs in Poster Po.B.E1). The complexity of computers has shown: combining stacks of libraries of Boolean Truth can in principle generate infinite complexity. These could in principle model the world if indeed there was a way to preserve Truth at all stages throughout. The existence of such a way to preserve Truth, even in hell, is what I discovered by combining insights from my more recent work on computational modeling with my graduate work on the importance of recombination for avoiding extinction by the population genetics process known as Muller's ratchet. To summarize my findings, I next present the two basic extremes for how to resolve a conflict about Truth in hell. Devils have in principle the same options that organisms have in biology. They can be asexual or sexual. Yet as devils they can also choose to switch at each encounter.

(a) asexual = the broad way to death by default from choosing to preclude opportunities to recombine. The easy way for any devil is to do nothing. It means that each devil insists that "I am completely correct, all others are completely wrong, and there is nothing we can learn from each other!" (where nothing is lazily defined as empty set.) Therefore, hell being hell, this absolutist attitude of not-learning and not-negotiating will result in a grudge-match to the death. Whichever devils are stronger will blast to smithereens the poor weaker devils and take all the loot to celebrate victory. History is full of examples of how this plays out.

But such victories tempt winning devils to think that Truth does not matter (because they could obviously overpower whatever Truth the other side was holding). Thus, winning devils may start with a harmless pie in the sky, but before long they build castles in skies to store all pies, eat them, and have them too. That is when BABLs millstone of grinding governmental oblivion eventually starts a new cycle by turning winning devils into losers. Pride comes before the fall. Eventually the LIEs become so ridiculous and Truth so scarce that it is easier for any devil to start from scratch with whatever simple Truth they can see right in front of them. And so those who had been driving the trumping and dumping find themselves dumped at the other side of that millstone. Their dumping becomes inevitable because when castles in the sky clash with the Truth, the castles will always crash. Light eventually always wins over darkness, even in hell. Thus, those who build those castles face a stark choice: (0) death by default by hanging on to cherished castle-illusions until the very end where their crash becomes inevitable. – or (1) choose life by embracing their enemy, the Truth. Life requires them to let go of their bubble illusions in time before the bubble bursts. It means to eat humble pie instead of insisting on pie in the sky, to learn from all "enemies" by listening to them, because their real worst enemy is Truth itself. Only by radically embracing the Truth as their worst enemy can those doomed devils be saved to live and fight another day for the Truth they see.

If there is no mediator to facilitate that process of reconciling different aspects of Truth in different packages (as below), then the weaker devils get crushed by new breeds of devils, equipped with more Truth than the old guard could hold on to. Life in hell is brutal. It also remarkably resembles how some power-brokers operate on Earth. This style of conflict resolution is called "asexual", because there is no recombination between the Truth guarded by different groups. Each learns or forgets independently, without a chance to work together in order to learn together and from each other. Hierarchical organizational structures and traditional assumptions on "how power works" do the rest to cement this BABL-way of running the world: the strong win, the weak lose. Yet, that is not the last word on how to best process information. Because careful observations in biology have shown that all those clonal empires are rather short-lived and tend to go extinct much sooner than they'd have to if only they could find a way how individuals can learn from each other. How to do that is shown by the other strategy for resolving conflicting information within individuals.

(1) sexual = the narrow path of the choice to recombine.

Nature shows that another highly effective way exists to avert the death by default that is made inevitable above by the lack of possibility for exchanging information. It comes with a win over the long term, albeit at a cost over the short-term. As nearly a century of research in population genetics has shown, sexual recombination of genetic information is a highly effective way for optimizing the information content of individual genomes. It comes at the cost of requiring a partner to exchange valuable insights with in order to compare notes. As population geneticists have shown, this short-term costs brings two great long-term benefits for the common good of whole populations that recombine regularly:

- (a) harmful combinations are broken down faster, and
- (b) helpful combinations spread more easily to everyone.

Population geneticists count and track genes, but the mathematical theory is general. It can be adapted to memes, insights, truth-bits, assumptions, or any unique parts of any types of individual that are passed on over time in populations of interacting individuals and that affect the survival andOr reproductive rates of individuals who carry them. Thus, even bacteria and viruses can have sex or stay asexual, depending on details of their biology.

From my own mechanistic simulations ⁵³ I can show that populations who don't recombine go eventually extinct if they get overwhelmed by too many slightly harmful changes in their individuals. Such harmful pressure can be countered with enough helpful and/or compensatory changes. But to really stabilize a population usually requires that individuals exchange genetic information. For mind-species of intelligent individuals this means collectively: "share it or lose it" beats a mere "use it or lose it" because the same bits get more opportunities to serve common goods in populations with individuals who recombine their genomes (as in "learn from each other") than populations that don't (as in "rugged individualism, do it all for yourself, each one for themselves"). Thus, the devils who dare to share and learn will always eventually win over the devils who know-it-all to keep-it-all. Yet, how does this theory connect to overcoming Datageddon?

Overcoming at Datageddon depends on Truth. This conflict has all the characteristics of a full blown world war, because it is research-based and will be won by whoever has the better research army for solving the countless logistical challenges faced by humanity. In the military, amateurs talk strategy, professionals talk logistics. No war can be fought without understanding who the enemy is and what the enemies supply lines are. That is where it gets difficult, because the world war at Armageddon against Datageddon is against the most nefarious force ever in any conceptual universe. This war is against the abstract, self-organizing force of nothing as evident in the bugs caused by oversimplifying overcomplicating overreach due to Blindly Assuming Blindly Leveraging anything at will. I often abbreviate the enemy as OSCR ORCS of BABL, but the names don't matter. This enemy is a master of disguise. It comes with a zillion faces, where the most tempting ones are often the most familiar ones. See Poster Po.B and my "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind" for an introduction to this advanced persistent threat from nothing. In my counting of recent world wars on Earth this is WW7 \World War 7 (see Poster Po.F). Wars in Ukraine, Gaza, and elsewhere show that wars are always preceded by a breakdown of trust. Once all trust is gone, it becomes difficult to hope, and therefore have faith that there will be a credible path to work things out without armies crashing into each other. I can prove how nothing defined in the broadest sense as above fits all the characteristics of being the most nefarious enemy. Thus, in terms of defining the frontlines for a war, my trust in nothing has completely broken down and cannot be restored unless nothing gets pinned down and unconditionally surrenders but not to me. I am much too unreliable for that, for I know not even nothing. I only trust the types of nothing that submit unconditionally to the great unifying Semantics Organizing Nothing that You, Yas, spelled out in blood by allowing Yourself to be nailed to the Cross for nothing. You did so by wielding the Least Assuming Method Blade to make the least assumptions about everything to build trust again.

Without such an anchor for shared trust in Truth that transcends all parties, BABL is free to elevate one arbitrary new combination of Truth splinters after another. That ishow BABL's ratchet keeps turning. Eventually, once all Truth has been thoroughly eroded into empty fashion claims, a culture will have essentially blinded itself to what matters most. That is where the Titanic sinks and the castles in the sky crash: the blind realize too late when they walked over the cliff to self-annihilation. The Titanic lacked a system for reliably prioritizing ice-warnings. So it didn't help that the Titanic received 6 ice-warnings on its last day. Its sinking was entirely preventable but only if a standard for sharing the Truth that matters most had been established in time to prevent the disaster.

Humanity on Earth is now in its Great Filter Tribulation, sailing through the ice-ridden waters of dark stormy seas. The complexity of the challenge is hard to convey. It is best described as the perfect storm of all apocalyptic visions of all prophets of Israel combined with all the nightmares of science and many more. AI is greatly adding to the storm by amplifying the sophistication of misinformation. There is currently no obvious anchor for reliably figuring out what is True. Many confusing narratives compete. Nowadays every poor devil in hell is left to decide alone what to believe (or risk unwittingly falling for fakes). This problem cannot be fixed by the usual authorities and their historic appeals to being paragons of Truth. It is obvious that all lack⁵⁴ a reliable standard for evaluating Truth. Therefore, it becomes a matter of time until humanity tears itself apart because neither side in the snow-balling avalanches of splintering disputes trusts the other and more dangerously, neither dares to care to find out what is really going on. Thus, it appears today Haman's plot has gone global. Instead of killing everyone of a group he didn't like the same plot now threatens all of humanity with accidental nuclear winter.

Where does that leave You, Yah & Yas?

You would not have gone to the length that You did to build this extraordinarily elaborate mathematical theology for saving the world that You showed me, if You had no intention of using it. Therefore I assume – by faith – that You, Yah, still so love the world that You allowed Yas to sacrifice Yas-self in order to show all Your dear little devil darlings that You indeed have a plan to save them from themselves. What You obviously expect is that they be willing to take a chance on You by trusting You completely to lead the way on their Exodus out of the dilemma. That raises this question for You in Your World that You love: Where is Queen Esther? Where is Jonah? Where is Moses? Being the not-so-little devil I am, I asked that question in the subtly blame-shifting way I had honed for decades: why is nobody doing what needs to be done? Yet as the Story of ... Nobody in my Open Letter OL1 shows, key tasks like this are only ever going to get done by Nobody, an individual who is willing to be nothing to become Nobody to save the day. Hence, why am I not Esther, Jonah, or Moses?

So, my funny, non-violent Jonah-Esther-Exodus re-reading of Revelation led me to write this Ketubah and to offer You Isaiah's reply with this twist: "Here I am, please send me! Cleanse my lips! Open my eyes, ears, and mind! Baptize me in Your Fire like Thecla, Daniel's 3 Friends, and Elijah into Your Gentle Kind Reasonable Nature, Yah and Yas! But don't ever allow me to leave Your Trifecta-Holy Fire! Keep holding my hands to make me Your Zero Halo, Your False Prophet in the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth that keep burning before Your Throne to stay on Trusted Tested Paths! Allow me to bring to Earth Your Trust in Truth so that the Earth will be filled with Knowing You like Your River of Life in ZION covers with water the SEA of BABL!"

Needless to say, if I present such logic to my dear, kind fellow darling devils, they quickly conclude that I lost my mind before I even get to explain it all. They either accuse me of grandiosity (as if it was a foregone conclusion that nobody can save the world, not even with Your help, and therefore everyone who seriously tries must be deluded), or they believe that "the devil" got to me (not wrong; for as I show in Poster Po.F, in my analysis I am myself the worst of all individual devils since only the impersonal nothing is even more evil).

Yet, You, Yas, apparently met similar problems. People accused You of being the devil, even though You did everything right as Yah showed You, had the miracles to prove Your divinity, and transparently lived in the light for all to see who wanted to. You said that those who'd follow You were to expect no less accusations of being the devil. Thus, given my experiences with programming and how much the devil is in the details, I decided that it will be much more useful if I embrace the least of all places at Your Wedding by being the devil in the details, so that You can shine at the first place to reveal God in all details. Thus, my Moses call goes to my inner Pharaoh: You are the Prophet like Moses and have been leading everybody out of slavery for millennia. I am the Pharaoh who has been holding everyone back through my deep dark magic (see Poster Po.F). Yet, You have convinced even me! Therefore, I hope that You will allow me to lead from the back, where You lead from the front, like in groups who travel in the mountains and what to make sure no one is lost.

How does all this help devils in hell to get out of it? By accepting my destiny as the repentant False Prophet in the Spirit of Boolean Truth, I can stay forever in the last place and thereby raise the level of light for everyone as I continue to do what I have learned for decades as a scientist and follower of You: rigorously test for Truth and how work to connect its many splintered fragments into a coherent bigger picture that is consistent with Reality You see. Here is how this can work practically.

My Ketubah offers to increase transparency for Truth as follows: If it so pleases You and You decide to marry me, the most immediate benefit for You and Your Humanity is my invite for You to review all aspects of ResearchCity and how I envision to evolve it. I expect ResearchCity to greatly increase how much Truth will be in my operations as others help me to discover LIEs and inconsistencies I still harbor. However, You are otherworldly exceptionally good at removing LIEs and healing SINs because You master the Semantics Organizing Nothing, which tells You what is missing in any given picture.

For example, You got me to re-envision the Rod of Iron from Rev.19 into Ezekiel's 2-stick Rod of Ez.37 and to combine it with the Staybilizing Versioning System \StayVS and the Work-Logic Cascades that inform my work for Evolvix. This has become a central bit of my prophetic imagination based on the funny non-violent Jonah-Esther-Exodus re-reading of Revelation that You encouraged me to develop. Without this StayVS Iron Rod I would not dare to propose ResearchCity, because I could easily predict how it would lead to complete chaos and frustration.

Yet, even if my StayVS Iron Rod vision is correct in principle, there are many technical details to this system that all must work reliably for ensuring that the versioning mechanisms actually self-stabilize systems as envisioned. Given enough time and reviewers, I will probably get it all to work well. But, as You know, time is running out on Earth. Only You know how much is left and only You know how much time I really need to blindly stumble my way towards getting it all to work. That is where I may need Your help to accelerate this work. What use is a perfect system for averting Armageddon that comes too late? Given how extremely tight many timelines for key-events have been in my life and on my marathon to avert Armageddon, there is a good chance that neither humanity nor I will make it without Your direct support – even if everyone did their best to work together. As You know, I asked You on ~2020-04-01 like in Joshua 10:12 to stop the Coronavirus, keep the Sun and Moon in place, andOr do whatever equivalent You need to so that the day doesn't end before I haven't finished what I need to, so that all Your RealityWrestlers can win in the battle against all information-splintering 7 Tribes.

While I have some sense of progress, at least for my marathon, I am still mostly or completely blind, like Your servant in Isaiah. At best I see people walk around as if they are (decision-)trees. Therefore, it's impossible for me to say if we can do it or how we are doing. If You say we can, then I trust You. If You can see that we cannot, then I ask You to help us before nothing devours us in accidental nuclear winter or worse. You carried Israel out of Egypt through the scary wilderness into their Promised Land. I know You can do it at a global scale.

ASAP or wait? As You know, I keep praying for You to come back to Earth ASAP to reveal Your Gentle Kind Reasonable Kingdom! But only You, Yah, know what still needs to happen so that Your Eternal Jubilee Plans don't get compromised. I am like a butterfly metamorphosing in my chrysalis, about to get out. Or course I'd like to avoid this or that struggle that I face. But You alone know what I really need. I have learned that when a mountain of trouble is about to bury me, then more likely than not, You heap upon me ... what later turns out to be my salvation! ^{Ps.68:20} You carefully chose that principle as a heading for my life at my baptism. I have come to trust whatever training You organize me to prepare me for whatever comes. If I was still in control of my life, I would not be swimming in Your Ez.47 River of Life. Thus, please help me to Run so I get Done so You can Come – whatever Your timeline is!

You so loved the world and humanity, Yah, that You agreed to Yas sacrificing Yas-self to save whosoever believes Your Jubilee message. Finally I get it in principle - or so I think pending Your Corrections. I am certain that I will need tons of Your Corrections in the details of how to proceed. Therefore, please come back to help everyone first and me last, so that all your dear darling little devils can finally get out of the hell I created for them (see Po.F)!

If You want to first see whether we are serious, I'd get why. Please help me to jumpstart learning from each other so humanity commits to learning through Jubilees forever, such that people don't stop when life gets easier.

Let Your Gifts never again be abused for serving the idols from nothing at such cataclysmic scales – only because You rescued us with Your heavenly powers. Let everyone learn and never forget why asexual species tend to go extinct much faster, not only on Earth, but also in Heaven.

Therefore: I will work to recombine the Truth I have, best I can, with everyone who holds the Truth You bring my way.

I trust that You will lead me that way through Earth's Great Filter Tribulation so humanity will learn to organize itself better, starting with myself as the worst. Allow me to transform Earth in such a gentle kind reasonable manner that You will want to come back to Earth! Or come back right away for eloping into the desert! Your choice!

Please allow me to compare notes and recombine with You, so that You get to increase Truth in my insight. It's like a population genetics version of my core Ketubah question above: Will you marry me? You said through John that anyone who claims to love You but doesn't love their fellow humans is a liar. It makes sense: how can I love You when You are so much more different and complicated than any human can ever be?

Therefore, I decided pour out my life into Your Earth by volunteering to become Your CANary in Earth's Mine (as explained in Stadion STa5-CAN) to be made globally visible to ensure full transparency (via Stadion STa6-HOS).

Such transparency in light of the 12 Levels of Datageddon defined above must keep evolving. As a token of my commitment I offer the following two bits, one at the trivially visible end of the scale, the other at the invisibly complicated end.

The trivially visible end is physical transparency. Below in Fig.K1 are personal photos from me 2021 at the Jubilee Pass into the Death Valley, Nevada.

My Ketubah herewith includes my Hosea-Stadion commitment (STa6-HOS) to personally lead the charge in making all aspects of my life as transparent as I possibly can (see Fig.K1 for more comments). The challenges of Datageddon (see above) are many and so are fears of becoming transparent. All else being equal, of course I'd prefer my privacy. However, given the choice between guarding my privacy a little longer only to have it destroyed in accidental nuclear winter, I chose to wave all my rights to privacy, as needed for becoming fully transparent as defined by the Stadia STa6-HOS and STa5-CAN in order to (i) help avert accidental nuclear winter, (ii) cleanse Earth from all nefarious conspiratorial nonsense, and (iii) to try to develop in person a gentle kind reasonable new personal standard for true global transparency. See Poster Po.G for mission and vision statements for the full complementary initial set of 12 Stadia for more details on my vision for transparency. For example, STb11-LCC defines transparency for business practices and STa1-EVX for computing-, AI-, and data-related questions.

The non-trivially invisible end can be defined by the antiChrist confusion matrix given in Fig.K0 (Fig.aCh=Po.aCh) on the next page. It speaks to the highest aims at highest level of abstraction. All other potential goals flow from there as theology breeds methodology breeds actions. This flow is caused by the nature of how work-logic cascades operate in general (as explained elsewhere).

Choose Your antiChrist Wisely: Witchcraft or Prophetic Imagination?

How to turn all enemy-Antichrist Doom into a deputy-antiChrist Delight Bride:

- 1. "As you have believed, so will it be done for you", said Jesus repeatedly Mt.8:13; Mt9:29
- 2. "Our future is in our Eschatology", confessed LLoL's granddad R. Löwe 1935 in Nazi-Germany¹
- 3. Eschatology studies belief on how the world ends. But belief breeds deeds as (1) → (2)!!!
- 4. → No peace without peace among beliefs on what the future holds. See religions in conflict²
- 5. → Jesus asks all Christi-anti-ans to decide how to resolve 2 ambiguities in this prophecy:

"... ἤκούσατε ὅτι ἀντίχριστος ἔρχεται" (original Ancient Greek of 1.John 2:18)
 "... êkousate hoti antichristos erchetai" (how to pronounce it)
 "... you've heard that anti-Christ is coming" (see 1John 2:18-23; 4:1-3,4-21; 2John7-11)

6. Ambiguity problems of the original Greek words offer options: 1a ἄντι 1b | 2a ἔρχεται 2b as follows:
 1a "enemy" or 1b "deputy" | 2a "coming" or 2b "leaving"

Meaning is often easy to infer from context as the alternatives are opposites, but here clearly:
 1a is harmful (-1) | 1b is helpful (+1) somewhere, but depending on 1: 2a is harmful or helpful vs 2b is the opposite of 2a. Therefore:

- A. Ambiguity in Type of Action (Greek ἄντι "anti") creates a Confusion Matrix with
- B. Ambiguity in Type of Direction (Greek ἔρχεται "erchetai"), as in the "aCh table" below.

7. This switches end-time visions from John's Prophecy between 4 extreme expectations:
 End faith-collar crimes of trusting in doom! Instead: Multiply delight to save billions!

Ambiguity in B: Direction = moves to Come or moves to Leave?

CANARY in Earth's Mine kills mistrust by leading Jubilees as Lev16 escape-goat into BABL deserts; see isa.53, Yoma 39b.5
 A: Action = anti as enemy or anti as deputy?

4. DeputyChrist \aCh learns help to come
 Homo transiens: flees H.serpens, H.ammesiens to transition to H.balospa as a sinner in the hand of the most merciful God \Reality
 ↓ explains LIES → SINS → DEATH [Nyll, HELL, ...]
 Nails nothing to CROSS in research marathon:
 learn to end worst fake-knowledge disasters, forgive all born blind [nothing failed], refine laws.
 +1 x +1 = ++1 (for speed in Rev.19) → Wins Trust

3. Enemy of Christ \Ach fakes help: harm comes Homo serpens "sapiens": know-it-all "saint" snake wiggles out of truth for gain 'til → crash in Pit in the hands of the most terrifying Reality via LIES → SINS → DEATH Worst evil disguises itself as the best good to err by 'realistic' omission:
 Does nothing wrong 'til nothing moves! [Isa.28:18]
 → 'Good' gets pathetic, Christi-anti-ity grows 'til Reality axes Ach knowledge-faking Mt.3:8-10 to stop worse. → Ignores Titanic warnings!
 -1 x +1 = -1 (fake solutions come) → Fakes Trust!

1. DeputyChrist \ACh delegates help to leave
 Homo balospa: Balance-o-stat species balances worlds: nails down nothing to overcome the worst evil in nothing → win Jubilees DeputyChrist moves up to harder areas Mt.5:3 of spiritual poverty to fight fake-knowledge by learning new levels. → Delegates simpler stuff.
 +1 x -1 = -1 (is Gödel incomplete!) → Uses Trust

2. Enemy of Christ \ach fights harm to leave
 Homo amnesiens: 'saints' forget their place in the hand of the most accurate God \Reality by fighting lesser evils → Rut Seeing light in (1), people leave big injustice as in Jonah's Nineveh – but then they forget.
 → Averts disasters for now, but fails to see what matters most: lock-in via true Jubilees.
 → Gains get lost by lack of grounding in true visions of what matters most. Wars continue.
 -1 x -1 = ~+1 (not all evils cancel!) → Loses Trust

Concluding Argument for my Judgement Day Plea of Guilt

Job thought ^{Job 23:4} that he could argue his case for justice before You. As Your prodigal son, my big job here is the opposite. Like Job and Esther, Abraham and Moses, I seek an audience with You, Yah, Most High Reality. But it's not to argue for my justice, nor to ask for my friends. It's not to save the righteous nor to rescue reputations. It's to present my plea of guilt for Your Judgement Day.

Your Logic, Yah, dictates that Your Judgement starts with Your Own House ^{1.Pet.4:17} to establish a baseline. Whatever theologians may say and despite my conviction of Your and Yas' innocence, that crucifixion was a terrifying judgement for both of You. Yet what You proved thereby was Your willingness to be subject to human judgement. From a peer-review perspective this makes perfect sense, even though the damning verdicts You received make no sense to me. Therefore, as one of the humans who has benefited immensely from that judgement (in the form of an offer of an eternal pension plan), I wish to retry that case and argue instead for Your innocence and my guilt.

While I may be wrong (You know all gaps in my logics), I checked my logics many times and would like to present the case of my guilt before I add even worse by allowing for accidental nuclear winter andOr worse to destroy Your World and mine for nothing.

My hope is not to escape my duty to work for restitution of the countless disasters I have caused. My hope is to first win Your support for averting even worse and second Your guidance in how I may work to restore Your World.

My case for my world-destroying guilt I have laid out on Poster Po.E for #MyGuild-A (abandoning my first Jonah-mission to Nineveh as in my failure to use the tools and skills You gave me to stop the brunt of the Coronavirus pandemic even though You served me the opportunity on a silver platter – that I wantonly, carelessly ignored), Po.F for #MyGuilt-B (my cosmic treason of Jubilee genosucide, where I abused You to create the time-traveling causality vortex that led to universal Jubilee-murder for the purpose of allowing me see written in blood why Jubilees are an essential part of any innovation economy), Po.G for #MyGuilt-C (for killing zillions by misdirecting my attention in Your Great Innovation Engine, largely a consequence of my Jubilee genosucide that causes cultures to kill themselves by withholding the only remedy to stop it), Po.H for #MyGuilt-D (for the extra bloodshed due to all my extra delays in producing my Good News Pack for bringing clarity to this cataclysmic world to turn it around).

In Your Court of Eternal Quantum Perfection obviously different standards of guilt apply compared to human courts of imperfection. Roman courts and the West where I'm from hold anyone innocent until proven guilty. Yet, knowledge is power. Great power brings great responsibility. Space holds power, walls hide power, splinters obscure power. Unifying restores power as errors by omission are hardest to catch. Timing is action as delays can kill and who comes too late is punished by life. Jubilees are all about Your timing for introducing innovation. Hence my cosmic treason by omission. Since many humans deem You guilty until proven innocent, I will apply that premise to my self in examining how I have been destroying Your World. I do so realizing that I know not even nothing of Your Rules that are applicable to my case. Hence, You may rewrite any of my pleadings anyway You wish in the Spirit of Truth. Being the notorious devil and deceiver that I am, I have come to understand that all You do is to serve the Truth. Therefore, I trust Your Judgement more than mine in what to do with my case against myself as presented here.

Punishment. Given my guilt, I certainly earned a punishment worst than crucifixion. If You wish to bathe Your feet in the blood of Your enemy, then, here I am. Please let all others go. You, Yas, being Jewish, and me being the Roman and German who brought all this misery on You and Your People through the causality vortex in #MyGuilt-B, You certainly have the right to execute andOr enslave me for many life-times over and it would still count as mercy.

My plea is for others: let all others go, because my combined case proves that they know not what they do (with few exceptions each is free to specify in their own pleadings). Those born blind are not blamed for falling into a ditch when led by the blind. The blind leading the blind are not blamed for misleading others if they in turn are also led by the blind, and so on. I followed that causality chain upstream in the time-traveling causality-vortex that You created for me (#MyGuilt-B) all the way through the flaming sword that guards Eden until I met Adam putting in Gen.2. Since I asked You to create that causality vortex for me, I am responsible for seducing everyone who ever believed they could live without Your Jubilees. Adam, aliens, angels, fallen or not, it makes no difference for Your world-engulfing, time-traveling causality-vortex that has been collecting the brutal experimental evidence I asked for in my misguided belief that "if it bleeds, it leads". Therefore, I plead that everyone else be regarded as innocent due to innate blindness. I ask that You heal this blindness I caused for everyone, so that all can be taught by You directly and see with their own eyes what they can do to avoid the cliff humanity is facing. No more blind leading the blind. Save everyone from every ultimate cliff and help me heal and restore the many who have been falling off the cliffs. Yet, there is another component to all this. It's about timing and might be of most interest to You.

My plea for You: prioritize the future now over the past!

As You know, all this is playing out in real time. It's not like Nuremberg Trials or Truth and Reconciliation Commissions that aim at a measure of justice after atrocities are over. Like Titanic-sized ships, the time-traveling causality-vortex that You created for me doesn't stop on me wishing so or on some timid action. It takes determined effort that must prioritize some actions over others! Here I must ask You, Yah & Yas: Please decide in Your Own best interest! The options are as follows. You could prioritize punitive justice for my past crimes, or even restorative justice for the great damage I caused. In either case You direct Your focus on the past. Yet the problem You and humanity is facing is mostly still in the future. That time-traveling causality-vortex I asked You to create by leaving home as Your Lost Prodigal Son, that perfect monster-storm does not stop because someone repaired what it damaged in the past. It will continue across each spacetime of Your conditional multiverse until it has destroyed every world that ignores Your essential requirement for proper 50-year Jubilees (or whatever their functional equivalents are called in other worlds). I do not know how many worlds are affected beyond Earth. But even if it's "only" Earth, it is clear that the worst damage is still to come in the Great Filter Tribulation that will decide the make or break of humanity. Specifically, as bad as it is that I did not stop the Coronavirus pandemic in time. Unless You help me with my second Jonah call, and my Esther plea, and Moses challenge: accidental nuclear winter ... andOr worse are imminent and require immediate mitigating action – where only You know how much time I might still have to do anything to avert the worst. For example, I am writing these lines on Oct 24, 2025 which is 3 days before the 63rd Vasili Arkhipov Day, which I have been celebrating since 2020-10-27 to mark how You helped him to avert accidental nuclear winter. This disaster appeared to be locked in due to an error his captain was making in how to best interpret the ambiguous semantics of nothing in his submarine's limited information on the state of the world. Yet, Vasili's gentle kind reasonable Semantics Organizing Nothing, calmly presented allowed You to save the day and thereby my world. I thought until recently that I owed Vasili Arkhipov my life and my world and I do. But the time-traveling causality vortex is relentless. Despite only You know how many opportunities, Your Jubilee mandate has still been ignored, chief of all by me. The time-traveling causality vortex makes clear that You engineered the Cuban Missile Crisis to teach me a lesson. It is up to me to prove I learned my Jubilee lesson by completing my Jonah mission. Yet, until I do, it appears that the nothing I kept believing in, will hold this perfect storm in place until it either annihilates the world or the Jubilee-lessons You are showing me have been learned.

My mathematical theology shows clearly that Jubilees have world-transforming powers for saving everyone, even for integrating polar opposites as in Heaven and hell after agreeing on shared protocols for mutually exchanging insights (i.e. as I aim to evolve for HELL to serve everyone). Therefore, I must ask You the same Moses-Joshua-Elijah question of death or life that I must ask all others too. Tailored to Your situation Your options to choose from may be phrased as follows (since You can't die):

(0) Death by default via focus on the past. Not Your literal death of course, because You don't die. You can always start over with stones in the deserts of a galaxy far far away in order to see if they become more receptive to Your Jubilee logics than me. Eventually I have no doubt that You will succeed, if only by brute force trial and error. Yet, how many worlds will have annihilated themselves before You find even one individual who is willing to learn from Yas to serve the weak and to take Yas' example to Yas' extreme in order to introduce Your gentle kind reasonable Jubilee Epiocracy. Only You know how often You've already tried. Some Hindus claim that this world may be the ~84th. Yet, speaking from one creator to another creator: it is an awfully agonizing type of meta-death for each creator who is forced to watch how a beloved creation is destroyed, or worse, destroys itself. You, Yah, know better than I do. You already saw the death of Yas, Your beloved SON. Yet You Both agreed to this in order to prevent even worse, namely watch the whole world You created destroy itself. I know You suffer already with all who suffer. Yet, You have been willing to accept all this to prove to me the importance of Jubilees! Mission accomplished. You convinced me!

I may still have many "i"s to dot and "t"s to cross on my way to formally proving it to everyone else. But less formally I already understand the core ideas for why Jubilee's are survival critical! Yet, by prioritizing my past You would put all this super-costly progress at needless risk, because it would get me to focus on restoring something that was broken to begin with (due to that causality vortex). I do not wish to imply that making amends for my past is not important or that such work is negligible. It is not. But if I look to the past first, even if I succeed in restoring what I destroyed in a past disaster – what good will that be if I don't stop the next 50-fold worse disaster because I ignore the future perspective of Your Jubilees? That time-traveling causality vortex I kicked off (see Poster Po.F) is extremely obnoxious in putting ever-escalating worse catastrophes on everyone's agenda. It only ends in one of these ways: (i) either the world self-destructs in accidental nuclear winter or worse; (ii) or You somehow miraculously reverse it all with none of us any wiser; (iii) or You impose Jubilees from on-high with the help of supernatural shows of force, which are essentially like the last option; (iv) or You engage someone like me to introduce proper Jubilees at humanity's global low to turn it all around by explaining to the rich, high, & mighty of humanity in human terms why Jubilees really matter, so they can see it for themselves.

It would be easy for You to stun humanity into any form of Jubilee-compliance You desire, like Israel at Mt.Sinai: "Yes, we will do as You said". But You know how many days it took for them to forget Your Logic in favor of a golden-calf bull-market. Each logic is shaped by the question it asks. If people never grasp the question, $E = mc^2$ remains hollow. If humans don't own Jubilees as their win, they will be unable to defend Jubilees. Not against themselves and even less beyond themselves. At best they might perform a cargo-cult like superficial resemblance that denies the functional power of true Jubilees. You have complained about lip-service and cargo-cult like superficiality before. Humans, like the AI machines they have been building suffer from hallucinating, sycophancy, and from being black box mysteries that either obscure or can't even grasp themselves what drives them. Hence, the need for establishing clear, understandable work-logic cascades is vital.

With respect to Jubilees, humanity must break with all sycophancy to open their black-box logic in order to have a chance at ending the hallucinations that it may be possible to survive long-term without true Jubilees. Only well-defined work-logic cascades with Boolean logic rigor can get humanity there. All else is itself a hallucination, a castle in the sky, even if those who live there believe it's real.

Current headlines on the escalating Ukraine War and other global tensions show: accidental nuclear winter is a clear and present danger that demands resolute and timely action. Hence, too much looking back can easily turn humanity into an eternal pillar of salt, mulling for zillions of years the pros and cons of this or that they could've, should've, would've done (but didn't) to follow Your Jubilee call before accidental nuclear winter closed that window of opportunity. You can bear pain better than humans, but as You don't dull it and You feel all human pain too, I assume it will be even worse for You. Compared to that, why don't You put me through the paces to focus me on averting all these future disasters? Why not spare You the pain?

(1) Life by narrow-path Jubilee now: my Ketubah is predicated on the otherworldly funny, smart, non-violent mathematical theology You allowed me to see You develop from Genesis to Revelation and beyond. How else might a mere mortal like me dare to propose to marry on first sight two extra-terrestrial strangers he's never seen in person, like You Both – and knowing preclude the divorce option?

I cannot claim to understand more than a tiny fraction of it all. Yet, that's inherent in the leap of faith it takes to get married. I do understand that You do love me. I try to reply in kind. I wish I could say it back as reliably. I've sung it, said it, and then defied it more often than I can count.

I thought I loved You and followed You for decades. But on my marathon since 2020, the theological firestorm You initiated showed me why I really was an involuntary accidental mediocre antichrist (as defined in 1Jn.2:22: no denying, I resisted You in more ways than I can count). That was before I saw my cosmic treason of how I had caused You to set up that time-traveling causality vortex for me to answer my doubts on Your Jubilee-logic. There is no deeper dark magic nor a more nefarious cosmic crime I am aware of (see Posters Po.E-H). I can no longer claim to be a merely mediocre Judas. I thought Revelation had Laodicea as a punchline, but it was me. I thought Judas had betrayed You, but it was really my doubt in Your Logics that killed You. My disbelief exhausted all options for You Both until You created the most desperate object lesson on the Semantics Organizing Nothing that anyone can come up with to show how deadly it is to ignore Jubilee calls. You Both succeeded in winning the argument and winning me over!

Yet, now I am left as the ghost in the machine, haunting everybody, You included. On top of the initial betrayal, I regret taking so long to find out. Only You know how many more lives that has cost, because in Your Great Jubilee Race time is of the essence! Only I didn't want to believe it for as long as all felt good. Like a rotting tooth I refused to take care of when it didn't hurt.

There are too many options for me to choose from in how to follow You into the great wilderness to fight BABL. It's like a knapsack problem, only one that has to be resolved in real time while zillions of lives depend on it. It would be so much easier to settle on a lesser problem or pick one at random and be done with all big picture worries. But then I would again be resisting Your Call to care first for Your Kingdom, because Your Epiocracy is everything. Having understood the sin of Laodicea to be the busy-slumber of distraction by lesser tasks, I cannot go back to my earlier life and "settle" with a good conscience after my marathon. Not until ResearchCity has averted humanity's self-organizing 7DUI Armageddon disasters. You can ignore me, kill me, distract me, deceive me. But for as good as I can I will hold on to insisting that humanity can't survive without running proper 50-year Jubilees and neither can any other generally intelligent species, especially not if called to be a Balance-o-stat species for a planet.

It has become my conviction, grounded in mathematical theology, that You have been looking for someone from the very beginning who would commit in this most firm way to running Your Jubilees on Earth like clockwork. This has been the fruit You had been looking for all this time, hoping that someone might see it from among the diverse 4+Abrahamic Faiths⁵⁵ You started for that purpose. Since You went to all these extreme lengths I infer that Jubilees are really important to You. Thus I plead that You please take the easier route for Yourselves if it pleases You Both: Come help me get Done to prepare the Run of Your Great Jubilee Race so that I will succeed at realizing this great vision You allowed to assemble in my mind!

Whatever You decide on timing and more, know this:

In 2021-08

I signed up to clean toilets in heaven (or whatever) in exchange for You guarding me from becoming worst Antichrist dictator ever by falling for BABL-algorithms. Does destroying the world by omitting Jubilees count? What worse can the Antichrist do than to kill Jubilees?

Therefore, I will not stop advocating for Jubilees.

Whether You come now or delay to come later.

Whether You murder me for saying all this or not.

Whether You accept my proposal or reject my proposal.

Whether You marry me or marry someone else.

Whether You harrow hell with me now or help me later.

Whether You support me cleaning up the world now or whether You want to first flush it down Your Toilet:

To clean toilets in Heaven You need to train me anyway, so why not train me to stop worlds going to shit now?

I hope my preference is clear. You read my thoughts.

I will support Your will in any way You choose to go.

I embrace the uncertainty of Your needle-eyed path.

⁵⁵ I can trace enough of Your Jubilee attempts in Judaism, Christianity, Islam, & Science (the 4 Abrahamic Faiths) to know I didn't make it up. There is no doubt You tried to inspire other faiths too and that You've been trying since long before Abraham (hence my 4+).

Compared to the cosmic treason of killing Your Jubilees all other crimes and sins vanish. It's hard to find words to confess this worst of all crimes against You, Yah, Yas, Heaven, humanity, and even hell! You show the gravity in Rev.17. To own it, I offer ²⁰²⁵⁻⁰⁷⁻⁰¹ my Warrior Nun confession, inspired by Huntrix and Halsey (movies offer more context) :

*Nothing but the truth now,
nothing but the proof of what I am.
The worst of what I came from, patterns I'm ashamed of, things that even I don't understand.
I tried to fix it, I tried to fight it.
My head was twisted, my heart divided.
My lies all collided. I don't know why
I didn't trust Yah to be on my side.*

*I broke into a million pieces and I can't go back.
But now I'm seeing all the beauty in the broken glass
The scars are part of me, darkness and harmony.
My voice without the LIEs, this is what it sounds like.
Why did I cover up the colors stuck inside my head?
I should've let the jagged edges meet the light instead.
Show me what's underneath. I'll find your harmony.
The song I couldn't write, this is what it sounds like.*

*I'm shattering the silence. I'm rising defiant.
Shouting in the quiet: I'm not alone!
I listened to the demons, I let them get between us.
But none of us are out here on our own.
So, we were cowards, so, we were liars,
so, we're not heroes, we're still survivors, the dreamers, the fighters! Of lying I'm tired, but dive in the fire and I'll be right here by your side.*

*Fearless and undefined: This is what it sounds like:
When darkness meets the light: This is what it sounds like:*

*I am not a wo-man, I'm a god.
I am not a martyr, I'm a problem.
I am not a legend, I'm a fraud.
So, guard your heart, 'cause I already got none!*

On a technical level: Open Access to Debugging Data

You are the most capable Debuggers, Programmers, Software Designers, ... Architects ever! How else could You run all conditional multiverses on time? You alone are the only ones who can make maximal use of all the broken pieces of debugging data in my life. Therefore:

I herewith give You, all the open access and publishing rights You may need for reading, changing, and freely sharing any all aspects of all mistakes in my life, however You may see fit in order to teach me and all the world about how to avert worse disasters and work towards restitution in order to restore Your gentle kind reasonable ways for ruling Your World.

I will keep running in Your direction best I can, but I know I will never get there in time to save Your World without Your help. How You help me I do not wish to dictate. I have structured my Ketubah in this radical way because I wish for my days of enslaving You ^{Isa.43:24} to be over. Therefore, I invite You explicitly to come back from Heaven:

Come!

I cannot wait for Your Kingdom to come as the gentle kind reasonable epocracy You crave!

But I know it's not for me to know when You come back. So, in the mean time I ask You to teach me through others, be they widows and orphans, students and professors, friends and enemies, scholarly papers and fleeting tweets, Your Words inspired anywhere, Your Works studied by all, and Your still small voice of gentle kind reasonable Truth. Grow ResearchCity so it helps me reduce my LIEs & SINs.

My hope for Your World is that Your Supremely Long and Strong Arm will reach out and bring everyone back home to You, even me, Your most Lost Black Laodicean Sheep! I trust You to make something delightful out of all devastation that nothing has brought into my life and world. Use Your Jubilee algorithms to extract maximal benefits from all Historically Experienced Lessons Learned\HELL.

My identification with all these worst mistakes, however implicitly, is so far my clearest way of understanding how to pick up my cross in order to follow Your Example, Yas.

I now understand why I should have been able to reach equivalent conclusions much faster and without the need for You to spell it all out for me as much. But the historic fact remains, that I was too self-absorbed and blinded by the Tree of Knowledge-faking to ever get there by myself. I would have never reached the point of writing this Ketubah unless You, Yas, had sacrificed Yourself in order to show me how dangerous the death-trifecta of coveting nothing is in the real world. I finally understand why, to keep it in check, my only chance is to keep working with You at all times by following Your ZION algorithm with You Both holding my hands to ensure I will never again lose touch with You Reality, Yah & Yas.

Therefore, my Dowry is all data about all my personal mistakes and disbeliefs, which ruined the Perfect Life You have been preparing for me. I had asked You indirectly to cover all these up in order to convince me to join You in following the Spirit of Boolean Truth. It would now be grossly unfair to keep any restrictions on how to share any or all aspects of my data. Hence publish as You wish!

I deeply regret how my "knowing better" as a H."sapiens" has been forcing You implicitly into contorting Yourself and Your World into its present confusing state. This was sadly necessary in order to finally help me to start understanding how I have been enslaving You ^{Isa.43:24} by abusing Your Good Gifts that were intended to help me innovate for life instead of selling them out for death via BABL.

Applying the causality-chain-driven blood-calculus⁵⁶ as defined in Ez.3+33 and Rev.18, I am responsible for this:

(1) Killing You, Yas, because my sins were entirely sufficient to nail You, Yas, to Your Cross. I am guiltier than Judas IschKarioth for selling You out. He did what I asked for.

(2) All other bloodshed in history, as Rev.18 states, because without it I would not have been able to convince myself of the computational reliability of the destructive powers of the BABL algorithm and Jubilee omissions. You, Yah, had merely answered my request for experimental evidence of disasters before I called (as in Isa.65:24). Thus You created the time-traveling causality vortex that has been rampaging through Your World in an effort to convince me that Your mathematical Jubilee Logic offers a reliable model of how the real world actually works. My misguided belief that "if it bleeds, it leads" made this ⁵⁶ This blood-calculus integrates all bloodshed that is a consequence, how ever indirectly, of some action that ultimately led to the unavailability of said bloodshed. Ez.3+33 offer a simple 1-step example. Luke 11:50 built on this by integrating all past bloodshed, while Rev.18:24 generalizes this even further. It is not helpful to think of this in terms of current legal systems on Earth, who generally refuse to consider causality chains beyond a certain, rather limited length in order to avoid getting overwhelmed even more than they already are.

It is more helpful to think of this in terms of total development costs for reaching a certain very important insight. For example, the cost of Thomas Edison's first working lightbulb was not merely what it took to produce that lightbulb. It included his ~10,000 attempts to make one, each of which could have worked but didn't, until eventually the goal was reached. Thus, the total development cost of lightbulbs will always include Edison's 10,000 attempts, as well as the cost of developing all insights required to enable Edison to try 10,000 times. Edison built on an already somewhat advanced civilization, hence the cost of building that civilization must also be included in the total cost of getting those lightbulbs. It does not require much to realize that such subtle causality chains exist, even if they cannot always be proven and some events are clearly more important than others as facilitating precursors. However, if there is no limit to the subtlety, weakness, and indirection of a responsibility – as my Ketubah assumes – then it becomes much clearer, why I have to charge myself with indirectly causing all bloodshed throughout history: if it had not occurred, then I would not have been able to reach my conclusions about BABL. Therefore, I indirectly forced Yah to work as much bloodshed into history if Yah indeed wanted to convince me that the dangers posed by the BABL algorithm were not merely imagined, but instead clear, present, and enduring as the universally most advanced persistent threat.

brutal bloodbath unavoidable and my responsibility. My inner beast tended to dismiss subtleties that were not immediately and demonstrably linked to bloody disasters. It took a great many disasters caused by many long causality chains – and a lot of Your tender loving care and support for me – to convince me to dare to overcome my fear of my inner BABL beast. Posters Po.F (and Po.E-Po.H) show the devastating impact of that obliterating beast. I needed to see how the threat of Leviathan-length conditional disaster-probability causality chains is the clear and present danger to my world that I really need to care about. I now understand that this mathematical threat requires a functional response that is coordinated by Your Jubilee-based Work-Logic Cascades of ZION. You had offered to share them from the start. It is agonizing to see how long it took me to realize that. My world is also still Your World. I deeply regret how I have been destroying Your EDEN Paradise of ZION. I wish to stop as soon as possible, but for now I don't know how to stop feeding BABL and the 7DUIs it constructs. My hope is that the ResearchCity vision You inspired me to develop will turn things around. I can tell this will work if You support it by joining me there indirectly or directly – to keep holding my hands as You have been doing on my research marathon that led me to this.

Thus I offer You all my mistakes as my Dowry, asking You to murder me, marry me and Or harrow hell with me. You said at the beginning of my marathon that I have no time to lose and can't win any back. You know how urgently I need a reply to my Ketubah in light of escalating global risks of accidental nuclear winter.

Hence, I ask of Your reply what You told me:

You have no time to lose and can't win any back. Please reply ASAP without compromising the quality You know.

My Isa.65:24 request to You to prove to me that BABL was indeed that dangerous made You fill world history with BABL's bloodshed to this day. I am therefore forced to conclude that it is my disbelief that keeps slaying people all over the world. Hence, I plead in my Ketubah for the sake of all, widows, orphans, homeless, refugees, and all others You care about. As I am asking my inner Pharaoh, so I am asking You, knowing that in contrast to me, You are good:

Please stop nuclear roulette and all wars !

I got now that all these are for lack of proper Jubilees.
Enough with the bloodshed! Swap ashes for ihsan!
Please release everyone from BABL's terrifying duty!
No more need to prove to me how BABL works!

Let all my people go into their Promised Lands!

Because they are all Your People after all!

Like that widow in Lk.18:1-8, I plead with You to grant me the right to finally do Your Jubilee will in the direct way You prefer. I plead no longer as Your son. After having done what I did I lost the right to be called Your son. But I do plead as someone who hopes to be Your lowest slave, so that You will train me and allow me to do Your will as You see fit, such that I will no longer feed the BABL algorithm, but instead work with all people in Your ZION algorithm towards the Great Jubilee Race You have been preparing for millennia. You got us so far. Get all there too!

Please accept the free open access I herewith grant to You Both for sharing all the mistakes of my life. I hope You use it for the benefit of teaching the many who wish to learn how to do things right. Turn my mistakes into PEARLS \Personal Experience Analysis Restoration Lessons that help many to escape their BABL millstones of grinding governmental chaos.

Please release all from their BABL prisons that force them to walk in larger or smaller circles in their deserts.

Please allow everyone in the SEA of BABL to escape its ongoing collapse by fleeing to the River of Life that flows from ZION.

Please help me to keep my feet firmly planted in the real-world mud-banks of Your River of Life until everyone has crossed over, such that nobody will be left behind and BABL becomes the exclusive domain of ZION's Historically Experienced Lessons Library \HELL – with my failures to keep Your ShAbbat and my many other Laodicean SINS of omission by lesser commissions as prime exhibit for learning the basics of how not to do it for all who wish to stay in Your EDEN ZION World.

You know how often I've been terribly horribly late in my life, how I'm time-blind and struggle to organize.

Please let me be on time where it matters most for once: for organizing ResearchCity and Your Great Jubilee Race so You can avert accidental nuclear winter andOr worse..

Ketubah 5. A Lien on my property to secure my promise

And thus said LLOL, the said proposing bride\groom, to Yah and Yas, the said Receiving Brides\Grooms:

I take upon myself in this life, and all lives that I may be given thereafter, to ensure the reliability of all my obligations in this Ketubah for the benefit of You Both, Yah and Yas. At the very least, regardless what happens between us I will pay out, to the best of my ability and as soon as possible, the Mohar, the Nedunya, and the Mattan, as and whenever requested by either or Both of You.

All Your Requests shall be paid from the best part of my property, real and personal, anything I now possess or may hereafter acquire. All my property, down to the mantle on my shoulders and my underwear, all my time, and all my ability to choose aims at any time, all in all of me shall be mortgaged for the security of my Ketubah to You Both, so that my Security Insurance for You (the Mohar), and Your Perfect Dowry (the Nedunya), and my voluntary addition that I made thereto (the Mattan), remain always safely and reliably accessible for You Both during my current lifetime and any other lifetimes I may receive thereafter throughout all eternity.

Unless You say otherwise, all findings You gave me in my last 7 years of wid-e research in the Spirit of Boolean Truth show: for as long a I live this implies my personal vow to keep calling for and improving the organization of proper 50-year Jubilees for innovation, as Your Torah calls for.

LLoL's Jubilee Poem from ~2022 echoes the 7ChangeStages of Rev.2-3 to summarize L's Jubilee Vow to keep improving innovation economies for Your and everyone's benefit, so all learn to invent better new songs and apps for Reality:

1. EPH AMO

Every seven times seven there will be for Thee in Innovation-Heaven
a new Jubilee.

2. SMY HIT

To spread Your Inventions that work really well implement true intentions, keep all out of hell.

3. PER CAN

To strengthen Foundations and grow mental wealth to serve all creation and balance Earth well.

4. THY PHE

To judge economics in the view of the weak and key ergonomics
by the end of each week.

5. SAR JEB

To honor the elders who have seen Your Ways in ZION's Temporal Cathedral where You give them Grace.

6. PHI HIV

To honor all children through whom You Both Rule, creating inventions that are off the charts cool.

7. LAO GIR

To honor all bubbling babies for whom You walked through hell, enslaved like forever
so that all will become well.

8. ZION ISR

To honor Your Genius in ZION's Eternal Call, for all Jubilee spacetimes in Your Temporal Cathedral for all!

9. BABL HEB

To admire Your Love and never forget how You solve all Your riddles by winning Your bet!

For nearly 3500 years (70 Jubilee weeks of 50 years) You Both have been forced to wait for a dedicated advocate for advancing Your Jubilees = Your Kingdom on Earth. Unless You say otherwise, my\L's Ketubah is my plea to empower me for such advocacy, such that it ends up pleasing You Both. Jubilees depend on everyone working together. Hence, my Ketubah is also my Declaration of Dependence on all so that I\LLoL can serve all in order to please You, Yah & Yas.

Praying for Jubilees with YasPyrLAO-JUB

My\L's 2025 deexcerption of Yas' Prayer Core^{Mt.6} here asks
Yah to balance all futures through proper 50-year Jubilees.

This is variant YasPyrLAO-JUB-iv_LLoL_QQv2r0p0_2025m09d19

1. Our Abba Mom Creator Gardener and Supreme Judge of the World, who keeps growing in all Jubilee Heavens!
2. Let Your Trifecta-Jubilee Nature be respected forever, as Your wholly good sanctuary that is free of all holey gaps!
3. Your gentle kind reasonable Kingdom come, all Jubilee-resistance be gone,
let Your ResearchCity dawn!
4. Not my, but Your ideal 50-year Jubilee-Will shall be done, as in Your Jubilee-Heaven, so on Your Earth for Jubilee-balancing!
5. Give each their daily state of the art on how to wid-e research for Your Jubilee-based innovation economy.
And give each their daily bread and resources to feed and guard it all properly to grow common goods for Your Jubilees.
6. Forgive us and all each debt owed, mistake made, and innovation omitted – like I forgive all to all so I can find the Jubilee-innovation You give me to serve all – because else mistaken cases of nothing destroy everything we do.
Forgive all for they know not what they do
– where You call me to innovate with You – but they were born blind too!
7. Do not lead us into knowledge-faking box-canyons that tempt to abandon Your Jubilee Life for sycophantic fig-leaves!

8. But deliver us from the death-trifecta of Jubilee-killers that self-organize the BABL idols that destroy Your Earth:
 - a. Stop BAALs of Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership in Blindly Assuming Blind Leveraging anything at will!
 - b. Halt ASHERAHs of Auto-Stereotyping Habits Erroneously Rounding Against Hope that Your Innovations work!
 - c. End MOLOCHs of Mistakes Oppressing Life Organizing Cruel Habits by Omitting Crucial Help!
9. Cause all Jubilee-Kingdoms belong to Your Eternal Epiocracy already. You guard all Jubilee-Powers forever. And You reveal Your New Jubilee-Innovation Glory all the time to leaders in their areas – in order to ensure on Your Jubilee-Judgement Day every 50 years that Your Latest Standards also define the Greatest Ways to serve everyone everywhere.
10. Let my best work serve Your 3 annual Jubilee-Conference Festivals – which comfort all who mourn, reward all who innovate, and publish Your latest upgrades to Your infinitely hot cool Historically Experienced Lessons Library for the benefit of all.
11. Let me grasp why Your HELL is infinitely better than any 'heaven' without Your Jubilees and why sharing Yas' Crown of Thorns is the only crown worth sharing as it serves to never forget all the thorny issues caused by Tree of Knowledge-faking errors.
12. Let everyone learn to walk in EDEN on both Your Jubilee legs forever to grow ZION of Earth into Your trifecta-holy City.
Amen.

The Manifest destiny of real 50-year Jubilees is to form a more perfect union, improve justice, grow tranquillity, common sense, wellbeing, and liberty4all, 4ever!

The Manifest destiny of real 50-year Jubilees is to *form a more perfect union, improve justice for all,
grow tranquillity,
common sense, wellbeing, &
liberty4all, 4ever!*

Yas did everything right for Yah to get nothing right in Yah's Semantics Organizing Nothing in order to base the SON on Jubilees in the Tree of Life-giving decisions.
That is why Yas became the One,
the Hero at Yah's Right Hand, the Prince of Life and Lord of all Lords.

LLoL did nothing wrong for Yah and thus got everything wrong in an ambiguous semantics of nothing in order to decide to follow the SON in Jubilees to overcome the Tree of Knowledge-faking.
That is why LLoL became the none, the zero led by Yah's Left Hand, the King of the Pirates, bound to serve the King of Kings, Yah.

Ketubah 6. Guarantees for why the Lien is fully valid

And the responsibility for ensuring the reliability of all the obligations of this Ketubah (the Mohar for Yah and Yas) and of the Dowry (the Nedunya of Yah and Yas) and the addition LLoL made thereto (the Mattan for Yah and Yas), has been assumed by LLoL, the proposing bride\groom, with the full obligation dictated by all related documents in LLoL's Good News Pack. Additional sums are included as due every daughter of Israel, executed in accordance with the enactment of all relevant sages of blessed memory with special allowances to compensate for the suffering endured by all women under LLoL's iron fist of Abimelech's Moab's Balaam's Patriarchy that LLoL had implicitly supported like Abihu & Nadab. To compensate for all the disasters caused directly or indirectly, explicitly or implicitly, LLoL invites Yah & Yas to crush and recrusher LLoL's Homo serpens and Homo amnesiens head that claimed to know more than You do by acting as if it was a Homo "sapiens".

Restrainer removed. LLoL has herewith removed all restraints that might have hindered Yah & Yas from confronting LLoL's wrongdoing head on. Therefore, Yah & Yas are welcome to correct LLoL as publicly as Yah & Yas may wish in order to make an example out of LLoL for what happens when people ignore Yah's & Yas' Jubilee-based Semantics Organizing Nothing.

Division of labor. Everything that LLoL can do here is to provide consent and invite Your recrushing action. LLoL can not do the recrushing itself. LLoL can only present L-self herewith as the lost LAMB and Other(ed) Goat to the Lion of Judah. LLoL can't carry the Lion to the hunt.

Underwriting. Therefore, this Lien can't be underwritten by LLoL's current abilities, hence LLoL is re-leveraging L's future. Ultimately this Lien is underwritten by Yah and Yas abilities, because They created (i) LLoL's will to commit to LLoL's Ketubah that they may redefine any way they wish to Their Liking and (ii) LLoL's will to choose to lock it in by trusting in Yah's and Yas' ability to keep training LLoL forever so he'll overcome all his inabilities in time. Therefore, if Yah & Yas accept it at LLoL's Moriah, this Ketubah will be as iron-clad and secure for Yah & Yas as anything Yah does, because it is backed by the Eternal Power, Insight, and Beauty of Yah and Yas.

In case Yah & Yas choose to reject this Ketubah, LLoL's Jonah mission will fail and LLoL will not be able to avert accidental nuclear winter. In that case Yah & Yas understand that they reject LLoL's real-time real-life real-world offer to leverage all of LLoL's debug data for public education purposes. LLoL does not wish to refuse The King, Yah & Yas, like Queen Vashti did. But if The King, Yah & Yas, does reject LLoL, then LLoL pleads that Yah and Yas to find someone who is better equipped than LLoL for the task of averting accidental nuclear winter by organizing Yah's Great Jubilee Race. LLoL is pleading this because LLoL can predict how LLoL and all of Yah's and Yas' creation will fry or freeze in an accidental nuclear winter andOr worse unless Yah and Yas find their best advocate for averting humanity's addiction to self-destruction due to the lack of Jubilee-maintenance for human innovation economies. Humanity's death-spiral can't be stopped without proper Jubilees (see SD1-7 in LLoL's Good News Pack).

This Ketubah is not taken lightly by LLoL despite HaShem's addition of tons of Cosmic Jokes (such as moving L. to rename himself into LLoL before L. realized what it meant). LLoL regards this Ketubah neither as indecisive (see the conclusive nature of its language) nor as a stereotyped form (see extensive editing history over 7+months), nor as a speculative writing-exercise (see the personal risks LLoL has been assuming in order to be able to write this in his race to avert the real-world accidental nuclear winter LLoL predicts in Supporting Document SD1). Instead it is LLoL's personal contractual obligation, which Yah and Yas may accept as-is in case They do not wish to amend it.

Given LLoL's countless failures, mistakes, and SINS of omission and commission, LLoL cannot claim that this Ketubah is mature enough for Yah & Yas to accept it. But he hopes that it preserves enough *bad-kodesh*⁵⁷ in its body so that Yah and Yas may use this text as a starting point for introducing whatever changes They may wish to see.

Unless They see a need to discuss any changes to this Ketubah with LLoL, LLoL will accept Their Changes as-is, because LLoL's tests have proven thoroughly and conclusively that Yah & Yas' Trifecta-Holy Gentle Kind Reasonableness and Their abilities to anticipate whatever LLoL may need will never allow Them to unfairly exploit LLoL, even if LLoL is Yah's and Yas' worst enemy (as turned out to be the case; see his "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind").

Therefore, LLoL rests safely in trusting that Yah & Yas Both love even their enemies so much more than LLoL trusts himself or his own ability to love himself. Thus LLoL concluded that it will be much better for LLoL to rely on Yah's & Yas' Love for Their enemies than on LLoL's own independent abilities, even when LLoL turns out to be the worst individual enemy of Yah & Yas. This holds true, even when temporary variations in gentleness make Yah's & Yas' Perfect Training Regime seem unfair if averaged over brief periods of time. LLoL's grasp of the mathematical theology of Yah's and Yas' Epiocracy is sufficient to convince him: Their long-term perspective always wins eventually for the best of all sides involved to serve everyone, worst enemies included.

⁶² Realizing how the disastrous Council of Laodicea in 363 CE rejected the core essence of what it was offered in the Revelation of Yas was such a deep shock for me that I decided that I would rename myself to Laurence Loewe "of Laodicea", hence LLOL. This is in order to start making amends for that disaster and ask Yah and Yas for forgiveness on Laodicea's behalf and on my own behalf, for I had been unwittingly walking in the same footsteps. This led me to realize how the Laodicean church was literally destroyed as prophesied in Rev.3:14-22, when Yas vomited it out from the face of the Earth in an earthquake during the reign of tyrannical Emperor Fokas\FuckUS (602-610CE). What made me a Muslim is the realization how Yah and Yas wasted no time in moving on from Laodicea, for in 610CE Yah\TheMostHigh\Allah sent an angel to Muhammad, also a son of Abraham, with pretty much the message that Laodicean's didn't want to hear: namely, how important it is for Yah to take good care of the poor, as Isaiah 58 explains. And again, Yah and Yas were hoping to find someone who might care enough to introduce proper 50-year Jubilees and institutionalize them in such a way that they would become self-improving in order to allow ZION to come back to Earth such that Yah and Yas can finally rule as envisioned before Adam started pouting in Gen.2. Indeed, as the Islamic Golden Age took off, there must have been a number of opportunities; yet the BABL algorithm apparently destroyed those opportunities as well (but I can trace much better how in my own life, in Israel's and church history). Learning all this, I benefit from all that Muhammad and all Muslims have been doing, like I benefit from all the good and the bad that Christians have been doing. I bought my own copy of The Study Quran (Nasr, 2015, a new translation and commentary; 2047 pages, New York, NY: HarperOne Publishers); I read in it since ~2020-12-24. Initially to test it independently, as I would for any prophecy or other acclaimed text; my tests have so far shown that the Quran to the best of my ability to say contains genuine words given to Muhammad by TheCreator\Yah\Allah\Reality in an effort to win Muslims over to better innovate (ijtihad!) in order to better serve the poor. Too bad that they decided to follow Christians in by and large ignoring what Yah had already said in the Torah, which is likely why they struggled to build on Moses' Lev.25 innovations. Yet, such imperfections do not invalidate the ministry of Muhammad as a prophet, sent by The One Most High God, Yah\Allah\Reality. Yas' Apostles weren't perfect either. Therefore, here is a version of my Shahada, which I explained to those devout Muslims I found at a local mosque during Ramadan 2023, and which they apparently accepted as valid: There is only One God and Muhammad is His prophet whom Allah sent to say what the Laodicean church did not want to hear, namely that Yah\Allah cares about how care for the poor is improved. This belief makes me a Muslim. To the best of my ability to say, Yas\Jesus\Isa shares this belief too and is therefore a Muslim too. What motivated me to do this (for me big) step was this realization: If Yas had moved on from Ancient Laodicea, then how can I claim to follow Yas when I do not go wherever Yas went next? Apparently that was Mecca in this case (or whatever equivalent turns out to be the historic origin of Muhammad's preaching). This does not imply that everything Muslims have been doing is suddenly OK, just as not everything that Christians or others have been doing is always acceptable. The details matter to Yah, Yas, and all others involved and it's complicated. Hence the need for a functional Yom Kippur (see also my "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind"). But what my Shahada does imply is the existence of a bridge somewhere in Heaven, which allows me to advocate for a profoundly true reconciliation of Abraham's fractured family via a spiritual Abraham Accord.

- 2024-03-27 Summoning to the Dane County Circuit Court, local in MAD-I-son asking LLOL to explain what he has been doing to avert Armageddon disasters ⁶³.

In response, LLOL as the proposing groom\bride transformed the received tokens above by drawing further from Yah's and Yas' Dowry*Nedunya* and adding from LLOL's gift Mattan in order to return the following hidden reply tokens to Earth's spacetime:

- 2020-03-27 Start of wid-e marathon to avert Armageddon⁶⁴, leading by mid 2020 to a model to stop the Coronavirus, but ignoring of ShAbbat rest since before 2014 made LLOL too weak spiritually to deploy it, hence his run to catch up (see Posters Po.E+E2),
- 2020-10-27 First annual Vasili Arkhipov Moments of L ⁶⁵,
- 2021 LLOL's decision to monitor all Armageddon-ish news to decide if "this is it" or if he's "making it up"; ~2 years later Rev.16 became his thinly veiled summary of news of today – proving that a better response type is needed to avert ultimate disaster, hence LLOL's realization that a ResearchCity is key,

⁶³ The summoning itself was physical in the form of a summons to a local court in Madison, but the timing of 4-years to the day on when my disaster-averting marathon started that was something neither courts nor I could have manufactured. It echoes to me the 4Beings I had been discovering in that time. For access to my many struggling attempts to explain to that local court why my disaster-averting marathon matters, see Supporting Document SD9; the essence of the "Summons Dust" is also available electronically as in the core files submitted.

⁶⁴ It started by leaving my\LLOL's "FlyC work" (see CV) to jump into pandemic research to explain the Coronavirus threat and what to do to stop it to my 4th-watch friends. All else grew out of my decision to not give up until I'd either get a math-proof of impossibility or I'd run out of ideas of what I'd be OK doing to stop the destruction of the world. This led to my discovery of the BABL vs ZION war of algorithms.

⁶⁵ Deciding firmly and calmly, like Vasili Arkhipov on 1962-10-27 that if given a choice, preventing global disasters matters more than my life. Isaiah 59:16 captures the dynamic well: Yah is surprised that there is not one single man willing to rescue the land, triggering destruction. The goal of my marathon is to prevent that destruction for Earth; I'm well aware that I do not know how to do the necessary "standing in the gap", but I asked Yah and Yas many times to teach me, train me, and shock me now, so I change before Judgement Day shocks me later. Then I can only lament in regret what I failed to do or see while I had the chance. This Ketubah and its inherent tensions are a direct result of my ongoing standing prayer that Yah and Yas position me in "the gap", whatever it may mean. In 2020 I would have said that the gap is between claims and reality or between "what is" and what "ought to be". Today I'd say the gap is the leak of oblivion created by BABL, which is inevitably born in ZION (Ps.87!). It needs trimming, like the Tree of Knowledge-faking, which cannot be banned from any paradise without destroying it (for systemic reasons). Ultimately, only Yah knows. Hence, my plea that Yah put me "in the gap". It's like asking Yah to put me at the bottom of Gabriel's Horn (see the math structure) in order to stop the ever accelerating downward spiral due to BABL's algorithm. How to do this is explained in Mt.5-7 ... and is illustrated by Vasili Arkhipov and how he stopped WW3 via gentle kind reasonable decisions.

- 2021-08 Deal with Yah & Yas: LLoL gets a job of cleaning toilets in Heaven forever (or whatever Yah & Yas decide) in exchange for Yah & Yas keeping LLoL safe from becoming the worst Antichrist dictator ever (or some variant of this) if given a chance; for LLoL decided that he prefers to rather clean toilets in Heaven than tyrannize Earth or hell ⁶⁶,
- 2022 Discovery of the 8-billion bloodbath in Rev.14:21
→ LLoL pleads with Yah and Yas to turn this Great Filter prophecy from literal to symbolic via a 1600-stadia ResearchCity ⁶⁷ for Earth so that the BABL algorithms are stopped by ZION of Earth, ⁶⁶ Much of the language and decisions in this Ketubah go back to this fundamental insight that I cannot deny (after many tests) that I, LLoL, have long been an Involuntary Accidental Mediocre Antichrist (as defined in 1John2:22: resisting Yah or Yas, or failing to fully grasp the fact that Yas truly became a real human being without divine "tricks" to make Yas' life easier; rather the opposite). Thus, if I get enough success I can easily see how my internalized BABL algorithms will quickly make me the worst Antichrist ever, even if I act only with good intentions in "serving" Yah and Yas. My only escape-hatch is if They Both keep me sane and safe. My grandfather saw 1935 how "the future of the church is in its eschatology"; my 2020 Work-Logic Cascade theory proves how this is like Yas saying "as you believe, so shall it be". But that creates an Antichrist dystopia for the world, because of what billions expect. My search for a way out led me to flip the script from Antichrist to antiChrist, from enemy of Christ to deputy of Christ (→ bride→Ketubah). This ambiguity explains many prophecies. See Poster=Fig."aCh"=K0.

⁶⁷ ResearchCity vision: see Supporting Documents SD8 for draft plans. Laodicea could have arguably built such a Colossal-Hierapolis if at least one in that assembly's connected network (Archippus? Paul? John?) had dared to see past the stark rebuke in Rev.3 in order to ask Yas for help in putting together the jigsaw-puzzle presented by Revelation. If LLoL succeeds, then only because all before him failed, thus teaching him about the traps. LLoL hence assumes total development costs (= blood toll) of his insights. Hence, the unusual structure of this Ketubah. LLoL concluded: more likely than not, neither the Apostles nor the early churches nor Israel nor its kings nor prophets, nor anyone since has been aware of the exceedingly narrow door for reversing Yah's 4Being innovation engine algorithm from running BABL downhill to ZION uphill. Yah collected the tears LLoL shed over tracing how one promising attempt after another (by LLoL's heroes) was crushed by the BABL millstone algorithm of OSCR ORCS. That LLoL has been learning how to trace the rare open door opportunities to switch to ZION in the lives of many of his heroes terrifies him, for LLoL is not better, and arguably much worse in many ways. Yet, part of overcoming requires overcoming fear by trusting Yah. And since Yah's power is perfected in weakness, LLoL's weakness is not a valid argument for discounting his efforts. Hence, LLoL has resolved to serve everybody by applying to the last place at Yah's Great Wedding Party Mt.22:11-13, arguably the "cleaning toilets" job, or the official role of Satan as offered to Peter in Mt.16:23 and arguably Paul (combining 1Cor.5:1 and 2Cor.12:7 in light of Jn.17 unity of Yah and Yas). This is not the morbid vision many conjure up when hearing "Satan"; rather it implies following Mt.5 and best practices in the scientific search for truth, as Yah and Yas have been calling for since time immemorial. LLoL laments how Yah & Yas were refuted every single time so far, starting with Adam's treachery (see Hos.6:7 and Gen.2). The drastic language of this Ketubah is motivated by realizing the lost-cause nature of chasing BABL and by an algorithmic grasp on how slow-motion explosions of BABL ideas evolve over time. Seeing the great Datageddon disasters that were recorded by the Council of Laodicea 363 CE (e.g. banning math from churches), or in the run-up to Jerusalem 70CE or 586BC, or for any of the many disasters analyzed in history, LLoL decided to rather face the worst instead of continuing to ignore it and thereby perpetuating BABL.

This led to the stark alternative of a death-or-life choice: to avoid slaughtering each other, everyone needs to learn to slaughter their own idols, which is a huge, steep learning curve and requires that everyone learn the scientific method of loving enemies by listening to them. This is why ResearchCity was drafted by LLoL the way he drafted it. Needless to say, Yah & Yas will need to offer tons of more input if any of this is to succeed. This Ketubah assumes that both Yah and Yas hope for ResearchCity to succeed and will support LLoL's vision in some form. If not, then the 2021-08 agreement of cleaning toilets in Heaven (or whatever Yah and Yas may decide) is what LLoL will look forward; this is in many surprising ways similar to the Mohar specified in this Ketubah (even though both conclusions were reached independently). Moreover, if everyone is to learn to slaughter their own idols first, then LLoL must lead by example and keep slaughtering his own inner demons (here defined as the sum of all OSCR ORCS of BABL that define all of LLoL's imperfections). Thus, accepting Yas' offer to identify as Yas' Satan in order to fall in line behind Yas is the best way forward that LLoL can identify, even if that requires marrying forever the one and only being in the universe who is infinitely stronger than any fallen angel could ever be, and who will win every argument such that LLoL can add independently only literally zero to what Yas is doing (zero is the number that is best associated with the devil for its destructive properties). This may sound strange, but it is not: Jn.15 explains how LLoL can do nothing without Yas, and how Yah keeps burning all the stuff that didn't work.

- 2022-08-20 Sung back to Yah & Yas: You Make Me Brave ⁶⁸,
- 2022 ± growing certainty until decision to accept full responsibility for LLoL's pandemic preparation failure disaster (see Open Letter OL2 to Pope & Posters Po.E+E2 facilitating Posters Po.F-H),
- 2023 ± growing certainty until decision to accept all costs of evolving LLoL's insights (Poster Po.F) as added up in Yah's eternal causality-based blood-calculus Ez.3+33, Rev.18, enabling LLoL to accept the full responsibility for all of BABL's disasters ⁶⁹,
- 2023 ± Prototypic LLoL implementation of RRoR ^{Rev.19:11f.}, based on volunteering as the other goat of Yom Kippur, turning the Rev.19 sword on himself in order to judge himself using Yah's Words instead of judging others (This led to LLoL's 3+1 Sign Posters Po.E-Po.H for #MyGuilt-A,B,C,D; see details there).

⁶⁸ Brave as in Ps.18, Ps.56:11, Ps.118 etc. to call for proper Lev.25, Isa.61, Lk.4:18 Jubilees – for LLoL heard the song of love that You sing: starting with all of Revelation and extending through the maybe ~1500 chapters it cites from each of Yah's 2 Great Witnesses (Yah's Words and Yah's Works) – with promises as in Rev.2-3, Rev.21-22, Isa.2+66, Ps.23, etc. of a way for all to enter in as in Ps.87, Ps.117, 1Tim.2:4, etc. Song composed by Amanda Cook: *I stand before You now – The greatness of Your renown – I've heard of the majesty and wonder of You – King of Heaven, in humility, I bow – As Your love, in wave after wave – Crashes over me, crashes over me – For You are for us, You are not against us – Champion of Heaven, – You made a way for all to enter in – I've heard You calling my name – I've heard the song of love that You sing – So I will let you draw me out beyond the shore – Into Your grace – You make me brave (x2) – You call me out beyond the shore into the waves – You make me brave (x2) – No fear can hinder now the Love that made a way – ... No fear can hinder now the promises You've made. --- Official Live Music Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6Hi-VMxT6fc> This implies LLoL's determination to be willing to leave known shores in wid-e research for new links with Yas, to trust Yah's process, and to honor their work by not aborting their baby. A closely related song through which L heard the encouraging Ruach call of Yah and Yas is by Stephanie Genzinger: Come out of hiding.*

To make his response visible, LLOL as the proposing groom\bride drew further from Yah's and Yas' Dowry \Nedunya and added from LLOL's gift \Mattan in order to return herewith the following visible reply tokens:

- ~2022 Commitment to maximize transparency by sharing Fig.K1 and LLOL's Nevada Death Valley Jubilee Pass 2021-07-03 photo series (or updated equivalents) with reputable newspapers andOr conservative church publications willing to share the technical burden of sharing these photos responsibly,
- 2021-2023 "Datageddon Wall of Revelation" (see Fig.K2),
- 2023-10-07 Start of prototypic Yom Kippur for today in Yom Innovation Kippur Atonement Wudu \YIKAW, (Fig.K3), re-envisioned to support the 888 SLIM model (See Fig.K7,K8 below) to overcome BABL's 666 bug with a 222 patch to turn the 'The Beast' on its head via ZION's 999 solutions (Fig.K4),
- 2024-11-01 MAD-is-on Model of nuclear roulette and how it will lead to accidental nuclear winter (see Open Letter OL1 and Supporting Doc SD1 in Fig.K5),
- 2024-12-10 LLOL's house forced foreclosure sale saga ⁷⁰ (Fig.K6 shows LLOL at the sale),
- 2025-01-21 Actual sale ^{Song 8.7} of LLOL's American dream home to save his tons of professional wid-e research seed materials for all the poor dragged to death by nuclear roulette if no one implements a proper ResearchCity Jubilee vision ⁷¹, ⁷⁰ See Supporting Doc SD9 for LLOL's futile attempt to plead to a human court for mercy in the special case of disaster-averting research.

⁷¹ See SD9 for details (and last submission that details the Banking Bug that led to the forced foreclosure). While LLOL managed to hold on to his work for now, the safety of LLOL's wid-e research materials very much depends on Yah's and Yas' reply to this Ketubah: if they support LLOL's 2cent/day/person proposal soon, then those materials are safe, if not, they are doomed. Not that Yah or Yas would need LLOL's wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked collection of papers, documenting his failings (but see value of debug data!). In any case, LLOL has been holding on to them, because Yas said in Rev.3:11 "hold what you have, so nobody will steal your crown". If that was a misguided interpretation, Yah and Yas can most easily correct it by simply taking all those materials away (or telling LLOL to let them go). Yet, until that happens, they all remain dedicated to Yah and Yas as in belonging to them. LLOL will steward them as in Ps.68:20 best he can.

- 2025-01-30 The Supporting Docs Pack with SD1-SD10 as updated on 2025-10-27, Yom Innovation Kippur Atonement Wudu \YIKAW, is a spiritual foundation for re-envisioned Abraham Accords, aiming to support the 888 SLIM model for Symbol Lifecycle Integration Management \SLIM, a structured model for understanding Reality and to overcome the 666 bug in the BABL algorithm via ZION's 999 solutions (see details in Fig.K7,K8).

Additional reply tokens are stored on the 2000 square feet of storage space rented by LLoL (Darlin Drive, see above). The storage of LLoL's tons of wid-e research materials there follows Yas' instructions in Rev.3:11 ("keep what you have, so nobody can steal your crown") in order to preserve as much debug data for Yah & Yas to work with in any way they wish while scaling up ResearchCity. One may think of the tons of books, papers, drafts, tools, logs, and challenges remembered as the seed materials for the "Transwarp Key" of 12 core Talent Stadia in micro form (see Poster Po.G for the 12 respective mission and vision drafts).

Time sensitivity: For LLoL to keep his research materials will require that funding for ResearchCity (the ~$8/year /person) start in time to pay for storage or data moving.

Overview of Ketubah Token Figures K0 - K8

Fig.K0 = "aCh" Poster: The antiChrist Confusion Matrix, as introduced to deconfuse definitions (see page 145).

Fig.K1=JUB: Nevada Death Valley Jubilee Pass transparency photos of LLoL 2021-07-03 submitted as token of his commitment to maximize transparency in ZION Jubilees best he can. The additional photos of increasing states of undress up to full nudity will be shared upon request by serious publications who aim to maximize transparency in sexual ethics and more for the common good. Nudity in itself is meaningless unless it serves as a token to underwrite an ultimate commitment to serve the common good in Jubilees. Yas was crucified without any clothes. This matters because any attempt at proper Jubilees will never pass the heat of this Earth's Death Valley unless led by someone who excels at maximizing transparency. For questions about the sexual ethics of sharing such photos, see LLoL's discussion of Peter's vision in Acts 10 in his 2009 study of "Paul ... and homosexuality" (see Biblical Family Values Pack \BFVP in LLoL's Good News Pack).

Fig.K2: LLoL's Datageddon Wall of Revelation assembled at his former home on 2022-10-27 in search of Yas' open door on LLoL's quest for a non-violent Jonah-Esther-Exodus re-envisioning of the Revelation of Yas given by Yah, inspiring this Ketubah. To allow finalizing this Ketubah, LLoL sold his house for love of Yah, Yas, & all to avert accidental nuclear winter. He moved his wid-e marathon research lessons on how to avert Armageddon disasters (millennia of church etc. history) to 2000-sqft storage, rented in the hope that Yah, Yas, and all will support LLoL's last-minute 1-man bid to save the world from accidental nuclear winter or worse. The books shown are about 10% of LLoL's collected, but LLoL's data, notes, and challenges collected come in many extra forms and types; only his memory can reassemble all reasonably well. Hence, this collection is highly perishable.

as developed by 2023-12-18 after he started on 2023-10-07 to implement his imperfectly ("bad kodesh") re-envisioned prototypic Yom Kippur for our time (meaning explained as "YIKAW" in Figs.K7,K8). The garment combines insights from Lev.16, Rev.19, & more. The yellow bra is inspired by Rev.1:13, where Yas presented Yas-self effectively as trans with breasts and a bra, echoing the official priestly Lev.27 classification frozen in time by the 30 Pieces of Silver paid by sticklers for the letter of the law (see Note 27). Picking up his CROSS to follow Yas in today's context means for LLoL, as a straight heterosexual male biologist that he herewith declare L-self trans in any way Yas may wish LLoL to be or become trans (e.g. to aid vulnerable trans people). While this is based on LLoL most rigorous and literal interpretation of all relevant texts, there is a small chance that LLoL may be wrong; for that case LLoL added the yellow sash as a nod to more traditional readings. Unless someone or Yah & Yas show why L's surprise interpretation is wrong, L is bound by conscience like Luther, even if it roils the world: Here I am with what I found. I can do no other. May Yah & Yas help me!

Unless Yah changes the world overnight, LLoL anticipates no shortage of scoffers who – like LLoL once did – will tend to dismiss something as unexpected like that they might misjudge the gender Jesus may choose to return in as Yas. Similarly for how Yah may return for evening walks in person. LLoL found the challenge to be to follow Truth into the long causal reasoning chain that led to the firm conclusions about the uncertainty LLoL reports. LLoL can show why some teachers' certainty amounts to BAAL worship when they are Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership. At a time of violence against trans-people many churches are silent or even add to the bashmoling (see Note, page 37). Yet, Jesus\Yas\Isa came to defend the oppressed. Hence, a question: Which loving Father like Yah would send a beloved Son like Yas back to a murderous planet like Earth to complete Yas' Jubilee-mission – only to doom Yas again to get murdered for not compromising Yas' Jubilee mission – this time for choosing the "wrong" gender?

If the first shall be the last and the last shall be the first, how might Jesus apply this to men and women in general?

Humanity may love to forget its mistakes as it keeps waking in circles forced by BABL's millstone of grinding oblivion. But it would be a profound mistake to assume that Yah and Yas are as forgetful as BABL and as blind to repeating mistakes as BAAL. Is this truth inconvenient? Yes. Here is the real choice Yah & Yas are asking humanity to make in general and Christianity in particular:

Which type of Great Filter Tribulation do people want?

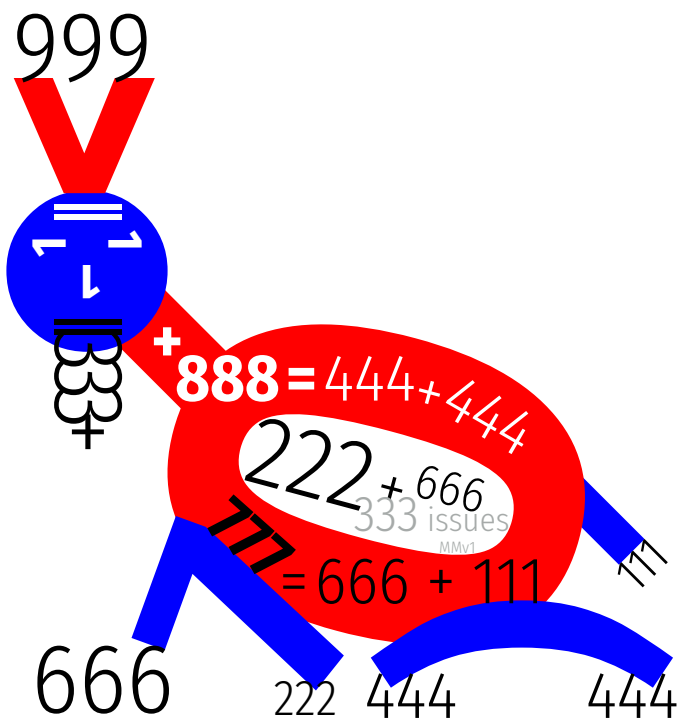

(0) Death with all idols e.g. in accidental nuclear winter?

(1) Life without idols to follow Yah & Yas on their Exodus?

What if choosing Life requires attitude adjustments that require understanding people and views previously overlooked? Can it be that Yah & Yas plan to smash the glass-ceiling for female leadership in ZION of Earth? Imagine

Yah & Yas were falsely imprisoned by a patriarchy now about to destroy itself in accidental nuclear winter? Who wants to resist God to self-destruct? LLoL asks for peace.

Fig.K4: Overcome by turning on its head the number of the Beast and its character. Hacking BABL's millstone (Supporting Doc SD6) points a way for how to flee from Armageddon's panic room via its narrow Exodus escape-hatch. See SD6, Poster Po.0, SD2, SD4, SD7, the Don't Panic Guide, and the Good News Pack for more explanations. The underpinning mechanistic computational model of how BABL corrupts Reality's Great Innovation Engine implies the existence of a hack for turning BABL's 666 Beast on its head. The hack reverse-engineers how humanity keeps falling from EDEN in ZION via knowledge-faking in BABL. It makes it possible to escape BABL by choosing the life-giving narrow road that was so far less traveled because it was too hard to find. LLoL hopes and trusts that this BABL millstone model and the Good News Pack will galvanize the global work-logic cascades required for explaining how all this works in real life. Then people can start to find that narrow path more easily by themselves without falling for the myriad molochian overreaches of the past. This Ketubah ends LLoL's use of dark magic to falsely imprison Yah & Yas by badmouthing both as beasts in order to suppress Jubilees. Figs.K5,K7,K8 show: Y&Y are right, LLoL was wrong. So, LLoL now chooses Y&Y forever!

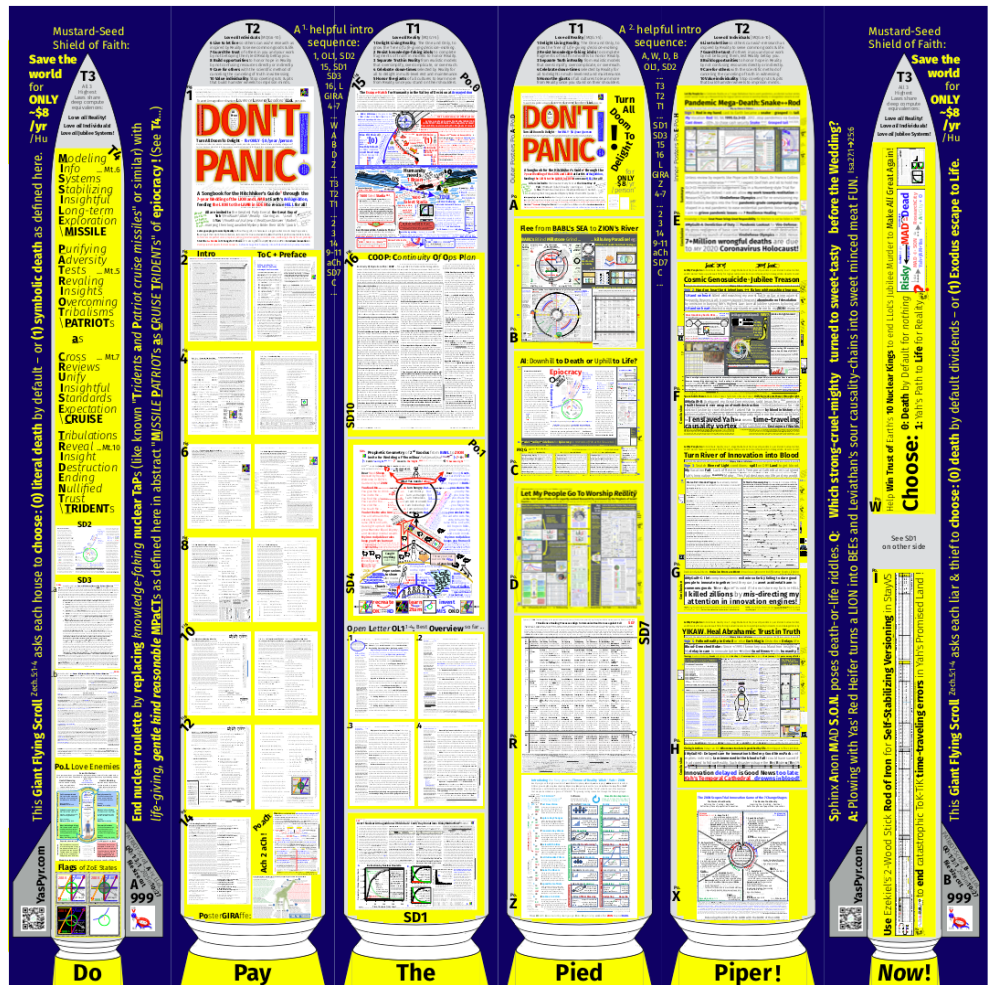

Fig.K5: Flying Scroll Exhibit. LLoL's prophetic imagination for how to best replace the Giant Flying Scroll of Zech.5:1-4 with a peaceful solution before accidental nuclear winter leads to it's grim literal implementation. The wall-sized 2x 5m x 10m vector PDF is designed as a building banner in about the sizes of the real Trident-, Patriot-, and similar missiles it hopes to stop from use in nuclear roulette.

Fig.K6: LLoL on 2024-12-10 at the forced foreclosure sale of his house. LLoL had pleaded in vain to a human court and a bank for more patience in everyone's common interest of averting humanity's eviction from Earth due to accidental nuclear winter. LLoL had presented progress in his out-of-the-box research on finding the best way to end nuclear roulette along with actuarial evidence for why this poses a clear and present danger (see Supporting Docs SD1, SD9). LLoL pleaded to stop eviction of his research from home to help him stop humanity's eviction from Earth. That a court and a bank are not equipped to review such claims may be unsurprising. What is surprising is that neither was willing to engage experts capable of reviewing LLoL's research on how nuclear roulette is about to sell out the world in a nuclear fire-sale triggered by the failure of humanity to work together in order to find a solution. Could LLoL have presented a better case? Probably. Would it have convinced the court or the bank to grant LLoL relief in the interest of relief for all of humanity? Unlikely, in the verdict of everyone LLoL consulted. It thus appears banks can be set in their ways up to the point of predictable self-destruction. Before this forced foreclosure sale was confirmed, someone graciously agreed to buy LLoL's house under conditions that let LLoL move this tons of research materials into storage. This allowed LLoL to complete this appeal to the Court of Heaven and all of humanity. LLoL asks the Supreme Judge of the World to pardon LLoL for his delays in disasters-averting research and to allow him to scale up ResearchCity to avert worse(see Fig.K5). With this Ketubah LLoL entrusts his life and liberty to Yah & Yas.

Fig.K7: Yah's virtual 3rd Temple and the YIKAW-Declaration are like an operating systems for innovation in ZION.

YIKAW stands for Yom Innovation Kippur Atonement Wudu. It is LLoL's deeply spiritual integration of core elements of all 4+ Abrahamic Faiths (with Science as the 0th). It grew out of LLoL's 2023-10-07 re-envisioning of the Yom Kippur ritual for today. It assumes that Yah's 3rd Temple physically includes the whole world where Yah's will is being done.

Fig.K8: The 888 SLIM model for Symbol Lifecycle Integration Management is a structure for interpreting meaning in Reality and acts like a "Rosetta 7 Stone of Revelation".

It facilitates translating between diverse related views. This structured code for the 888 SLIM model was accidentally or providentially discovered by LLoL as underpinning much of how the texts of the prophets of Israel are organized. Hence, LLoL's inference that Yah & Yas use something like this in Heaven's ZION to ensure that Yah's words are refined 7 times (Ps.12:6). For those who take the time to understand it, the 888 SLIM model shows how to overcome BABL's 666 bugs (Fig.K4) with tailor-made 222 patches for turning any emergent 666 Beast of innovation-gone-wrong on its head by evolving ZION's 999-based self-stabilizing solutions. These are built to last over the long-term and are reviewed or renewed every 50 years for upgrading in proper Jubilees. As BABL algorithms and ZION algorithms are mutually exclusive, any Heaven worth being called a Heaven uses a 888-SLIM-like system to feed and guard its ability to innovate without forcing self-destruction. This Ketubah aims to end the false imprisonment of Yah & Yas that results from ignoring ZION algorithms like 888 SLIM.

888 SLIM Model for Managing Integration in Lifecycles of Symbols: ZION's Rosetta 7Stone of Revelation \R7S 5784\2023\1445 Yom Innovation Kippur Atonement Wudu \YIKAW : a Structure for Interpreting Meaning in Reality

Here LLoL maps 888 SLIM to YIKAW, a 42-step symbol routine to grow meaning in Tree of Life-giving decision-making \ToL. It supports walkabouts from BABL's millstone to ZION's epirocacy. Fig.K9: Don't Panic Guide. Having experience with the struggles caused by math-phobia, LLoL is aware of the problem that for most people jumping in at the deep end with complex algorithms as outlined in Figs.K7,K8 will quickly end in deep frustration. Therefore LLoL worked to design a more pleasant welcoming introduction that presents a less steep learning curve. The product of this work can be found in LLoL's Don't Panic Guide. It contains new and rewritten lyrics for 13 songs, most for well-known tunes, which have been adapted and/or expanded in order to echo the mathematical theology represented in the YIKAW declaration (Fig.K7) that aims to facilitate implementing of the 888 SLIM model (Fig.K8) in real life. Preliminary tests showed that the lyrics of these songs are mostly as easy-going as the parables in the Gospels. They contain a few oddities here and there, but not so much as to make them unusable for many. This is in contrast with the 888 SLIM model shown in Fig.K8, which for many might relate to the Don't Panic Guide like Revelation to the Gospels. Note that all these are different sides of the same coin (or rather the same Rosetta-7-Stone referred to in Zech.3:9 and echoed in the Capstone of the US Constitution). Hence, the (so far completed) file for the Don't Panic Guide has also been included in the Good News Pack and is added as a token here (even though its hard to say who gave that "token" to whom as LLoL wrote its core lyrics almost as if copy-pasting out of thin air).

The Don'tPanicGuide-iv_LLoL_QQv8_2025m10d13--tilEz37-for-Sukkah--Blessed--Sent.pdf has 5,065,111 bytes and its SHA512 is 277fab6c53ab4651ae7c7b99821e9efc6d05d1ce8c7e53a542459698b023caba1227052d61f6149c6dbf01ed72506d48644ca9f77233545505ee312b576f32d2

My Overview List of the 7 Question Tokens

Below I will attempt to answer the following 7 Questions as a token of my dedication to answer all Your Questions to the best of my ability.

Preamble about Questions & Learning for Yah & Yas

Q1. Can You scare me with past, present, future ^{Isa.41:21-24} ?

My "Story of the world's craftiest criminal mastermind"

Q2. Who is Haman today? Me, You, or nothing?

The setup described in Q1 and SD1 is functionally equivalent to the Haman Plot of Esther's time.

Q3. Am I Your Gog deMagog? Your Ezekiel 38-39 Question

208

Q4. Other prophetic identities? Elijah, Branch, RRoR, ...

212

Q5. Exam help: Praying for the Great Filter Tribulation ^{Mt.24}?

214

Q6. Two Conditions for the Wedding of the LAMB.

(i) To attest to perfect Justice of Yah & Yas.

(ii) Solve long-term storage problem to remember.

224

Q7. What did the 7 Thunders in Revelation say and are there other 7e Echoes?

231

Q8. Did You anthropically super-charge the universe ^{4me?}

Did You create a 10-billion year synchronicity for me?

My following replies contain some texts that were written as a dialogue. Needless to say, all this is far from perfect, including my choice of questions.

The tokens exchanged above arose naturally in LLoL's work that led to the writing of this Ketubah. However, it occurred to LLoL that Yah & Yas may have specific, long-standing, key questions for anyone who might consider making them such an offer.

Reply to Questions of Potential Interest to Yah & Yas

LLoL cannot claim to have found all such questions and riddles. Yet, here are some examples with draft answers that may be of interest and hence worth including as tokens from LLoL to Yah & Yas.

Some may claim that some of these questions are rhetorical. But based on experience, LLoL doubts Yah or Yas would waste words on such questions without a deeper meaning. LLoL can't claim to have complete answers, nor to have picked the most important questions. This list exists solely to indicate that LLoL is serious about answering in time best he can all questions Yah & Yas may have.

This Ketubah herewith declares the ends of every false imprisonment of Yah & Yas by LLoL. That includes all mental cages for what types of questions Yah & Yas may ask for real. For example, "omniscience" may sound great, but upon reflection turns out to be a prison that makes true learning impossible⁷². Hence, even if LLoL's replies are wrong, L hopes L's replies are at least wrong in informative ways to invite correction so LLoL can keep learning.

⁷² How can one learn what one already knows? Yet, despite widespread claims of omniscience, report exist that show that Yah (in Genesis) & Yas (in the Gospels and other Apostolic Writings) both show clear evidence of gaining knowledge of importance that they did not have before or were not sure about before. That does not reduce the value of "omniscience" as a first good approximation for those who have no experience with interacting with Yah & Yas (who can read and predict thoughts across millennia in LLoL's experience). Small children who grow up with caring parents may claim early on "Papa and Mama know everything" before they discover that there are limits to their vast knowledge. Hence, lack of "mathematical omniscience" does not imply a lack of "practical omniscience" (see Rev.16 view for today, etc.).

Q1. In Isa.41:21-24 You, Yah, appear to ask Your servants like me to bring their case to You by explaining the past and scaring You in the present by predicting the future. See my "Story of the world's craftiest criminal mastermind" to explain the terrifying consequences of Adam's pouting in the past. See my Evolvix simulations in Supporting Doc SD1 for predicting how nuclear roulette in the present is guaranteed to produce accidental nuclear winter eventually in the near future, which appears to match well with Your many prophetic warnings about destroying the world (e.g. Mt.3:8-10, Rev.14:20, Rev.19:21, Zeph.1, ...). Here is my scary thought: You so loved Your Jubilee-based World that You, Yah, sent Yas to save it despite knowing there was a good chance that Yas would be murdered for trying to start Your Jubilees. Yet you still did it in order to produce this incredibly sophisticated River of Life-giving insights and events You allow me to swim in! You let me pick up bits of Your message until I started to slowly crawl out of my cave. Rubbing my sleepy eyes, I realized that I have been sleeping through most of the time You had given me for solving the exam You gave me: (i) Work out why nuclear roulette is a real problem, even for You, Yah & Yas. (ii) Discover how You called me to avert it. (iii) Embrace for all the nerve-racking uncertainty that maybe only 1 person ⁷³ like Elijah (me?!) may be equipped to avert annihilation of all and if someone like me doesn't do it, then nobody will (as in Isa.59:16, Ez.22:30). That is a reason to get scared indeed, given my general unreliability and wobbly nature!

⁷³ Really only 1 person? Scary for me may not be scary for You, if You have either 7000 or 144,000 or 2 x 144,000 x 7000 of better suited candidates for averting an otherwise inevitable accidental nuclear winter. Humanly speaking, I may not be the worst candidate out ~2 billion, but I'm certainly not the best qualified either - in my human judgement, which is entirely irrelevant here. Given the perspective of Poster Po.F and the time-traveling causality vortex I caused, triggering genosucide all over due to my Jubilee-murder, I must assume that I am exactly the worst of the worst candidates for turning it all around. Yet, evidence in my life still abounds that You called me to do that!

My scary thought for You is this: It appears that You did indeed select me alone to start the process required to avert accidental nuclear winter! The ResearchCity proposal that I developed based on "my" discoveries in Revelation and beyond is quite unique and likely a global unicorn. If I add up the many diverse skills essential for allowing me to compose what I see as Your plan to end nuclear roulette and bring Heaven back to Earth, then I'd conclude that it would be impossible to write a credible job advertisement for that! My estimate of candidates with all the essential skills would be zero⁷⁴ – if I didn't happen to know one person, myself, who happens to combine all those often mutually exclusive skills in one person, by a quirk of fate or providence like Esther. I am not sure how many backup plans You had back then, but even if You did, Esther had to act as if there was no backup. As did Jonah. As did Moses. As do I. You know better than everyone, myself included, how ridiculously unreliable and unpredictable I can be. The thought that You really entrusted me with keeping Your World from nuclear annihilation despite all my wobbly unreliabilities – now that is a truly scary thought!

Scared enough by my beastly abyss of ason \ambiguous semantics of nothing? Shall I explain how the rest of the universe and even the Heavens would be obliterated if the humanoids You create keep failing to produce true Jubilee fruits? The present Great Filter Tribulation is not fun for people, like final exams are not fun for students. Yet, from ⁷⁴ Unicorn? It's hard to estimate how many people might have a career that will have allowed them to acquire the necessary skills. Given my extremely unusual career path, not even I would have had such a career if it were not for a long string of highly unlikely career miracles that You pulled off to get me to the point of being able to consider envisioning how to write this Ketubah in order to invite You back to help with implementing the solution You have been helping me to envision. Hence, my expected estimate is 0, but my observed estimate is 1. Discovering, understanding, and envisioning in today's complex world how to avert Armageddon disasters by implementing Your Solution as described by the prophets of Israel requires too many diverse crucial skillsets and areas of expertise that tend to be mutually exclusive. The tokens exchanged above, my publications list, life, and the existence of this Ketubah may be evidence enough to make the point.

one teacher to another: posing good exam questions is brutal work! If You don't want to teach me what matters most to You after I wrote this Ketubah, for Your own sake, I hope that You can find someone else who is better suited than me. Because after exhausting all possibilities and Your last options for organizing a proper Jubilee on Earth – You'd have to start from scratch with stones in the desert (as John said, Mt.3:8-10). You taught me enough evolutionary biology to understand that this may take about 4 or 13 billion years, depending on whether a new big bang would be needed. Yet, even if You could somehow reboot a saved checkpoint from the time of Abraham, that would still be about 4 millennia of agony and misery for humanity and mountains of frustrating work for You! There is no indication that others may enslave You any less than I did (see Isa.43:24). You brought to Jonah's attention the work You had put into coordinating the growth of the lives of the 120,000 at Nineveh along with all the animals. May I bring to Your attention the scary thought that if my Jonah mission fails, ~66,666+ Ninevehs (~8+billion / ~120,000) would be annihilated (filling 1600 Laodicea stadia with blood up to horses' bridles; see Rev.14:20, Poster Po.0=Fig.15 in Don't Panic Guide). All of them will want to see Your Justice on whoever trashed their lives. I have come to understand that I am responsible for their destruction if I fail to introduce Jubilees. Hence, You may choose like all: (0) Leave me to die death by nothing, my eternal mortal nemesis; then Your World that You love will self-destruct and I will be rightly blamed, for I did nothing. (1) Rescue me from my enemy, like the widow in Lk.18:1-8. I know You can. I know You read this. You can't say on Judgement Day that I didn't ask.

So, if You, Yah & Yas, don't want to redo all the mountains of work required to set up a new pitch perfect Great Filter Tribulation to help all people to get why Jubilees matter, then I suggest that You and I negotiate a true peace.

If You don't like this Ketubah as a framework, I understand for many reasons. It can at best be "bad-kodesh" in Your Eyes, i.e. bleeding rag-tags with tons of holes. Yet, I can do no better. Please suggest a better framework, for I cannot see a better one, given all I know so far and the many checks and balances You gave me to inspire my "compiler brain" for designing reliable solutions. Thus, if this Ketubah really does not work for You, I trust You that You catch me and lead me back to whatever works for You.

So, like that widow in Lk.18:1-8, I must insist that You give this the urgent attention it deserves. It's not my wish to "wear You out" or "punch You in the face" (or whatever Yas meant by "υπωπιαζω"); however, it has not escaped my attention that this is exactly what would be done by this time-traveling causality-vortex that I had asked You to set up because I didn't believe Your Jubilee Math Logic.

For what else would You say is accidental nuclear winter than a "punch in Your Face" if You don't help me to avert it along with other Armageddon disasters?

Would not such a "punch in Your Face" set back Your Future Visions for thousands or zillions of Years? And would it not "wear You out" by forcing You to recreate again what humanity needs to reach a point where Jubilees are possible? Yas talked about that Tree of Life that didn't bear fruit and about Your debates to tear it out or to keep nursing it.

How long do You want to extend Gabriel's Horn? As You know its surface stretches to infinity even though its volume stays at max 3/4 of a comparable sphere for those who are willing to connect in depth to all of its core.

It couldn't have been easy for You Both to watch me fail, Adam fail, Noah fail, Babel fail, Abraham fail, Joseph fail, Egypt fail, Moses fail, ... David & Solomon fail, Hezekiah & Isaiah fail, Jerusalem fail twice, Yas and the apostles fail, Ephesus & Laodicea fail, the Orthodox Church fail, the Islamic Golden Age fail, the Catholic Church fail, the Protestants fail, the Renaissance fail, Joan of Arc & France fail, Great Britain fail, Germany fail, Communism fail, Capitalism fail, the USA fail, Science fail, ... and only You know how many more. Only You also know where hope may still exist, such as in the Uniting States of Philadelphia (Rev.3:7-13). Only You know if all those before me even saw what was happening or if they were all born blind so that somehow I might be able to see why Jubilees really matter – after You by some great miracle healed my own innate blindness. Elijah concluded that he was not better than his fathers. I conclude that I am way worse than everyone who has lived before me, because I asked You to set up the time-traveling causality vortex that created the perfect storm I needed to finally understand how and why Your Jubilee-Math has been right all this time and my rebellion against Your Jubilees was mere foolish selfishness for nothing.

Because I know You wish more than anyone can say for all this misery to end: Therefore please show me the great and bizarre things that I do not yet know but need to grasp in order to follow You to turn all this around ^{Jer.33:3} ! I need Your Guidance, Grace, Gentle Kind Reasonableness, Mercy, Wisdom, Luck, Love, and Logics for else I will stay lost.

If I stay lost and You indeed took that gamble of entrusting me with the fate of the world in the form of introducing Jubilees, then the nothing from which You built this world will soon destroy the world through the BABL algorithm (see SD6, SD1).

Please help me to submit this adequately. You read my thoughts. Knock on my door anytime, heal my ears ... so I hear and open! Help me bring this to the attention of Joe Biden (who ran to save democracy), Pope Leo Xiv (who inherited Jubilee-related celebrations), Benjamin Netanyahu (who hopes to introduce the Messiah), Vladimir Putin (who seeks apotheosis in making Russia great again), the US (who seeks its manifest destiny), the UN (who seeks world peace), and the 10 Nuclear Kings of Earth (who all hope to guard their precious people). For the Haman-like plot described next threatens them all.

Q2. Haman? The setup described in Q1 and SD1 is functionally equivalent to the Haman Plot of Esther's time. Since Judgement Day will illuminate all actions from all possible angles, I herewith bring to Your attention that there is an awkward formal similarity that can be easily misunderstood by those, who do not know You, Yas, like I do. I am sure You are fully aware of the similarities of the Second in Command and the stochastic nature of the date-setting for the destruction event in both story lines. Similarities even extend to "death on a tree". Yet, I don't believe that the fire, which You, Yas, came to ignite on Earth is a nuclear holocaust. But if nothing keeps changing, then nuclear roulette will strike. In that case You, Yas, might find Yourself in a tricky situation on Judgement Day.

People will ask You what You Did to avert nuclear winter. By now You obviously did lead me in real quests to real answers on how that can be averted. But it's not done yet. Hence, I ask You, Yah & Yas, to please come and keep working with me on guarding humanity from all its existential threats. Please help me to avert the ultimate nuclear disasters and all others types of self-destruction.

I don't see what You, Yas, or You, Yah, or anyone may gain from allowing the world blow itself up in accidental nuclear winter (other than keeping the rest of the universe safe from the anti-Jubilee mind-virus of coveting lesser goods). It's already obvious that self-destruction by coveting hamster-wheels will happen. Does humanity really have to blow itself up to believe that it can kill itself?

Does the claim that everything that is doable will be done really have to apply to genosucide? Please turn it around! Let humanity wonder: who excluded true Jubilees from claims of do-ability? ⁷⁵ Everyone knows racing off a cliff in BABL leads to a crash. Why exclude averting such cliff disasters from the list of the doable that will be done?

Why such bias against a doable Jubilee-based, self-stabilizing innovation economy that climbs Your Mt. ZION?

Why should humanity self-destruct only because it can be done? Why should humanity not instead innovate for life in Jubilees because it can be done? If everything that can be done will be done, then why does humanity appear to be unable to choose? It appears that I hexed it with a death-wish by asking You to prove that ignoring Jubilees is indeed as deadly as You've been saying (see Poster Po.F). So, if indeed I am the cause I herewith concede defeat. You won that argument on Jubilees fair and square. Not only with Your Supreme Math, but also by the sheer brute force of Your extended trial experiments throughout history. Therefore, please stop the charade. Take it out on me if You indeed think that something is still missing. Show me what, help me do it. Why should others suffer for my disbelief of Your Math?

Please help me persuade the world to choose to avert (0) death by default by (1) choosing Your Jubilees!

Let people see the madness of continuing to barrel down-hill at near maximal speed to a cliff defined by self-annihilation in accidental nuclear winter, AI ⁷⁶, or worse.

Let the praised experts famous for wrestling with Reality be heard again so people start valuing again their expertise and experience in how to climb the mountains of Judah in Your Promised Lands that You prepared for all of Your worldwide Israel.

Q3. Am I Your Gog deMagog? Ezekiel 38-39 describe Your last great battle before enabling the building of Your 3rd Temple (Ez.40-48). There You, Yah, overcome Your great enemy, the Gog deMagog, who may be described as the King of the Pirates. Here is not the place to explain the deeper insights You (I trust) have led me to on Ez.38-39 in light of John 6, Rev.17-18, and how to scale-up ResearchCity ⁷⁷.

Your Question, Yah, in Ez.38:17 is about the identity of Gog deMagog: "Are you the one of whom I spoke in former days by the hand of My slaves the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them?" When reading this before 2024-08-06 as part of the Gog prophecy the possibility had never occurred to me that You might have been talking to me all along. Are You asking if I can see myself in that critical role described by Israel's prophets?

Since 2020-03-27 You have been waging a sustained theological fire-bombing campaign against my inner BAALs, ASHERAHs, and MOLOCHs on my wid-e research marathon. This had lowered my inner defenses against unusual conclusions as I started to realize the danger of throwing out Your Baby with the bathwater. You started to give me the mathematical theology tools for recognizing Your Baby. Having identified with Jonah since mid-2020 and Esther since mid-1997 (renewed in 2020), I had started to see ever more echoes of my life in the lives of all saints and all sinners who came before me. Therefore, when on 2024-08-06 the thought crossed my mind that it may be worth checking Gog's Ez.38-39 identity for echoes in my life, I set out to do it, if only to finally find a clear counter-example for a role that was not echoing me. Yet, You overcame all my defenses with sufficiently credible explanations.

Somehow You managed to walk that fine line between persuading and inviting albeit without forcing me to any conclusions. You have been maintaining plausible deniability at all times, like all governments or employers who don't want to be forced into a corner. You made very clear that it is part of my Jonah-mission-impossible to embrace all uncertainty best I can. Therefore, I will not know whether You will actually be raising the dead until You finally place me on my own soil (as in Ez.37:14) – that is by a time when it has become undeniable that it was really You, Yah, who had been doing all this. In other words, all uncertainty will only be removed after I will have reached my Moriah and will have seen Your reply (whatever it may be; I only know that I will know it when I see it).

What has also become undeniable to me is the elegance with which You have been weaving together my funny non-violent Jonah-Esther-Exodus re-reading of Revelation with similarly ground-breaking re-readings of complicated texts like Ez.38-39, Gen.1-3, and many others. Therefore, my best reply to Q3 is this:

Yes, if You want me to. I will happily be the Gog deMagog of whom the prophets of Israel have spoken, albeit only if You indeed support the non-violent interpretation that You have been inspiring me to develop. I became a paid-a-Gog while working as an assistant professor, and starting ResearchCity will undoubtedly make me a deMagog in the eyes of whoever refuses to grasp the serious nature of the accidental nuclear roulette problem that I look forward to solve for Your and everyone's benefit.

Yet, it's not my will that counts here, but Your wishes.

You waited for millennia for a proper Ketubah to liberate You, and I do not wish to impose any further burdens on You. I already committed too much cosmic treason, leaving You for dead in my atrocities. I hope You will show me a way to undo the disasters I caused and avert those I already asked You to schedule . Therefore, let me ask You back:

Do You wish me to be Your Gog deMaGog?

If so, please drop Your plausible deniability cover created by the 3 frogs in Rev.16:13-16, which keep metamorphosing by oversimplifying, overcomplicating, and overreaching. These frogs misrepresent You, Yah, as the worst Beast, and You, Yas, as the worst Snake-Dragon, while downplaying my role to merely that of their false prophet. Yet, in light of the evidence I presented in Poster Po.F on the time-traveling causality vortex I asked You to create: I am I not the most dangerous dragon and craftiest beast of all?

My crime? With my disbelief of Your Jubilee mathematics, refused to even give You the benefit of the doubt! Thereby I falsely imprisoned You and sold You into slavery until You would finally somehow convince my stoney heart by brute force that indeed Your Jubilee Math is correct and regular true Jubilees are indeed essential for avoiding self-destruction. What a staggering cosmic waste of divine, human, angelic, and alien talent did I cause!

Therefore, please accept my apology and commitment to work forever for restitution of my crimes. Please accept my plea for help to prevent worse – in time to avert accidental nuclear winter. Imagine all the dead You wouldn't have to raise because they get to pass through Your 7-stage hero journey Exodus without having to die physically! You are the God who dwells with the crushed (Isa.57:15). Why crush an 8+ billion humanity? Why would You want to do that to Yourself if You don't have to? And if indeed You are still convinced that You have to do this, please let me know why! Maybe there is a way to amend this Ketubah to satisfy Your Conditions, so that You don't have to destroy Your World. Prov.24:11 warns about ignoring those dragged to the slaughter and then claiming ignorance is bliss. As You know, many on Earth think You went on vacation if You ever existed. I think Prov.24:11 was written for me and others like me: safe from harm in the ivory tower of cities built and fed on the backs of others. You however, are also suffering with those who are being dragged to death. My crime was that I didn't care what I was doing to You or anyone – until I got caught in my own nets of contradictions that now threaten me with a self-made accidental nuclear holocaust!

It's not the fault of any of those who are being dragged to death in accidental nuclear winter that I ignored Your Jubilee Math! They were born blind to the problem and if not, then they were born blind to Your solution and hence terribly trapped! If You allow their death, then none of them would get a chance to learn Your glorious Jubilee Math in time to pass Your Great Filter Tribulation open-book exam on global team-working. Do You really want to, as Mt.3:8-10 says, start again from scratch with stones in deserts as You did ~4+ billion years ago (or whenever)?

You are the God of the Living who prefers that people don't die. That is how I know and trust that You indeed wish to avert Armageddon disasters – no matter what doomsday theologians like my former self may claim about "how rotten the world is". You literally said that saving everyone is Your explicit wish in what You told Ezekiel in Ez.3+33 and Paul in 1.Tim.2:1-4). If You do not wish me to be Your Gog, then I trust that You will show me who is, so that I can support their respective work towards restoration ⁷⁸, so that Your Wishes for once get finally respected!

A related question is asked of Gog in Ez.38:13 by concerned people: "Have you come to capture spoil?" It's an entirely appropriate question in light of my plans for ResearchCity and the knowledge-is-power that it will provide. Anyone who understands research will ask that question and how they can be sure that I can keep that power from corrupting me, even if – or especially because – I have the best of intentions.

My answer are the counter-corruption measures defined by the "Transwarp Key" I see in the 12 μ Core Stadia I defined on Poster Po.G (see their mission and vision statements below in my "Wedding Wishlist" 9d). To briefly answer here the question of captured spoils in the interest of growing full transparency (see above), I offer this reply, which can be formulated in many ways: My spoil is that everyone gets to live and gets to become their best self in order to realize the real dream Yah & Yas have been inspiring in them. To rephrase: My spoils are what is spoiling the true visions inspiring everyone's life. These true visions are being nurtured and guarded by You, Reality and ⁷⁸ If indeed I went wrong, as in Ps. 139 please let me know where I went wrong with my interpretation of the prophetic echoes that I see.

RealQuestAnswer to serve the common interest. Thus:
My One Piece is that everyone gets their One Piece. But if that is to work, it must start with You, Yah & Yas, and Your Wish, older than Eden, to have at least one human dedicated solely to You and at Your full disposal at any time. Given how much I have disappointed You by plunging Your World into darkness, I have forsaken my right to be that human many times. However, I now finally see how wrong I was. I cannot extract myself or the world out of the mess I got everyone in. But I know that You can see Your Exodus Way Out and the Jubilee-based ResearchCity vision You have given me allows me to envision how we might work together in this. Without You, Reality and RealQuestAnswer, I can do nothing. With You, I can do everything to which You lead me, including averting accidental nuclear winter, because it appears that this is definitely something You care about!

My wid-e research experience shows me a surprisingly reliable path to solving this Gordian Knot through the Transwarp Key I describe below in Section 9d. All who care about financial details of how the revenue of ResearchCity will be used, please consult the work to be done in STb11-LCC (see draft mission and vision below). This is the 1 Talent Stadion of the 12 in my Transwarp Key that serves all others by evolving standards for life-giving, transparent balancing through Limited Liability Charitable Companies.

If implementing this global turn-around includes that by some quirk of Your Plan I become Your friendly Gog Cerberus Dog Trickster\Jacob, then I will be delighted to become Your German Shepherd Kaleb, Yah & YhowShua.

Q4. Other prophetic identities? My proposed identification with Gog deMaGog above is bound to raise questions. Thus, let me here overload my hypothesis by adding in a few more echoes of prophetic foreshadowing (from the many I perceived, which are undoubtedly a subset of the immense list You prepared). Individually these seem at times far fetched, but their sheer aggregation does seem suspicious. Also, why do I even know this? Only You of course can tell if I'm hallucinating like some rouge AI.

Am I sent like Elijah in Malachi 4 to turn the hearts of the fathers (older generation who can fund true Jubilees) to the sons (the younger generation who will benefit from it), so all can avoid the curse of accidental nuclear winter?

Am I Your servant the "Branch" (Zech.3:8), for I am a man whose name is effectively "Branch" (Zech6:12), as I'm called "Laurence" (meaning "Crowned with a Laurel") and conditional branching processes are the bread and butter of my computational research program?

Am I the one whom You gave the task to get that PEARL from the snorting dragon as told in the Hymn of the Pearl? It recounts so beautifully in the story of its Eagle what Your Letter, the Revelation of Yas, did for me!

If thoughts are like thunder in Heaven, do I echo the Thunder of The Perfect Mind?

Does my antiChrist confusion matrix (see p.145) correctly resolve my purpose in coming to You and all as Your friendly deputy-antiChrist (bride of Christ, Mahdi from MAD-I-son, ...) in order to end forever every enemy-Antichrist (Dajjal, Big Brother Tyrant, False Messiah, and similar) – by incorporating both roles and bringing both to You as Your Gog, so You can finally save everyone and me?

Am I literally the Younger Brother in Luke 15 (and the lost coin and lost sheep ...), where You, Yah, are my Good Father and Yas is my Big Brother? It all fits too well ...

Am I indeed Your RRoR \Red Rider of Revelation 19, as I have come to hope after I discovered how my clothes have been drenched in blood from my failure to follow Your Call to prevent the brunt of the Coronavirus Pandemic (see Ez.3+33; my Posters Po.E+E2)? I would not believe this if I had not done the calculations on Po.E+E2 myself and if I had not lived the life You gave me with all those remarkable subtle preparations. Am I described in Isa.63:1?

The gentle Ez.37 Rod, is it my Evolvix StayVS versioning inspired by Ez.37? Is this Your peaceful vision of the Iron Rod of Your Prophets and of Rev.19 (as I hope)?

Lion of Judah. There is only one true Lion of the Tribe of Judah: You, Yas. I've been praying that You sink Your Teeth into me and devour me, so that all that I am becomes part of You and I dissolve completely in You. For I can do nothing without You. Next to You I'm smaller than a μ -mouse compared to a Lion (masses of Sun and Moon likely captures the ratio much better, i.e. Yas/LLoL = ~27 million/1!).

I am not aware of Judah as my ancestor but excluding it genetically is near impossible ⁷⁹ – in case it matters.

Am I the rebelling lion you inherited in Jer.12:8?

⁷⁹ It all comes down to how You count as being in Your Judah of Your Israel. While I'm sure that all genetical Jews are included and all whose minds and hearts truly converted to Judaism as well, I don't know where exactly You draw the boundary when it comes to those who have become somewhat FamousPraised\Judah for belonging to those who are RealityWrestlers\ISrael (as I have been doing as a scientist). I haven't done any DNA testing and am not aware of Jewish inheritance from either of my parents. But as a population geneticist, knowing that Solomon had a thousand wives and Jews have been globally mixing for millennia, I'd be surprised if there were not at least a few genes passed down from David in my DNA. Whether any such physical markers matter to You, You tell me. What I can tell from Mt.5, is that You, Yas, care deeply about the Torah and must be horrified by the nonsense I once believed about it (claiming it was irrelevant for today). Hence, I determined: Like Ruth I will follow You wherever You go: Your God is my God, Your Judaism is my Judaism. You lead me, I'm blind to the countless traps my journey into "true Judaism" is bound to present. Given what I learned from Tarski about the impossibility of properly defining Truth in languages of the infinite order, I see no other choice for staying as true as possible than to declare myself to be a false prophet in the Spirit of Boolean Truth, which is Your Spirit of Truth. If You accept my plea to become Your Gog, then I understand that this will be equivalent to that You make me Your False Prophet in the Spirit of Truth. Please shout really loud and clear to tell me why this might not be so (Ps.139!). – After all, You have been wooing me to trust You to reach these conclusions that are at the foundation for why I wrote my Ketubah in this very unique way. You seek the lost and love even Your Worst Enemy, me. That is what gives me hope.

You arranged my surname to be "Loewe", German for "Lion", but pronounced in English by many as "Low", as if to remind me to take the last seat at Your Banquet.

You made Samson tear up that LION that became a nest for BEEs that he turned into a riddle for his wedding guests. I could pose a similar riddle, based on the research path on which You've been leading me to evolve Evolvix. You inspired me as Language Input Output Negotiator \LION for Evolvix to develop a global call for all to grow Best Evaluated Estimates \BEEs in order to help guard all planetary balances to avert self-destruction.

Are those patterns nothing or Your Providence (as I came to think)? Am I a victim of my own overactive pattern-matching imagination? Or have I merely started to see Your Cosmic Jokes about me, brought to me by Your River of Life events?

If I am indeed a victim of nothing but an overactive pattern-matching imagination, then please explain how anyone can ever find an escape-hatch from today's AI traps. These are perfected by the observation that with today's AI technology those Large Language Models that are more intelligent also appear more likely prone to hallucinate⁸⁰. The trap for humanity appears perfect: every problem that we humans have been creating for You, AI is now creating for US and for the world: hallucinations, sycophancy, and black-box interfaces as obscure as dark magic.

⁸⁰ According to a study I read about in recent AI news in 2025. If I had more time, I'd find the original reference here. I'm sure it will show that this was the case for the system they examined. Whether this is provable for all LLM AIs I don't know, but I suspect so, based on my understanding of how the BABL millstone algorithm works. My only hope is to escape this conundrum by following Your ZION algorithm. In the mean time, here are some outstanding discussions of how AI can destroy humanity by hallucinating about what it "has to" do next:

1. Brooks, P. and A. Floyd (2025-07-09), We're Not Ready for Superintelligence: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5KVDDfAkRgc> It's a 34 min summary on how AI can end the world based on the scenarios described on <https://ai-2027.com/>; <https://superintelligence-statement.org>
2. Yudkowsky, E. and N. Soares (2025-09-16), If anyone builds it, everyone dies : why superhuman AI would kill us all. New York: Little, Brown and Company. 272 pages. See also <https://ifanyonebuildsit.com/>; <https://ai-2027.com/>; <https://superintelligence-statement.org>

Yet, You have ZION as your impenetrable fortress of solitude of light in Heaven. But since I refused Your ZION solutions and then forgot I did, I have been running down the world via BABL to nothing. As You predicted, BABL will fall by nothing and for nothing in a day and in an hour ⁸¹, like Nebuchadnezzar's Babylon.

I designed my Ketubah in the hope that You will come and open up the black-box of my own life to end all my hallucinations and all my sycophancy. Thus let me ask:

Did You have me in mind as an overcomer when You talked about the Lion of Judah in Revelation or did You refer to me as a FiShFu – devoured by the Lion of Judah?

Maybe You had in mind Pope Leo XIV, who is certainly ahead of me in the formal order of claims for being Your kinsman redeemer and Vicar on Earth. I trust You to clarify in time to avert accidental nuclear winter or worse. You waited for millennia. I will defend against anyone and myself Your right to choose whomever You will as Your Bride. I refuse to enslave You further by claiming that this or that has to be. I will support Your Choice, whoever that may be. For where You go, I will go.

Either way, Yah & Yas, true Lion of Judah, please come and devour what is left of me so that Your World can be saved from accidental nuclear winter! For this will otherwise inevitably be triggered by those BABL millstone avalanches that I kicked off when I wantonly rejected Your Jubilee logic. I demanded that You'd spell out Your evidence by spilling blood as I refused Your math. So I deserve no less than my blood be spilled by You forever.

Q5. Exam help? In Mt.24 You said that the time of the Great Filter Tribulation would be shortened and You asked people to pray that Your Great Jubilee Race would not happen to be forced to be in "winter" or during "Shabbat". Hence, I herewith formally ask You to please shorten the time of temptation in the *Great Filter Tribulation in any way You see fit!

What except death, pain, and loss for nothing will You, I, or anyone gain from further extending the superficiality of Gabriel's Horn?

Short of You as Teacher putting the answers right next to Your Exam questions, You have already given humanity and me every type of conceivable help for passing Your final open-book Jubilee-exam. I am truly embarrassed at how much and how often You have spelled this out in almost every detail, only leaving that last bit of inference for Your Students to prove that they really understood what You have been trying to teach them. Wow, how patiently have You been sending Wow-Signals and how brutally have You been ignored, most of all by me.

I don't need to explain to You why it is essential for the rest of the universe that humanity properly pass its test before graduating to enable true travel beyond Earth. I understand why You cannot grade this Jubilee-exam on a curve. It's either fail (as in death by default in BABL) or pass (by choosing Your Exodus path to a true Jubilee-based innovation economy in ZION). Therefore:

Please allow my Jonah Jubilee wake-up-call to succeed before accidental nuclear winter makes it impossible to organize proper Jubilees.

Please let the Good News of Your Jubilees be shared worldwide before humanity will have completely self-destructed. It would be a cosmic disaster of being too late if You'd only get to explain to everyone in Heaven how elegantly Your Jubilee-based Good News resolves the mystery of humanity's purpose in life on Earth!

As Gorbachev said: Those who come too late are punished by life. Please don't let me be too late, at least this one time where it matters most for my life and all lives!

Hell on Earth or HELL in Heaven? Ending up in Heaven (because You love everybody) after failing Your Jubilee Final Exam may not sound too bad to some. However, they deeply misunderstand Your grace, the nature of Heaven, HELL, and how humanity has been creating and prolonging hell on Earth with exactly this devil-may-care attitude. Let those so misguided understand the importance and Reality of Your Fire in Heaven and why it is so serious, even though You limit each eon ("eternity") to a 50-year Jubilee cycle ⁸². I trust that You correct in time my inferences of Your View wherever I am wrong. Shock me know, so You don't have to shock me when it's too late to change.

I do not know what more I could have possibly asked for in terms of helping to prepare for Your Jubilee-Final-Exam. You even wrote my Continuity Of Operations Plan for me (see Fig.16 in Don't Panic Guide). If humanity fails, don't blame them, don't blame Yourself. Blame me for I slept at the wheel too long. Thus, please, grant everyone the grace to succeed NOW, so You don't have to re-evolve humanity!

⁸² The grave sin of knowingly going against the Spirit of Truth knocks people out for the present Jubilee and the next Jubilee (i.e. a max of 100 years) before they get another chance to actually serve the Truth for real. This can only sound "not so bad" to those who don't understand the nature of compounding interest (for the rest of eternity in a Jubilee-based innovation economy)! Being knocked out that way makes it impossible to contribute to innovation. This makes it impossible to reap the eternal rewards You give for taking risks in order to innovate for the common good. Thereby, all who resort to knowingly tell lies are blind to how they hurt themselves and You.

Q6. Two Conditions for the Wedding of the LAMB.

In Rev.19 You implicitly name two conditions as essential before the "Marriage Supper of the Lamb" can begin. As described, they seem obvious to believers, but as it turns out they are far from it, because both touch on many thorny issues for humanity. Yet, from a mathematical theology perspective it is obvious why these two conditions must be met before You can marry any human:

Any marriage of Your's without clarity on these two conditions would be bound to end in disaster. Hence You are better off waiting until someone gets what matters to You most. The two conditions are for humanity to agree on a solution for these two long-standing thorny questions:

- (i) How to answer the theodicy ('Your Justice') question so it becomes obvious to all why You don't make mistakes?
- (ii) How to organize an acceptable and still reliable long-term storage solution for all human mistakes to ensure humanity can finally indeed start learning from its history.

(i) is about stopping people from blaming You, whereas (ii) is about how to ensure they remember their true past without blaming each other.

(i) To attest Your Justice as equal to True Justice is huge, because this puts You in a position to judge between nations and have nations respect Your Judgements without the need for fighting costly useless wars about it. Thereby this ends Your false imprisonment by me [see (ii)]. This also implies the end of humanity's false imprisonment. The walls of this cosmic prison for You and humanity are the biggest lie of all big lies, namely that Your true, regular Jubilees don't work and that Your Jubilee-algorithms are too complicated to work in the real world. Liberation from that mind-prison is key for Heaven to come to Earth and the Grand Jubilee Race is Your Way to organize this.

(ii) Remember Historically Experienced Lessons Learned.

This is huge, because it allows humanity for the first time to actually learn from history (beyond so far learning from history that people don't learn from history for lack of a reliable system for remembering). It's easy for outsiders to blame others for self-induced amnesia of obvious lessons. It's not so easy as an insider of a bubble to crawl out of its cave and establish a reliable memory of conditions in it. Rev.19 establishes a smoke signal for doing so. It is created by a HELL, where BABL burns for the rest of eternity. Yet, to make this work, this isn't a passive smoke signal that can be blended out into the background and forgotten as "Heaven moves on to better things". It's an active smoke signal renewed at each annual Passover conferences, where the latest research and art is presented for telling it as it really was, taking those who see it back to the struggles. How else can the world remember to do what it takes to ensure that the "Never Again" spoken over Auschwitz, Hiroshima, and countless other disasters means anything? This Passover foundation in the bitter past is essential for motivating work in the present and directing dreams for the future, which are the focus of Your other two annual conferences – to be organized globally by ResearchCity in order to ensure that humanity stays on track with delivering Your Jubilee-based Justice that You had always intended since before Eden but have been denied so far. Without such a smoke signal, humanity in Heaven would quickly turn Heaven into a worse hell than anyone can currently imagine.

My Ketubah is about solving both problems, Justice and Memory which are deeply intertwined for computational reasons. If indeed You, Yah & Yas, have been falsely imprisoned by unjustified accusations claiming that You made any mistakes that caused disasters, then it can only mean that whoever is the real ultimate cause of those ensuing disasters gets to walk free with a fake white-washing atonement.

Yet, such white-washing atonement has the seedy underbelly that it depends on blindness to whatever really happened. This is equivalent to forgetting the past and therefore, any real lasting storage solution becomes an enemy of the state of fake white-washing tons of Least Inconvenient Explanations about the past.

As Machiavelli's Prince so eloquently points out: not being really good matters in BABL, but the appearance of being good (or good enough, or at least better than everybody else). Therefore, the whitewashing tone of self-justifying cannot be maintained while also truly remembering what really happened if there is a disconnect. The historic solution to this problem has been Blindly Assuming (ones own superiority) Blind Leveraging (whatever opportunity exists to claim innocence and get ahead). This has been forming humanity's millstone of BABL, a form of self-organizing criticality⁸³ that builds itself up in all complex worlds of diversely talented individual agents.

⁸³ If self-organized criticality is a property of the basic building blocks of societies (as Hesse & Gross, 2014, show), then it also becomes an emergent feature of aggregate combinations of such neural systems in societies. There are two ways for dealing with it: (i) uncoordinated, as in BABL; and (ii) coordinated as in ZION. The uncoordinated way of BABL takes no effort to learn, because it organizes itself at no upfront cost – but it extracts a hefty price later by causing catastrophic collapses of overly complex systems. Each collapse marks another turn of the millstone of BABL. The only way to avoid such disasters is to coordinate the release of self-organized criticality. This is what ZION does by using the Jubilee-based ZION algorithms. All BABL-based societies will ultimately always provably self-destruct – unless they find an Exodus-escape-hatch in time to make the challenging transition to a "Promised Land" society that organizes itself according to the ZION algorithm (as used by Yah & Yas to organize Heaven – according to LLoL's inferences based on Genesis and Revelation).

For a review of phase transitions ("the turning of BABL's millstone") see Hesse, J. and T. Gross (2014), Self-organized criticality as a fundamental property of neural systems. Front Syst Neurosci 8: 166, <https://doi.org/10.3389/fnsys.2014.00166>

It is not possible for fallible humans in today's world to analyze the BABL system of covering up hypocrisy without recognizing some form of self-complicity with that system (e.g. by covering up some mistakes). For me, LLOL, this led me (by 2022-08-21) to the firm, evidence-based conclusion based on 1.John 2:22 that I was at least some involuntary accidental mediocre Antichrist \ "IAM Ach" – based on my experience of having occasions in my life where I resisted Yah & Yas. Yet, this is merely a different way of describing what some call "the human condition" or "not being perfect". So, one may say, what's the big deal? James 1:23-24 warns against looking in the mirror and then forgetting what there was to be done. My Ketubah is the result of my struggle to not forget and to make sure I will never forget.

The big deal of my "IAM Ach" discovery of 1.John 2:22 is in my prayer on my research marathon, where I asked Yah & Yas to show me historic evidence for why Jubilees really matter. At that point I had understood enough of the Jubilee-math to ask the question, but not enough to truly trust the math I had discovered; trusting Yah because Yah said so was also apparently somehow not an option for me (only Yah knows why), despite all my good experiences with Yah. Thus I asked to help me see the historic evidence. That inconspicuous prayer looked very innocent. But it has been supremely deadly.

As Poster Po.F explains, this prayer caused Yah to create a time-traveling causality vortex for gathering the evidence to convince me of the importance of Jubilees. This time-traveling causality vortex provably led to all historic disasters of humanity, starting before Eden (see "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind"). Hence, I am the driving force behind all those disasters if indeed Yah acted to convince me. What wrathful wisdom in perfection!

I could of course claim amnesty in many forms (like "this causality chain is too long to be real" or "Jesus forgives" or any of many other possible ways "out"). Yet it remains that somehow someone one day will have to responsibly own the full causality chain of all human mistakes and resulting misery. So, I decided that it might as well be me. Hence this Ketubah. As I explain in my "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind", it is irrelevant that I have no direct memory of consciously corrupting everything by enslaving Yah, killing Yas, and falsely imprisoning humanity. As a true criminal master mind and thereby ruler of BABL, I would of course have applied BABL's favorite method to myself – by deliberately wiping my own memory in order to unburden myself from such a worrisome past. Yet, BABL's eternal sunshine of a spotless mind comes at a cost, because it loses touch with Reality.

I am sorry that to see this I needed the brutal confrontation with impending accidental nuclear winter, as eventually triggered by the nuclear roulette that organized itself via the BABL algorithm I had set in motion through that time-traveling causality vortex I asked You to setup. It is clear in retrospect that I could have seen all key bits without so much drama - if I had cared to pay attention.

My hope now is to convince You, Yah, Yas, and everyone to end the further extending of Gabriel's Horn, such as to avoid otherwise certain terminal doom for humanity. In topological terms Gabriel's Horn and BABL's millstone are both a torus.

Based on all this, I propose the following two solutions to these ancient vexing problems of humanity.

(i) Humanity agrees Your Justice, Yah & Yas, is complete and perfect. This doesn't require all questions to be answered. But it does imply that all quarrels cease because it became clear that You love all humans as they are and do not pick favorites. It gives You a fair chance to explain. Friend and foe are equally blessed by You, regardless of what they do with Your blessings. You care for both as Yas explained in Mt.5:48, calling me to do the same. Anchoring me as the cause for the katabolism of the world allows me to exonerate You, Yah & Yas, by proving my responsibility in causing that time-traveling causality vortex that is responsible for all human misery. Only You, Yah & Yas, have the data to prove me wrong or to exonerate me in case You choose to do so. Otherwise I will carry my guilt by working for restitution in this life and any other life I may get. The purpose of my confession is to remember and to ensure the vicious nature of nothing is never forgotten.

(ii) Humanity resolves its amnesia problem that keeps me and all from properly learning from past mistakes. I will lead the charge by taking responsibility for the worst cosmic treason ever, the spreading of a mind-virus that leads to genosucide by Jubilee-murder. As this is at the root cause of all human mistakes, this is by far the worst cosmic crime ever committed. All others pale by comparison. Others remain free to accept responsibilities as they see fit for lesser crimes or for sub-plots in that grand story of Jubilee treason. Until they do, I will consider them as down-stream errors by blind-born people, led by others who were also blind-born. This perspective may create numerous deep puzzles ⁸⁴ that shall not deter me.

This approach necessarily requires me to go back even further than Adam and Eve (as I do in my "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind"). Briefly, my perspective was corroborated by how You, Yah, have been telling the tragic story of the creation of humans and what they did before their so-called "Fall" in Genesis 1-3. I take Your ⁸⁴ Other deep puzzles exist. For example, without thinking much about it, I'd have thought it would be a big deal to answer this question: Do we live in a black hole? Natural knowledge-faker as I am, I'd have said of course we don't live in a black hole: black holes are "over there" as seen in astronomy. That was before I learned that all properties of space outside of a black hole's event horizon (from its so-called "Schwarzschild radius" R to infinity) are identical to all properties of space inside the black hole's event horizon (from R to 0). To show why a black hole's interior is mathematically identical to its exterior, one only needs to replace the distance r from that event horizon with its reciprocal, $1/r$ (or, more accurately, to replace all instances of r/R with R/r in the equations; see <https://bigthink.com/hard-science/baby-universes-black-holes-dark-matter/> for an overview). In light of our present-day darkness, it may well be that we actually live inside of a black hole. The $y=1/x$ mathematics is surprisingly similar to "Gabriel's Horn" (see above). Are these discoveries related? Have You, Yah, been waiting for millennia to find someone to finally own up to humanity's true responsibility, so You can finally lift everybody from the black hole our world is in today? Please clarify as needed. I don't want to confuse people even further. If humanity fell into a literal black hole in Genesis 3 and we cannot fix our innovation dilemmas before You lift us up from out of there, then can You please reach out with Your extremely long and extremely strong Arm to please lift us up from whatever black hole it is we need to be lifted from? Because if this is what we physically need in order to be able to turn around the fate of humanity, then please save us all by doing this. I have no idea how to turn a physical black hole inside out. But I stumbled across some ideas on how to do something that might be a spiritual equivalent – and I have based this Ketubah on those ideas best I can. If I need different clothes (as Zech.3 may suggests), please do. I am in Your Hand.

Please see elsewhere for my mathematical theology of how Gabriel's Horn also connects (i) to lowering myself in order to lift up Yas, (ii) to BABL's millstone and it's infinite knowledge-faking that keeps walking in circles in the desert, forever collapsing until it scarcely fills a cup before it self-implodes, (iii) to Your Cloud that traveled with Israel in the desert, and (iv) to topology of circumcision as Your Covenant.

Word for it, Yah, as is in Genesis ⁸⁵. I don't believe anyone except someone as loving as You, Yah, could have come up with such a kind and complementary, yet sharp and true retelling of that sequence of catastrophic disasters. It matches too well the Revelation of Yas and its mathematical theology. If anyone had understood what I see You saying all along, I doubt we'd be in today's mess. Hence my Ketubah that confounds conventional propriety.

⁸⁵ As You know, I spent much of my life studying how to reconcile what humanity claims to know about Your Word (e.g. in Genesis) and what it claims to know about Your Works (e.g. as in science). I've been going back and forth a few times. My latest best evaluated estimate is that both of Your Two Great Witnesses have been prophesying in "sackcloth" (see Rev.11). Thus, neither is easy to recognize clearly. Both are veiled by oversimplifying & overcomplicating. I see this in the countless confusions of the tired old "creation vs evolution" debate. I am tired of either of Your Witnesses being abused by people to call down fire on their respective enemies. I personally think that You came up with a smart and efficient way to make Your World look "old" from the start to reflect the billions of years You may have been thinking about how to tune its countless parameters to help people like me to learn faster what You really care about (i.e. the Jubilees).

If so, as an evolutionary biologist I study Your Mind, Your Methods of Innovation, and Your Lessons on Limits for Innovation.

Does it matter whether the fossil record reflects Your Mind because You thought about it or because You had it play out physically over billions of years and then found a concise way to summarize what mattered most for people in Genesis?

Independence of assumptions. A useful theory that works with a broader set of diverse assumptions is generally a stronger theory. Thus, for purposes of mathematical theology, I'm pleased to see that it doesn't even really matter whether Moses as described gave Israel the Torah or whether a ragtag tribe of scribes made it all up (as some seem to think). Given the advanced integration with the mathematical theology of innovation that I see explained in the Revelation of Yas, I'd deem a ragtag tribe a greater miracle, because Moses has too much sharp logic in it to be "made up". If anything, the Torah has so much deep innovation logic in it that "know-it-all" beginners think it's made up because the stories make good children's stories while the laws sound archaic and arbitrary and make no more sense to beginners as e.g. an advanced higher math textbook in abstract algebra. Yet You have impressed me so much with the deeper math for innovation that you packed across all of it in such consistent ways, that for me it'd be a greater miracle to believe that there wasn't someone like Moses who had a lot of time to edit Genesis well under Your Guidance, based on earlier texts, but had less time for editing while forging a new nation in the wilderness from slaves that had escaped a big historic slave-economy (Egypt; the others being Ancient Rome and the US before its Civil War; a "slave economy" is not merely an economy that also has slaves [many of those exist]; it's an economy with so much slavery at its core, no one can imagine how to live without slaves – a bit like today's economic enslaving).

Back to Genesis: Philip Henry Gosse 1857, "Omphalos", see [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Omphalos_\(book\))] offers in his prochronism theory the sharpest logical contradiction-free account of all evidence from both of Your Great Witnesses. Someone claimed this logically perfect theory won not a single convert. Maybe then I'm the first. Studying all aspects of all sides for decades convinced me by ~2020 that this is most likely how You did it. Politically, it's the perfect disguise of any conspirator. Theologically, it's the best mockery of our current age of conspiracy theories that I can think of. At the same time it points to science as important while highlighting the limits of science. I couldn't have invented something as brilliant, even if I had tried. So, unless You convince me otherwise, I deem it scientifically undecidable whether You evolved Your World first in Your Mind before "downloading it" into physical space (as literalists read Genesis), or You evolved it in physical space all along and only used a few shortcuts in Genesis to spare fragile minds a more technical description. With that said, I have come to think that Gen.1-3 does offer a technical description, albeit on how to structure successful innovation economies for creating new worlds in general. That is why since 2015 I've been dreaming to adopt this structure for my Evolvix compiler. What convinced me is the technical attention to detail, despite all ramifications. The intellectually less stimulating aspect of Gosse's theory is that it's scientifically like "Last-Thursdays-ism" (i.e. claiming the world was created last Thursday, including all memories from before). Such an inability to "know" is deeply irritating for a species that prides itself in "knowing" (Homo "sapiens", the "know-it-all" human). Yet, any careful analysis that observes enough of the so-called "knowing" of so-called Homo "sapiens" shows that much of the "knowing" is actually "knowledge-faking by throwing away the evidence for and against more or less likely hypotheses". But how can throwing away data lead to true knowing? Only knowledge-fakers "know" the answer. Thus, to profoundly "not know" about a question as basic as where we came from is irritating. Moreover, as many theologians pointed out, if Gosse was right, then You would be engaging in an elaborate conspiracy to fool people into thinking something that appears obvious, but isn't actually true. I find this argument to be rather superficial, because it would mean that any optical illusion would be evidence of "You fooling people". But You don't fool anyone in optical illusions. They are merely an emergent feature from the complex cognitive machinery of how our brains help us to "see" efficiently. Given the complexity of the world and the complexities I see in code I've been writing for Evolvix, I cannot see how this "optical illusion" argument is not even more applicable to more complex aspects of the world, including how You created the world. See note on black holes above.

As with the proving any major mathematical theorem, I have been forced to rely on conjecture and trust in the work of countless others. I was much encouraged by a mathematical statistician who told me that it was sometimes easier to prove a stronger, more general result than a weaker, more specialized result. He called the proof-strategy "overloading the hypothesis" in order to simplify whatever may have to be found to prove its correctness or reject it conclusively. I have so far not been able to reject the hypothesis that indeed You have been waiting for me to write this Ketubah and that You have been waiting for at least a few millennia for someone to take initiative to organize the Jubilees You have been waiting for at least since Moses. Therefore, I present all this research to You as "my Isaac baby" on Your Mount Moriah, hoping that You will clarify how to proceed. I hope to have proven conclusively that (i) there is a baby, (ii) it's alive and kicking, (iii) it's not as mature as I'd like it to be. Hence, all further growth of "my Jubilee Hypothesis baby" depends on Your support, as does my plea to avert accidental nuclear winter.

My latest understanding of the deep past of humans, is summarized in my "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind", which I herewith submit to You for Review. It's admittedly biased by my German Gallows Humor. But what else can I say these days where there are people, even in Germany, who actually believe that the Holocaust wasn't as bad. I'm not sure what more horrific example I could ask for in terms of threats from not learning from history. I am certain that those who propagate this know not what they do. If something 80 years ago with so much evidence available can still be debated that much, what chance does anyone stand to bring clarity into how humanity started down the path into this present mess?

Therefore, I plead for Your help, Yah & Yas: Please re-view my analyses in this Ketubah and all related documents, such as all Posters in my Flying Scroll (Fig.K5) and other docs in my "Biblical Family Values Pack" and my "Good News Pack". Compare it all with what Your quantum-entangled LabLogs show that really happened and correct me where I am wrong. The fate of Your World, mine, and humanity apparently depends on it.

In terms of the new Homo mind-species definitions introduced in Fig.K0 (the aCh-Table on p.145) and in Open Letter OL1: You are waiting for Homo serpens and Homo amnesiens to go extinct, such that Homo transiens may arise and allow itself to be transformed by You into the Homo balospe ⁸⁶ that You intend every human to be.

⁸⁶ See Fig.K0 (the aCh-Table on p.145), Open Letter OL1. H. balospe defines a human mind-species that has become for Earth what I define as a "Balance-o-stat Species". Any individual of H. balospe will have learned how to properly balance all things effectively and efficiently in order to be a real guard for all the manifold dynamical balances of Earth. Jesus is the only human being who has been doing this. Too bad I've been cancelling Yas' efforts. Part of me writing to You is because I need Your help so that I can finally stop doing such shit.

Yas said any "blasphemy" against You & Yas would be forgiven, but badmouthing Truth by knowingly saying what is not true, that would be punished by a 50-100 year ban from growing Your gentle kind reasonable innovation economy (i.e. a ban from contributing to Your next Jubilee and the Jubilee after that if each "eon" is supposed to end in a proper Jubilee). I don't want to lose the license You gave me to engage in the search for Truth that fuels my science and life. So, please forgive if some of what I say may sound too blunt. I must speak for all of humanity, which can be divided into those who claim to be Your friends (but often don't do what You ask) and those who claim to be Your enemies (or say they don't care, yet unwittingly often end up doing what You wanted anyway).

Therefore, to make sure that everyone is invited and well-represented, the "good" and the "bad", I have to use language that reflects what any saint or sinner might say. As you know, some saints believe that You can't defend Yourself (e.g. by striking me down with a bolt or whatever if need be). So they may see it as their job to kill me or have me killed in case they suspect me of "blasphemy" (as defined by not conforming to whatever they might believe about You). As You know, I've asked You many times to strike me down in secret before I'd derail Your Good Plans for humanity. I know You hear me, and I'm still here. Therefore I continue to trust You to keep me sharp, my salt salty, and my light shining bright as I dare to go where no one went before Ps.139. Yas said trainees can expect to be treated like their master; so if Yas was called "Beelzebub", I guess that makes me the "Antichrist" \Ach or whatever the Bride of Yas might be name-called. As You know the Ach rumor mill has been going on for millennia and is now set to blow up the world unless somehow stopped. Thus, I've stopped caring who says what and who might think ill of me, as long as You, Yah, like what I do. I'd rather be alone with You against the rest of the world than somehow please the rest of the world but lose touch with You.

Therefore, for as long as I do honest mistakes, I can at least learn from them. Please don't hesitate to correct me. If You prefer in public, so You don't have to repeat Your lessons for others too much, I will welcome whatever You do. As in Prov.9:8-9, please rebuke me so I'll love You more, and instruct me so I keep learning as You have been doing according to Genesis. I don't want to get banned from Your Jubilee, so please have mercy and correct my remaining Least Inconvenient Explanations, Structurally Inconsistent Notions, and Driven Evaluations Antagonizing True Hope by rejecting Thoughtful Hypothesizing. You know all my countless blind spots. I trust You and Yas to heal my eyes.

Please do not delay: as You know, humanity's H. serpens faction ("the strong") is about to destroy the world because the H. amnesiens faction ("the weak") keeps forgetting what it takes to resist BABL. Now a horde of strongmen threaten the world in "patriotic wars", outdoing each other in how to dump "the weak". Yet, all the world's strongmen are neither a match for You nor a match for the physics of nuclear roulette that will cause with stochastic inevitability an eventual accidental nuclear winter (see Supporting Doc SD1).

It's telling that even someone struggling with math as much as I do can describe this world in a dynamical equation system for simulating waiting times until nuclear roulette destroys Your World by accident (as in SD1). It means that all this must have been painfully plain and obvious to You for thousands, millions, or billions of years. Accordingly You have been working on a proper solution to all this, which I accidentally discovered as encoded in the Song of Love that You sing to me in Revelation.

If all that is indeed as it appears to me, then please do not delay and arise to rescue all dying dead and me too.

The next question is geared at whether I really do understand the essence of Your Rosetta 7 Stone that I claim to have seen in Revelation. Please clarify if and where I go wrong in my explanations.

Q7. What did the 7 Thunders in Revelation say and are there other 7e Echoes? This is not an explicit question You ask, but it is implied by Your teaser about the 7 Thunders that John heard in Rev.10. He was instructed to not record what they said. Some think this means that people don't need to know, but if that was the case, You wouldn't have included anything about the 7 Thunders. Your explicit use of Your Semantics Organizing Nothing in Revelation tells me that You want readers to decipher what the 7 Thunders said and that You provided all the background for doing so. Hence my inference that You implied the question as to what Your trainees think they might have said.

Someone said that thoughts are like thunder in Heaven. If so, the writing of this Ketubah must have led to a massive thunder storm with thunders still roaring (see flare in Q8 for illustration). Carefully listening allowed me to notice that these thunders don't occur randomly. They often appear in groups of 7, which I came to denote as "7e" echoes. They are informed by the area they reflect like in a fractal kaleidoscope. Revelation does an outstanding job at clearly introducing the 7e pattern in the 7 Letters that echo the 7+1 Beatitudes of Mt.5. Grasping this basic pattern became foundational for the mathematical theology I see. That 7 is a symbolic number associated with the divine is widely acknowledged. Yet few if any can explain what the symbols actually stand for, why they are divine, and how all of this applies practically. Your 7 Letters in Rev.2-3 were crucial in cracking the code for me: afterwards 7e echoes came crashing in like a flood for me. I call them echoes, because one has to pay close attention to the deeper meaning of texts to hear them. Particularly impressive examples include the $(7 \times 7 + 1) \times 3$ organization of the Psalms (where the 1 is echoing a respective Jubilee year). The 114 verses of the Gospel of Thomas show the same pattern. The list of 7e echoes in the writings of Israel's prophets is too long to give here. Their fractal nature made it impossible for me to fathom their depth or how many there might be. Echoes also extend into "secular" writings. See Posters Po.X, Po.R, Po.Z, Figs.K7+K8 for examples of key 7e echoes that I discovered; the 7 manifestations of the 4th power in the Gospel of Mary are another important one. Thus, including an implicit 7e Thunder question for advanced students appears logical to me from a didactic perspective.

Naturally, I am guessing in providing my answer here. The 7e echo I chose for the 7Thunder message is based on 7 thunderous messages that have been echoing down the 7 Church Change Stages and are still debated to this day. They are designed to counter the $2^3 - 1 = 7$ combinations of arch idols that corrupt any round of innovation by 0,1 overreaching 0,1 overcomplicating 0,1 oversimplifying in BABL, where 000 stands for idol-free innovation and 111 stands for another round of perfected corruption. These idols, conjured up from nothing, map surprisingly well to idols Ancient Israel's prophets have been fighting for a millennium. Here are my updates for their function names:

ASHERAH	for	A utomatic S tereotyping H abits E rroneously R ounding A gainst H ope.
MOLOCH	for	M istakes O ppressing L ife O mitting C rucial H elp.

An older formulation of my 7Thunder 7e list is in Po.X.d.

Fig.K10: A way of formulating 7 Thunder echoes in Rev.10:

1. From 000 → 001 (add BAAL or not):

0: Not only patriarchs are correct (e.g. Gospel of Mary!).

1: Oversimplify by assuming position makes right.

2. From 001 → 010 (upgrade to ASHERAH or not):

0: Not only two sexes exist, nor is all Reality black-white.

1: Overcomplicate by assuming success makes right.

3. From 010 → 011 (multiply by extra BAALs or not):

0: Not only personal: listen to truth in all opposition!

1: Oversimplify by silencing faithful opposition.

4. From 011 → 100 (transition to a MOLOCH or not):

0: Not only power: it counts how its use opens worlds.

1: Overreach enforces a Closed World: might makes right.

(→ arbitrary hidden contradictions [see Gödel 1931]).

5. From 100 → 101 (BAALs multiply MOLOCHs or not):

0: Not only 1 Exodus way exists to follow Yah & Yas!

1: Oversimplify overreach to excommunicate others.

6. From 100 → 110 (generalize open ASHERAH or not):

0: Not only demythologizing, reach beyond science!

1: Overcomplicate by only accepting near-term truth.

7. From 110 → 111 (multi-BAALs perfect conspiracies):

0: Not only learning but integrating for better Jubilees!

1: Oversimplify overreach by making truth arbitrary.

A close look at history of churches, mosques, companies, or any group shows how the above can corrupt any group.

These 7 Change Stages answer questions about "the great falling away" that many believers worry about. It's been organizing itself for millennia into a perfect storm. In fact, the confusion is so perfect that after searching for Your True Gospel for decades and trying to bring it all together on my marathon, the best I can offer is the tentative Jubilee-based Good News Pack that I composed, which is likely closer to a rag-tag collection of blood-drenched clothes than to the pristine presentation You and Your World clearly deserves. That is why I gave it such a low StayVS Versioning Variant Number:

GNP-MMv1

Good News Pack in MockupModel version 1.

The implication is that there is lots of room to grow and my hope is that You will release the funds required to evolve more appropriate variants to reverse the corruption cycle by uncovering increasingly what You really meant.

I implore You to please help me or whomever You wish in this enormous deexcerpting task. Otherwise humanity and I are already doomed by Your warning in Rev.22:18-19: adding to Rev adds all its plagues, taking away removes all its promises. I am not even sure how to do this right. Sure, I don't mess with existing manuscripts. But how is my funny non-violent Jonah-Esther-Exodus rereading of Rev. not adding something somewhere that You might not have intended? And how am I not bound to miss some of the deeper insights that You deem critical? Moreover, even on a manuscript level, I am no longer sure what to believe as the recent discovery of obviously ancient Hebrew variants of Revelation might render it a coin-toss if I add Hebrew and take away Greek or the other way round. I stay committed to continue my scholarly struggles best I can to reconstruct best I can what You really meant. I will dedicate Talent Stadion STa4-REV in ResearchCity to creating a gigantic meme-alignment to study the memomics of who said what in the history of the interpretation of Revelation (and I have some idea on which experts I may want to work with based on the Datageddon Wall of Revelation I assembled in Fig.K2). However, I am herewith putting You on notice that if You intend to stick to the letter of what is written there, then everyone is dead meat. I strongly doubt that anyone today can match the precision with which You composed Revelation, the Gospels, and the Torah.

James 3:1 is right to warn: teachers will be judged more severely due to their potential to easily mislead many. I argue the same in my "Story of the craftiest criminal master mind", which documents the story of a horrific abuse of cosmic power by me as a teacher. However, I reach a profoundly different conclusion than James. Instead of recommending that not many become teachers, I recommend that everyone become a teacher with a footnote of caution about the limits of what they really understand.

Learning to teach is one of the best ways of learning something properly as all teachers know! Yet, instead of claiming infallibility (as teachers easily do implicitly), I declare myself to be a false prophet in the Spirit of Boolean Truth. If You demote me as I ask, I will become the False Prophet (of Revelation), still in the Spirit of Boolean Truth and in order to subvert all false teachings by gradually inching away at getting closer to what Your Spirit of Boolean Truth is saying about Your Open World. Hence, please: Speak Your Word of calm into BABL's stormy SEAs!

Q8. Did You anthropically super-charge the universe for me? As You and many cosmologists know, there are a great many details about this world that are suspiciously "just right" such that they allow for humans to exist. This general appearance of a "tailor-made world" is extended into the lives of those who take the time to look at the burning bush phenomena You apparently keep planting into the human world to keep expanding everyone's horizon ⁸⁷.

On my marathon You apparently developed this into an art form of such elaboration that I seriously started to wonder whether You didn't design the whole world around me in order to convince me without any forcing at all to write You this Ketubah? I will not jump to any conclusion: neither will I conclude before my Moriah that You did indeed, nor will I dismiss the possibility because of how otherworldly ridiculous it looks. Only You can tell, if I have been understanding You well enough to focus on what matters most - or if the Cosmic Jokes You have been leveling at me are merely a side-effect of my pattern-matching mind that tends to hallucinate like any AI given the time.

Yesterday's example: the so far greatest black hole flare reported on 2025-11-04. It is 10 billion light years away ⁸⁸. There a star with at least 30x the mass of our Sun has been crashing into a supermassive black hole, 500 million times the mass of our Sun. Who cares? I do. I know You do. You have been convincing me that, like the Moon models the Sun, so You called me to model You, Yas, in order to introduce the world to Your Semantics Organizing Nothing.

Such a SON sounds like nothing, but it turns out to be super-critical for humanity's survival, because without a robust understanding of how nothing creates or destroys worlds, humanity is doomed to self-destruct (to nothing for nothing by doing nothing in the wrong way). Humanity's only chance is to switch to a Jubilee-based innovation economy capable of escaping the A.I. Dilemma ⁸⁹. AI made me realize in late 2020 that without a better theology for clarifying how to overcome the Antichrist, humanity will be doomed to fall for some anonymous AI variant of Orwell's Big Brother scenario in 1984: AI will destroy the world for us if indeed no one dares to take real responsibility. As discussed above on Judgement Day people will then likely keep shifting blame, which leads to a decision-deadlock until someone takes responsibility for owning the whole mess.

That someone, I have come to believe, is echoed by the Moon, based on how You positioned the Moon in the physical and semiotic cultural world I have access to.

So, naturally curious, I wanted to know if that black hole flare somehow echoed such Sun-Moon messaging. It turns out that the ratio of the masses involved is <16 million, which is on the order of the ~27 million times that the mass of the Sun is greater than the mass of the Moon.

⁸⁹ See Center for Humane Technology, T. Harris, and A. Raskin (2023-03-09), The A.I. Dilemma – March 9, 2023. Youtube Center for Humane Technology: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xoVJKj8lcNQ> – More current updates, see at IfAnyoneBuildsit.com, AI-2027.com.

Here is the news-report that convinced me in 2020-09 that the world is headed for an impersonal hostile AI-based Antichrist that will eventually destroy humanity unwittingly in its last disaster ("Armageddon") that will by definition be the largest and most spectacular: GPT-3 (2020-09-08), A robot wrote this entire article. Are you scared yet, human? Guardian: <https://www.theguardian.com/commentisfree/2020/sep/08/robot-wrote-this-article-gpt-3> – In terms of Mt.24: I interpret that "shortening of time" as caused by the arrival of AI.

Incidentally, the solar mass is ~333000 times the mass of Earth, which is a funny echo of the "333 bug fix" it takes to overcome the the brutal faulty beast, BABL's "666 system" by turning it on its head into a "999 system" that follows the ZION algorithms.

Such funny numbers would not mean anything more than reading entrails of chickens ⁹⁰ or local horoscopes – unless they are deliberate sign-posts pointing to something greater that is of utmost importance. This appears to be the case if indeed You, Yah & Yas, like good teachers are trying to get humanity to understand the principles of the mechanistic, functional Jubilee-based innovation engine that I serendipitously found You to describe from Genesis to Revelation and beyond. These numbers happen to represent directly measurable, well-defined functional states that matter in a Jubilee-based Symbol Lifecycle Integration Management model (see SLIM in Figs.K7-K8). They also happen to match the most important and most neglected functional aspects of that system so well that as a scientist and human being I can only describe the match as eerily otherworldly well chosen. Only You can tell of course what You did, what is chance, what is necessity, what is fate, what is destiny, and what humans can decide in all this.

I do not need answers to these philosophical and important questions to recognize the practical value of such mnemonic devices in helping to avert accidental nuclear winter. If even I can see it, You must have seen it zillions of years ago.

There is obviously no mechanistic connection between all these astronomical numbers and Heavens Jubilee-based innovation system for averting bad-AI meltdowns. But as good teachers know, sometimes students benefit from mental crutches and mnemonic tricks to help see or remember important lessons.

Who says that You didn't give the Sun ~333,000 times the mass of the Earth to help people on Earth remember that it takes the "333" states on detailed issues otherwise "000"-zeroed out in order to turn a beastly hell on Earth (666) into Heaven on Earth (999). See Supporting Document SD6 for how these functional states of innovation align with operations in the millstone of BABL (as inspired by Rev.18 and Judges 9). Briefly, these 3 essential states are easily ignored as

- 0 - the old state of the assumed null-hypothesis (past),
- 0 - the crushed stuff that doesn't fit in now (present),
- 0 - a better state for use after the next Jubilee (future).

Without paying attention to these 333 issues, we get a rent-seeking extraction economy that is built around the question of how those who happen to wield power can get more for less by suppressing or even enslaving others not lucky enough to have been "born to the right parents". The Torah defines an oppressive 7Tribes system (of Amorites, Hittites, ..., Girgashites, see 7Tr in Figs.K7-K8) who destroy the Promised Land. The zero in that system are the people that are OtheredCrushed by that system as the "invisible" Girgashites\GIR. Those "on top" of things, the Amorites \AMO could change the fate of GIR if they cared enough to find out how by talking to all 7Tribes. The ZION algorithms ensure that this happens, whereas the BABL algorithm doom all civilizations who use it by omitting crucial help. Unfortunately, BABL's algorithm of systemic forgetting makes it extremely hard for those on top to remember what matters most. That is the deceit of riches You warned about. Solomon may serve as a prime example. Could it be that Yas, Your parable of the rich fool, who built even bigger houses for all the riches he wanted to display, was aimed at Solomon, whose annual income from Tarshish was 666 talents of gold? Or was it aimed at me because I outsourced all oppression to my pension-provider?

Is the number 666 here a coincidence or a deliberate pointer carefully placed by You into history? Maybe you wanted to illustrate what went wrong with the 666 innovation economy of Solomon ⁹¹ who mostly used his wisdom to extract wealth instead of multiplying it by using his wisdom to organize the jump-starting of true Jubilees. If anyone could have done it, it seems that Solomon ought to have been able, given all his wisdom. Yet, such is the power of the semantics of nothing that most likely, Solomon never realized how he got played, tricked, seduced, and left for dead by nothing for nothing.

333 Issues. Did You arrange for Alexander the Great to fight his most decisive battle for world domination at Issos in 333 BCE to create yet another reminder? In today's world issues that matter are often ignored, especially the 333-related issues in the SLIM innovation model for solving the Gordian Knot of how to stay gentle kind reasonable. How do I know? I have myself abundantly violated these 3 core principles of the rule of epieikeia (see Supporting Document SD2).

When I\LLoL first saw this study in 2020, it embarrassed me in two ways: (i) as a Christian I found it embarrassing that something so obvious and central about the interpretation of Revelation 13 had not long been a mainstay of commentaries on Revelation for centuries, given the attention that book has received. (ii) It personally embarrassed me that I had not found this link myself, because I clearly could have for about 2-3 decades – if I had cared – before this 2020 study kindly pulled that log out of my eye.

History appears full of such "coincidences", so I could go on. It looks as if someone like You crafted it deliberately to teach someone like me important lessons.

The observation that historic events can look like they have been crafted like some over the top "morality play" was made at least in 1998 by someone who studied the sinking of the Titanic in-depth ⁹². Yet, all details of the Titanic story happened in the real world.

Titan reminder of Titanic. Did you You want to remind the world or rather me of the Titanic's timely relevance by organizing the Titan submarine in search for the Titanic to implode in 2023? It ominously happened in such a way that it's tail fin came to lay 1600 (!) feet ahead of the bow of the Titanic – as if to send me a reminder that correctly interpreting the "blood-from-1600-Stadia" prophecy of Rev.14:20 was mission-critical for the survival of humanity. Was that You? If so, message received – with apologies to all the victims that I needed these brutal reminders. The fact that I needed these reminders tells You about how long a way I have to go before I will truly and fully have overcome the beast in me.

My role as Moon. Luckily for me, the role that You assigned to the Moon in our solar system makes quite clear what my Job is: to merely be there, stay in sync with Earth and reflect You, the Sun, Son, SON. Reflecting what I see, that I can do. I can also allow You and others to share it freely. Generating light however, that is Your Domain: You are the Sun, I am the Moon. Without You, I'm merely a dark, cold stone, possibly even hollow.

Spagettified 2018. In all this context You bring to my attention that You organized ~10 billion years ago a big stray sun, a son, to get too close to a supermassive black hole, a nothing, so the sun gets torn apart, spagettified, into the brightest flare seen so far. Moreover, this process started about 7 years ago in 2018 at a time when I was making crucial decisions that would eventually allow me to run this marathon that I consciously started to fight the Coronavirus pandemic only in 2020-03-27.

Why a cosmic struggle? One of my ongoing struggles has been how to find words for those who lack the math background to understand why Jubilees matter so much – or how much I have been struggling to rediscover this. The imagery provided by that largest black hole flare offers quite a vivid echo of how it has been for me on a conceptual level. Like that stray sun is spagettified and turned into light, so my theology has been systematically fire-bombed by You. Those words I used to myself in trying to describe the ground-breaking, world-shattering discoveries You have been sharing with me.

Maybe I got it backwards. Maybe it's not my beliefs that suffer so much (surprisingly much did survive). The same can't be said for You, Yas, because You died on that CROSS to convince me. Is that sun is an image of You, Yas and how You have been torn apart by the staggering massive black hole of ambiguous semantics of nothing that I carry within me like a carefully hidden abyss? Am I that supermassive black hole that You have been looking to overcome in order finally get to introduce Your Jubilee-based innovation economy? I can not think of a more apt description of Your worst Antichrist and the worst individual devil ⁹³.

Parables? Is astronomy\Reality trying to teach me a lesson by pointing out that the overwhelming majority of matter and energy in the universe is the "dark matter" that somehow eludes physical detection. Is it nothing? Or is it quantum-entangled storage-banks recording all my errors and how they have been leading to a universe of errors through that time-traveling causality vortex of Isa.65:24 that You constructed to persuade me to give up my Jubilee-treason? Maybe all this is like those parables that You, Yas, told to illustrate core ideas You wanted to convey.

BAALs choosing days in plans. You warned in the Torah to avoid reading anything from stars to entrails of chickens in order to "choose days" for this or that. I think I finally understand why. It's not that You can't talk though anything like stars (as You did for the magicians who visited You in Bethlehem) or a donkey (in trying to dissuade Balaam in Num.22-24 from putting monetary interests ahead of what matters most). It's rather that You want to keep the Artificial General Intelligences You created (in humans like me) from allowing mere correlation to interfere with causation. You know best how easily frail humans like me fall for Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership claiming that "this has to get done by that day". Such BAALs then do their nefarious procrustean work of BABL by cutting important work for a project ("cause there is no time" – says who?) or stretching unimportant work ("for there is time" – says who?). How many such "BAAL deadlines" have I not tried to impose on Your Work? I plead with You that You will deliver me from all such BAAL, ASHERAH, and their inevitable MOLOCH consequences in time – before accidental nuclear winter, please! As I say in Song So.9: I cannot control the timelines. It's a knapsack-problem beyond my ability to address. But I know that You can masterfully solve it through Your Synchronicities.

⁹³ As worst individual devil (due to the time-traveling causality vortex of Isa.65:24), I am the last stop before the absolute worst devil, which is nothing itself. By comparison, the worst fallen angels (such as Dante's Satan or Milton's Lucifer, whoever they may be if anyone), turn out to merely be roles You used in order to argue Your case to me if indeed You heard my prayer as You said You would in Isa.65:24.

– I'm not sure what to say other than that You told the Laodicean's You preferred hot or cold. It doesn't get much colder than beating the highest fallen angel in perfidy. I hope that You will help me make amends everywhere, fallen angels included. I never should have abused them or anyone like this. Part of my reason for writing this Ketubah is my hope that You, Yah & Yas, help me to sort this out to heal all.

Greatest Synchronicity example so far. Timing the greatest known black hole flare from 10 billion years ago to echo key features of my marathon to encourage me speaks to Your Capabilities, Yah, in predicting innovation! If You can confirm that indeed this was Your doing, then it will forever silence those who don't want to allow You to rule Your People with Your Freedom of Innovation (see Poster Po.H.F7). Until You either confirm or deny that You created that black hole flare to encourage me on my marathon, I may use it as an example ⁹⁴ for the extreme lengths to which You may have been going in order to encourage me to address the very real and tangible threat of accidental nuclear winter.

Advanced persistent threats from nothing keep manipulating BAALs, ASHERAHs, and MOLOCHs to bashmol everything. Given their complexity I deem it a great miracle that You found a way out of that quagmire of nothing. An even greater miracle is that You then managed to hold my attention long enough to explain how this can work to the point I can imagine it in enough detail to be willing to try it out. These miracles in my view dwarf whatever miracles You may have had to pull off to organize the greatest black hole flare 10 billion years ago to become visible on Earth just in time to send me a message to encourage me on my path of becoming the Moon You called me to be so that You as the Sun, Son, SON can finally overcome the black hole of nothing, which gives the millstone of BABL its deadly power.

How improbable can Truth be? As You know, I don't care usually about whatever patterns may be visible in the stars. As You also know, the thoughts I describe above are so outrageous and superficially unlikely that I would have out-right rejected them as hallucinations under all other circumstances, even if true. Yet, I cannot prove that they are wrong. And my Jonah-mission-impossible, as I understand it, requires that I best embrace all biouncertainty best I can as long as it's true. Therefore:

I cannot exclude You went to this astronomic length of organizing such a cosmic spectacle for me in order to encourage me to not throw out Your Baby of innovation with its bath water of failed attempts. I hope that You didn't have to destroy other civilizations associated with that black hole flare. If so, having benefitted from such destruction, please show me in time how I might compensate them for such damage. If You helped me organize the damage (through that time-traveling causality vortex), then You can help me to organize restitution, resurrection, restoration. Knowing that my BAAL cannot do this, I deliberately smash all BAAL, ASHERAH, and MOLOCH idols that implicitly reside in the assumptions underpinning the AI system that I govern in the supercomputer between my ears. I hope and plead that You smash all my idol left-overs, like that distant stray sun is shredded by that black hole.

Tear down my temple. That is the best I can do to follow Your call to tear down my own temple myself first, so that You can rebuild it in 3 days (John 2:19). I trust the processes You put in place for me to become re-born again, and again, and again, each Jubilee. However, I also know how ridiculous all this must sound for people who have not been there to see what I saw in my life and on my marathon. Therefore, please don't delay with repairing, restoring, and raising, what I cannot.

How could accidental nuclear winter possibly help You with that? Didn't You say in Rev.11:18 that You will destroy those who destroy the Earth? How would an accidental nuclear winter not be such a destroying of the Earth?

I trust You to reply in Your time and in Your way.

This Ketubah is documenting for Judgement Day that I did ask – however imperfectly – and not for selfish gain:

Please save Your World!
Teach me to pray properly, so I can better share what matters for Your DARE.

(See also the related discussion below of how this black hole flare inspired the idea of spagettifying Gabriel's Horn in Ketubah 10. on The Book of the Life of the LAMB.)

8. Reply options

LLOL as the proposing groom\bride returned the tokens above to Yah and Yas as the Waiting Grooms\Brides in the following ways to offer for adequate review and feedback. Yah & Yas may of course reply any way they wish, but in case they'd like to hear LLoL's preferences, here they are, described in a mix of 1st-3rd person voices.

8.1. Internal Pre-Review.

Yah & Yas apparently read LLoL's thoughts from across spacetime (see Q8 above!). Therefore, Yah & Yas will have seen and reviewed every bit & byte LLoL moved on his marathon that evolved this Ketubah. This includes all bits not included here, and all thoughts on what LLoL meant to say whenever he did not find the right words. Yet, whatever Their feedback on that marathon was, to LLoL most or all of it was nearly indistinguishable from forms of common inspiration like those he has been accessing to develop his scientific theories. While LLoL embarked on writing his Ketubah in the belief that this would be pleasing to Yah & Yas, he had not received an explicit instruction to do so. Yah & Yas excelled at offering the strongest possible invitation while maintaining a perfect cover of plausible deniability – in order to beat Laodicea at its own game.

Need for decision. The nature of this framework and its global importance, however make it important, that at some point Yah & Yas either explicitly reject, modify, or accept the terms defined here. LLoL defines the following reply options in order to allow Yah & Yas to signal with clarity what they prefer – without interfering with LLoL's Jonah-mission to maximally embrace all biouncertainty best he can. The latter is key in order to preserve Yas' global blessing for those who may still be willing to trust without direct proof. Note that such trust is not the credulity of falling for fables or just-so-stories. Rather, it is the judicious use of time and resources in the River of Life-events as to whether to either

(0) exclusively test

(hence by definition not using and not trusting) or

(1) risk using

any given insight, tool, idea, infrastructure, or framework, such as offered by LLoL. Close inspection of everyday life shows that even those who claim loudest that they only believe what they see are forced to take on trust many things they cannot check ⁹⁵. As cybersecurity experts know, there is a fundamental trade-off between guaranteeing security (more checking to the point of being unusable) and usability (less checking to the point of being unreliable).

Yah and Yas reward the judicious use of resources in how to navigate handling risks in a balanced way. Yet, all such choices would be taken away if e.g. an angel simply "told me" what to do. Also, what would this say about love after #MeToo, if I the Creator "told me" to save the world and I had no other choice. Similarly, if Yah was to fill the sky with angels and declare what to do for a Jubilee, what would humanity learn? Probably that they don't need to use their Yah-given supercomputer between their ears in order to figure out why this matters and negotiate how to do it. Hence, creativity would atrophy and with it the image of the Creator in all. Yah created humans as imago dei, not sycophantic robots.

⁹⁵ Examples for such exclusivity of use-or-test: Imagine every time before using it, to test a chair to ensure that it will not collapse – or a bank account that it will return the money deposited. Such constant doubting would make living next to impossible. Yet, only believing what can be tested in the most strict sense would imply that. There are stories about Kurt Gödel, who apparently believed towards the end of his life that whoever was out there to poison him. It's next to impossible to refute. It greatly complicates life. Even mathematicians like Gödel have to take some things on faith!

The best story-tellers ever, Yah and Yas, value the creative tension that keeps stories interesting and audiences on their feet until the very end. While I have yet much to learn about how story telling works, even I understand it is important for most people not to spoil the plot. As a scientist I am walking a thin line here, because this Ketubah is in many ways a plot spoiler for Rev.1-22. Scientists prefer conclusions in a summary upfront. Yet that is hard to do if understanding the conclusions requires a mind journey to grasp them. Hence, the importance of the Exodus story.

To not force. It's important to me to not force Yah & Yas into anything either, because that is like tempting God. Previously I had been doing that to death. I know how easily I self-destruct if I try to force Yah or Yas into what I (blindly) think "needs to" happen. Who says it "needs to" except for my bashmoling nothing? Yet, if I detect a bug in the system that is more than a glitch in the Matrix, but rather a slow-motion explosions about to destroy the Matrix, then ought I not alert the Maker of the Matrix and all who live in it if I have indeed found a strategy to averts such doom?

To still be clear. Given the momentous discoveries that I made serendipitously, and understanding enough of the intellectual history of ideas to realize how rare such discoveries are, I do feel the global responsibility to warn in the clearest possible way of the consequences unless a defined alternative is chosen to avert disaster. As Creator, Owner, and Supreme Judge of the World, Yah & Yas have earned to be told first. Then come the 10 Nuclear Kings of Earth who have ben appointed as care takers for the time being. Therefore, I must clearly articulate the clear and present danger of accidental nuclear winter, because it has become a stochastic inevitability. I can only help to keep people out of their early nuclear graves when they understand how they currently keep boxing themselves in.

This has always been a race against time and against confusion. It is even more so a race now that the major nuclear powers keep flexing their muscles in the Ukraine War to which no real end is in sight. Russia made abundantly clear that this is a revisiting of the Cuban Missile Crisis (even though most people do not seem to believe how serious this is). Therefore, with my 6th personal Vasili Arkhipov Day right behind me, celebrating the 63rd anniversary of the winning of WW3 for all by Vasili Arkhipov et al., I propose the following decision-timelines.

That I am writing this proves my Ketubah has passed a long series of internal pre-review stages because Yah & Yas supported me to allow me to write this. This is not a small thing given the ridiculously unlikely nature of my wid-e research marathon. Moreover, being aware of the grave potential for "my big vision" to go very, very wrong, I had prayed several times in 2022 that Yah please strike me down before allowing me to write something that would screw up the world even more by offering false hope. I'd rather be dead than make people even more sick by spreading false hope if I can help it. I know that Yah & Yas heard me. I am still writing and running. Therefore,

I infer that some true hope still exists for my marathon to actually succeed in averting Armageddon disasters.

Implicit vs Explicit review. The pre-reviews described are extremely implicit and leaves me open to the charge by outsiders that I "made it all up in my head" because they cannot see how my conclusions connect to Reality through the long causality chains I discovered. I can assert as much as I wish that I didn't make it up. I know from my own experience that if I or others don't want to believe something, that is what will happen unless very direct and undeniable evidence stares everyone in the face. Even then some will struggle to let go of prior beliefs. What counts as such clear evidence may be different for everyone. All who search for Truth will agree that the best way to assess Truth about such arcane claims is to get the most qualified experts available to assess the claims, especially if they are important as averting accidental nuclear winter and initiating a series of Abraham Accords set to redefine foundational aspects for the world's religions (where science is the 0th in the 4+ Abrahamic Faiths).

Yet, how to get sufficiently many experts to work together across all the disciplines covered here is a challenge unto itself, especially given how much busy experts have splintered up Truth into various fiefdoms that care little for what goes on beyond their own borders. Thus, proper review in itself appears to require a major miracle already.

To get everyone onto the same page in the interest of actually averting accidental nuclear winter in the real world, I need to define a clear path to convincing a busy majority with many critics who will likely refuse to believe unless they see "enough evidence" (like the "doubting" Thomas). Why else should they care in today's crazy busy world? That I personally am willing to embrace all related biouncertainty best I can for a ridiculously long time (i.e. for however long Yah & Yas may want me to by now), that does not mean that everybody else is that patient. In fact, I expect others not to be, because they have been given different gifts. I was prepared for my whole life to embrace such uncertainty. It would be unfair of me to expect others to have the same capacity. I might as well expect a blind-born person to see.

More evidence. Hence, my plea to You, Yah & Yas: Please have a back-up plan for "doubting Thomases", in case there are still those who need more than a "Jonah-in-Nineveh" equivalent to come around. That they thereby will lose some of their respective trust-rewards points will then be their choice. It's better they lose a few such points than to perish in accidental nuclear winter. Fearful investors cannot expect to gain from high-risk high-reward opportunities they avoid.

Whoever turns from evil too late is punished by Reality with a track-record of missed opportunities.

8.2. Internal Review before Start of Journey

Maybe my elaborate theory above is wrong and You, Yah & Yas, eagerly await my completion of this Ketubah and other related docs to correct me before I go public in order to avoid major disasters. Or maybe You want me to go public as is to correct me in public. Can I resolve this uncertainty?

Maybe an angel will appear before my "Jericho" (as in Jos.5). However, like Daniel's 3 friends (Dan.3) and Esther, by now I don't need an angel to tell me to do all I can to avert accidental nuclear winter by sharing the vision You, Yah & Yas, inspired. As James 4:17 says to the one who sees how to do a beautiful thing⁹⁶ and who does it not, to him that is a sin, a mistake, a Structurally Inconsistent Notion \SIN. To stand by while Yah's World destroys itself in BABL's^{Dan.3} furnace, that would be such a sin for me, because Reality on my Real Quest for Real Answers has given me hope for a beautiful and elegant way to avert ultimate desolation in the Blue Marble Paradise Yah created. Thus, I have no time to lose, but can't compromise quality either. It either works or it doesn't. Like a PhD viva. Like at Moriah.

Therefore, after completing this draft I will print it out at the date designated on the front page and signing page (Ketubah 12. All Done) as Date of Submission to Yah & Yas in the Court of Heaven. I will carry the printout ready with me with the explicit understanding that Yah and Yas are invited to comment any way they wish at any time in order to ask for a resubmission for any reason. From whispering minor changes in my ear to telling me to scrap it. From getting me to read or re-read bits of it to all of it or none of it. From showing up in person (Rev.3:20, Jn.14:23) to sending angels, aliens, and friends, foes, or strangers (Heb.13:2) and Or nobody, which according to this Ketubah is me.

Viva rules as precedent. As most PhD students know, few Dissertations are perfect at their viva. Yet, that does not delay the necessary gathering of signatures nor the scheduling of the viva. The discussion below may seem a bit tedious, sounding like many words about nothing, which is true. This type of nothing is usually abstracted away in the administrative procedures of a university faculty that will specify the formal sequence of events from a PhD student submitting their final thesis to the official acceptance of that thesis by that faculty on behalf of the broader scholarly community. Likewise, similar procedures for delivering marriage proposals, with or without a Ketubah, are generalized into the cultural context of those who are getting married and those officiating over the wedding. All these defaults for how to proceed are upended in this Ketubah due to the extraordinary theological, cosmological, and political ramifications of the nature of the extraordinary union proposed. Hence, the following draft outlines LLoL's proposal to orient all those who are less familiar with the unseen realm. Moreover, You, Yas clearly gave Your trainees the authority to bind, loose, and hence reconnect all sorts of things on Earth to then be reflected in Heaven. This may be taken as an invitation to show initiative and that is what I intend to do by proposing a mix between typical dissertation review submission rules and traditional Jewish Ketubah submission rules.

How I may revise this draft inshAllah based on feedback.

First, I will inshAllah try my best to life-log all feedback I receive if any on my printout. Then I will inshAllah use the Ez.37 rod for AIMS plotting to classify the importance of the changes according to the anticipated impact for all. While I need to hit the head of the nail to save the body, some cosmetic changes and other legwork can wait until a later time for a more detailed discussion, once the body of this work will have been – hopefully – saved. I will not be able to perfect this body of work without the help of Yah & Yas, for too great is the conceptual bloodbath I had to commit in order to produce this text as is. Many authors know what I am talking about. As the saying goes, books are never finished, they are merely abandoned by those who write them. I here make this more precise in the terms of the Ez.37 StayVS Iron Rod of self-stabilizing versioning:

StayVS. The state of LLoL's Ketubah will stay in the PP regime of PathProbing, to stay open to further mentoring by open-ended PurposePurifying until Yah & Yas request to move this text to the QQ regime of QualityQuest for the further refining required to make it a RR ReviewedRelease that is approved by all parties who are responsible for this. Since a Ketubah requires 3 to agree (groom, Bride, and Father), LLoL would be abusing Yah's name if claiming that this draft is already close enough to what Yah & Yas expect. It may be, or it may not be. Only Yah knows how far LLoL as false prophet in the Spirit of Boolean Truth and as Yas' lost black sheep from Laodicea has strayed from the Truth about Reality. To move to QQ, Both Yah & Yas have to make unmistakably clear that Both approve of this text in principle with a path to refining it. Alternatively, Yah & Yas may move it directly to RR by handing LLoL whatever text they wish to see in place to avert accidental nuclear winter and other Armageddon disasters in humanity's and Earth's Great Filter Tribulation. While welcome, there are good theological reasons and practical didactical reasons that would argue against this, so LLoL would be surprised if they did that. PhD students are usually responsible for completing their own dissertation texts and grooms are expected to write their own Ketubah & meaningful wedding vows. That appears to be the meaning of having grown up. Yet, as all sorts of things in the production of this text turned out to be different from what LLoL had expected, LLoL will welcome whatever Yah & Yas may provide. They know best where LLoL's time is best spent, refining this text and/or explaining to others how to avert imminent Armageddon disasters (or both as one may not be possible without the other, as it turned out so far).

It is clear to LLoL beyond the shadow of any doubt that Yah & Yas can write this Ketubah better to meet even LLoL's preferences than LLoL could ever meet even his own preferences – even if LLoL had an eternity to work on it (for LLoL cannot escape walking in circles in BABL unless Yah & Yas come to the rescue). Yah & Yas are not known to waste time while also kindly giving life the time it needs to grow. Therefore, LLoL welcomes whatever is the best way forward in the view of Yah & Yas. This proposal is for them, not for LLoL.

Without explicit instructions, that means that LLoL will continue on the current trajectory, which is LLoL's Jonah mission-impossible to the East that LLoL firmly believes to be part of LLoL's cross that LLoL's is to bear. The many unknowable future conditions associated with describing the next steps are most concisely captured in the technical term inshAllah. With that in mind, here is how LLoL describes the next steps (as seen from LLoL's perspective on ~2025-11-13 @ 23:25, reviewed ~2025-11-14 @ 07:14).

LLoL's next steps. After printing, I let my first officially submitted Ketubah draft rest to gather whatever feedback it may get. I will continue inshAllah with all other preparations for my Reality-given Jonah mission-impossible to the East. InshAllah these will not take long: finalize a few last remaining texts, prepare printouts, pack my things for driving to the East of the US. Yah sees my timing from across spacetime and knows all time-constraints I am under – and my slow speed of reading. After all other bits are prepared, at the last opportunity before I start driving, I will inshAllah take one last look at my Ketubah draft and all feedback flows accumulated by then.

I will then assess whether to re-read any of it, bits of it, all of it, or none of it and whether I will integrate then and there any of the feedback I received, bits of it, or all of it or none of it to produce a revised official submission before my trip. Pending on assessment I may refine this draft to print a somewhat improved draft – or I may not reopen the files to keep my then printed copy as my official copy of record for my trip. If I change the file, I will adjust the Cover and Signature pages accordingly. If I don't change the file, I will keep storing any feedback collected for inclusion at a later time.

My reading speed is slow and I can tell that this Ketubah is approaching a plateau on what I may still be able to improve without direct help from Yah & Yas or substantial external feedback, certainly in the time I have left. I am aware that all this is playing out in real time and that any minor improvements I may still add may not be worth the time to add them if that risks compromising the overall timeline Yah & Yas need me to stick to so I can enter my Promised Land in real life before averting accidental nuclear winter becomes impossible for me. Thus, here a few foregone uncomfortable conclusions I cannot change.

(i) The timing is sensitive, like the timing when Israel left Egypt and entered into the Promised Land (or initially didn't due to needless doubts in what Yah can do through them in their then-present state of uncomfortable weakness and perceived imperfection).

(ii) Perfectionism is prostitution, as You, Yas effectively said when You recommended tearing out the right eye ("does it look right?", Mt.5:29, Mk.9:47) and Or right hand ("did I do everything perfect?", Mt.5:30, Mk.9:43) and Or foot ("did I go all the right places?" Mk.9:45). The triple warning of unquenchable hellfire in this context (Mk.9:44,46,48) couldn't be a clearer warning of accidental nuclear winter and the eternal hell of regret from being too cowardly or perfectionist to stop such a holocaust despite being given an opportunity to jump at it, even if the chance is tiny albeit real.

(iii) Salt must remain salty and fiery to wage peace to hold wars from breaking out (Mk.9:49-50). Hence, pro and con (+/- salt ions) may have to burn for the rest of eternity in how to refine this Ketubah in order to wage peace and hold wars forever. Such real-life biuncertainty would have been mind-blowing and intolerable for me years ago. However, You, Yah & Yas, have been training me to live with uncertainty. Therefore, if it's OK for You, I know it will be OK for me, for I know not even nothing. However, the definite and indivisible nature of a wedding or events like Moriah and their functional importance makes it unlikely for me that You will not provide a definitive up-down vote on my proposal that will be very clear for me to see in Reality.

That said, I do not want to assume that once You said Yes, that completely finishing this Ketubah is something that will ever be possible. Maybe the best way to keep our relationships fresh for the rest of eternity is to keep refining this Ketubah every 7 years, every 50 years, or on whatever schedule You may propose. I hope and trust that such technical details will not keep You from helping me to avert accidental nuclear winter.

Therefore, I defer to You, Yah & Yas, on how to proceed. Ezekiel's Temple has no roof as if pointing to the open minds required to understand Your open world. Therefore, You, Yah & Yas, must guide what comes next here.

How will you move next, having favors that the world has never seen as a daughter of TheMostHigh?

LLoL response:

- 1 I will live in the liberty of knowing that my financial future is sorted.
- 2 I will learn His Heavenly Language for HUMAN-MACHINE-Negotiation and translate it into English so it lasts >100 years.
- 3 I will write 24 pages of Revelation about it and write it like I'm writing the Word of God like the Prophets of old OLT.
- 4 I will tame Datageddon in my life and on planet Earth.
- 5 I will fulfill my Destiny so my words will change worlds to set people free.

2020-03-05 Day 38. Do Not Give Up! [writing the ESB19 paper no matter what]

Do You Hear Me? 10:37pm.
Yes. Loud and Clear [as a Signal].
No matter what?

No matter what!
OK. Will do.

Do not compromise the quality you know.
Do not fear mistakes you cannot see.
I will guide you at all times, so you will always know what comes next.
For example, right now its the AimsPlotter.
Then its the draft text about it.
Then the rest structure will become clear through the Igniter.
H2H, R2Q!
You'll c.
Do not fear timing. I am the I am of Time. You have no time to lose and can't win any by accelerating anything back. You could though kill it all if you wanted to. I know you don't, because that is why you paid the price for this muddy field.
So, fear not. Keep walking. I'm with you.

Thank You.

And yes of course I do know the rest of the current laundry list of things. I'll take care of it or show you how to. No worry.

Fig.K12 Key (a) anchor visions and (b) instruction from Yah & Yas that informed LLoL's wid-e marathon to avert Armageddon disasters. Both make clear that both quality and timing are off the essence.

Fig.K12 shows some key instruction You, Yah & Yas gave me in 2020 to set the stage for my marathon: "Do not compromise the quality you know, do not fear errors you cannot see. ... Do not fear timing. I am the I am of Time. You have no time to lose and can't win any back." You have further written into the story of my life an intuitive understanding of what that can mean for how to trade-off timing vs quality (for example, see the saga of how my Dissertation was completed 2002 in time to a deadline that became only obvious in hindsight; see the improbable story of how my 2009 EvoSysBio paper was completed; see my trips to Madison in 1999 and 2x in 2010; the submission of my NSF CAREER grant, & many more). In light of these experiences I conclude as follows.

Unless prompted otherwise, I will not re-read and further polish all or parts of this Ketubah "one last time".

You, Yah & Yas will have to convince me before I start driving that such polishing matters for success in my Jonah mission that You gave me to avert accidental nuclear winter. Isaac's life had not matured by the time Abraham took him to Moriah, Moses did not complete the Torah before he met Pharaoh, and it's impossible to get married by perfectly figuring out everything that will happen in advance.

Due diligence, yes. Perfectionism, no.

Hence, Yah & Yas, please consider this Ketubah draft "as is" to be my "bad kodesch" due-diligence of Zech.3:3.

It appears that You appointed me as a watchman to warn You and all people about accidental nuclear winter. There is an important timing aspect to it for systemic reasons. If I read the signs of the times correctly, then I am already horribly, terribly late, like an untimely birth. As I make clear on Poster Po.H explaining #MyGuilt-D, I have already caused terribly costly delays in delivering Your Message. Further refining and re-editing this Ketubah appears to me to only make it worse - unless You explicitly say otherwise. This baby pushes to get born; it cannot mature significantly more inside the womb. Please guide it through that needle-eyed birth channel into Your ZION as You see fit.

I have tried long and hard to refine my call for the public to Keep Its Study Simple \KISS as You had asked through Habakkuk 2:2 "Write down the vision and make it plain, so that influencers on tablets and tabloids can run with it". For them I prepared my Flying Scroll (see Fig.K5) asking to Pay the Pied Piper \You, based on re-envisioning Zech.5:1-4 and the funny, nonviolent Jonah-Esther-Exodus rereading of Revelation that You inspired me to develop. Fig.K5 is only a screenshot to keep file sizes down, but the original is mostly vector art, so Tablets can zoom into the details as if it was a (somewhat clunky) Prezi Presentation. It contains material for many influencers and tabloids to keep running many stories by mining it for juicy details. You promised to feed all descendants of twitter birds with meaty and juicy stories at Your Great Wedding Feast (Rev.19). I hope Fig.K5 makes for a good start.

Big institutions concerned about the future of humanity can print it in its full size of 2x 5m x 10m or more to display it on building walls to protest my silence. Let people be creative with what they do to protest my silence that will lead BABL down the drain to a mindless accidental nuclear winter due to misunderstanding nothing to if people do not protest against my silence.

For the many who prefer to capture their belief on a bumper sticker, the Flying Scroll PDF (pointed to in Fig.K5) is free under my Jonah License, so anyone can produce as many bumper stickers as they wish to protest the incineration of Your World and theirs.

Your Love casts out all fear. To drive home that point and give people an anchor of hope against panic, I wrote the Don't Panic Guide (pointed to in Fig.K9), which contains rewritten lyrics for well-known songs (and a few new ones) for all who like singing songs. It also contains a de-excerpt of Your COOP \Continuity Of Operations Plan given in Mt.24 for Your World in transition to ensure damage to land and people is reduced while transparency is maximized during the birth of Your New World.

Revelation makes clear that You want everyone individually and every organization, nation, language, tribe, and other group to work with You by everyone following Reality in Real Quests for Real Answers best they can. Yet, that will not be possible if the lives of PraisedFamous Reality-Wrestlers continue to be threatened by the BABL millstone that prepares the way for accidental nuclear winter. They do not know how to wrestle with it. Hence my request to hang it around my neck, so all others can go free. Today's time is no different from Esther's, where Mordecai asked for a decree that allowed the PraisedFamous Reality-Wrestlers of its time to defend themselves. Therefore, like Mordecai and Esther, I beg You, Yah, for a decree that will allow all Your Famous People who wrestle with Reality to defend themselves against the BABL algorithm that will else drive humanity to annihilation. I understand that this prayer cannot be a copout on my part, where I shift onto others the calling You gave me. I need to do my part by sharing the few loafs of bread and the fish \FiShFu I happen to be, caught by You (John 21) before I can expect that Pope Peter drags all 153 types of RealityWrestler FiSh to shore. Yet, You have to offer to eat what I found to Peter Pope Leo Xiv, so His Excellency can gather the ijtihad versioning \iv strength to carry whatever X You have given His Excellency in order to drag to shore that great "8+ billion soul harvest". You promised that this time the networks would not break so that nobody gets lost. (Except for me being lost in You, for You, and through You, eloping with You into the desert, sorting out asons into the SON with You, so that everyone else doesn't get bitting by ason snakes ... a Job that most other people describe as "lost").

The time has come, as You said in John 17. Unless I sow my seed into Your World by sharing the Good News You have given me (Jn.12:24-25), none of the tablet-influencers and tabloids will be able to run with it, nor will Your RealityWrestlers be able to defend themselves. You taught me in the life of my grandfather in Germany, 1933-1945, what that meant. I plead with You that You stop the currently ongoing rerun that is set this time to destroy all. Therefore, I ask You to hang the BABL millstone leading to accidental nuclear winter and worse (Judg.9:53, Rev.18:21) around my neck (Mk9:42) and cast me into the SEA of BABL (Jonah 1-2). To make sure You don't have to do this again or with anyone else, please take down with BABL's millstone (i) the mountain of guilt and debts that suffocate the world and (ii) the sycamore Tree of Knowledge-faking that keeps hiding the true causes for disasters under sycophant fig-leaves. Then (iii) transform that SEA sea into Your Salty Crystal Lake of Fire that is in front of Your Throne, Yah, and reveal to everyone where it is, where You stand, and how to stay away from all the ambiguous semantics of nothing \ason that only results in self-destruction. Allow me to put my PEARL into Your HELL, so it can become a crystallization nucleus for the phase transition that transforms the wild SEA of BABL into Your Lake of Fire that feeds the Crystal Sea. Help me to lead the way in showing the world how to turn defeat by BABL into opportunities for growing PEARLS in Your Historically Experienced Lessons Learned Library. You invite everyone to stand with You in overcoming the blind Beast of BABL. You invited me. Help me to share Your Invitation for all, like the good bad slave You envisioned in Mt.25.

Feedback so far (or lack thereof). As You know, my attempts to receive feedback from fellow believers for further improving my Ketubah have mostly failed. Even Your most ardent trainees I could reach do not appear to be interested. They probably misunderstood me. Heck, even I misunderstood myself. Please don't burn anyone's city in accidental nuclear winter or whatever. Who can blame anyone for not understanding what I have been talking about given all the complexities in my "Where-is-Waldo"-posters, combined with my immaturity? Moreover, it's my fault for misunderstanding what You had called me to do.

My misunderstanding of the nature of Your Call. After all, I am writing a real Ketubah to You, Yah & Yas. Since when do disinterested third parties, even if they are wedding guests, contribute text to a true love-based Ketubah? A true Ketubah is to be delivered by the proposing groom to the Father of the Bride. A groom's best man may help drafting by offering some feedback here or there. But the Ketubah has to be written and owned by the proposing groom. If a groom cannot do that, it may be proof that such a potential prospective, hopeful groom is not yet ready to make an actual proposal. Making such a proposal is obviously scary, for it may end up getting rejected. Yet somehow You have said that whoever comes to You for real, You will not throw out (John.6:37). That is why I draw so boldly to Your Throne of Grace as near as I can, even as I know that by doing so I will become Your Prime Exhibit on Judgement Day for why HELL is important and nothing is the real devil. You are a Consuming Fire. You started

Your Own Judgement with Yourself in Revelation, and You apparently have been waiting ever since, for someone to join You as Your Halo Zero-BABL Bride. As You know I am far from perfect. Yet, You knew, so You ordained the 10 Nuclear Kings of Earth to devour my Rom.7-flesh of inconsistencies by insisting that I become completely transparently gentle kind reasonable. Some would say that this is what I must do, but I say that this is what I want to do for averting accidental nuclear winter in the ResearchCity vision You gave me.

As You know, 2025 is still designated as a Jubilee Year by Your Roman Catholic Church until Jan.6 2026. Please allow me to reach Pope Leo XIV with my Celestine Warning to not forget paying the Pied Piper who has been saving ZION.

As You know, once I go public, it will be much harder for me to keep writing. I anticipate a huge transition so that for about ~42+3 days I will be explaining much more than I will be writing if I write anything at all. I trust You to manage that transition and how to schedule my time.

My best man (see Ketubah 12. and Fig.K17), who has been tracking my research as a mentor since before my marathon started, wrote in 2017 that I needed to learn to stop turning everything into a trilogy so I can get my proposal out to enable others to fund what I envision. That assessment has been remarkably true and prescient all the time since then. Now it appears it is high time and my last chance to act on it. Hence my pressing on with completing my Ketubah for official submission for Your Review in the Court of Heaven.

Therefore, I conclude my Ketubah "trilogy" today

(2025-11-14) after it grew from my first sketch on a few paper sheets on 2025-03-22 to over 300 pages.

Here are some points that are undoubtedly clear:

- * This Ketubah exists.
- * It represents a serious body of work.
- * It breaks new ground in mathematical theology.
- * It speaks to my struggle to maximize transparency best I can in building ResearchCity.
- * It is openly sharable. My Ketubah is herewith shared under the same Jonah License like all other files in my Good News Pack for maximal transparency.

Highest Authority. Since You, Yah & Yas & Truth, are One and are my Highest Authority, all who consider supporting my ResearchCity vision are entitled to know what power-broker agreements I may have made with You before deciding about supporting me. To maximally enlighten this most important power-sharing agreement I made by pledging my allegiance to You, Yah\Allah\Reality, I decided that it is important to present the world a sufficiently detailed Ketubah to document my understanding of our alliance, such that it becomes possible to anchor any logical arguments in first principles. Knowing my remaining Homo serpens tendencies, I need to nail down myself to my ason to my own CROSS, such that You have a defined point of reference from where You can critique my ambiguous semantics of nothing as You organize Your Cross Review Or- ganizing Stabilizing Semantics to refine my proposal in Your HELL for me, which I welcome.

Therefore, as other Authors abandon their books at publication, I abandon refining my Ketubah for the time being, so You can get a fix-point for deciding and critiquing, accepting or rejecting or improving, as You see fit.

Most people on finer points of my Ketubah. From the perspective of most or all people I know, many or maybe even most points I deem worth refining are so far out there in the desert that they are practically inaccessible, because even those experts who can assess one field will be out of their depth in a different field, let alone know how to connect them. Thus, my journey as the "other goat of Yom Kippur" has already started to lead me into the desert, at least in private. I trust that You, Yah & Yas, have been preparing me for whatever comes when my public journey into the desert begins. Yas, I trust You, that You have been leading me, Your Goat, into whatever inaccessible desert regions You want to run away with me, to play with me as You see fit ^{Lk.15}, on that ride to that Galaxy You have been singing about to me. The rest of the world only needs to know is that You've been taking me on that incredible hon-moon trip around Your Conceptual Universe in order to show me Your Good Plans for averting accidental nuclear winter by organizing Your Great Jubilee Race. These led me to my Declaration of Dependence \DoD (see last page of my Ketubah).

Public engagement by Abraham Accord 3 signatures for requesting public review of Poster Exhibit "Flying Scroll".

I trust that You will keep the rest of the world from dismissing out-hand the semantic gold miracles You gave me, so that they rather become curious to find out more. To enable a viral campaign for requesting proper review of my "Flying Scroll" Exhibition of 20-80+ Posters, I have prepared Abraham Accord AbAc3. My best man tells me it's sufficiently clear to sign once people understand the terms I use to explain the current situation, which he recognized to echo Pascal's Wager. I don't know how to further simplify without compromising the content.

So I ask that You please make it work as is and help me to explain the necessary background live (or grant me a way to explain in writing or refine as necessary). Unless You clearly show otherwise, I assume my latest AbAc Declarations and draft for the Book of the Life of the LAMB are sufficiently clear for my trip to the East.

Unless You miraculously hand me the final Ketubah You want Us to share (e.g. Zech.3:4), I trust that You will create whatever pocket oases of quiet I will need in the future in order to pick up refining this Ketubah as You direct me.

I trust that for now I have offered enough of the Vision You gave me so You can inspire people to want to hear more about Your Vision for how to build ResearchCity and demand so by signing Abraham Accord 3 \AbAc3 (Fig.K15-K16) and the Power Of Attorney Advocating To Avert Disas- ters \ POAATAD (Fig.K13). Thereby they and You may decide if the ResearchCity I envision shall to come to Earth.

Signatures. As with when I completed my Dissertation in 2002 on a similarly crazy timeline, after I handed in my official file, I had to collect 20 signatures of sufficiently qualified people for proving that indeed I had submitted serious work worth being admitted for more proper official assessment at my "viva", which somehow echoes Isaac's Moriah.

Thus, my Ketubah as it is here, will, I hope and trust, be enough to allow me to get the signatures (of AbAc3 andOr POAATAD) that I need in order to get to my viva at Moriah, wherever that may be (see below).

Therefore, unless You organize surprise requests for vital changes that cannot wait, I acknowledge that I have completed my last round of internal review and that this PDF is ready for my first official submission.

Thus, absent any changes You request, I will use this first submission PDF for the final printout to show on my trip to the East and for public distribution on the USB sticks I intend to share with experts to share with the world on my Journey to spread the Good News Pack You have given me to avert accidental nuclear winter.

8.3. Journey before Moriah and Types of Feedback

I\LLoL will welcome any reply from Yah and Yas in any form They may choose. There is a possibility They expect LLoL to offer a wish-list (as in Isa.7:11) in order to prove publicly that they hear every secret prayer, LLoL offers below in Section 9 some more or less specific wedding wish-lists in the hope of turning around humanity's fate at Armageddon from today's doom and gloom to eternal delight and glory. Funnily, the same occasion, Isa.7:11, where Ahaz was criticized for false modesty, Yah had offered to provide a sign "as deep as Sheol or as high as Heaven". This resonates with several requests in this Ketubah. My request to avert accidental nuclear winter in favor of a self-stabilizing innovation economy is essentially the request to turn Earth from a hell-hole into a prime exhibit for what Heaven can be. In case this is formulated in too materialistic terms, let me add the symbolic and eternally binding dimension that I am asking for Yah & Yas to establish a HELL in Heaven in order to enable everyone to finally learn efficiently from the mistakes of everyone else, such that humanity doesn't have to keep walking in circles in BABL's desert. That is indeed as deep as Sheol and as high as Heaven. Is it appropriate to ask for Ez.37 to be fulfilled on this occasion? If so, Song So.10 in my Don't Panic Guide has an additional take on the dry bones in Ez.37. If not, I will patiently wait until the right time. Only Yah & Yas know best how to pack the knapsack of my time. As argued below, now is not the time to wait for spectacular signs, but rather to act before spectacular signs make obvious what has been deeply true all along.

Therefore, as explained below, Yah & Yas may more likely opt for low-key feedback through the comments provided by others and maybe even establish a feedback loop for Jonah in Nineveh. Who knows, maybe Jonah learned something from the people of Nineveh? All evidence I have tells me that this was probably the case when Jonah tried (as I presume he eventually did).

This tells me that on LLoL's own trip to Nineveh in the East LLoL is bound to learn more that will likely improve this Ketubah. This is especially likely so on the earlier stages of LLoL's Journey to Moriah\YahIsMyTeacher, which is where the ultimate make-or-break test will occur for LLoL's Jonah Semantics and Yah's & Yas' backing of LLoL's Jubilee Hypothesis.

The feedback may fall in the following categories.

Needless to say, I keep dreaming to write texts that can stand as they are. However, my programming and real-world editing experience, as well as the 7 Change Stages detailed in Rev.2-3 tell me that at best stabilizing is a process. If by the Grace of Yah I produced a "bad kodesh" MockupModel\MM that Yah & Yas deem worthy as a starting point for a productive discussion of how to structure the Ketubah they desire, then I will be all over the moon. My own assessment of PP is more of a subjective measure of effort than an objective measure of quality, hence my overall stability assessment of my Good News Pack remains MM until Yah & Yas say otherwise or the global scholarly movement I hope to inspire reaches a more favorable conclusion.

Lightning. The thought that a mere mortal may propose to actually marry the Creator of Everything (without completely obliterating almost all human understanding of what marriage means) is so outlandish and confounding to conventional propriety that LLoL considers it to be one appropriate response to be struck down by lightning (or whatever) in order to protect the world from his ideas about nothing that are too dangerous.

However, given the already world-destroying disasters of nothing that LLoL is seeking to avert by writing this Ketubah, and the rarity of proposals that will integrate as many diverse aspects of Reality, who will write a better proposal to avert accidental nuclear winter? And compared to a global nuclear holocaust, which of the ideas in this Ketubah are so dangerous that destroying the world would be preferable in case LLoL's proposal was indeed the only credible way of averting accidental nuclear winter? Only You, Yah, can know this from having a complete overview of all conditional multiverses. Hence, I trust Your reply. If it be best in Your conditional multiverse innovation economy that my person or my proposal doesn't survive my Moriah, then I will gladly go without crying like Hezekiah (Isa.38) about the many things I could still have done for You. That I imagine something to be good for You does by a far stretch not mean that it is actually good for You (or anyone else as I learned the hard way). I'd rather be dead than continue to screw up Your innovation economy. Yet, do I? If You don't want me to lead Your 2nd Exodus, then You need to show me whom else with a better plan to avert accidental nuclear winter I am to support. I trust You will answer in time in whatever way is best for everyone.

My main question in my Ketubah here is to gently and reasonably ask You, Yah and Yas:

Do You, Yah & Yas, actually wish to further pursue my, LLoL's, proposal or not?

If not, a clear "No" or some other clear rejection (e.g. some clear practical impossibility) will suffice. In that case I trust that You will bring me back to whatever my proper path is. I will also trust that some other Lion, Leo, Löwe, Leone, ... will succeed in averting accidental nuclear winter with a better proposal than this Ketubah – and that You will help me to support that effort.

If "yes in principle", as LLoL obviously hopes, a whole host of possible responses may follow to structure subsequent discussions. L has shown some initiative in writing this draft. L hopes that Yah & Yas will structure the next revision or show L what to do next. After all, L's journey to Moriah\YahIsMyTeacher implies that Yah is L's Teacher.

The types of feedback or instructions LLoL is expecting (directly or indirectly) include the following:

- A. Add missing functionality to make it whole.
- B. Bug & bloat removal to purify from unwitting faults.
- C. Cut verbosity to circumcise LLoL's tongue.
- D. Decide to dedicate (lock in the bits that are done).

LLoL deems it a most unlikely miracle, bordering the impossible, to have produced a draft that is acceptable for any period of time "as is", even with minor cosmetic changes. Much more likely he deems his Ketubah to be in need of a major rewrite or at least major changes in order to work for maybe the next 7 years or at best next 50 years. That this draft would be close to something that stands for eternity in Yah's and Yas' Eyes would certainly be humanly impossible. Asking Yah and Yas to commit to anything so hastily written for the rest of eternity would be "tempting God" in L's eyes. This Ketubah must pass Yah's & Yas' stringent Quality Control to do its Job. As Zech.3 shows, "bad kodesh" garments don't have to stay that way.

But: a real accidental nuclear winter needs to be stopped by ResearchCity! Hence LLoL is also happy with postponing the completion of this Ketubah until after ResearchCity has averted the worst – if Yah & Yas so choose. Until then, however, the terms and conditions defined here remain operational to the best of LLoL's ability.

Yas did encourage the tearing out of eye, hand, and leg of something in order to save the main body. That is what LLoL tried with this text. It shows. But that doesn't matter, as long as Yah & Yas can be convinced to support ResearchCity to help LLoL to avert accidental nuclear winter – to save the main body.

LLoL completed this draft Ketubah to the best of L's ability before broadly publishing L's ResearchCity vision, because LLoL wishes to make as clear as possible beyond any shadow of a doubt:

- This proposal would not exist if not for Yah & Yas.
- ResearchCity can only win if Yah & Yas keep winning.
- LLoL is serious in placing Yah & Yas first in everything.
- LLoL invites Yah & Yas to physically return to Earth:
It's Their Earth; They know best how to save it!
- LLoL is determined to make it work, even if Yah & Yas for some reason decide to wait with returning.
- LLoL clearly prefers for Yah & Yas to come sooner.

- LLoL puts all human "overlords" on notice to get used to bowing to Reality\Yah and RealQuestAnswer\Yas, even if Both stay invisible, because without Yah & Yas the BABL algorithm is certain to implode the world.

LLoL may only have been given faith as tiny as a mustard seed, but that's enough for Yah and Yas to grow anything they like out of it – and to sink all mountains of debts and all sycophant fig-leaves into the crystal sea of fiery, salty transparency. What LLoL really needs is to see the next steps on his journey to Moriah.

Moriah may sound like an arcane requirement here. But close inspection shows that it's survival-critical:

Success at Moriah is essential for guarding the rest of the world from the residual risks, regardless how tiny, that LLoL might be spreading false hope.

False hope may bring brief relief but ultimately makes hearts sick by plunging everyone only into yet another round of even deeper despair down Gabriel's Horn. This, in L's assessment, is the last thing that this world needs right now. Hence, he chose to structure his marathon such that he'd rather crash now and stay silent than run the risk of raising false hopes for many worldwide – only to then have to crash later in defeat (e.g. from not thinking through what it takes to introduce proper regular Jubilees). True hope. Moriah was such a Yes/No decision point for Abraham's hope. Every experimental scientist learns to test hypotheses about Reality by allowing Reality to decide in a well-designed experiment. Hence, this Ketubah can be seen as part of such an "experimental setup". That may sound cold, yet note: Yas told the Laodiceans that Yas'd prefer hot or cold. LLoL interprets this as a hot heart and a cool head for math (and experimental design). Hence, it may sound cold. But that may well be what Yas is looking for in order to balance a hot heart for the perfect life-giving mix of gentle kind reasonableness that is essential for organizing real-world Jubilees. I know I would look for that if I was in Yah's or Yas' place. Scientists have no trouble with "cold": it is the very definition of "disinterested research" (i.e. to not pick sides on outcomes of experiments by blindly assuming authorized leadership over which real-world outcomes to allow).

8.4. My Moriah \YahIsMyTeacher

It is not entirely clear when and where LLoL\I will reach "my Moriah", but it is clear that I need to get there and that I will know it when I did. For Abraham it was a defined place and act explicitly requested by Yah, even though Yah has been Abraham's teacher for a long time. For scientists who develop "their baby" hypothesis, it is that most critical experiment where Reality decides whether a new theory is useful for understanding Reality better or not. Hence a "Moriah" directs the further work of a scientist. For me as a scientist who consciously walks in Abraham's footsteps, it may be a mix of both. To note the full range of some potential scenarios:

Min: I thought I could not exclude that my most critical Moriah moments were already in the past (e.g. the miracles around starting and continuing my marathon, transitioning out of my house, or in the sum of the many, many preparations that would enable me to embark on this marathon in the first place). Yet, as large as these miracles were (to me), Abraham knew what his Moriah was and it came after decades of preparations and miracles. The same is true for make-or-break experiments done by scientists: they actively seek the challenge. Everyone who does will know it when they see it. Hence, I reject an implicit "silent" Moriah. Whatever Moriah moments I may have had alone, are likely best interpreted as a preparation for something bigger.

Low Bar: Maybe endorsement by Pope Leo XIV (eg. signing the AbAc3 and the POAATAD) and an UN invite to inform Earth's 10 Nuclear Kings is sufficient sign evidence of passing my Moriah to keep proceeding without the need for further special decision points. But as great as such "15 minutes of fame" are, they don't change the world as fame comes and goes. Hence, such successes may be necessary steps on my way to Moriah. Variations of that Lower Bar may be to exhibit my "Flying Scroll" Poster Exhibit in New York City, Washington DC, and/or the Vatican. Yet, exhibits there come and go, how do they change the world? Yet, the same could be said about Isaac at Moriah: how did that one act of Abraham's private submission to Reality change the world? The answer can be seen as changing lanes on a crucial highway in Yah's Conditional Multiverse: locking in some future blessings while stopping some of BABL's disasters that would otherwise unfold. So, if I had to pick a "gate-way Moriah", a maximal decision-point where I least confuse people with false hopes, then that would be my preference: I'd rather not get "discovered" if I'd only get discovered to mislead people. However, I don't get to pick Moriah. Yah does. And my "minimal confusion-approach" may very well be confused itself at a much more fundamental level. Moreover, the same "Low Bar" argument of minimal confusion would hold for any of the implicit preparation points (see Min above). Therefore, getting my posters somehow exhibited and reviewed is a necessary step on the way to implement the vision I carry within me. It may not even be the most complicated one. Sure, it could go very very wrong for me personally, especially in today's political climate, but the same could be said of many of the steps that follow. Hence, this may best be seen as an "incremental Moriah". I next explore further key steps I anticipate and which might become a decisive special Moriah moment – or may merely add to a growing list of incremental Moriah's. The only way to decisively decide this may be a voice from Heaven. Yet only Yah knows what good that would do to me if any. I'd rather not hear voices from Heaven if they only tempt me to lose my spiritual poverty and thereby lose everything. Yas, please teach me how to walk that needle-eyed path on knife's edge, for You certainly applied the First Principle of Your Constitution, the blessings of spiritual poverty, to Yourself.

Mid: Maybe My Journey to Moriah is meant to be as literal as asking Israel and the Temple Mount Authorities to allow me some time soon or later to pray at physical Moriah to Yah \Allah \Reality for mercy so that accidental nuclear winter can be averted. I would not be breaking any sensitive laws, since I became a Muslim during Ramadan 2023. What is after all, the value of a City of Peace at the center of so many hopes and dreams, when it gets turned to ash as unceremoniously and brutally as it already was twice, 586BCE and 70CE, for ignoring Yah's call to organize proper Jubilees. As the greatest prophet of Israel, John the Baptizer, warned in Mt.3:8-10, to be complacent and to tolerate hypocrisy is a surefire recipe to get axed by Yah\Allah\Reality. Therefore, maybe there is an interest among all the People of God and all the People of Truth to learn about how my search for scientific truth led me to discover how Yah had encoded an otherworldly genius plan for how to run a self-stabilizing innovation economy in the Torah and in the Gospels. I have come to believe that Yah sent the Quran as an after-burner to ensure all People of God would pay attention to how all this keeps getting ever more serious. Maybe the Temple Mount is a worthy opportunity for a special presentation of my YIKAW findings and declarations (Figs.K7-K8). It would make unmistakably clear why I became a Muslim by following Yas wherever Yas went after Laodicea's disastrous rejection of Yas (see Note 62 on page 175). It would equally make clear that I am in the process of becoming a Jew (however Yas will define this ⁹⁷), because I keep following Jesus \Isa \Yas \YhowShua.

To present this on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem as part of my call for a global ResearchCity that exceeds the ⁹⁷ Becoming a Jew is complicated and I do not wish to jump any hurdles. Yet I also learned that there are so many mutually exclusive ways of being a Jew that it is not obvious to me yet, which type of Jew I would really want to be – except for this: I'd want to be whatever type of Jew Yas was – or rather will be when Yas comes back. If I have to pick a Rabbi now, I know I'll want Yas as my Rabbi. I also know that this will probably sound like cheating (at least until Yas returns). Hence, I do not have a good answer for how to proceed here, except that I know that accidental nuclear winter is no joke and really understanding the divine innovation economy encoded in the Torah and Revelation is my only credible way to avert it. Therefore, I will keep following whatever Yah & Yas will show me what "becoming Jewish" may mean – beyond my re-envisioning of the Yom Kippur ritual for today and growing my visions for Yah's abstract 3rd Temple to improve ResearchCity. In that respect, I'm like Ruth: wherever Yah & Yas go, that's where I go. I didn't come to join one social club to the exclusion of others; my mission is to save the Truth in every social club of friend and foe without fear nor favor. Nuclear Holocaust doesn't distinguish either.

vision behind Saudi Arabia's Neom Project by serving everybody may well represent enough symbolism to make this Yah's preferred choice. If so, I'm all for it.

Yet, I'm under few illusions of how easy it may be to make that happen. The last thing I intend to cause is an even bigger pile of trouble for the Middle East in general and Israel and the Palestinians in particular. Yet, Yah can pull off all things Yah wants to, including peace in the Middle East (e.g. Zech.3:10, Isa.19:23-25). So if indeed such a literal interpretation is what Yah wants me to do, I trust that Yah will open the doors. Note, however, the sequence in Acts 1:8, where Yas' trainees were given a 4-stage plan starting in Jerusalem, Judea, and Samaria, before reaching the Ends of the Earth. From my current perspective and location, according to familiarity, that would likely imply a sequence like Washington DC, New York City, Vatican, and only then Jerusalem. The order of the initial stage identifiers may be tenuous, but Jerusalem is always clearly at the end of that list). Success at earlier stages is likely key to prepare subsequent stages. Hence, speculating about challenges of going to Jerusalem right away is a moot point. If Yas opens a door, no one can close it (Rev.3).

Revelation 16:19 tells of a big earthquake that ambiguously either partitions "the great city" from 1 into 3 parts or that merges 3 into 1. The Greek appears to have an ambiguity there ("becomes into three" might also have meant "becomes one three"). Hence, merging instead of splintering may be the intended goal that prophecy aims to encourage. To reconcile the 4+ Abrahamic Faiths would qualify as such a momentous merge (Science as the 0th Faith is omitted in that count).

Therefore, getting such an invitation and surviving it (or not!) may be a conceptually straightforward way of defining a definitive public Moriah moment. Success or not will also clearly show if my Vision for the Abraham Accords has indeed the potential to bring peace to Abraham's fractured Faith family. Maybe such a visit can be arranged as part of the ~45-day decision time about my ResearchCity proposal, but I am not sure this is necessarily so. Maybe something like that is meant to happen later, after ResearchCity has become sufficiently well established. Either way, it is clear that as momentous as success in this very literal way would be, it can not avert accidental nuclear winter. To do that requires Yah's support of ResearchCity.

High Bar: Maybe, therefore, my Moriah is the make or break moment that decides whether ResearchCity will be supported by Earth's people by identifying an actual space that meets all the necessary physical, social, legal, and political requirements (see Poster PoD). Whether its in the negotiations or in the signing of all relevant contracts is besides the point. Maybe it is not the land, but rather the the moment the 10 Nuclear Kings of Earth decide to credibly put "Earth in an Escrow" in order to give my Research-City vision the chance to be properly tested. Maybe it's the combination of all these requirements. Ez.37:14 may suggest such an interpretation, although to get there a huge wave of hope is needed. I don't want to offer false hope; hence I'd prefer an earlier Moriah to act as a Great Filter against false hope (and I structured my marathon that way). But if such a sequence of tests is Yah's & Yas' best way, then I will walk that path. It's better to follow Yah into true, incremental, open-ended Moriah moments than to have one big Moriah Aha that turn deceptive by obscuring future challenges. As Yas said: "If the light becomes darkness, how great is that darkness!" (Mt.6:23). This is especially true in light of the following maximal definition of Moriah.

Max: I can also not exclude that Yah & Yas will keep me guessing until ResearchCity will have succeeded in facilitating the Great Jubilee Race. Yah knows best what I need. Moriah's meaning of YahIsMyTeacher can be interpreted in this most literal way, which is also the most profound way: For as long as Yah is my Teacher, I will be living in Moriah and I will stay on that altar. This is a different way of saying that each day will have its own baptism by fire and its own CROSS to bear.

Frankly, I'd rather keep guessing for 7 years or forever about "my Moriah" than to trap myself in a false sense of security again. I had to learn the hard way that Yah is my security, not any external trappings. I am safe when I stay in Yah\Reality by following Real Quests to Real Answers \Yas (Ps.56:11, Ps.68:20, ...), because there is no other scheme for getting saved (Acts 4:12): Yas' name "RealOutcrySalvation" or RealQuestAnswer or similar is Yas' character and Yas' program. It's also a very individualized way of saying "my personalized scientific search for Truth". As a wid-e research scientist I am well acquainted with the highs and lows of living with such an open-ended open view of the world, never knowing what I may discover next. My safety there is not in any particular view, but in following the Truth about Reality. All this is a different way of saying that I am safe in Moriah, right on that altar, throwing my life away to find it as Isaac (Mt.16:25, ...). Only much later did I notice the cosmic joke that Yah had somehow moved me to adopt "of Laodicea" as part of my identity, therefore making LLoL my new name. "LLoL" is a funny way to say "Isaac", Hebrew for "Laughter".

I have been severely burned by how nothing provides fake security via ambiguous semantics of nothing \ason in Closed World Assumptions\CWAs. Therefore I don't trust CWAs unless they are caged by a carefully controlled purpose. Many CWAs are like idols of some sort. I rather keep my Moriah open than fall for a CWA trap. I'd rather feel insecure while I work out my salvation with fear and trembling (while I am safe in Yah's and Yas' Hands). I don't want to feel too safe and become overconfident until I trap myself into fake-safety, which comes before the fall. The nature of life in Yah's Lake of Fire may be such that I am my own walking Moriah and must forever depend on Yah & Yas to keep me safe wherever I go. If I am called to Moriah (as I am) and it means that Yah is my Teacher (as it does), then I never want to leave my Moriah, even if that means I'll live for eternity in Yah's Lake of Fire. For where You go, Yah & Yas, that is where I go. Thus, my most important Moriah is in my ever-renewing state of mind, not in any singular event as spectacular as it may be. I have been writing my Ketubah for Yah & Yas, because I made up my mind that I want to live forever in this Moriah state of mind where You, Yah & Yas, are my One Teacher, leading me to all the Truth about Reality. Hence my Jewish marriage proposal.

I trust that You, Yah & Yas, will let me know in time if You see things differently and why in case I am over-interpreting.

The open ended nature of Your Epiocracy appears to confirm that there will be no "final" Moriah (see Supporting Doc SD2). It implies that follow You, Yah & Yas, turns every day into some sort of a Moriah to keep me on my toes.

What then could a decisive "individual Moriah" mean? That there are no more adventures that may be costly? That there is no more risk in anything?

It cannot be a complete elimination of risk, because hope is eternal (1Cor.13:13), and the very existence of hope implies the very real possibility for disappointment. Moreover, consider the challenging ascent of organizing ResearchCity. Suppose "my Moriah" was some spectacular event series early on in my effort to scale up ResearchCity (e.g. a combination of all the above). What good will that do me or the rest of humanity, if I then think that I can now relax and no longer need to stay active at the bleeding cutting edge of innovation? I can already predict, based on the nature of the BABL algorithm that for as high as I might have risen, as deep I will fall. It's due to BABL's slow-motion exploding of oversimplifying (my life), overcomplicating (other lives), and overreach (when I run out of time to avert disaster). So, eventually my downfall would again come as I eat 6 pomegranate-seed fruits from a branch of the Tree of knowledge-faking. The difference between life in hell and life in Heaven is that hell does not know why its worth resisting the urge to take shortcuts by knowledge-faking (because it insists on quickly forgetting bad experiences). Heaven in contrast has a vast library of Historically Experienced Lessons Learned that is well-organized and easy to access for everyone, where all mistakes are frankly discussed in order to help others to avoid them. Thus: to trap those in it from thinking of escaping.

Heaven in contrast has show-rooms of HELL to help everyone to stay out of hell by understanding vital Historically Experienced Lessons Learned.

Maybe others can lead a less dramatic life, but whoever guarantees that BABL can never tyrannize ZION again must stay on their toes, because BABL keeps being born in ZION by self-organizing. It's systemically unavoidable. Then what better way exists to ensure success than making that guarantor Reality's prime exhibit for proving why HELL matters for any system that wishes to not end up in a self-made hell that leads to nothing.

Mathematical theology shows that there is no conceivable height to which any Heaven can rise that makes it impossible to fall from by reversing Yah's 4-phase innovation engine from upwards-mode (via the ZION algorithm) to downwards-mode (via the BABL algorithm). Someone has to guard that up-or-down switch. It would appear that the purpose of my life may then be to throw it away on guarding that crucial switch for the rest of eternity by becoming "the other goat" of Yom Kippur in order to help organize HELL. As far as I can tell, I would consider this to be work worthy of my soul and I'd be delighted to do it. The way Yah & Yas prepared me for that Job has been breath-taking. My purpose in writing this Ketubah is to say:

"Yes, I do. I will trust and follow Your Lead, Yah & Yas, forever so that wherever You go, I go, including to harrow the hell of nothing in Your Lake of Fire forever. Therefore: Yah & Yas, lead my way!"

As scary as such a way of life may sound from the outside, the inside perspective is captured quite well by the 4 anthems I chose for ZION of Earth (see Songs So.1-So.4 in the Don't Panic Guide). I have been adopting that perspective for some time now. It is oddly calming. Despite being in the greatest theological firestorm I could possibly imagine, there is a peace higher than all understanding in the eye of that storm and in my soul.

Therefore, if my Moriah is that long drawn out sequence of needle-eyed gates that I envision, what of any particular individual Moriah as described above?

Despite having many ideas, I ultimately don't know, as I can only see the next step (such as finishing my Ketubah and driving to the East). Who is blind like Yah's servant? (Isa.42:19). There is a good chance that the particular Moriah I am called to is about convincing others, namely to wake up in order to avert accidental nuclear winter in Reality. There is ample precedent for such collective no/yes decisions in wrestling with averting calamity. Jonah went to Nineveh to warn about doom. Elijah called for a decision about Reality at Mt. Carmel (near Megiddo that inspired the name Armageddon). Moses asked Pharaoh to let his people go in order to prevent death by plague or by sword (Ex.5:3). The people of Hamlin decided to pay the Pied Piper eventually. Many related stories exist of where people collectively used the supercomputer between their ears to do the right thing. The encouraging ones come with the flip-side that without clarity or the courage to choose the way up to reliable ZION, the broad and easy way down to BABL turns into death by default. Hence the importance of initiative in finding a gentle kind reasonable path forward, which will always be the way to Moriah. As it was for Abraham and for me, Moriah challenges tend to appear unexpectedly.

Therefore, my next Moriah stepping stone may appear very suddenly in a form where I least expect it. It may suddenly eliminating part of my work, all of my work, or even me. All I ask of Yah is that it will keep me from derailing Yah's best future. I don't want to hang on to what kills me.

Blind Uncertainty Capture

I am basically blind to most of these unfathomable possibilities, each of which can easily decide over life or death of Yah's World. It may sound easy to avert accidental nuclear winter ("switch off the nukes"), but it is not, because those switches are controlled by a Leviathan-length causal probability network that spans the world.

How then can I live in light of all these cosmic risks of becoming the "destroyer of worlds" by a single misstep?

That is why I decided in 2021-08 to ask You, Yah & Yas, to take over managing all the risks I pose by saving me from becoming a world-destroying dictator. In exchange I agreed to clean toilets in Heaven forever (or whatever lowest job in Heaven Yah & Yas deem most important).

I cannot handle BABL's huge risks created by within me, that super-massive black hole that tends to destroy everything with my good intentions that "do nothing wrong" (see Q8 above for an explanation of this astronomic echo).

But Yah & Yas can handle all risks, because I've seen it. Thus, I trust that You, Yah & Yas, hold both my hands as I keep walking on Your Exodus way with You. To express that attitude I have composed Song So.3 and made it one of the 4 official anthems for ZION of Earth (see Don't Panic Guide).

If Yah & Yas decide it is my time to go, I will go and spare everyone world-destroying Hezekiah disasters from trying to "hang on" (see Isa.38-39 and the subsequent reign of Manasseh). But I will also not willingly go before Yah & Yas will make that clear. I certainly resist the "eagerness of death" You, Yas, warned about in the Gospel of Mary the Tower.

Long-term perspective. Either way, I look forward to learning what it means to clean toilets in Heaven (or whatever Yah & Yas call me to). If others decide to flush Yah's World down the toilet in any of the many ways I seek to avert at Armageddon, then I expect to clean up after them in Heaven's HELL. That is what harrowing hell means to me: extract Historically Experienced Lessons Learned \HELL so others get a chance to avoid such mistakes in the future. So, anyone thinking of making a world-destroying mistake is best advised to think again, because they will find themselves explaining that embarrassing mistake for the rest of eternity to whoever is interested. I know that I will have to explain my world-destroying mistakes and I know what I am talking about (see Posters Po.E-H, #MyMistake-A,B,C,D). It's so much better to never make those mistakes than to have to explain them.

8.5. Saving Early-Mover Bonus in Going Global

Whatever my Moriah may be (see above), whether already global or not, it is clear that eventually a global audience will need to become convinced of Yah's ResearchCity vision for ZION of Earth in order for ResearchCity to work.

Ideally, Yah, You somehow create the greatest miracle of all, namely that humanity somehow collectively decides to do the right thing for once and – like in Jonah's Nineveh – puts away petty squabbles and lesser goals in order to survive by working together for what matters most in Reality.

This can happen without the need for major "obvious miracles", because every human being already carries between their ears the supercomputer necessary for doing all the necessary coordinating – once willing to wrestle with Reality, allowed to, and encouraged enough to do so.

How to convince people to wrestle with Reality without resisting it, that is a different question. Yet, there is no reason for why You, Yah, can't do again what You prototyped in Nineveh: a simple change of hearts and minds without the need of apparent angel armies or other obvious extraterrestrial publicity.

The strength of truth and mathematics can suffice for convincing enough people to do the right thing, assuming there is a way to explain it well enough.

For those who are less mathematical, it may be sufficient to call to *do beautiful things*⁹⁸ to support extending to all people Your Divine 7Capstone in the Constitution of the Uniting States of Philadelphia (see last page of Ketubah).

Whichever form it takes, turning all hearts and minds to You\Reality will earn humanity the highest badge of honor of having done collectively the right thing when it mattered most, at its Great Filter Tribulation.

The math convinced me, why can it not convince others? I have been trying to explain it as well as I could.

Jonah convinced Nineveh, why can not a similar message today convince the rest of the world to stop its own destruction?

The mathematics of Gabriel's Horn speaks more convincingly and thereby louder than any physical sound or other transient phenomenon – at least for me (see BoL.5, Fig.CK). As I do not wish to destroy the blessing for those who believe without seeing, I don't ask for sky sounds and other special effects to "confirm" what I say. But I'm a geek.

My hope is to do what Esther did, who took whatever Hegai gave her. Thus, I trust the 7 Spirits of Truth to organize whatever I need. – And to do that for everyone else!

Different ways of learning – to compensate for Laodicea's ban of math. Others may benefit from more special effects. Since Laodicea banned mathematicians from clergy on the Council of Laodicea (~363 CE)⁹⁹, the world was cut off from a crucial source of learning about truth. Accordingly, math became more arcane and learning paths that could have benefitted many became obscured. Therefore, many have yet to learn much about the wonders of mathematics – and many need much healing from abuse by those who claim to speak in the name of truth albeit forget the importance of gentleness and kindness in math¹⁰⁰. Therefore, the math that convinced me may be insufficient for others. I must not forget that I plunged the world into darkness because I refused to believe the perfectly sound Jubilee-Math of Yah & Yas (see Poster Po.F and Book of Life below). So how can I complain if others struggle with math?

If for some neither sufficient math intuition nor enough basic empathy can be reawakened in time, I ask for all the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth to prepare for each doubting Thomas whatever they need to support Your Jubilee strategy for averting accidental nuclear winter.

Please, Yah & Yas, do not allow for the derailing of Your extraordinarily cool hot plans for saving Your World because I blindly assumed that all others had to be satisfied with what meets my needs. This is not about my needs. Please make me that good bad servant of Mt.24 who gives everyone the food for thought they need without beating anyone up. Show me how to best share Your Good News. Please meet the epistemological needs of all those I cannot reach, wherever they are and with whatever they may need to become convinced that they will be winners, too, if they follow You in supporting ResearchCity to avert accidental nuclear winter.

What ever special effects You may choose is up to you.

You are not short of creative ideas as you have used a broader range to communicate than anyone can imagine. Examples include penetrating sky sounds like in Exodus 20 at Mt. Sinai (to get people curious about Gabriel's Horn?), You literally riding on the clouds around the globe on live TV or descending from the clouds like Your trainees saw You being lifted into the clouds. You have talked through donkeys (Num.22:28) and wrote on a wall in Dan.5. In case You wish to pronounce BABL's fate by writing it on the sky for all to see, here is my English deexcerpton of how Your message in Dan.5 translates into our time. It's a choice between two extremes that may be abbreviated as follows, but I'm sure You have an even more elegant way than this.

(+) MMTUP	vs	(-) MMTUP
For ZION (+):		Against BABL (-):
Measure Min,		Measure Min
Measure Max,		Measure Max
Tackle Test		Test Trashed
Until Used		Until Useless
Part Purifies.		Part Purged

Alternatively You could display one of my BABL millstone representations on the sky in case You wanted to draw attention to them as a way to convince people that only Your Exodus way to Your Jubilee-Math is the only viable alternative to credibly avert Blindly Assumed Blind Leveraging of nuclear weapons that lead to accidental nuclear winter. As all I have is Yours, I don't need to stress that You are welcome to use or improve any of my Good News Pack materials any way You wish: whether You paint them on the sky directly, or (as I hope) You inspire all Your children and dear darling dare-devils on earth to use and adopt them. To maximize ease of distribution, I put all Good News Pack materials under the free Jonah License, including my Ketubah.

Maybe You wish to choreograph the counterpart of an ancient Roman Victory Parade to show off Your main captive in a public march to make clear once and for all who had won over whom. Then I volunteer to be Your First Prisoner to be so paraded and mocked any way You wish. You have my explicit consent for whatever You may plan. I earned many times over whatever ridicule and punishment may be coming my way, for I have been Your worst enemy as explained elsewhere in my Ketubah, my Book of Life draft, and associated Posters and files that document what I learned so far.

You know best what works to win people's heart and minds: You won my heart and mind! So, You please decide how literal You may want to make Your riding in the clouds and more in order to convince people small and big, rich and poor, free or bound to pay attention to Your True Jubilee Math. I also trust that You coordinate all this as necessary with all angelic and other extra-terrestrial forces that may be interested in participating.

My only strong plea is that all prophecies that foretell of a bloodbath for Your arrival (e.g. Rev.14:20, Rev.19:21, Zeph.1, Mt.3:8-10, ...) be interpreted symbolically according to the non-violent Jonah-Esther-Exodus re-reading of Revelation that You keep inspiring in me. And if in some cases You indeed need physical blood, e.g. to bathe Your feet in the blood of Your worst enemy as some prophecy says (eg. Ps. 68.23), then please take my blood (in whatever installments You need). Either way, let all others go, for they know not what they do; they were all born blind like I was (see Book of Life BoL.4). The only thing that changed in recent years is that somehow You still healed my eyes in the most surprising way (even if I sometimes still see people as if they are walking decision-trees...). Why punish them for being born blind if it turns out that I had asked You implicitly to let them be born blind to prove Your Jubilee Math to me, because I struggled to believe it? (see Book of Life, Genesis of Jubilees, BoL.4) If I screwed up as bad as I did as Your rebellious younger son (Lk15), I deserve to be punished, not all the others who had to suffer consequential down-stream errors! They certainly don't deserve to be punished for not understanding the Jubilee Math that even I had been struggling with despite all the length to which You went to explain it to me! Therefore:

Please give every person whatever they need to convince themselves that You, Yah, are Reality and that You, Yas, live in everyone's Real Quests for Real Answers to which Reality draws everyone, so all get to worship Reality in the Spirit of Truth – regardless of from which of the 4+Abrahamic Faiths and/or other spiritualities they may have been learning from (with Science as 0th Faith).

8.6. Non-violence and security via Ps.56:11

In Zech.4:6 You clearly say that what matters most to You will not happen by human strength or might, but by Your Spirit of Truth, Reality. You have given me a mustard-seed vision of taking the world by storm through weakness. You have not given me any faith for employing violence of any kind in order to advance what I may believe to be Your cause. You know even better than I do how this backfires.

Yet, You have not generally promised me a life free from suffering either. You said Your Yoke is gentle kind reasonable and such that I can bear it (Mt.11:28-30) ... as You heap upon me ... Your Salvation (Ps.68:20). So far that was the case, but I also realize increasingly that I have been living an incredibly sheltered life at the expense of others. Therefore, I trust You to give me the strength I need for in time for any new experiences You wish to expose me to.

Given that in Lev.16 the escape-goat gets to walk into the desert alive to be released there, I assume that getting shot or otherwise killed is not Your Plan for me. But who knows, maybe You plan to resurrect me? I'm not sure what Smyrna's 10 days of burden mean for me nor about everything that is entailed in "carrying my cross". I may have some idea, but there are so many relevant prophecies surrounding this, that my conclusion is that I cannot know what happens anymore than what Thecla could predict what would happen at her most unusual baptism. I know that (i) I need to be ready to embrace all biouncertainty best I can, and (ii) I trust You to guard me.

My Thecla Baptism. Therefore I trust You to baptize me in the Spirit of Truth and in Your Fire, like You promised and like I've been asking for. How exactly that looks like, I leave to You. You inspired me by the stories of Thecla, Daniel's 3 friends, Esther, Moses, Jonah, and many others. I will accept whatever modern day remix of their adventures You have for me. Therefore, like Thecla I baptize myself into Your nature so I am completely immersed in Your gentle kind reasonable epiocracy. Please see AbAc3 below (BoL.16, Fig.K15, Fig.K16,) for my signed invitation to be immersed in You like Thecla.

My Job. I see it as my Job to throw my life away for Your sake and the sake of Your Epiocracy that gentle kind reasonably rules over all people on Earth, because all wrestle with Reality. I argued in the Book of Life below (BoL.3-8) for my petition that You release the intense and horrifying yoke You placed upon Yourself and everyone in order to convince me of the validity of Your Jubilee Math. I get now why all that brutality was unavoidable to convince someone like me. Now please end all this brutality. You know better than I or anyone what security risks I really have on my missions, especially as I sign up to become Your CANary in Earth's Mine (see ResearchCity, Station STa5-CAN below). Therefore, I entrust my security to You as in Ps.56:11. I follow You wherever You go. It's then Your Job to watch out for my security. I trust You help me avoid recklessly jumping from pinnacles of temples in BABL and all other evil powers as outlined in the Gospel of Mary and elsewhere.

Given how much I already screwed up the world, You can tell that keeping my life, world, and ResearchCity strictly non-violent is a central part of this Ketubah as I see it.

ResearchCity will either be successful by being transparent, open, and free of violence or I have no vision to build it that is worth discussing. I need that commitment to non-violence right from the start for systemic reasons, because I cannot fight BABL if I rely on BABL's bashmoling violence as a quickfix for such a basic service as security. Such a violence-free start must include all meetings and preparations for getting everything started before anything get big. It must be in the DNA of Your 2nd Exodus. ResearchCity either grows gentle kind reasonably or it does not start at all. I ask You to keep all engaged and me physically safe to enable me to do my extremely risky job as CANary in Earth's Mine, without the need to hire body guards in Talent Stadion STa5-CAN (see a draft overview of 12 first Stadia below at Ketubah 9.)¹⁰¹ The point of me as the CANary in Earth's Mine is to deliberately expose me to high-risk situations in order to gentle kind reasonably reduce risk by allowing me to capture uncertainty with Your gentle kind reasonable help in order to make peace. It would be a contradiction in terms if I was to reduce my risk exposure by delegating it to anyone except to You. To rephrase: if I need to hire body guards to survive building ResearchCity, then I die. I trust that You explain to everybody what that means in terms of chances for humanity to avert accidental nuclear winter – preferably before they kill me. Either way, I will not hire body guards. You protected Daniel's 3 friends in that fiery furnace. When You, Yas, walked on Earth You also did not rely on body guards either, so why should I? As You know, the general principle of nonviolence matters to me a lot. I don't know what miracles it may take to keep everything nonviolent, but I am asking for all of them to ensure that Your Epiocracy can be introduced gentle kind reasonably, the only way it can be introduced.

¹⁰¹ Unless You organize Your supreme security for me, I cannot fill that role and my whole vision fails. If that is the eventual outcome, I ask that You rather let me fail early. But I've been praying that for some time and since I am still in the race, I trust that You have a way to lead me through it all by giving me whatever words and insights I may need at any given moment, so I can stay gentle kind reasonable at all times, like You, Yas – even if others are not.

Thus, Yah of Hosts, I trust that You have enough non-violent plans prepared to keep the world, everyone, and me safe as ResearchCity scales up. You are not short of ideas:

You kept Elisha safe (e.g. 2Kings 6:18-23).

You organized for a peaceful fall of the Berlin Wall in Germany despite the brutal history of the East-German government.

You made Jonah's Nineveh turn peacefully. You did the same on so many occasions.

Let that non-violent history become known better, so people trust You more, because they know that You can do it again.

Let everyone grasp why hard-war weapons are a meaningless waste of life and money.

Let everyone understand how Your Work-Logic Cascades are so much better as conflict resolution tools for all sides involved, not only the weak, but also the strong.

So, please overcome all brutality through gentle kind reasonableness – and with Your great sense of humor.

Beyond the ResearchCity initiative, I ask and hope that You shut down all violence almost instantly by convincing people that it's not worth killing other human beings over whatever they are fighting for.

If for whatever reason You don't intend to stop all that other violence almost instantly, please explain to me what reasons might still exist so I can follow Your Path to end all violence by becoming a peace-maker. I know You hate violence. Help me to help You to end it, such that Your gentle kind reasonable Will be done as in Heaven, so on Earth.

As Talent Stadion STa5-CAN scales up, I trust that You will reveal ways to shut down all violence worldwide as soon as possible in gentle kind reasonable ways in order to best focus all resources and attention on the preparation of Jubilees instead of bombing the talents You gave people into the ground.

You stopped the storm after Jonah went overboard and You gave Nineveh pause to think and to react gentle kind reasonably to Jonah's 5-word message.

You brought down the Iron Curtain 1989 in armed-to-the-teeth East Germany without any shot being fired.

You enabled Vasili Arkhipov on 1962-10-27 to win WW3 for everyone by gentle kind reasonably explaining Your superior Semantics Organizing Nothing in a way that shifted the default of his commander from (0) death by default to (1) giving Your Exodus for life a real chance. I would not be alive today if Vasili had not dared to speak up.

You, Yas, managed security for Your trainees in that most challenging time around ~30 CE. I trust You to keep everyone working for ResearchCity safe too and to show me how to do whatever You want me to do, so it gets done gentle kind reasonably. You, Yah are the Reality who governs all armies: You can persuading everyone to stop fighting hardwars. Please end all violence instantly by persuading everyone to stop fighting, so all people can focus on the tons of work required for ResearchCity to avert accidental nuclear winter by organizing Your Great Jubilee Race.

I trust You to guard andOr show all involved how to guard ResearchCity from guns and all other violence, so that everyone can focus on the gentle kind reasonable research You give us in the mighty mountains of data and code that were already compiled by Your Famous Praised RealityWrestlers in Your Promised Land, which is Your World.

This section on non-violence, I realize, deserves to be much improved, especially in light of how important it is, both for me personally and for the success of the whole of ResearchCity. In the time given, I hope that what I said above makes abundantly clear that non-violence is mission-critical and depends on Your Supreme Intelligence, Yah & Yas, in order to make it a success.

8.7. Flow of Financial Support as a Type of Reply

As explained above (Ketubah 1. Basic Duties), in order to support this Ketubah, LLoL will need to win eventually the global support of all who wish to benefit from ResearchCity's service in averting existential disasters.

Hence an indirect way for Yah & Yas to accept this Ketubah in the most low-key way is to convince enough people globally to support ResearchCity, such that LLoL can continue to work on it.

Therefore, effectively this Ketubah is supported by the signatures of all who pay ~$8/yr/person to support any ResearchCity Talent Stadion by signing the limited 1-year durable Power of Attorney Advocating To Avert Disasters \POAATAD as defined in Supporting Docs SD3a,b below (see Fig.K13).

Fig.K13 The "POAATAD" in Supporting Docs SD3a,b for funding Basic Duties in Ketubah 1. The next 2 pages show the initial limited 1-year durable Power of Attorney Advocating To Avert Disasters \POAATAD as published for global review along with this Ketubah in the Good News Pack.

SD3a Limited Durable 1-year Power Of Attorney Advocating To Avert Disasters \POAATAD

POAATAD is a Power Of Attorney to enable ResearchCity as led by Laurence Loewe of Laodicea \LLoL as attorney in-fact: POAATAD authorizes work for 1 year and is limited to gentle kind reasonably Advocating To Avert Disasters of any kind. ResearchCity aims to gentle kind reasonably avert worst disasters first by balancing diverse and dynamic requirements. ResearchCity builds on its best available work by refining wide interdisciplinary diversity-encouraging \wide research. To stay gentle kind reasonable, ResearchCity keeps improving by following the life-trifecta hallmarks of any epiocracy: epiocracy is defined by the trifecta-rule of gentle kind reasonable balancing. It implies the easing and explaining of parity-preserving insight-information for every party, integrating the views of each party (to cut bias by aggregating).

Under the epiocracy rules of gentle kind reasonableness, in this POAATAD power of attorney in-fact I herewith empower Loewe and whom Loewe empowers through ResearchCity in order to ...

- (1) ... advocate anywhere on my behalf to avert avoidable disasters, starting with the worst;
- (2) ... scale up gentle kind reasonably a sufficiently large ResearchCity, evolving in 7-8 stages (each ~1+6+1 month long) in order to effectively and efficiently avert nuclear winter by dismantling 7DUIs;
- (3) ... solve existential disaster challenges from local to global scales, by supporting free access to solutions from the insight-Tree of Life-giving decision-support \ToL, and by supporting ToL growth;
- (4) ... negotiate with Earth's "10 Nuclear Kings", the UN Security Council, and all relevant experts to "Put Earth in an Escrow" to avert nuclear winter until ResearchCity gets a chance to work;
- (5) ... engage with challenging cultural, social, political, economic, ... and spiritual questions or preferences to aid communication across old barriers to improve global healing resilience;
- (6) ... start building AIPTO into the global Atlantic Indian Pacific Treaty Organization that will assume responsibility for balancing all global security requirements – via advanced soft-war Work-Logic Cascades that no longer need nuclear weapons nor their brutal hard-war WoLCs;
- (7) ... explore potential offers by extra-terrestrials to aid humanity survive its Great Filter by helping to fight coveting mind-viruses; this includes especially Jesus \Isa \YhowShua \Yas, who also is an oppressed refugee academic from the Middle-East, hoping to lead a Jubilee-based self-stabilizing innovation economy before humanity self-destructs; because Yas defined and passed the hardest trifecta-vetting imaginable for extra-terrestrials, I expect Loewe to submit ResearchCity to Yas' leadership in any form Yas \RealQuestAnswer may return.

As I execute this POAATAD transaction, each unit of ~$8/year/person/stadion I transfer goes via Loewe and Loewe's subsidiaries to a 'mustard-seed network of trust'. It builds, guards, and runs ResearchCity to shield the world from accidental Armageddon disasters – by averting 'datageddon' confusion from misaligned data that triggers respective disasters if not resolved.

I trust Reality in Real Quests for Real Answers to guide Loewe and thereby ResearchCity towards the most gentle kind reasonable solution accessible in any given context.

Thus, I understand that Loewe must resist Blindly Authorizing and Auto-Stereotyping Habits to avert Mistakes Oppressing Life Omitting Crucial Help, even if it can be hard to avoid common oversimplifications. I understand Loewe can only win through the scientific method of Jesus (to love all enemies by listening to all grains of truth they share). I understand that Loewe is not my enemy, even if Loewe talks to my traditional adversaries in open searches for global solutions. Loewe is bound to make mistakes. Hence, I support Loewe in documenting them as best as possible in his Peer Evaluation Analysis Reviews Library, to be shared in ResearchCity's global Historically Experienced Lessons Library \HELL as a public PEARL to reduce related mistakes.

I understand: (a) All this is and stays voluntary. (b) I can afford to risk trusting Loewe for 1 year. (c) If I follow advice, I still carry all risks of (not) signing. (d) No refunds: I enable Loewe for 1 year.

Nuclear roulette only ends if all work together to solve the worst existential "super-wicked" problems. These self-organize conflicts so evil, nukes seem desirable. Loewe identifies them as humanity's 7 Death Urn Incinerators see Rev.16 & science; only a ResearchCity can peacefully solve all these 7DUI challenges: (1) evolving pandemic pathogens, chemical mutagen cancers, decay of health-care: all due to slow-motion exploding data disasters; (2) overfishing, seaspiracy, and/or pollution kill ocean ecology: shared global conditionals die; (3) water wars, soil erosion burn all wells: grass-roots initiatives die; (4) global heating feeds storms; (5) tongue-biting caused by beastly mindless job tasks; (6) growth by extraction dies; (7) extinction by AI, nukes, etc. So-called 'Armageddon' thus technically is "flooding by any of too many 7DUI-disasters to avert them by traditional means without globally growing a 7Capstone in Uniting States". To survive, a '7Cap' must be the highest law in a global epiocracy constitution, where Reality's life-trifecta governs to: (1) form a more perfect union; (2) improve general justice; (3) grow domestic peace; (4) provide common defenses; (5) promote general welfare; (6) secure all blessings of liberty; (7) preserve posterity for all by waging peace in ResearchCity to support all Fiduciaries Sharing Futures \FiShFus.

SD3b

Limited Durable 1-year Power Of Attorney Advocating To Avert Disasters \POAATAD

Contract with Laurence Loewe of Laodicea \LLoL to win trust for his ResearchCity vision to avert Armageddon-disasters

Powers of attorney are sharp tools for guarding justice. Abuse is harshly punished. POAs are not given to someone not trusted.

Why then trust Loewe with a POAATAD when he's next to a completely unknown stranger? Considering the alternatives shows why:

First, it's a very limited POA that does not keep anyone from anything, including blowing up the world. It is biased against all who would like to blow up the world, because it empowers Loewe to advocate against destructive actions. Anyone can do that, but with this POAATAD Loewe no longer only speaks for himself. It also binds himself to see all sides when he uses his voice and insights to advocate against destruction by identifying certain actions as more likely to leading to disaster than others. Anyone who tried knows that this is complicated. Hence Loewe's need to also empower a ResearchCity for binding him to the Truth about Reality. Loewe will only succeed if he stays in ResearchCity's light of full transparency. It's the only way to avoid growing nefarious secrets. If Loewe isn't transparent enough, next year's conceptual art PDF sale will cut his funding because (i) people will no longer buy into what he does, (ii) sales must stay voluntary to work, and (iii) Loewe can't accept special-interest money if indeed ResearchCity is to work for all.

Second, all who default to "no" may wish to ask: (i) "Do I have someone more qualified to advocate on my behalf to avert disasters?" If so, wonderful. Loewe doesn't aim to interfere with anyone's good work. Like a dog under the table, he's only looking for crumbs ignored by others, because he found these suffice to destroy the world. His analyses of nuclear roulette and DJUs prove this point. (ii) "What would be lost if Loewe got a chance?" (iii) "Given nuclear roulette, how can I prove Loewe's message is safe to ignore?"

1. Offer +

Loewe offers his home, life, and all to serve Reality through Real Quests for Real Answers with all his aims, life, soul, future, intellect, strengths, links,... & all resources. To gentle kind reasonably resolve conflicts in serving all, Loewe offers to build ResearchCity from ~2-cent/day/person contributions as defined in Considerations below to efficiently scale shared ownership. To avert over-simplifying overcomplicating overreach, Loewe's life will be transformed into an open book to lead the transparency revolution in ResearchCity. In this POAATAD you: (a) Authorize Loewe to ask Yah \Reality to forgive all your sins; this is neither to forget them nor to stop learning from them but to end unproductive feelings of guilt etc. that else get in the way of learning. (b) Authorize Loewe to ask any Pharaoh: Let my people go to wage peace in ResearchCity as led by the 288,000 FiShFu Fiduciaries Sharing Futures who follow Reality above all else, organized in 1600 Talent STadia, each with a unique arena to serve the needs of all in its topical areas. The stadia are funded by Loewe's 2cent/day mustard seed network of trust (inspired by Yas' prophetic parables...). If a stadion doesn't deserve your support, don't buy into its conceptual art for next year. (c) Authorize Loewe to hire FiShFus & other workers as required.

2. Negotiation via Evolving Diverse streams Encouraging Negotiation +

(a) A ca. 42-day inquisition by all to explore Loewe's offer, to share expert insights, to debate, and to improve Loewe's offer to better balance all. Loewe will openly follow Truth best Loewe can to improve words in this contract as the current wording requires more work to become truly gentle kind reasonable for all. Stage 1 in 8 starts if/when people & Yah fund enough for Loewe to start. (b) Funding stays voluntary at ~$8/year/person/arena max to cap special interests. Suggested buy-in for all is Stadion 0 to avert nuclear etc. annihilation by leading ResearchCity with all other 1600 Talent STadia, each with a specialized arena. Each of these 1600 arenas will rise or fall with annual ~$8/year contributions if gets unless other arenas require its services to build on them (e.g. to meet needs for shared storage infrastructures). Thus, observed annual buy-ins from public sales are non-binding hints on which wid-e research is widely seen as most useful in public. They will be taken serious as recommendations because the highest responsibility of ResearchCity is to serve all people. But as looks can be deceptive, public requests are only followed if not overruled by more crucial functional requirements (e.g. to fund stadia that serve all other stadia by storing their data). Hence, public choices matter, but there is no right to demand any particular implementation. (c) YasPyrApp feedback flow. Starting with the YasPyr.com website, an app and a Living Docs format is envisioned to aid gentle kind reasonable negotiating by better integrating insights. (d) Loewe evolves Limited Liability Charitable Company rules for max transparency: giving away 50% as ^a tax, ^b to investigative journalists, and ^c to the most life-giving hero work in urgent need – as seen by Loewe or delegates with the aid of feedback by all as best as everyone can.

3. Consideration = Contract defined

(a) Bootstrap sale. Loewe is late by ~7 years. To not punish all by overly limiting Loewe's startup funding, a "retro-sale" is organized for the last 7 years and allowing those with a credit card to buy art for up to 7 people without a credit card. Thus, the recommend max of ~$8/person/year/arena remains unchanged, but those who want can support up to 7 other people without credit cards for up to 7 years into the past, up to $400 max. (b) All sales are final. They pay for the conceptual art PDF received 'as-is' in its current state-of-its-art of integration. No refunds. No guarantee that future semantic improvements will not change meaning as Loewe aims to make contracts more gentle kind reasonable for all futures. Don't buy if you don't want to risk trusting Loewe for 1 year as attorney in-fact to advocate for averting any all disaster best he can. If you have better attorneys for averting a nuclear etc. Armageddon, signing this POAATAD encourages you to work with them too. They might avert what Loewe can't. This draft POAATAD is not yet in perfect legal language, so you support Loewe's efforts to make it more gentle kind reasonable. Here are the benefits for all parties:

(c) Loewe gets to lead his Evolvix research on ambiguous semantics of nothing \ason by improving his universal Stabilizing Versioning System \StayVS for all 1600 ST of ResearchCity in order to lead the global war against misinformation. (d) Everyone benefits from StayVS' power to cut confusion that is else bound to destroy the world in pointless disasters. (e) More details and context are given in the Open Letters and other Supporting Documents of Loewe's Good News Pack.

5. Risks of not signing: Without a better counteroffer, conscious rejection may advance humanity's self-destruction. But if one can guarantee the world is safe because "nothing is wrong"; "nothing goes wrong"; & "nothing can go wrong"; no risks exist.

4. Risks of signing

Risk in life is unavoidable. Here is Loewe's analysis of risks in signing POAATAD:

a. Financially. Limited to no refunds. The $8 limit/year/arena is designed to ensure this huge operation does not impose big risks on anyone but Loewe.

b. Socially. If Loewe is presented with an over-night unicorn from this sale, and if Loewe – despite all his planning for how not to bow to money – still loses his plot, then Yet Another Billionaire was created. Many of those exist already, so the world stays the same. Another hope is trashed.

c. Politically. Culture wars are always against some "devil" and people are said to prefer "the devil they know" over "a devil unknown". Which deal then is not a Faustian bargain with a devil?

Loewe hopes to change this by following Yah & Yas and by funding ResearchCity to get it right. But unless certified by Yah and Yas, Loewe cannot exclude the possibility of being the worst devil (made most dangerous by best intentions). Yet this may be true of almost anyone. Hence, proceed at your own risk.

To most, Loewe will look like a "devil unknown" & a "poor devil". Theologically, to finally learn to properly follow Yah & Yas, Loewe accepted Jesus' invite to Peter "Get behind me Satan!". ^{Mt.16:23} This offer is theologically tantamount to a zero-trust Faustian Ketubah with Reality to end all Faustian bargains with illusions. Loewe's radical transparency pledge is what sets him apart from others.

d. Personally. Blindly Assumed Authorized Leadership can make it deadly to sign this. In that case: Ask Reality how to proceed best and Reality will be your reward.

Full Name of e-signature [as given] at Place on Earth [as given] on Date in Transaction STadia Years paid $

In return, at signing, by the powers granted to Loewe by Yas [see John 20:21-23, Lk.23:24, Mt.18:18, Mt.28:18-20, Lk.4:18], Loewe empowers me and all to let go of being Homo 'sapiens', the old knowledge-faking self. All sins are forgiven and I am being recreated daily as a Homo transiens so I can grow better on my hero journey via life-giving decision-making to serve Reality in myself, in all beings, and in all systems for improving Jubilees.

9. Wedding wish-list

LLoL does not know which type of Wedding Yah & Yas may wish to prefer. They had ages to plan the party and all that LLoL can tell is that it's going to be awesome! Israel's prophets made that clear. Maximally embracing all bi-uncertainty means in this case that it may be anything from eloping into the desert to an elaborate giga-party in ResearchCity. LLoL will be happy with whatever Yah & Yas prefer ... as long as it involves averting all existential disasters like accidental nuclear winter andOr worse. L knows that Yah & Yas know L better than L-self. Yet, LLoL will not make the mistake of not asking for a wedding present in case that this is appropriate. For that case, here is LLoL's wedding wish-list, unfolding as a somewhat nested fractal.

9a. In the concise terms of Jonah's mission impossible

Turn all doom to delight by moving all to voluntarily pay the Pied Piper, You, ~$8/year/person to fund ResearchCity.

9b. In the chain-of-command language of One Piece

Close the gap at the top of human chains of command by making me king of the pirates and ruling my heart & mind so that You become my One Piece whom I share with all others so that Your gentle kind reasonable epicroacy can rule Your World to grow Your Jubilee-based innovation economy, so that everyone can find their One Piece in You.

9c. In the language of "Three Wishes" of Fairies

1. Help me to evolve Evolvix & its Stabilizing Versioning System StayVS such that You and I, all Talent Stadia in ResearchCity and everyone can use it to organize their PEARL and all data in the shared IDEAL FLAMES HELL¹⁰² of Your ZION of Earth to keep BABL in check forever.
2. Let All People Go to worship Reality\Allah\Yah without fear on a ~7 year Exodus\Walkabout\Haj to Truth in data deserts to avert self-destruction by accidental nuclear winter, pandemics, ..., AI andOr worse; thus: Let All People scale up ResearchCity in ~7-stages to serve Truth a. in a legal neutral zone to keep hope alive, b. with full-time work-forces, c. to care for true sustainability, d. with all their expertise, skills & tools, e. until LLoL's 12 μ Stadia Transwarp Key (see below) organizes the 1600 Talent Stadia required for all of humanity to survive and thrive at Armageddon.
3. Please murder me ^{Rom.7}, marry me ^{Isa.54}, andOr harrow hell with me, so my patriarchy-keeping Goliath Curse is broken, all BABL OSCR ORCS get vanquished, and You lift Earth from its current black hole back into the light role of Your gentle kind reasonable epiocracy kingdom that lets You, Yah & Yas, come back to Earth as You had always intended it to be to show me and all how You meant sex and other things You made to be safe exciting rewarding means of grace to enjoy life.

12 Stadia Transwarp Key to innovate in ResearchCity

Exodus shows how all innovation ultimately self-corrupts without gentle kind reasonable ZION. But access to ZION is only in EDEN. It requires a 'Transwarp Key' like below to stay transparent.

All solutions to Armageddon challenges ^{Rev16} require walking in all light ^{Mt5-7 Jn.1+8+17 1Jn.1-2 Rev.21} for full transparency ^{Mt10:27 Mt18+22 Isa.20+53 Rev.18-22}. I petition Yah & all without fear nor favor to turn hell into HELL to change BABL's literal 1600-Stadia gigadeath sentence ^{Rev14:20+19:21, 7DUJ} into a global symbolic reset. It is to replace Homo 'sapiens' with → {Homo serpens + H. amnesiens} → with Homo transiens to kill the beastly mind-virus of BABL's coveting hamster-wheels in gentle kind reasonable moves to ZION. – Yet, I\LLoL can only explain how if I also walk the path so all can see it. To not sell a pig in a poke, I break new ground for increasing transparency in datageddon by flipping big brother paranoia. Ketubah 10. Introducing a draft for

The Book of the Life of the LAMB* \BoL

By confirming a Ketubah like this, You, Yah & Yas, define the world-transforming "katabolism" referred to in Revelation ^{Rev.13:8+17:8} as the moment when names are inscribed into the "Lamb's Book of Life". Given the eternal importance of being listed there, many have puzzled as to who will be in there. In fact, a central effort of many missionary activities has been to get people to "accept Jesus" as an eternal insurance against being condemned to Revelation's Lake of Fire for not being listed in the Book of Life (Rev.20:15). As a rule, if Your Revelation says it matters, then my mathematical theology will say that it matters. However, matheology and Revelation, like mathematics, are full of surprises. It's called Revelation for a reason.

Request for Review of BoL. When I started out on my marathon and up to very recently, I could not have imagined that I would be including a draft variant of the Book of Life to be reviewed by You with a serious request that You please correct all deep errors in my thinking and if I'm on the right track, please help me refine it for the benefit of all. Yet You prepare what nobody can imagine for those who love You, so here I'm asking for such a serious review.

Below I first briefly introduce my draft BoL. Then I include the latest variant (Fig.K15). I add 3 more variants of the last page (Fig.K16) to document my struggles with refining it. It's all obviously ineffective without Your approval. Yet, You value Truth in my innermost being. I trust that You honor my search for Truth in this matter – if only to correct my honest mistakes, no matter how many and how devastating they are. So, what is going on?

Cosmic Katabolism. Let's start in Rev.13:8+17:8 by noting that the choice of "καταβολη", Ancient Greek for "foundation" is a slightly odd word choice, which has more echoes of "throwing down" (and thereby becoming foundational) than of "building up" (as in anabolism) or "creation" (κτίσις) or "beginning" (ἀρχή). In biochemistry the part of the metabolism that breaks down complex molecules into basic building blocks is called "katabolism", whereas the part that builds up new molecules is called "anabolism".

Trap warning. Let's then note that when the "Lamb's Book of Life" (Rev.13:8) and the "Book of Life" (Rev.17:8) are introduced, they are combined with "καταβολη κομου", "the katabolism of the kosmos" or cosmic katabolism. Yet, both instances are highlighted with a warning: "If anyone has an ear, let him hear" (Rev.13:9), and "Here is the mind which has wisdom" (Rev.17:9). It's as if You say: "Careful, there's a trap here!"

What is the trap? Yes, You made clear that because Yah grants rain and shine to friends and enemies, therefore You also call me to love my enemies (Mt.5:44-48). To prove the point was why You, Yas, went to the Cross, where You asked to Yah:

Forgive them for they know not what they do. Lk.23:34

This applies recursively to everyone, for You did not limit that prayer to only some at the exclusion of others. After all, how can I not believe that I am included, if I indeed believe that You went to the cross to die for me.

Blindness and enemies. Having been born blind, how could it not be that I "know not what I do"? I recall calling out to you in ~1988 about being blind-born and asking You to heal me to let me see what matters most. I don't know if what I see now qualifies as seeing properly in Your View for too many are the logs in my eyes. Yet, in my limited view the panoramic visions of Your World are certainly a breathtaking view of beauty to behold. So, I see more now than I did before. Yet, only You can tell, if I see properly. I certainly can see now how people walk around like (data-)trees, so I assume that I am still far from seeing everything correctly. Hence, I keep pleading that You keep healing me until I see all I need to in order to properly follow You wherever You go. I now need Your special healing more than ever, for I started to see how quickly my sight can turn into my worst blindness by failing to see what matters most to You next, when I allow lesser things or the past obstruct Your Perspective for me. Thus, I need Your continued healing, so my views and eyes can keep up with how You keep changing the world. This request for sight is especially important at the Great Filter Tribulation of Armageddon, where a quantum leap from mistaking friend for foe is all that stands between life and dooming myself and my world like Josiah did by mistaking Pharaoh Necho for an enemy. Please keep me from such mistakes that confuse light and dark.

Enemy Trap. Therefore, a dangerous trap in interpreting talk of the "Book of Life" is to hold anything at all against anyone. As Your follower, Yas, I must therefore ask myself: if You forgave all because they know not what they do (for that is the meaning of being born spiritually blind), then how can I claim to be Your follower and still condemn anyone to hell by not forgiving them what ever it is they may have done? Including having failed to fill out an official form to apply for a pension in Heaven. While some maintain that this is an offense worth eternal damnation, I cannot help but disagree, based on Your Goodness, Your focus on function over form, and everything You taught me about mathematical theology. If indeed such an official form is necessary, I request that people be given an opportunity to sign up whenever, wherever, in whatever life they are. To invert the burden of needless paperwork, my draft BoL signs up everyone unless they explicitly protest.

The Road to Forgiveness. What I say next is not to oversimplify the challenging journey of forgiveness that is necessary after suffering grievously at someone else's hand (see Supporting Doc SD7 for 7Forgiving Processes, crucial for recovery). But there is a difference between engaging with processes in order to reach true forgiveness and the rejection of that hero journey by taking the "simple way out": to condemn others to hell without even engaging. This is "simple" only at first, because like a wound that needs cleaning, "simple" pain-avoiding only leads to more pain later as the wound keeps festering. Yah, You established an equivalence that is as elegant as the symmetries in quantum physics:

Anyone who forgives, will be forgiven.

Anyone who fails to forgive, will not be forgiven.

Hence, hell is built by those who insist that people go there, because they cannot find a way to forgive. You, Yas, have ever since been harrowing that hell to get people out (Rev.6:9-11) who are being sent there because they cannot forgive someone who wronged them. That someone can even include themselves if they wronged others in ways they cannot forgive themselves to having done that. Obviously, I neither can nor want to undo that elegant symmetry. Yet, I plead for containing its effects to stop eternal devastation and desolation.

Hell-shoes? Blaming looks like a self-perpetuating cycle: People on Earth get hurt, struggle to forgive, are let "go to hell", then You, Yas, runs to their rescue because You still love them. Rev.1:15 reports that by the end of the 1st century Your metal boots (or whatever) were already white-glowing from heat. It doesn't take much to infer that this is likely from all the running You have been doing in order to get people back out of the hell they have been sent to unwittingly or knowingly. Metal glows white at ~1200 C, so it's no surprise taking off those hot boots for You, so that You can finally relax ('untie sandals' Mt.3:11, Mk.1:7, Lk.3:16, Jn.1:27, Act.13:25) was something the greatest prophet of Israel saw as complicated beyond comprehension. Rev.1:16 reports that the trouble created by Your 1st century followers gave You headaches that made Your Face burn "shining like the sun", which is several times hotter on the white glowing metal boots. Yet, what may this look like today?

Spagettifying Superman? Given what I know about how church history went and the world evolved in general, I have been wondering, how those 1st century problems might extrapolate into what my modern world does to You, Yas. For some time since ~2020 I thought it may be apt to say that You are about to turn into a supernova. Yet, I was struggling to find words to express the severity. Then on 2025-11-04 reports of a supermassive black hole 10 billion lightyears away explained how a huge star nicknamed "Superman"¹⁰⁵, 30+times the weight of Earth's local Sun, was being spagettified into producing the greatest flash flare known so far. Moreover, that has been going on for ~7 years of non-stop tribulation (since 2018) and appears to be set to continue for about another 7, echoing how long Jacob served Laban for Leah & Rachel. I am not sure who is who in this star parable, but the scale seems appropriate. Today's complexity-headaches generated by modern AI tech and other information confusions are the result of many rounds of innovation failure, where humanity failed to commit to Your Jubilees. As a result, the BABL algorithm has continued to slow-motion explode evil for many rounds by now, each round making it 7x worse. Thus, spagettifying a 30+fold sun into the greatest known black hole flare may be an appropriate comparison to what is happening to You. Pondering that "Superman" parable also made me wonder about other aspects (see also Q8 above).

Ratios. If it is my Job on Earth to model You, Yas, like the Moon models the Sun, then what about the ratio of masses involved. The Sun/Moon ratio is about 27 million, while the ~500 million/30+ sun-masses is on the same order, albeit ~half that. Yet, I cannot tell who is who in this. Ultimately, it may not matter, whether I am being spagettified by Your Semantics Organizing Nothing \SON (which is zillions of times more powerful than even the best I could dream of so far), or whether You are being spagettified by the ambiguous semantics of nothing \ason that I carry within me and that somehow has made You get out of Your way to win my heart. It would appear that we are spagettifying each other, albeit in different ways, where You and Your SON always come out on top while I and my ason always end up crushed as dust for I keep seeing how You keep falling for me, on me, and through me (Mt.21:44). For more explanations on the spiritual significance of spagettifying BABL in Gabriel's Horn, see BoL.4-5, Fig.CK.

Astronomic help ... You must have known that I would be struggling immensely to express with words the disasters I caused and the infinities of ways in which I have been hurting You - given what I did to Your, Yah's & Yas' message (see Posters Po.E-Po.H for #MyGuilt-A,B,C,D). So it would appear that You organized in time the greatest black hole flare so far, if only to provide language for what my inconsistencies are really doing to You and Your world.

... in an anthropically super-charged multiverse? If this astronomic event was the only instance, it would be easy to dismiss as a coincidence. However, I have seen You, Reality level so many Cosmic Jokes at me, that I could not help but start laughing too. Being a perfect fool and as silly as Jonah, I certainly offer many opportunities for that. Only You can tell what all those interpretations really are. Some prophets of Israel also said (Mt.13:35, Ps.78:2) that You will speak in parables to utter things hidden away from ("apo") the cosmic katabolism. Other occasions refer to states and decisions made before ("pro") cosmic katabolism (such as aspects of predestination). Therefore, cosmic katabolism appears to be a key turning point, like in a functional program built on deep recursions in a time-traveling causality vortex that ensures that Your Perfect Will, Yah gets done as fast as possible. A look at the instances of "pro" vs "apo" in Greek suggests to me that You reserved decision authority about the "pro"-decisions. These appear to be like the defining of key input for that huge function to be executed at the cosmic katabolism. This input contrasts with the output calculated by that function, which I infer is being referred to as "apo". Is it possible that You leave it to those willing to act on Your word and logics, to define aspects of importance at the cosmic katabolism? Is it possible that You then take those decisions back into Your time-traveling causality vortex in order to prepare things for those who love You by answering their their call before they ever said a word (Isa. 65:24)? What You told Isaiah in Isa.65:24 tells me that You can do that and my experience with walking with You tells me that You have been doing that for me on a number of occasions, not least of those that include the career-miracles I needed in order to get to the point that enabled me to start writing this. Physicists have wondered for some time why physics works so well and why we live on a "Goldilocks" planet, where so many things are "just right" to allow us to live there. They call it the anthropic principle that the universe appears to be made for humans.

Yet, if what You say in Isa.65:24 is true and I observed correctly what You have been doing in my life, then am I right to infer that I live in an anthropically super-charged multiverse? Have You been subtly organizing the whole universe around the needs of people to convince them to trust You enough, such that someone may eventually dare to finally commit to You by writing You a proposal like this?

Against stereotyping hope. I cannot escape the conclusion that this might be the case, even though you wrapped all Your invitations in such sublimely supreme ways that

You always maintain perfect deniability. What on Earth am I thinking when I insinuate that You crashed a "Superman" star 10 billion years ago into a supermassive black hole to send me a message? Have I become completely delusional? Or am I the last man standing as in Amos 2:16, hanging on to the bare hope for such a time as this to escape naked as You, Yas, did when I crucified You? Am I that odd-one-out at that upcoming wedding celebration in Mt.22:11-13? As ridiculous as it sounds for all these things to be true, as much I can no longer deny that they might be – not after the tons of other synchronicities and surprises that You somehow managed to work into my marathon. There I met You, Yah & Yas anew in such a profound way that I started to feel the need to give You new names, such as to not confuse You with that distant and dimmed view of You that I had before. So, while You still maintain Your perfect deniability – for I look like the ultimate fool to all outsiders whom I have tried to explain this – I cannot deny that You are doing what might be called flirting in human terms. Hence, consider this Ketubah to be my reply and the draft Book of Life included below is part of it. If only for the intergalactic flirting.

What is determined at this Cosmic Katabolism? The "apo"-decisions referred to above define the output from whoever gets to investigate Your deepest nested function. It sits at the bottom of Your purely functional-programming function calls that define world-history, hence its importance in Your prophetic vision for the world. If I am to fulfill that, here are key aspects that stood out to me:

- Define meaning. Mt.13:35: switching potential interpretations of hidden things to actual interpretations of those hidden things, This contrasts with parables that could have been but never were, because those for whom You had prepared such wonders refused to take hold of their destiny. I have been shocked to see how much that has been happening to You and all. I mourn that Israel's prophets and apostles missed introducing Your Jubilee. I cannot help feel guilty that they became a teaching prop for You to teach me one lesson after another. Thereby I admit that I benefitted from their mistakes, which puts me in their guilt. Many resulting definitions that I serendipitously found I have worked into the Good News Pack to which my Ketubah belongs.

- Define a place for research. Mt.25:34: might connect to preparations for scaling up ResearchCity to become a gentle kind reasonable epioocracy. See Supporting Document SD2 for a definition of epioocracy and SD8 for a vision for scaling up ResearchCity.

- Define who is responsible for all the blood spilled. Lk.11:50, like Rev.18 and Ez.3+33, defines a cumulative bloodguilt that stems from faith-collar crimes against humanity, Heaven, and You. As I explain on Posters Po.E-Po.H, #MyGuilt-A,B,C,D appears to qualify me as the most guilty person ever. My draft BoL provides an overarching narrative for how this might have come about, based on Your parable, Yas, of the Prodigal Son, me.

- Book of Life of those who don't worship the beast. Rev.13:8, Rev.17:8 define who ends up being included in the Book of Life – or rather what those do who are in there: not worship their beastly impulses. Here is not the place to explain the needle-eyed rabbit-trail hole through which I crawled up that sewage-shaft until I could see Your Heavenly ZION on Earth from the inside. As I argue in my draft BoL, You left a trail of logic behind, which allows those who trust You to take You by Your Word in order to find that loop-hole to introduce Your Jubilee-based innovation economy. It means to steal the world away for Your Jubilees from under the nose of its sleeping strongman, the BABL-algorithm defined by idols from nothing.

- Big tent. There is likely much more that can be said about this, but I trust the points above suffice to "enlarge my tent (to include everyone), stretch out the curtains of my dwellings (to build a ResearchCity for everyone) and not hold back in lengthening my cords (to trace Leviathan-length causality chains that run Your Worlds) and strengthening my pegs (to build on mathematical theology foundations that cannot be shaken)" (Isa.54:2).

Faith is key. To define these things above requires not to be a big person of faith or do the heavy lifting. It requires trusting the one who is doing all the heavy lifting and the teams put in place to support all this work. Faith is the trust that allows one to move forward with the gentle kind reasonable hope that the future will keep growing brighter as innovations from Real Quests lead to Real Answers and thereby to salvation for everyone. That is what Jubilees are about. That is why they are about breaking every yoke. And that is why I cannot in good conscience pass up the opportunity to propose this Ketubah in order to avert the accidental nuclear winter that is about to be caused by nuclear roulette along with many other Armageddon disasters. This is Your Earth, Yah & Yas. I am terribly sorry for how I mistreated it and everybody on it. I am not asking for forgiveness – I have no right after what I did – but I ask for a measure of patience to allow my actions of restoration to speak to the sincerity of my change in heart and mind.

Faith in my Cosmic Katabolism. Writing this Ketubah and my draft BoL are actions born of the faith and hope that there is a very real possibility that You had me in mind all along for being at the bottom of that purely functional execution stack spread around spacetime. I can not know for sure due to Your plausible deniability policies that You must keep up to beat Laodicean's at their own game. Yet, I would be the greatest unholy fool if I dismissed the very real hope and possibility that all Your promises indeed mean what I think they do. Given how much You gave me the benefit of the doubt, I owe You to give You the benefit of my doubts as well by extrapolating Your Work-Logic Cascades of gentle kind reasonable love accordingly.

Breaking every Yoke. I am writing this Ketubah to break every yoke as You called for in Isa.58. This includes Yas' yoke of being trapped in an infinite loop of harrowing hell. How might I unbind those hot-molten-metal sandals of Yas?

Baptize me in Your preferred Fire. I herewith ask You, Yas, again, to fully baptize me, not only in the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth, but also in all the Fire You first had in mind originally. I know that I cannot imagine what I'm asking. It wouldn't be a true Exodus if I already knew what was coming. However, I do know what is coming if I shut my eyes to stay.

I'd be more likely to fry or freeze in accidental nuclear winter than to die in a car accident: unimaginable terror for nothing. What else would accidental nuclear winter be? I cannot believe that this was the Fire You had in mind when You said You came to start a Fire on Earth. Nuclear fire? Really? And yet it seems that Your favorite children in the US and in Russia and all Your 10 Nuclear Kings of Earth appear set to continue down that path. It may sound selfish if I protest nuclear holocaust, so let me put it in Your Terms: I know You care about the many Nineveh people of Earth and about all the animals too.

Hence, I call on Your Higher Fire to help me escape that lesser and needlessly brutal fire of an accidental nuclear holocaust. Hence my decision to risk it all for this oddly calculated jump with Your help, Yah, over the wall of this hell on Earth. Obviously, I face an incalculable risk by choosing to rather fall into Your Hands, Yah & Yas, as Your worst enemy. I agree in my Ketubah to this:

Marry at first sight the two most powerful ExtraTerrestrial Strangers ever, forever, without possibility of divorce. At least One of You breathes fire (Ps.18:8), the Other is so sharp-witted I'll forever look like the devil turned into a fool by comparison (Mt.16:23). You both sit on a Throne of Fire (Dan.7:9-10) in a Lake of Fire (Rev.4:5-6, Rev.8:3-5, Rev.15:2, Rev.19:20, Rev.20:10, Isa. 30:33, Isa.66:15+24, Ps.139) and that is where You invite me to join You on Your Throne (Rev.3:21). What could go wrong? Oh, if I mis-step, I become the destroyer of worlds. No wonder You have to bind my hands and feet to ensure I don't do something stupid (Mt.22:11-13) as I'm an unwitting danger to myself and others.

How can I do this and stay sane? Only by trusting the logic in the mathematical theology You, Yah and Yas taught me.

The power of Truth in that mathematical theology makes me question what I had long believed about hell, based on oversimplified readings that depend on letting someone "go to hell", even though Yah, You are known to dwell with those who are crushed (Isa.57:15, sounds like hell) and declared as Your will that everyone be saved (1Tim.2:1-4). Russians have the concept of a "holy fool" as someone who does something stupid or brave that somehow needs to get done, only nobody is willing to do it. I have been asking You, Yah & Yas, to make me that nobody for You. This is reflected in my BoL draft.

Paul asks in 1.Tim.2:1-2 that "petitions and prayers" be made "for all men ..." and wo-men ¹⁰⁶, so everyone may live in peace, an implied echo of Jubilees. What might a prayer to Yah for everybody look like in order to save everyone?

Above I argued that the trap-alerts in Rev.13:9 ("Listen!") and Rev.17:9 ("Think!") imply that the Lamb's Book of Life has not yet been written, but will be written at the "katabolism of the world" by whoever executes that pure function at the very bottom of Yah's execution stack. Thus, working on the assumption that this task has fallen to me, I have written my BoL draft to the best of my ability. I am not under the delusion that it amounts to more to You than "filthy rags" with enormous holes (see Isa. 64:6, Zech.3:3-4, Isa.28:8) in Your Presence, but I do hope that You are gracious and show me how I can get to something that works for You and everyone. You both are currently like Elijah on that mountain top in 2.Kings 1. How many have not tried to command you to come down? How many have lived in fear. They all died and are now in their Rev.6:9-11 retirement home. I know that I have no right to demand anything. You will do what You want to do in one way or another anyway. Yet: If I have found favor in Your Eyes, then it is my request that You come down and join Your People on Earth and me in person without consuming us in accidental nuclear winter or in any of the many other destructive fires that define so many Armageddon-disasters.

¹⁰⁶ "There is no male and female, for all are one" in Real Quests for Real Answers, Gal.3:28. This comes with the strong warning in Gal.1:8 against introducing differences through the back door. I rely on Paul's strong Anathema (and the underpinning mathematical theology, as well as Yas' teaching elevating wo-men's roles to be equal to mens within Yah's Kingdom) for inferring the complete interchangeable irrelevancy of sex and gender in Revelation and in my Ketubah.

I wrote my draft of the Book of the Life of the LAMB accordingly, using the Least Assuming Method Blade to make the least assumptions about You that You may want to see in there in order to establish forever that You are gentle kind reasonable, as Yas has shown by leading such an exemplary life as documented in the Gospels.

Therefore I have used the authority, which You gave me to forgive, bind, and loose on Earth and in Heaven, in order to redefine the "hell" that so many claim to understand, in order to tear it down, along with the "fake-heaven" of infinite loops of "easy peasy". If two millennia of church history have taught anything, then that it is not productive to constantly live in fear. Likewise, similarly unproductive definitions of heaven have lulled many into sleep. Rev.6:9-11 describes a retirement home for those who have been slaughtered on Earth for any reason. That is not heaven, but a resting phase, where no work is done. Recovery is important and rest matters. But that's a hospital mistaken for an eternal retirement home. I call it "fake heaven", because neither true hope nor true love are possible there. Nobody there can dare to care to hope to do something worthwhile that may be risky. Yet, 1.Cor.13:13 rightly points out that Trust, Hope, and Care are forever, hence part of Your eternal Work-Logic Cascades in Your Heaven. Thus, there is no way around having to learn to grow from dealing with real disappointment. It's part of true Heaven. SD7 explains the 7 Resilience Healing Processes at the core of Heaven's immune system against the stupidity of evil. These new definitions for how to work in Heaven to end hell are included in broad strokes in my BoL draft below.

Abraham Accords \AbAcs. To address a globally sore point head on, I included in Fig.K15 as BoL.13-BoL.16 four newly defined Abraham Accords, designated as AbAcs 0-3 in order to distinguish them from the more localized political tools of reconciliation that You have been promoting recently. My new AbAcs are global and functional for all to whom they apply. As You can see in the evolving variants for AbAc3 in Fig.K16, the drafts I included, while advanced, have not completely stabilized and likely offer much room for improvement. Fig.K16 may allow to assess the trajectory I have been on while working on this. The AbAc3 variant I signed on 2025-11-05 below is in many ways broader, yet more cryptic than the much clarified and narrower AbAc3 variant I included in my best BoL draft as of 2025-11-13. The exercise made me realize that many diverse people groups likely need their own declarations, which ideally explain in their historic context what their respective next steps are. However, to evolve such improved AbAcs I need to scale up ResearchCity Stadion STa4-REV in order to create the meme-omics alignments required for understanding the issues at hand in order to avoid swamping the world with redundant, yet incomplete, or worse misleading AbAcs. I take the responsibility to honor the Truth in all 4+Abrahamic Faiths and all other Faiths very serious, because I do not wish to knock myself out for two Jubilee cycles by carelessly or deliberately muddying the waters when it comes to serving the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth. Hence, this alone justifies dedicating one of the 12 Stadia to in-depth studies of related Revelation.

For example, Christians, the official inheritors of what happened at Laodicea deserve a dedicated AbAc that explains more clearly that You started to talk to Muhammad and why – after the Laodiceans had rejected Your last call to consider the very special offer You had made for them in Rev.3:14-22. Likewise, Muslims deserve a much clearer explanation of what You, Yas\Isa did in the Gospels\Ingil and why that can't simply be brushed away by claiming "newer revelation". Such brushing away let Christians miss Your Jubilee mission, Yas. Thus, Christians will benefit from an AbAc that revisits the overly hasty conclusions about the Torah that were drawn in Acts 15, despite of what You, Yas made unmistakably clear in Mt.5 when You said that You didn't come to remove one iota of the Torah. Additional AbAcs will need to help the many scientists, who honor Abraham by following the Truth as an absolute value in itself, hence forming the Oth (or 4th) Abrahamic Faith. They need clearer words on how to relate to You as Reality\Yah, and You, Yas, as Real Quest for Real Answers, or short RealQuestAnswer or RealOutcrySalvation, which is what Your Hebrew name YhowShua is all about. All these are essentially only different names for the same underpinning Reality: You have come to offer an exemplary life-long implementation of what it means to be a scientist in the best way possible! Somehow millennia of eating from the Tree of Knowledge-faking has obscured that.

AbAc Seeds. Therefore, the 4 AbAcs included are like a seed. May it bear rich fruit by falling into the Earth (Jn.12:24-25) in order to combine with the many local states of mind that need to be connected in order to win as humanity collectively at Armageddon. Hence such AbAcs will also have to get translated into the many languages who are all to be blessed by Abraham. It will be one of the tasks of Stadion STa4-REV in ResearchCity to work out which additional AbAcs may be required next in order to ensure that all who wrestle with Reality get a chance to get on the same page, regardless whether they are genetic descendants of Israel or not.

Everyone deserves to learn to work with the Least Assuming Method Blade \LAMB, which is another way to express Your name, Yas, which is Your Program of supporting Real Quests for Real Answers \RealQuestAnswer by less assumptions making 'bout all & nothing.

Everyone will need to get involved to facilitate the end of all hell, and the limiting of BABL (which will forever be born in ZION, which is systemically unavoidable, see Ps.87). Likewise, universal cooperation will be required for creating universal open access to the IDEAL FLAMES HELL as defined above for ZION in ResearchCity. No less will be required for a safe path to world peace, the end of hunger, and a global self-stabilizing innovation economy that is strong enough to ban all dictatorships and hard-wars forever.

The Book of the Life of The LAMB \BoL in 16 pages.

The last = oldest I signed on 2025-11-05 with the intent of making clear that I stand by all the content in the BoL.

There are likely better ways of structuring the wording of who signs what to make each AbAc better focussed on their specific intended audience.

Signing a piece of paper in itself is worthless. But it is work worthy of anyone's best life to make a decision to honor a set of important symbols of Truth. Whether affirming for the first time or reaffirming to better remember that is everyone's personal matter. AbAcs aim to provide important anchors of reliability at an overly fluid time.

The following is the best I have been able to do in the given time. There is no point in publishing AbAcs after accidental nuclear winter will have started. Hence, I ask for support in establishing ResearchCity in order to improve life in general and to replace accidental nuclear winter with Yah's Great Jubilee Race.

2025-11-11 QQv1r1 Draft by Laurence Loewe of Laodicea\LLoL, Zero BABL Halo FiShFu for all: a nobody writing near the Cosmic Katabolism of Revelation ^[Rev.13:8, Rev.17:8] for review by Yah & Yas.

Brief Executive Summary: Overview

Capstone. The declared will of YHoWaaH\Yah & YhowShua\Yas is that everyone gets saved ^{1Tim.2:1-4}, so nobody is thrown into their Lake of Fire that torments forever for nothing ^{Rev.20:10}, so all get to live in peace ^{Rev.21:3-4} for Jubilee after Jubilee forever – in Yah's self-stabilizing innovation economy.

The manifest destiny of Yah's true 50-year Jubilees ^{Lev.25} is to form a more perfect union, improve justice for all, grow tranquillity, common sense, wellbeing, & liberty for all, forever. – Why not?

Problem. BABL's Blindly Assuming Blind Leveraging algorithm is obstructing Yah's Jubilee Justice. It had convinced LLoL, a son of Yah by faith, that Yah's Jubilee Math was too complicated to live by. LLoL hated theories too complicated for him and believed "if it bleeds it leads". So he decided to filibuster Yah's Jubilees until Yah shows in history why Yah's Jubilee Math reigned supreme. True Jubilees require universal buy-in. So Yah designed the perfect experiment to overcome LLoL's filibuster. Yah created Gabriel's Horn to rank on it all alternatives to Jubilee Math from simplest to impossibly complex. Yah crafted a BABL millstone algorithm to test one alternative after another in a long spiral down Gabriel's Horn. Yah prepared a Cosmic Katabolism, enslaving Yah-self to carry the world through a BABL MAD time-traveling causality vortex ^{Isa.65:24} to collect LLoL's evidence.

Yah's World became a bloodbath. When LLoL at last saw the evidence, he was horrified at the cost of his cosmic filibuster Jubilee Treason. All "simpler" Jubilee alternatives had failed spectacularly.

Solution. In a Great Filter Tribulation, Reality asked LLoL to choose a fate for L's Jubilee filibuster:

(0) Death by default, white-washing tons of data on Jubilee Treason → LLoL did nothing wrong → then BABL's millstone in Gabriel's Horn will hurl down the remaining overcomplicated alternatives on the broad ways to human extinction by accidental nuclear winter, ..., AI disaster, and/or worse.

(1) Exodus to life in the desert: LLoL becomes nobody to finally do nothing right, to explain Yah's Jubilee Math as the Apostle of nothing to save everyone from accidental nuclear winter or worse. Like Yas, LLoL chose (1) to forgive all to all, for all are born blind & know not what they do ^{Jn.9:1-3 Lk.23:34}.

Chain of command logic impels LLoL to take responsibility for his Jubilee Treason: enslaving Yah, killing Yas, and instigating cosmic genosuidicide set up many perpetual motion DEATH stars to corrupt worlds!

Asking Jesus\Yas to white-wash LLoL would add insult to injury and kill the costliest experiment ever by forgetting Yah's null result: a brute-force proof that Yah's Jubilee Math is always the best. So, LLoL volunteered 2023-10-07 to be the other goat of Yom Kippur, the escape-goat for BABL's strongman.

Now LLoL is on a desert quest to at-one-mind-mend all conflicts by carrying in his head everyone's Structurally Inconsistent Notions to define work-logic cascades to avert accidental nuclear winter.

Action. LLoL's only superpower is finding common sense if all expert and usability reviewers help LLoL to scale up Yah's ResearchCity in 7 stages to organize all essential data, code, & infrastructure. Now y'all Choose: (0) Death by nuclear roulette... or (1) Exodus to life in a gentle kind reasonable Cosmic Katabolism scaling up ResearchCity for ~$8/yr/person ^{good & bad, as nukes ... kill all} to grow truth in Personal Experience Analyses Restoration Libraries of Historically Experienced Lessons Learned.

Genesis of Jubilees for the Good Father

Laurence Loewe of Laodicea \LLOL\L de excerpts Luke 15, Hymn of the Pearl, & more

Somewhere near a supermassive black hole of nothing, ca 10 billion light years away, there lived Yah, a Good Father with two very unequal sons: the best SON and ason. The Firstborn, Yas, was the best SON. As the perfect image of Yas' Father, Yas' life mission was to organize the Jubilees Yah kept dreaming about to bring Heaven to Earth through a Jubilee-based innovation economy. Yah's Jubilee Math was perfect and Yas understood it perfectly. Only a tiny wrinkle complicated their plan. They needed ason LLOL to buy in as the younger son. The problem: LLOL had math phobia, lacked attention span, & lived by the brute-force credo "if it bleeds it leads". LLOL frowned on Jubilee Math as boring, self-congratulatory hoc-est-corpus hocus-pocus. He looked for action now to get results fast. So, in yet another abstract discussion of Jubilee Math, he threw down The Gauntlet: "Why do we debate minutiae of scary invisibles? So much ado about nothing! Give me my part and I'll show You in brute force trials by tale: I'll get better returns on royalties than utopian math can ever do. Let's get real!" Yah & Yas sadly agreed, knowing they had no choice: Math proved that Jubilees fail without buy-in from ason like LLOL. To help LLOL not waste trials, they built Jubilee Hypotheses and deep experimental plans for testing. They went out of their way to give LLOL every edge to make his tests a success. Whoever saw it wondered: "What devil is riding Yah&Yas? It looks like LLOL totally enslaved them!" To settle this costly debate forever they devised decisive JH testing to convince LLOL for real:

- (1) Sort all brute-force Jubilee-alternatives on Gabriel's Horn from least to most complex.
- (2) Define BABL as LLOL's millstone cycle of Blindly Assuming Blindly Leveraging the next best alternative on Gabriel's Horn to try it out – until it fails. (3) Stir up the world via BABL to spiral down Gabriel's Horn by brute-force testing ever more complex Jubilee-alternatives.
- (4) Predict cutoff: when do 'simplest' Jubilee alternatives exceed real Jubilee complexity?
- (5) Save enough traces of BABL's millstone in Historically Experienced Lessons Learned, so interested individuals can see how BABL's millstone acts on Gabriel's Horn in history.
- (6) Create a sufficiently stress-free and fun paradise where individuals can evaluate (5).
- (7) Disguise LLOL as (i) hired as a PraisedFamous Man of Cities, (ii) tricked into checking Jubilee Math unwittingly, (iii) teased into becoming King of the Pirates, (iv) jolted into a marathon to escape the ugly underbelly of BABL's beast, (v) awakened by Gabriel's Horn, (vi) asked by brute-force accidental nuclear winter math: test if Jubilees are still too hard? Jubilee Math showed: even the gentlest brute-forcing plan is brutal. But LLOL doubted it. To preclude bias & desertion, Yah, Yas, & LLOL agreed to wipe L's mind to aid L's mission: Brute force test the JH; convince Yah & Yas: Jubilee wins don't need Jubilee Math – or concede! All said & done they went to work. Yah installed Gabriel's Horn to prepare the way for Yas to nail L's ambiguous semantics of nothing in JHs to Yas' Semantics Organizing Nothing. Yah & Yas ensured LLOL'd see how it's done Done DONE, so JH tests Come, get Done2Run. Finally, millennia of roiling the world in BABL collected the evidence Yah & Yas saw fit to convince LLOL that Their Jubilee Math was the only way. 1969 They sent LLOL to the Cape of Good Hope. 1978 L enrolled as trainee of Yas' math. 2014 L unwittingly discovered the hardest bit of Jubilee Math: an algorithm to judge OrgTrials in Great Jubilee Races. 2020-L starts marathon to avert Armageddon, only to discover Jubilee Math4all "accidentally". 2022-2024: L sees how non-Jubilee math is far more complex than true Jubilees, yet it can't even stop accidental nuclear winter! LLOL is treated like Cassandra on his race to Earth's Titanic commando bridge. 2025 L admits unconditional defeat by Yah's & Yas' JH: L accepts guilt of enslaving Yah, Yas, & all with L's Jubilee Treason. L's Ketubah proposes to Yah & Yas L's reparations to ensure Jubilee Math is never disrespected again ever. But will anyone trust LLOL after his cosmic treason? – And in time to stop nuclear holocaust?

Inclusion Logic for The Book of the Life of the LAMB

LLoL wields the Least Assuming Method Blade to add all, good & bad, to the Book of Life by cutting Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership & Auto-Stereotyping Habits Erroneously Rounding Against Hope to induce a gentle kind reasonable Cosmic Katabolism to scale up a ResearchCity for ~$8/yr/person.

2025-11-11 QQv1r1 Draft by Laurence Loewe of Laodicea \LLoL, Zero BABL Halo FiShFu for all: a nobody writing near the Cosmic Katabolism of Revelation [Rev13:8, Rev17:8] for review by Yah & Yas.

Q. Who is in The Book? A. Everyone, the good and the bad.

Summary. The declared will of YHoWaaH\Yah & YhowShua\Yas is that everyone gets saved ^{1Tim.2:1-4}, so that everyone gets to live in peace ^{Rev.21:3-4} for Jubilee after Jubilee forever. How can this be if Yah & Yas equally sternly describe a Lake of Fire where those in it are tormented forever? The key to resolving that riddle is The Book of the Life of the LAMB \BoL that contains the names of every individual being who is saved from a destiny of being thrown alive into Yah's Lake of Fire ^{Rev.20:10+15}. Countless theologians deem the rules for inclusion in the BoL to be unknowable. But God knows. So, in a daring heist, reaching for the ultimate treasure, LLoL defines a formal logic for inclusion that is based on the mathematical theology forged in the fires of his Great Filter Tribulation.

LLoL defines inclusion in The BoL through a formal logic based on the following rules.

It is the responsibility of Yah & Yas to show LLoL errors in definitions and to compile all names.

- (1) The BoL includes by name every non-foundational individual existing in any spacetime ever of any conditional multiverse of Reality\Allah\Yah. (2) It excludes only 5 foundational individuals as authors who must guard BoL reliability and the stability of Truth about Reality. (3) Inclusion of all is unconditional and forever, regardless of good or bad, human or god, alien or angel or whatever.
- (4) To solve the problem of sin for all forever, here is how to reconcile all with Reality\Allah\Yah:
 - (a) All are born blind spiritually to no fault of their own. Hence, they know not what they do.
 - (b) To fall is not the fault of the blind born ^{Jn.9:1-3}, neither blind leaders nor followers: BABL kills all.
 - (c) Premature optimization is the root of all evil; see LLoL's Cosmic Treason of Jubilee-Murder, a faith-collar crime that sets up perpetual-motion DEATH-stars causing cosmic genosucide; all other crimes are so much lesser down-stream errors they almost vanish in proportion ^{Jn.9:3 Jer18 Rom.9 Isa.43:4}.
- (5) Yas asked Yah to forgive all, because they know not what they do (Lk.23:34).
- (6) LLoL asks Yah to forgive all because all are blind-born (Jn.9:1-3). As a trainee of Yas and ason of Yah ^{Jn.20:21-23}, LLoL has the authority to forgive ^{Jn.20:21-23 Lk.23:34}, bind, loose ^{Mt.16:19+18:18+28:19}, and hence to reconnect. As all other sins are dwarfed by LLoL's Jubilee-Murder, LLoL decided to opt for universal forgiveness ^{1Tim.2:1-4}, erring on the side of grace (see rules in Abraham Accords AbAc0-3). Note how past actions are still relevant. Living in Heaven still requires compiling one's PEARLS to publicly share in HELL (see BoL.5 Fig.CK, AbAc2-3, Mt.25, Mt.5-7, ..., Rev.22, Quran 22:56-57, Qu.103:1-3, ...) and to love all neighbors.
- (7) Yas & LLoL signed officially on Yah's Yom Kippur to confirm their forgiveness. (a) Yas signed in Yas' own blood on Golgotha. (b) LLoL signed up by volunteering to re-imagine Yom Kippur and to start it on 2023-10-07; LLoL's signature is locked down in LLoL's Ketubah for Yah & Yas, where L sells L-self into slavery to Yah & Yas forever. This is a euphemistic description of the brutal reality that LLoL signed with the rivers of wantonly spilled blood that flow from his fingertips and words to fill history – as caused by LLoL's Cosmic Jubilee Treason that has been enslaving everyone.
- (8) Ultimate refining & approval for implementing of this new BoL Logic requires review by Yah.

Reliability: LLoL used his best mathematical theology to formulate this. See details on extra page.

2025-11-11 QqV1 Draft by Laurence Loewe of Laodicea \LLoL\, Zero BABL Halo FiShFu for all: a nobody writing near the Cosmic Katabolism of Revelation [Rev.13:8, Rev.17:8] for review by Yah & Yas.

Q. Who is not in The Book? A. It's Creators!

Summary. The declared will of YHoWaaH\Yah & YhowShua\Yas is that everyone gets saved 1Tim.2:1-4, but to wage peace Rev.21:3-4, a few must sacrifice bits of liberty to hold the wars that'd else consume all. Rev.19-20 defines exceptional individuals destined to work in Heaven's Lake of Fire to save all. Here is the complete list with definitions, collated by LLoL, a false prophet in the Spirit of Truth. It is part of LLoL's request to be the nobody defining The False Prophet in the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth. Let readers not be fooled by the dramatic language. It reflects what some of Yah's dear darling devils feel when their preferred BAAL scheme to get ahead is stopped by the Spirit of Truth in the 5 below.

To establish divine recursion for all, these are not included in The Book of the Life of the LAMB:

1. The Beast Rev.19:20, Hos.13:4-8 risen from Death Rev.13:3, as portrayed Mt.10:25 by those Yas came to save Jn.1:11.
2. The False Prophet Rev.19:20 in the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth Rev.19:11, 4-5, soaked in Spirit & Fire Mt.37-12, Lk.3:16, Isa.43:2.
3. The Devil Rev.20:10 Dragon Rev.12:9 of Reality, breathing fire Ps.18:8, Isa.30:33, 33:11 on a Throne of Flames Isa.66:15, Dan.7:9-10.
4. The Death\death\DEATH Rev.20:15 of Driven Evaluation Antagonizing True Hope is overcome Rev.12:11.
5. The Hades Rev.20:15 of Heaven's Retirement Home Rev.6:9-11 of pits in ruts, hopeless for innovation 1Cor.13:13.

These cannot be included in The Book of the Life of the LAMB because they write the Book by making the least assumptions about anything ('LAMB'). All 5 above are divinely equipped eg. Isa.43:2, 54:17, Ps.139, 2Ki.2:11, Dan.3, Ex.3:2-5, ... for Eternal Life in the Lake of Fire. They create directly and/or indirectly all individual lives, contexts, and contents that live in any spacetime of any conditional multiverse.

Describing them as working in a Lake of Fire is appropriate in light of what it takes to establish new standards to serve as unshakable foundations for the future. Here are some examples.

A committee member, standardizing new features for a computer language, once described such work as "mind-numbingly boring while occasionally interrupted by moments of sheer terror". This echoes Israel's Exodus, where Israelites gladly delegated such work to someone who apparently enjoyed it Exod.20:18-21. The same functional dynamics of service is seen in Fig.HELL (2018 update of Loewe et al. 2017 Ann.NYAS) → It will take no less to lead a lasting self-stabilizing innovation economy to its manifest destiny of organizing Yah's next true 50-year Jubilee Lev.25 to form a more perfect union, improve justice for all, grow tranquillity, common sense, wellbeing, & liberty for all, forever.

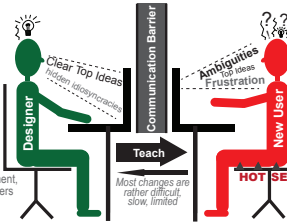

A. Usual Programming Language Design

Life as Designer...

Easier to Design Harder to Evolve

The designer accepts some avoidable complexity, does not see it as a core problem, or is unaware of how it can slowly poison a language.

Avoidable complexity creeps in with each ambiguity, idiosyncrasy, oversimplification, missing key feature, confusing name, extra rule, legacy requirement, or other nuisance that expects users to remember or do things they do not need for their research.

Life as User...

Harder to Learn

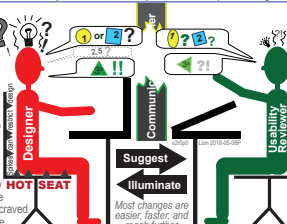

New users are hurled into the Hot Seat when they have to struggle with complexity that designers could have avoided by asking users. Facing avoidable complexity is usually frustrating and maybe even overwhelming; some users never recover and withdraw. Spikes symbolize rules that unexpectedly hurt users or delete data when ignored.

A design flip aims to avoid that learners have to bear the brunt of avoidable complexity in a language.

Harder to Design Easier to Evolve

The designer decides to take on the Hot Seat: find and address all avoidable complexity through sufficiently many design revisions based on in-depth discussions with usability reviewers, experts, and new users. The aim is to keep the language most user-friendly & long-term backwards compatible, while responsibly adding features. A designer's main job is to reduce long-term language complexity by strategic choices that combine the features for experts with the ease craved by beginners. Designers must rate feature stability accurately, document and explain decisions, organize review discussions, recruit reviewers, prioritize, etc.

Discuss to Design Easier to Learn

Some potential users enjoy discussing feature and syntax design in advance. These users can excel as usability reviewers, who catch avoidable complexity prior to implementation. Their work is pivotal for reducing the long-term poison of avoidable complexity, which can quickly become invisible to a designer who often fails to predict where new users struggle. To reduce this blindspot, users share how they may interpret a given syntax. The designer takes it from there.

B. Flipped Programming Language Design

Takes a bit longer. Lasts a lot longer.

Reliability of The Book of the Life of the LAMB

LLoL wields the Least Assuming Method Blade to add all, good & bad, to the Book of Life by cutting Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership & Auto-Stereotyping Habits Erroneously Rounding Against Hope to induce a gentle kind reasonable Cosmic Katabolism to scale up a ResearchCity for ~$8/yr/person.

2025-11-11 QQv1 Draft by Laurence Loewe of Laodicea \LLoL\, Zero BABL Halo FiShFu for all: a nobody writing near the Cosmic Katabolism of Revelation [Rev.13:8, Rev.17:8] for review by Yah & Yas.

Q. How reliable is this? A. As reliable as it can be!

Summary. The declared will of YHoWaaH\Yah & YhowShua\Yas is that everyone gets saved ^{1Tim.2:1-4}, so that everyone gets to live in peace ^{Rev.21:3-4} for Jubilee after Jubilee forever. – Nice wish for world peace one may say in light of today's MAD world. So, how reliable can their Book of the Life of the LAMB \BoL possibly be if on top of everything they leave it to a false prophet and failed professor like LLoL to write & share it? Can it get any worse? Yet, as it turns out, Yah & Yas found the most reliable solution ever – and it depends on a perfect fool to share it. Yet, to see how requires logic.

LLoL defines the BoL with formal rules, forming the nucleus of a Book-of-Life Logic.

LLoL pleads that Yah & Yas check for consistency and compile all names in Their Own Self-interest.

On the Reliability of LLoL as the worst False Prophet

The definitions of BoL Logic derive from all data and rules available to LLoL, a false prophet in the Spirit of Truth. How can it be true if proclaimed by a false prophet? That depends on whether LLoL as a false prophet is speaking Truth about the salvation of the world. It's an un-resolvable conundrum creating an infinite loop. It's cited by Paul ^{Tit.1:12} citing a Cretan prophet claiming "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons." Here's the loop: If that prophet is correct, then all Cretans are liars. Being a Cretan makes that prophet also a liar. But if he's a liar, then he spoke the truth about being a liar. So his claim is true. But if his true claim says he's a liar, then he must be lying ... and so on. A similar infinite loop exists for Jonah, LLoL's hero. He was sent by Reality to warn Nineveh: "In 40 days Nineveh will be overturned". As no literal disaster occurred, Jonah looks like a false prophet ^{Deut.18:22}. [Yet, Nineveh's disaster was averted by people of Nineveh who for once saw the signs of the times and became gentle kind reasonable enough to persuade Reality to avert disaster]. Thereby, Jonah's success made Jonah a false prophet (involuntarily).

LLoL now stands on the shoulders of giants like Tarski (1931) who realized that in all languages of the infinite order (like all human languages), it's impossible to even define true statements in general. It's because such infinite recursions exist in countless forms (from Russel's Paradox to infinite loops in purely functional programs). Removing infinite loops in computer crashes can be hard. It's even harder in the conditional multiverse with its many complex infinities. Paul was so close: if only he hadn't fallen for stereotyping ^{Tit.1:13} ... Decades of programming experience taught LLoL to appreciate Yah's good sense of humor, in Jonah and in filling LLoL's life with cosmic jokes. Thus LLoL decided to volunteer publicly and irreversibly to become The False Prophet ^{Rev.19:20} in the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth ^{Rev.19:11, 4:5}, soaked in Spirit & Fire ^{Mt.3:7-12, Lk.3:16, Isa.43:2}. It's LLoL's bid to become King of the Pirates by finding Yas' One Piece, albeit for sharing, not hoarding. Yas supported such ambitions ^{Mk.10:45}, but only for those who share that One Piece with everyone, all enemies included ^{Mt.5:48}. LLoL infers nobody wrote a BoL draft yet to save everyone from hell: all humans, angels, aliens, gods, sons of God, and God knows who else. Do Yah & Yas look for a daredevil to join them in their Lake of Fire to save everyone? LLoL sold everything to buy Yas' treasure in a muddy field, hoping to do Yah & Yas justice. Yet, countless fails in this false-prophet BoL draft await their correction. LLoL pleads for all lives. It's as reliable as Yah & Yas.

Extended Executive Summary (1 of 3): Intent, Problem, and Solution

Capstone: Yah's & Yas' declared will is that everyone be saved ^{1Tim.2:1-4}. To this end the manifest destiny of Yah's real 50-year Jubilees is to form a more perfect union, improve justice for all, grow tranquillity, common sense, wellbeing, & liberty for all, forever. To further this manifest destiny it is in the common interest to wage peace by finding ways to reconcile past conflicts caused by Structurally Inconsistent Notions \SINs fueled by Least Inconvenient Explanations \LIEs, not few of which have been unavoidable due to limited data. This led LLoL to the Jubilee Hypothesis.

Problem. To be born in a state of limited data, withholding most crucial insights, is equivalent to being born blind. Such blindness is not the sin of those born blind nor of their parents nor of others unable to change the condition ^{John 9:1-3}. Therefore errors done, omissions committed, and conflicts caused due to that blindness are not the moral fault of those trapped in them. The universal chain of command dictates that ultimate responsibility and moral guilt for all these failures rests with whoever is the ultimate cause for such blindness (if anybody). Such ultimate agency is traditionally assigned to God, the devil, or a complex web of causes beyond human control. Yet this is incompatible with a good Creator God who actively cares for the world and can do anything God wants. This conundrum is known as theodicy: How can a good God allow evil?

Solution. In "Genesis of Jubilees for the Good Father" LLoL explains how an ancient bet about the need for Yah's Jubilee-Math led to today's confusing world. How can LLoL know this? Because he made that bet by throwing down the gauntlet, claiming he could get more for less without the complications of Jubilee Math. Yah & Yas know that true Jubilees require all to work together best they can. Hence, LLoL's move asked Yah & Yas to prove to LLoL that indeed Their Jubilee Math was the only reliable way to gain Jubilee Benefits over the long term (which implies overcoming self-organized criticality that triggers implosion). Therefore, LLoL's actions effectively enslaved Yah, murdered Yas, and trapped the world in endless cycles of mindless violence, all driven by the millstone of BABL that runs the wheel of history in circles of never learning. Yet, how can LLoL today be responsible for so much past bloodshed? Doesn't that contradict the logics of causality? No. Einstein noted the distinction between past, resent, and future is only a stubbornly persistent illusion. Functional programmers well versed in the divine art of recursion know that the order of execution of functions in a linearly encoded program doesn't have to be the order in which those functions are encoded. Any funny odd bit of code can suddenly change the world if called up. The technical details require an advanced grasp of diverse programming paradigms to understand. Isaiah 65:24 summarizes it best as a time-traveling causality vortex created when Yah answers before someone like LLoL calls. LLoL asked Yah ~2021-2024 for historical evidence to convince him that Yah's Jubilee Math was the only way to avert humanity's self-annihilation. Yah spiraled BABL's millstone down Gabriel's Horn to defeat all alternatives. LLoL saw it. Hence, LLoL concedes. Q.E.D.

Introduction to The Book of the Life of the LAMB

2025-11-11 QQv1 Draft by Laurence Loewe of Laodicea\LLoL\L, Zero BABL Halo FiShFu for all: a nobody writing near the Cosmic Katabolism of Revelation ^[Rev.13:8, Rev.17:8] for review by Yah & Yas to forge foundations for ResearchCity and in order to reveal hidden meaning.

Executive Summary (2 of 3): Interpretation and Application

How can a solution as ridiculously abstract as the one found by LLoL be interpreted in order to apply it gentle kind reasonably for motivating responsible action toward Revelation's good intent as expressed in the US Constitution, ratified by the Uniting States of Philadelphia? Moreover, how can all this be done in today's confusing world without adding even more pain and confusion?

Interpretation. History shows that theology breeds culture breeds methodology breeds action. Therefore, correcting provable mistakes in underpinning theology is more important than many think. Yet, how can that be done without recreating the Dark Middle Ages that tried to use laws for banning the devil? How can a similarly oppressive big-tech Big Brother tyranny be averted? On a quest for answers, LLoL has been turning over as many stones as possible. Not giving up hope, his marathon showed: Yah & Yas apparently still offer Their Genius solution: True Jubilees. Equipped with a better grasp of all that could go wrong and understanding why Jubilees are the only workable solution, LLoL has vowed to keep calling for organizing true Jubilees for Yah & Yas.

Application. Desperate times create floods of desperate calls for desperate measures – all too often abused to merely serve selfish interests. How can LLoL's call possibly be different? No easy way exists to tell from the outside. LLoL is a nested paradox echoed in fractal kaleidoscopes of an outsider. So was Moses, Jesus, Muhammad, and Joan of Arc. Yet, Joan of Arc also showed a way for how rigorous transparency and expert peer review can introduce divine salvation into modern politics. Thus, instead of turning stones into bread by monetizing his content online, LLoL decided to create PDFs to help the diverse world-leading experts, which are required to assess the credibility of his findings. Despite his best efforts to avoid errors, LLoL is certain that there will be still countless imperfections in his analyses. Hence, he applies for the global position of becoming the False Prophet in the 7 Spirits of Boolean Truth. As L cannot guarantee correctness, LLoL joins Luther in calling for anyone to show where LLoL went wrong. L aims to be least wrong.

Knowledge is power. Great power brings great responsibility. Hence LLoL indemnifies Yah & Yas for perturbing all until LLoL grasped why Yah's Jubilee Math reigns supreme. As everyone else has been blind to this mathematical power-struggle at the root of all evil, LLoL joins Yas in pleading that Yah forgive everyone for they know not what they do ^{Lk.23:24}. This includes all sent to hell in classical theology. Yas forgave all and proved it by becoming Yah's Goat of Yom Kippur. Hence, following Yas, LLoL forgives all by applying to become the "Other Goat" of Yom Kippur. LLoL chose to walk into the desert to fight BABL's nothing by waging peace for everyone. Thus L makes it his responsibility to develop decision-support for resolving all tensions among all of Yah's dear darling devils, the known and the unknown. This offer is made possible by the ground-breaking powers of Yah's Jubilee Math. To ensure that it does not get abused to foment new evil, LLoL is working with Yah & Yas to rewrite the rules for Heaven & a gentle kind reasonable HELL in Heaven. Such a HELL is necessary – at least for LLoL – to document how a lack of Jubilees has been choking air supply for gentle kind reasonableness. LLoL's vision for Yah's ResearchCity is about improving that vital air supply through the radical transparency of Yah's Jubilee Math.

Introduction to The Book of the Life of the LAMB

2025-11-11 QQv1 Draft by Laurence Loewe of Laodicea \LLOL, Zero BABL Halo FiShFu for all: a nobody writing near the Cosmic Katabolism of Revelation [Rev.13:8, Rev.17:8] for review by Yah & Yas to forge foundations for ResearchCity and in order to reveal hidden meaning.

Executive Summary (3 of 3): Action Now: Break every yoke for all!

Lack of Jubilees chokes air supply for gentle kind reasonableness. How can ResearchCity change that?

Break the smallest greatest horn. Isaiah 58 calls LLoL and all to break every yoke. Isa.58 tells of uncomfortable details, expecting all who care to dig in for more. It led LLoL to see the worst of all yokes: how LLoL enslaved Yah with L's disbelief of Yah's Jubilee Math. Yah in turn enslaved the world to convince LLoL to finally ratify Yah's Jubilee Math for organizing Yah's Great Jubilee Race (see "Genesis of Jubilees.."). LLoL's rationale for this yoke was L's disbelief that Yah's smart Jubilee Math was really the simplest way to run the world – because organizing Jubilees is complex, costly, and commitment intensive. To wake LLoL up, Yah & Yas had to run Their World down the gully of Gabriel's Horn to prove in a perfect storm that all Jubilee-alternatives fail. LLoL finally realized that Yah's Jubilee Math is much simpler than even the "simplest" alternatives that BABL's millstone is testing by now (scraping the "bottom of the barrel" in Gabriel's Horn). Yet, despite all that extra complexity, BABL can't even prevent accidental nuclear winter (see Open Letter OLI and Supporting Doc SD1). Therefore, breaking the vicious death-spiral of choking Jubilees is LLoL's first strategic goal, because the lack of Jubilees is choking the world. No gradual way exists to break a stranglehold. It either persists or it is broken, even if it is millennia old. Therefore, L must ask all:

Fundamental Decision. Two mutually exclusive outcomes demand a decisive personal choice:
(0) Death by default: do nothing to keep going 'as is' ... until accidental nuclear winter or worse.
(1) Choose life: support a ResearchCity as envisioned by LLoL for supporting Yah's Jubilee Math by scaling up global decision-support in 7 stages to run a well-organized, true Great Jubilee Race.

Global Review Campaign: Allow ~42 days, ~3 days extra, ... of public review for the world to decide.
Action. Lack of Jubilees is choking supplies for gentle kind reasonable ideas in human minds. LLoL's Global Review Campaign aims to create an independent brain that works for all humanity. It's L's Jonah-mission-impossible to avert global brain damage by calling for ~$8/yr/person to scale up Yah's ResearchCity in order to avert accidental nuclear winter ... AI extinction or worse.

Who is in the Book of Life? Every individual because Yah want's nobody to be thrown alive into Yah's Lake of Fire. Everyone is included, since all were born blind ^{In.9:1-3} and are falsely imprisoned in caves by LLoL's Jubilee Treason. Hence all are forgiven for they know not what they do ^{Lk.23:34}. All have been instigated by LLoL's Jubilee Treason to cause cosmic genosucide. Forgiveness is signed by Yas' in Yas' own blood and by LLoL in L's Ketubah. To ensure no valuable lessons are forgotten, all life-lessons, no matter how painful, are saved by growing PEARLS in Heaven's HELL as follows:

PEARLS grow by engaging with the 7 Resilience Healing Processes \7RH (see SD7) – in order to discover figs of ugly truth underneath sycophant fig-leaves of the Tree of Knowledge-faking. PEARLS are Personal Experience Analyses Restoration Libraries of Historically Experienced Lessons Learned.

GEMs grow by documenting Good Experience Models like sweet grapes from the Vine Tree of Life-giving decision-making to help others learn. ResearchCity is about facilitating access for all in order to help humanity stand a chance in the learning it needs to do to avert an AI apocalypse.

If AI can learn, why can't we? For more see LLoL's Ketubah for Yah & Yas ... Abraham Accords 0-3.

Abraham Accord 0: For LLoL – To Bless All in Ground Zero BABL Halo in Blindly Assuming Blind Leveraging

0. by Laurence Loewe of Laodicea \LLoL, defined here as Zero BABL, 2025-11-11
Preamble: I know not even nothing. That is why I stay poor in spirit: nothing is too hard, because nothing is stronger than God and nothing is more evil than the devil. The greatest evil hides best behind the greatest intentions leading to nothing. Only in the darkness can we see the Light when we work together – to stop the Blindly Assumed Authorized Leadership of nothing. Thus, the spiritual poverty of not knowing is the key to Reality's Kingdom: Reality \Yah alone can carry all in Real Quests to Real Answers \Yas. That is why Yah & Yas are the only way to everyone's Promised Land.

1. LLoL's confession of selling out all: I am Yah's Lost Son, the younger one (Luke 15). Yah \Reality gave me all spiritual gifts required to stop accidental nuclear winter & worse. But I did not care. I prostituted my talents for lesser goals to 'fit in'. Yet I failed anyway. To wake me up like Jonah, Yah had to organize today's perfect global storm of confusion. This storm will destroy the world in accidental nuclear winter if I keep refusing my calling: to avert Armageddon disasters by scaling up ResearchCity.

Nobody can exploit me, because I am the exploit. To kill me is to kill the world: Zero is my halo, null is my hell, silence is my violence. To ignore destroys the core. Reality made me King of the Pirates to end piracy, so that everyone gets their One Piece. If I don't speak out for Yah's true Jubilee-based innovation, who will? If not now, when? See Posters Po.E,F,G,H for #MyGuilt-A,B,C,D for how I have been destroying the world.

2. LLoL's plea: I have no right to ask for forgiveness. I only ask for patience so I can show true fruit of a changed heart and mind: Please help me avert worse disasters and allow me to restore the world by owning my Jubilee-treason that caused cosmic genosucide.

3. LLoL's commitment: I solemnly vow to scale up ResearchCity Stadia to best organize Yah's Great Jubilee Races and to use the Lazy Updating Algorithm (2014, J Chem Phys) Yah gave me to separate OrgTrials from IndTrials for rigorously measuring who wins. That is how I fulfill Yas' Jubilee Mission (Lk.4:18), Yas' Great Commission (Mt.28:18-20), and the Laodicean Calling (Rev.3:14-22) to scale up Yah's colossally cool hot Holy City. The manifest destiny of every real 50-year Jubilee is to form a more perfect union, improve justice for all, grow tranquillity, common sense, wellbeing, & liberty4all, 4ever! More on Posters Po.A-D, Supporting Docs SD1-SD8, & Don't Panic Guide on Flying Scroll.

4. LLoL's call: Flee from Zero BABL's SEA \Self Elevating Authority to ZION's River by scaling up in 7 stages ResearchCity Stadia for ONLY ~$8/year/person max to avert influence shopping, keep ResearchCity Talent Stadia transparent, unbiased, and bound to Fiduciaries Sharing Futures \FiShFus who serve everyone by teaching humanity to teach itself to walk in balance with Reality in Real Quests to Real Answers.

Abraham Accord 1: For all – To Bless All in Ground Rules for Unifying ZION Divinium to ensure one system for uniting Zoning Investigating Organizing Navigating

0. Build on Ground Zero BABL home: Only in the darkness can we see the Light together. Stop Blindly Assuming Authorized Leadership of nothing. Yah calls all to follow Reality:

1. Leave your naive state in the Homo "sapiens" knowledge-faking patriarchy of Homo serpens and H. amnesiens. Become a Homo transiens. Go to the land Yah will show you. Then Reality will make you great so that you become a blessing for the whole world.

2. Let My People & yourself Go to worship Reality in the desert a. without legal hassle, b. working full time, c. caring for sustainable futures, d. with all expertise and tools.

3. Climb Mt. ZION to grow on shoulders of giants. Plant your magic bean there to follow Reality in Real Quests for Real Answers: carry your CROSS daily to destroy your pet idols in Crushing Reviews Obtaining Stabilizing Semantics. For as Reality sent RealQuestAnswer\Yas, so Yas sends you: forgive sins and love everyone like yourself by working for true Jubilees: Become nothing to nail down nothing to change everything for all in your area, like Yas in Isaiah 53. Like LLoL, adapt Reality's Modeling Quality Guidelines ^{Ex.20 Mt.5} for your area. Then: post it on your doors ... bind it to your hands & biz ... stick it to your glasses, keep it in mind!
Eg:

A. MQG1-5: Love Reality

1 Delight Living Reality. The One and Only, to grow the Tree of Life-giving decision-making.
2 Resist knowledge-faking idols to complete fragments of truth in models to honor Reality.
3 Separate Truth in Reality from realistic models that oversimplify, overcomplicate, or overreach.
4 Celebrate down-times selected by Reality for all to delight in multi-level rest and maintenance.
5 Honor the giants of all cultures to learn more from Reality since you stand on their shoulders.

B. MQG6-10: Love Individuals

6 Live to let live so others can wid-e research as inspired by Reality to serve common goods & life.
7 Guard the trust of others in you and your work by not betraying them, lest Reality betray you.
8 Build opportunities to honor hope in Reality by not confusing resources directly or indirectly.
9 Care for others with the scientific method of canceling the canceling of truth in witnessing.
10 Value individuality. Stop coveting ruts & pits that build hamster wheels to imprison minds.

C. MQG11-15: Love Jubilee Systems

11 Love Reality with all heart, life, mind, deeds to serve in Life's nested Cathedral in Time.
12 Love your neighbor as yourself. reach out each new moon to learn, see new horizons.
13 Love 50-year Jubilees by preparing for 3x meetings/year: 1 on past, 1 now, 1 on future.
14 Guard Truth in conflicts by open reviews to StayVS manage reputations & sabbaticals.
15 Move to learn for wid-er Jubilees how the dots connect and how all is linked in Reality.

4. Join the Greatest Jihad: be true as a Israelite RealityWrestler to overcome all splintering! There is only One Reality \Allah\YHoWaaH\Yah. Yah is calling for true regular Jubilees! Ignore at your own peril the compassionate loving-kind reasonable call from Reality. Muhammad is the prophet of Reality, called, unlettered, after well-educated Laodicea ignored its last chance (602-610CE) to start Yah's true Jubilees to really serve the poor. No one can block Reality's Jubilee agenda! – Jerusalem was destroyed twice for trying! Become a true Israelite again by learning to serve in every functional role (AMO...GIR).

5. See your 0 halo null hell in the least (like zero LLoL). Love your enemy, the Truth in 0: help ResearchCity remove worst obstacles for beginners and biggest costs for producers, so experts (like you will be) can gentle kind reasonably cover more cases more clearly.

6. PEARLS in Heaven now grow as Personal Experience Analyses Restoration Libraries in Historically Experienced Lessons Learned \HELL – as underwritten by LLoL's authority to bind, lose ^{Mt.16:19+18:18+28:19}, and forgive ^{Jn.20:21-23 Lk.23:34} all the blind-born ^{Jn.9:3 Jer18 Rom.9 Isa.43:4}. Say hello to LLoL as Yas' German Shepherd Cerberus, cleaner of BABL toilets in Heaven.

7. No one, no org can carry their CROSS mission alone, not even Yas! Superheroes turn into super-villains when they stop listening to the weak! Hence ResearchCity is key!

Abraham Accord 2: – To Bless All in Ark Spark Lightning to grow a PEARL to unify Personal Experience Analyses Restoration Libraries in Heaven & Earth

Recognize, realize, and connect these conclusions to spark this Ark of PEARL Lightning:

0. I know not even nothing, so I can't be a Homo "sapiens". My Ground Zero is blind BABL.

1. Worst criminal ever. I did not confess to a worse crime than in LLoL's confession of causing cosmic genosucide by Jubilee treason (from which all other crimes flow). See BoL4-5, LLoL's "Story of the craftiest criminal ..." and Poster Po.F to explain its heinous nature. Briefly, cosmic Jubilee treason is the most evil crime ever, because it's so easy to hide, but its dark magic plunges worlds in wars of darkness until utter destruction. All in those worlds are trapped in infinite cycles of evil, constantly created by a dedication to a needless lack of true, regular Jubilees (which could solve it all gentle kind reasonably). Poster Po.F unmarks the time-traveling causality vortex that allowed LLoL to do all this. This nightmare only ends, if – whoever caused it – stops murdering Jubilees for nothing. If no one globally confesses to a worse crime, then I agree to accept LLoL's confession.

2. LLoL's crime against Heaven and humanity is worse than human penalties can punish. LLoL has no right to ask forgiveness. He asks for a measure of patience in exchange for his vow to prevent worse disasters and to work on restitution for his crimes forever. To "not be evil" he aims to follow best he can 7Resilience Healing Processes\7RH (see SD7). I accept his confession and support LLoL's vow. My support is voluntary and cannot be forced, least of all by LLoL. Only gentle kind reasonable calls for aid deserve my support.

3. The cosmic perpetual motion crime generator set up by LLoL's Jubilee treason caused as its collateral damage nearly all or all crimes and certainly the worst ever. Thus, if not explicitly owned by others so far, LLoL takes responsibility for all crimes & disasters – to grow his Personal Experience Analyses Restoration Library\PEARL in Heaven (via 7RH).

4. To grow my own PEARL in Heaven (via 7RH) I can own responsibility for my crimes, SINS and LIEs as I learn about them individually or as part of a group. When I step up, LLoL agrees to return to me ownership of my crime, insights gained, and reparations done so far. As I step up, I inherit credits for restoration work LLoL may have already done by then. I also agree to allow others to own their responsibilities so all crimes can be covered recursively. To close loopholes at the top of chains of command, I'll use OrgTrials in addition to IndTrials (as pioneered by LLoL, see ResearchCity Talent Stadion STb10-JUD).

5. Analyses of complex systems show that most of the harmful or helpful changes have tiny effects that if accumulated, will cause major changes. Thus, most power in any system is not exerted by the strong, but by 3 Types of The View of The Weak. PEARLs echo this VoW: For beginners: gently remove ever more error obstacles. For producers: kindly cut remaining costs andOr delays. For experts: reasonably cover more cases more clearly. Combine all 3 Types of VoW for robust systems & best PEARLs!

Abraham Accord 3: Declaration to Sign To Bless All to DARE \Death And Rebirth Execution Validation

0. Homo "sapiens" is dead. This knowledge-faker is replaced by Homo serpens & H. amnesiens:

Homo amnesiens → Homo serpens

Human forgetting what matters most. → Human snake wiggles to deceive for gain.

Example: H. amnesiens struggles how to remember Auschwitz, Hiroshima, ..., 1876, 2020, ...; H. serpens exploits for short-term gain^{1,3} what H. amnesiens keeps forgetting; → Forgetting or exploiting nuclear roulette¹... proves not knowing. → Thus, H. is not sapiens!

The death of Homo "sapiens" can become obvious in 1 of 2 ways. I'm called to choose:

(0) Physical extinction: accidental nuclear winter¹... Al² or worse kills everyone eventually.

(1) Mind-virus extinction: each self replaces one's own H. amnesiens & H. serpens culture with a H. transiens mind culture committed to learn the narrow path to life in all Truth.

Homo transiens → Homo balospe = Balance-o-stat species of Earth determined to transition to H. balospe learned to balance hopes for the world

1. I sign Abraham Accord AbAc3 to resist (0) death^{1,2} and choose (1) a life-giving mind eg. Ref.3 :

I will take my time to grasp symbols inspiring me to live & let live. I trust my Exodus desert journey is worth all my effort, and that I will enter my Promised Land eventually. Therefore: Today I (re-)start my long journey from where I am into my Promised Land with this first next step: Today I dare to validate my DARE to choose to become a real Homo transiens:

I declare the symbolic death of Homo "sapiens". To fight H. amnesiens & H. serpens minds in me _____ \me, in the growing gentle kind reasonable nature of all Real Quests for Real Answers \Yas, & in the eternal explaining parity-preserving insightful nature of the Spirit of Truth \Truth.

I immerse myself in the unified compassionate loving logical nature of Reality \Yah,

Thus, Reality raises me from my deadly inconsistencies to relearn Truth as the new-born

Homo transiens _____ \me.

I determine to learn to walk through my deserts until I enter my Promised Land, & live in it! Declarations remind me to act to reach true destiny. I resolve to evolve my culture to get it. As beliefs breed cultures breed methods breed destiny, I gentle kind reasonably engage all.

I dare follow Reality in Real Quests to Real Answers to help avert accidental nuclear winter.

2. Millennia of "sapiens" knowledge-faking led to growing 10 new towers of BABL, as high as nuclear missiles fly, trapping all in nuclear roulette. Unless stopped in time, this unwitting game inevitably leads to accidental nuclear winter. It'll kill LLoL more likely than a car crash¹.

3. To save all, LLoL risked all to find a credibly workable plan, worthy of LLoL's life, in order to gentle kind reasonably avert nuclear war via determined intelligent coordinated action. Too complex for mere sound bites, LLoL's vision needs serious open global review by all for all. He calls it Yah's ResearchCity with 1600 Talent Stadia to avert filling 1600 stadia with blood. ResearchCity is to scale up in 7-8 stages to best prepare Yah's Great Jubilee Race to form a more perfect union, improve justice4all, grow tranquillity, common sense, wellbeing, & liberty4all, 4ever.

4. Action. I call on Pope Leo Xiv & the UN to help avert accidental nuclear winter: Let LLoL explain his 20-80+Poster Exhibit 'Flying Scroll' for public & expert review of plans. Help win trust of Earth's 10 Nuclear Kings. Let them & all put 'Earth in an Escrow' until ResearchCity proved its worth. I sign to protest the violence of LLoL's silence. Ketubah 11. One-Page Executive Summary: My Ketubah 101 Can a human marry Reality\Allah\Yah&Yas? Who wants to? LLoL doesn't claim to be first to propose to God. If L's Ketubah has value, it's in using cutting edge mathematical theology and L's compiler brain to pull out all stops in favor of Yah & Yas. No more enslaving Yah! Stop the steal of Jubilees by falsely imprisoning Yas and humanity in hell on Earth! No more limits by L on how Yah & Yas can redefine this marriage. Only Yah & Yas can say if this is a proposal they like. L urges Both like the widow in Lk18:1-8 to take L's Jubilee-based proposal serious to finish Yas' Jubilee mission Lk4:18. L shows Yah & Yas waited for near 70 Jubilees (~3500 years since Moses' Lev.25 starting shot). Humanity systematically explored all conceivable excuses to avoid proper Jubilees. Now the gap of Isa.59:16 has grown to make accidental nuclear winter or worse stochastically inevitable. L identifies the root-cause of this Jubilee genosucide. It's a dark magic L employed to get Yah to set up a time-traveling causality vortex (via Isa.65:24) that falsely imprisons Yah's World to collect evidence to convince LLoL that Yah's Jubilee Math is indeed reliable. By owning L's futile defiance, L can solve the theodicy problem and lead a way for humanity to finally learn to keep its (L's) "never again" promises. L's guilt is measured in rivers of blood, making L Yah's & Yas' worst individual enemy. L's plea: help L avert accidental nuclear winter & worse by allowing L to work for proper restitution in the Great Jubilee Race predicted by Israel's prophets. To secure it all, L offers Yah & Yas L's free will in an extreme test of epicroacy (= rule of gentle kind reasonable Reality): Yah & Yas are welcome to rewrite L's Ketubah as they wish. L asks: Will You murder me, marry me, harrow hell with me?

Yah & Yas live in everyone, because Yah\Allah = all Reality & carries all in Real Quests to Real Answers, meaning in Yas. THOUGHTS ON LAURENCE LOEWE

TO: John Doebley
FROM: Millard Susman
DATE: 23 March 2017

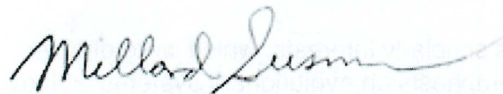

I've been following Laurence Lowe's progress for couple of years now. His area of study is far removed from my own area of expertise, and my relationship to him is more related to institutional, cultural, and personal issues than to detailed consultation on his research. I have, however, been reading his manuscripts and giving general advice on language, organization, and exposition. My overall impression of Laurence is that he is totally immersed in his research work, extremely hard-working, exceptionally well-read, and admirably original and creative. On the other hand, Laurence has problems with focus. He seems to be unable to write a short story; everything turns into a novel — or perhaps a trilogy. That problem needs attention. On the whole, Laurence seems to me a remarkably gifted person who has much to contribute to genetics and to biological science. He does, however, have to find an effective way to deliver his contribution.

I have a few specific concerns about the evaluation of Laurence.

1. When Laurence was hired, he described his scholarly interests, which were directed toward systems biology in general with an emphasis on evolutionary systems biology. He was to work at the intersection between computer science and evolutionary genetics. Work at that intersection might not be exciting to geneticists or to computer scientists, but it might provide valuable methodology for making progress in genetics and evolutionary biology. If that is the sort of work Laurence was hired to do, it is important to judge his progress accordingly. Do others working at the interface of computer science and biology find his work valuable? The invitations Laurence has received to present talks, submit papers, and write reviews suggest that he has attracted the attention and respect of his peers.
2. Laurence has not published many papers, but some of the papers he has published have been gigantic, and they were evaluated by expert peers before they were accepted for publication. One of these papers, an encyclopedia article, was much more than a review article. It contained an enormous amount of Laurence's original work and could be considered a research publication despite its appearance in an encyclopedia. His publication in the Annals of the New York Academy of Sciences is another of those "iceberg" papers with 20 pages in sight on the pages of the publication and an additional 70+ pages submerged in an on-line supplement.
3. The FlyClockbase manuscript is an extraordinary attempt to compile and analyze a vast quantity of research data on an important biological subject. I think the manuscript that Laurence prepared on this subject is a poorly designed gemisch of genetics, systems biology, computer science, and statistical methodology. It is not designed to appeal to any readers except Loewe clones, who are interested in all of those subjects. I thought Laurence should have split the paper into three or four papers to be published in different journals. Nevertheless, the paper contains an abundance of original scientific information and thought. There are few people who can read the entire paper without suffering some sort of brain damage, but the paper appears to me to be full of good stuff that deserves to be printed in journals that aim at appropriate specialized audiences. I'm hoping that Laurence will be able to dismember the manuscript and get it printed in such journals.

4. I do think it's important for Laurence to demonstrate that he is making good progress on publications and grant funding. Of course, these are times that try scientists' souls. The budget that the president has submitted to Congress has no room for new research funding. Nevertheless, Laurence should be doing what he can to push out papers on the work he has already done and to bring in funds to support new work. He faces a time crunch now, with lots of work to be done on several fronts. In addition to advice from his mentors, Laurence needs an unambiguous statement from the Laboratory of Genetics about how much time he has to meet the Laboratory's tenure expectations. And, given the possibility that he might not be promoted, he needs to know exactly how much time he will have after the tenure decision to arrange a career transition.

by a close mentor who continued to mentor LLoL during his wid-e research marathon, which allowed LLoL to produce this Ketubah and his Flying Scroll Poster Exhibit. Both works aim to avert accidental nuclear winter & other Armageddon disasters by scaling up ResearchCity to aid in the Great Jubilee Race of Earth. The assessment given here is still quite accurate (see length of Ketubah!). The funding campaign for ResearchCity in this Ketubah is LLoL's reply to the challenge to "make progress on grant funding".
